PUT MATTER TO THE TEST

Maid's Practical Demonstration That Her Employer Was Wrong in Statement She Had Made.

"Jealousy," said Dr. Mary Dorgan Lockwood in a lecture on domestic science in Chicago—"jealousy is a horrible thing."

"It isn't only lovers that get jealous. Let me tell you a story. "I once had a capable cook and an incapable parlor maid. My husband rushed into my study one morning and said:

"Grab your medicine case and come quickly. The cook's hair is all burned off."

"Gracious! How did it happen?" "Jealousy," said my husband. "The parlor maid overheard you say last night that she couldn't hold a candle to the cook."

"Well?" "Well, she did!"

Like Lightning.

"Pop!" "Yes, my son."

"Do you know why they call those things lightning bugs?" "Because they never seem to strike twice in the same place is my guess, my boy."

You may have noticed that multitudes of friends come to visit those who live on Easy street.

ALL RIGHT FOR HIM TO SIGN

Mail Carrier Need Not Have Worried as to the Responsibility of His Questioner.

The mail carrier had a registered letter among the many he was delivering to one of the big business institutions of the city. The manager was not in his usual place, and the stenographer was temporarily out of her chair. A man sitting in a room adjacent spoke up: "Can I do anything for you?"

"I don't know whether you can or not," said Uncle Sam's man; "I have a registered letter here and somebody has to sign for it."

"Well, I guess I can sign for it."

"I don't know whether you can or not. I don't know you."

"Well, I'm 'r around here," and he reached for the letter.

When the mail man looked at the signature he noticed it was signed whom he recognized as the sole owner of the big institution.

WILSON SPECIAL IN "BAD LANDS"

Leaves Bismarck for the West Late in the Afternoon.

BIG DAY FOR A LITTLE CITY

Twenty Thousand North Dakota Farmers Gather to See the Chief Magistrate—Johnson, Borah and McCormick Hit at President.

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 11.—If North Dakota wants a League of Nations it gave no tangible evidence of the fact to President Wilson here. Fresh from an enthusiastic greeting at both St. Paul and Minneapolis he rode full tilt against the hard-headed, sun-browned farmers of the great Northwest, and found them hostile to the thing that is nearest his heart.

This little town boasts of a population of 7,000 and it is estimated that at least 20,000 persons had come in for the big event of the year, the president's visit. They were glad to see him, to be sure, but all told this day in North Dakota was the frostiest one of the trip, and this despite the fact that a radiant sun warmed the body and settled a haze of heat upon the foothills along the Missouri.

The crowd was curious to see the president. It clapped its hands and shouted loudly when he rode in sight. But then, it was glad to see "old Bill Brown," for instance, who was driving the second car in the procession.

Introduced by Governor.

The president was introduced by Gov. Lynn J. Frazier, the Nonpartisan executive of the state, and Governor Frazier wasted no words in performing this duty. What he said in brief was something like this:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: This is a great occasion for us. The president is going to talk on some topics of national interest. We're glad to hear him."

The governor, it is almost unnecessary to say, is against the league in its present form, as is the Nonpartisan league, and as a majority of the farmers of this state profess that political creed they are against it. They think the president is pretty much of a "one-man" proposition. Out here where the communal spirit is strong that goes against his grain.

Only once, it seemed, did the president try to warm up to his audience. He asked the men where they would sell their wheat if America was cut off from the rest of the world. At no time did he mention the name of Senator McCumber.

After the meeting the president was driven to the country club, which stands on the crest of a hill overlooking the now sluggish waters and mud flats of the Missouri.

During the late afternoon the special entered the "Bad Lands" country, and the president and Mrs. Wilson, from the observation platform of their car, were interested spectators of what nature can do when she has a tantrum.

Johnson Hits Back.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson attacked President Wilson, the League of Nations and the allied powers in a violent talk before the Hamilton club here. It was Wilson, the senator exclaimed, who had done the "contemptible quitting" in abandoning the ideals that he and the Americans behind him stood for. It was Wilson also who had done all the quitting on the questions of self-determination, open covenants openly arrived at, and world democracy.

"For every idealistic principle enunciated by Wilson in 1917, there is an American grave in France today, with old school diplomats walking over it, winking at each other and laughing at America," said the senator.

He went on to accuse the allies of having played false to their aims, or at least to the aims which America brought into the war. Foch and Clemenceau, Lloyd George and the various "those four or five foreign gentlemen."

"The peace treaty," he said, "is designed to divide the spoil and booty of the war among the four great powers of Europe and Asia. We get none other than the secret councils" of Paris, he referred to as of the booty. And we want none. The league is a covenant which guarantees that this booty will remain in the possession of the despoilers. It is not our duty to underwrite something which is entirely un-American and entirely unjust."

In the evening Senators Johnson, Borah and McCormick spoke to a large audience at the Auditorium theater.

Dead Air and Disease.

Dr. Leonard Hill, whose experiments a few years ago proved to the world that it is not impure air but still, humid, dead air that induces disease, delivered recently a lecture on infant mortality before the Royal Society of Arts. In this he said that babies died from being too much clothed as well as from being improperly fed. They should not be kept too warm or too quiet, but should be allowed at times to be quite naked and should be played with just to give them exercise.

A SUMMER COLD

A cold in the summer time, as everybody knows, is the hardest kind of a cold to get rid of. The best and quickest way is to go to bed and stay there if you can, with a bottle of "Boschee's Syrup" handy to insure a good night's rest, free from coughing, with easy expectoration in the morning.

But if you can't stay in bed you must keep out of draughts, avoid sudden changes, eat sparingly of simple food and take occasional doses of Boschee's Syrup, which you can buy at any store where medicine is sold, a safe and efficient remedy, made in America for more than fifty years. Keep it handy.—Adv.

HAD TO GIVE UP

Was Almost Frantic With the Pain and Suffering of Kidney Complaint. Doan's Made Her Well.

Mrs. Lydia Shuster, 1838 Margaret St., Frankford, Pa., says: "A cold started my kidney trouble. My back began to ache and got sore and lame. My joints and ankles became swollen and painful and I felt as if needles were sticking into them. I finally had to give up and went from bad to worse."

"My kidneys didn't act right and the secretions were scanty and distressing. I had awful dizzy spells when everything before me turned black; one time I couldn't see. Mr. Shuster for twenty minutes. Awful pains in my head set me almost frantic and I was so nervous, I couldn't stand the least noise. How I suffered! Often I didn't care whether I lived or died."

"I couldn't sleep on account of the terrible pains in my back and head. Nothing seemed to do me a bit of good until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. I could soon see they were helping me; the backache stopped, my kidneys were regulated and I no longer had any dizzy spells or rheumatic pains. I still take Doan's occasionally and they keep my kidneys in good health."
