Letters From and Items Concerning Yale Boys Who are in the Service of Their Country

Somewhere in France, Sept. 14, 1918.

James Menzies.

Dear Sir:—

Just a few lines to let you know that I am over here, well and happy and crazy to see the Expressor.

I am now settled in a small village in central France, and expect to be here most of the winter, although for my part I would rather be on the front.

I suppose your son is over here by this time. I may run across him some time. I met Wm. Shaw in Le Have, France and it sure seemed good to see someone from home.

Will close for this time, from

Farewell Gathering

Last Friday evening about twenty-five of the members of Speaker Church of Christ gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Irving where a very pleasant evening was spent in social chat and entertainment. A fine lunch was served after which the host and hostess were presented with a beautiful silver bread plate. Mr. and Mrs. Irving are moving to Crosswell where they intend making their future home.

Below we publish a letter from the Speaker Church of Christ:

To Mr. and Mrs. Irving:

Dear Friends:—
We are once more reminded of how true the lines are; the outward ties that friendship bind, so soon to break away. But yet within our hearts there live the thoughts that never decay. Hearts that live and beat in unison may be likened to taking a pleasant journey, or the continued enjoyment of sunshine. We hardly appreciate what we have enjoyed until the disaster overtakes us, or the storm breaks forth.

During the past years our association with you in social life and in church work, has been of the most pleasant nature. Now that the parting of the ways has come, we feel more fully what we enjoyed in the past, though we shall sing the same hymns, we shall surely miss your sweet voices and your genial spirit.

Now that you are about to leave for a new home, in testimony of our appreciation of you both we ask you to kindly accept this piece of silver, not that it at all measures our esteem for you, but it will be a tangible tie binding the past with the future, praying that He who has brightened our lives by your friendship may continue to bless your pathway until the beclouded light shall give way to the brightness of His glory.

OBITUARY.

Be still prepared for death and death of life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

The passing away of Mrs. Mary M. Bowles at Harper hospital, Detroit, on Saturday, October 12th, 1918, at 12:30 o'clock a. m., caused a feeling of gloom and sadness in Yale, where her home had been for many years, and where, in her walk in life she had been a much respected and familiar figure and endeared to many friends.

Mrs. Bowles was a remarkably broad minded and strong minded woman, intellectual and well educated. She was a business woman, dealing in real estate, conveying work and insurance, having her office in Yale for many years. She was well versed in all branches of her work and enjoyed it. She was a member of the Eastern Star and of the Gleasons, and a faithful adherent of the Presbyterian church and a Bible student.

She kept her own counsel in regard to her failing health, and few knew of her entering the hospital for the removal of a tumorous growth which had cost her many days of severe pain. The operation was very successful and the patient seemed well inclined toward complete recovery when an explicable change suddenly came and she passed away.

The body was brought to her home in Yale on Saturday evening and funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. with Rev. Simpson, of Crosswell, officiating, and attended by the members of the O. E. S. in a body, and a large number of friends. Elmwood cemetery was the final resting place.

Mary M. Lutz was born in Caister, Ont., July 11, 1853, and was married to Alfred A. Bowles, of Almont, Mich., at Brockway Centre, on January 11, 1882, by J. B. Oliver, pastor of the M. E. church. In 1885 they moved to Turner, Manistee Co., where Mr. Bowles died, and Mrs. Bowles returned to Yale in 1888. Three children were born to this couple, Florence Edith, who died at the age of twenty-one; Charles, who is a lawyer, living in Detroit with offices at 1625-30 Dime Bank Bldg., and Alice H., who died in infancy.

The one son, one sister, Mrs. Orsen Rath, of Yale, two brothers, Fred Lutz, of Yale, and Austin Lutz, of Port Huron, are all that are left of the immediate family to mourn the loss of a loving, affectionate woman.

James L. Reddichffe, a pioneer resident of Speaker township, but for the past few years living in the city of Yale, died very suddenly at his home Saturday morning, Oct. 12, 1918. Cause of death was heart failure. He had been in poor health for about a year, but was able to be around, and was down town the day before his death.

Deceased was born in Canada April 14, 1849, and came to Michigan when a young man.

He leaves to mourn a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Hilton Rapley.

The funeral was held from the home Monday afternoon, Rev. Merrill, of the M. E. church officiating, and interment in Elmwood cemetery.

The five-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford King died at the home of his parents in Brockway township on Saturday evening last. The funeral was held from the Disciple church, Yale Monday morning, conducted by Eld. Leland Marion. Interment was made in Elmwood cemetery.

Instantly Killed.

Word reached Yale last Friday afternoon that T. D. Nichols, a former professor at the Yale canning factory, had been accidentally killed that day at Stratroy, Ont., where he has been located since leaving Yale, a few years ago. It seems that he and another man were fixing up a conveyor in the factory, and it fell on him. Death was instantaneous. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon at 2:30.

A widow and one son are left to mourn the loss of husband and father. Mr. Nichols made many friends during his residence in Yale, all of whom regret to learn of his untimely death.

ANOTHER GOLD STAR

Fred W. Hyde, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hyde Succumbs to Pneumonia at Great Lakes Naval Station

For the third time since our nation was plunged into the terrible world war word has reached Yale that one of "our" boys has made the great sacrifice and given up his life for the cause of Democracy, and the third golden star is placed upon the community service flag.

In last week's Expressor we noted that Wm. Hyde had been called again to Great Lakes on account of the serious illness of his son Fred, who was at the training camp at that place. Mr. Hyde left at once and from reports received up to Monday night it was hoped that he would recover, but a telegram reached here Tuesday that he had passed away.

Fred W. Hyde, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hyde, one mile north of this city, was born June 15th, 1900. His entire life was spent in this vicinity and he was well known and highly respected. On the 19th day of last July he answered his country's call, enlisting in the navy at Detroit. On Aug. 16th he received orders to report for duty. Was sent to Great Lakes Naval Training Station, being assigned to Naval Hospital Unit 32 North.

Four weeks ago last Saturday he was stricken with Spanish influenza which developed into pneumonia with the above results.

The body is being brought to Yale, accompanied by two officers from Great Lakes and will be laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery.

Fred will be greatly missed by the young people, more especially those of the M. P. church, among whom he was a general favorite.

The entire community extends to the family its deepest sympathy in this, their hour of grief, and can only assure them that the time will come, after the pangs of parting have passed away, they can proudly say, "he was one of the lads who went."

M. P. Church Notes

F. L. Crandall, Pastor

Next Sabbath morning our pastor will use for his subject "Doctrine of the Heavenly Hosts" in continuation of his series of sermons on Bible doctrines. For evening the subject will be "Saints in wrong places."

Our hearts are filled with grief and regret at this time, as we learn of the passing of our young Christian friend and co-worker, Fred Hyde, at Great Lakes, Ill. We cannot see why this should be, but some time when this narrow earthly vision is changed and the Divine reigns supreme, we shall know and understand. Our Father surely has something greater and better in store for our than earth could give. Though we see as through a veil darkly, help us, our Father to say as we bow in our grief and sorrow, "thy will be done."

The Aid and prayer service for the week are lifted.

MORE RAILROAD NEWS

Messrs. Abbott, Beamer & Tate, promoters and builders of the Detroit, Armada & Northern R. R. are bound to build the road. They have had pretty uphill business on account of the war rulings and other matters but they are made of the right kind of stuff and are not going to lay down until their object is reached, that of building the Detroit, Armada & Northern Railroad.—Armada Times-Graphic.

CLOCKS TURN BACK ONE HOUR ON OCTOBER 27

On Sunday, October 27, at 2 a. m. all clocks will be set back an hour, in accordance with the federal regulations governing Central Standard time. On Sunday, March 31, 1918, all clocks were ordered set ahead until the last of October, when they would be turned back. This is in order to get more daylight.

The National Shock Absorber Again

People have been asking us how the Federal Reserve System acts as a shock absorber.

In the past, whenever a shock came the banks felt it first. Most of our 29,000 banks started to strengthen themselves and stopped loaning money, which slowed up business all along the line. We have strengthened ourselves in advance by joining the Federal Reserve System, and when trouble comes can confidently go ahead with our usual business, knowing that the great resources of this System are at our back.

If you are not getting this protection as one of our depositors, drop in and talk it over with us.
