

Michigan Happenings

Albion—The Albion school board has established a minimum salary of $1,000 for grade and $1,200 for high school teachers.

Saginaw—It has been announced that the General Motors intend to spend an additional $4,500,000 in the extension of the present Saginaw plants.

Pontiac—When he left a street-car and attempted to cross in back of it, Harry B. Sowers, 25, was instantly killed. His brother Clarence, narrowly escaped death.

Republic—The first fatal accident in five years at the Republic iron mine resulted in the death of Frank Johnson, who was caught under a fall of 500 pounds of rock.

Iron Mountain—Frank Foreck, 32, was killed while at work in the woods at the Von Platen Lumber company's camp at McGovern, when a tree fell and broke his back.

Manistee—On their third petition for a 15 per cent increase in salaries Manistee firemen were granted the raise. Policemen were also allowed a 15 per cent raise.

Howell—Mrs. Edward Papworth, 42, died of pneumonia. Mrs. Papworth's mother, Mrs. C. Abramson, while hastening to her daughter's bedside, fell on the ice and broke her hip.

Scottville—After fighting a score of years to secure a bonus and pension money due him and establishing his claim but three weeks ago, Moses Parker, 74, Civil War veteran, died.

Marquette—The new municipal hydro-electric plant, which has been under construction here for several months, has been practically completed at a cost of approximately $175,000.

Manistee—Two new Manistee industries have just commenced operations. They are the Manistee Tanning company, capitalized at $100,000, and the Manistee Drop Forge company, a $200,000 concern.

Ann Arbor—Returning from the funeral of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John Rowe, Martin P. Newell, of Saline, died from apoplexy. The day previous he had also attended the funeral of his father-in-law, John Rowe.

Lansing—Wayne county will name 265 of the 1,246 delegates to be seated at the Republican state convention in Kalamazoo, May 5, on the basis of the apportionment fixed by executive officers of the state central committee.

Algonac—Alexander Lloyd Williams, 38, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Timothy Piquette, St. Clair Flats, of tuberculosis resulting from being gassed overseas. He served with the Canadian Expeditionary force.

Manistee—George Pardee, many years a Great Lakes sailor and who walked across the ice a few weeks ago to reach shore from the imprisoned boat, Sidney O. Neff, caught off Chicago, died here as a result of exposure.

Bay City—An increase of $10 a month has been given all public school teachers. Bids submitted for the construction of a Central High School and two junior high schools are in excess of the million-dollar bond issue voted by the city.

Muskegon—Christ Larsen, of Muskegon Heights, killed himself with a revolver after he had been taken from his bed and propped up in a chair in order that he "might breathe better." Larsen had been ill with influenza for two weeks and had been despondent. He leaves a widow and three children.

Mason—An attempted jail delivery at night was frustrated by Hugh Sibley, sheriff. As he locked up for the night, he was struck on the head with an iron bar by Edward Wood, but managed to overcome the prisoners, grabbed the bar and drove the men to their cells when help arrived. A crude steel key to unlock a rear door was found. It took 15 stitches to close the sheriff's wounds.

Saginaw—Following charges of Birch Run Township residents, through which most of the Saginaw County end of the Dixie Highway extends, that concrete had cracked a month after it had been laid, the committee will include other Saginaw highways in its investigation. This road is costing about $30,000 a mile and laxity in the supervision of its construction is charged.

Lansing—Buying and selling of seeds and grain and selling of wool for the farmers of the state on a co-operation cost basis has been started by the Michigan State Farm bureau. The offer of the Michigan Crop Improvement association, founded by the Michigan Agricultural college, to turn over its agriculture machinery as the nucleus of the new farm bureau and grain department has been accepted.

Flint—Robbery of express-offices at Coleman, Mich., three years ago, is believed to have been cleared up by arrest here of Virgil Coffey and Lionel Lemay, who tried to dispose of diamonds at a local loan office at a "bargain" price. Suspecting the transaction, A. W. Buder, manager of the loan office, notified the police and the men fled. It was learned the gems had been buried by the thieves waiting for the theft to be forgotten. The express company had settled the claim and offered a reward for the recovery of the loot.

Lansing—Michigan's fire loss during 1919 was more than $13,500,000, according to a report of the commissioner of insurance.

Traverse City—The city commission is considering closing the city jail. It has been many months since there has been an arrest.

Lansing—Michigan is seventh in the total resources of state banking institutions of the nation, according to Frank E. Merrick, state banking commissioner.

Manistee—A committee has been appointed to discuss way and means of preventing a house shortage here. All homes in the city are now filled. More workers are needed by new industries.

Detroit—While Benjamin Goodman, driver for the Sun Furniture company, was making deliveries in Orleans street near Catherine street a thief drove away with his wagon and rugs valued at $1,200.

Greenville—Baron Tower, 51 years old, mayor, dropped dead in his office. Mr. Tower was born in Kent County, and had been engaged in the potato business in Greenville for 19 years. He was elected mayor of Greenville last April.

Mackinaw City—Scores of travelers were delayed as a result of the engine room crew of the car ferry Chief Wataman going on strike when the boat arrived at St. Ignace. The men claim back pay was due them and refused to work until paid.

Port Huron—The body of Joseph West, a farmer, was found in the snow one mile east of Richmond. From marks on the body it is believed West was slain. West had sold raisins to foreigners near Richmond and four foreigners were arrested for operating whisky stills.

Port Huron—Furi Hewitt, 17, is dead of injuries received when he was caught between a landing and an elevator cage at the plant of the Morton Salt company. He reached into the elevator, as it was descending, to take off the cap of the elevator operator in the spirit of fun.

Kalamazoo—Clarence Gooder was fatally burned when he accidentally slipped and fell into a vat of boiling alkaline liquid at the King Paper mill. When his clothing was removed at the hospital, great patches of skin and flesh clung to the garments, and in places bones were laid bare.

Kalamazoo—And now it's the high cost of being buried. Grave digging in Kalamazoo has been given a higher toll from the ultimate consumer's ultimate investment. By action of the city commission grave openers will be permitted to charge $1 more a grave than they have been receiving.

Traverse City—Walking 18 miles through snowdrifts and along icy roads, William A. Peckham, 21, and his brother, James A. Peckham, 24, arrived in Traverse City from their home in Elk Rapids to join the fighting forces of Uncle Sam. They chose the coast artillery corps for service in Hawaii.

Ann Arbor—Miss Helen B. Eames, a freshman dental student from Muskegon, has set the University of Michigan record as a long distance sleeper, having completed 67 hours of uninterrupted slumber. She had been studying for the mid-year examinations and had worked to the point of exhaustion.

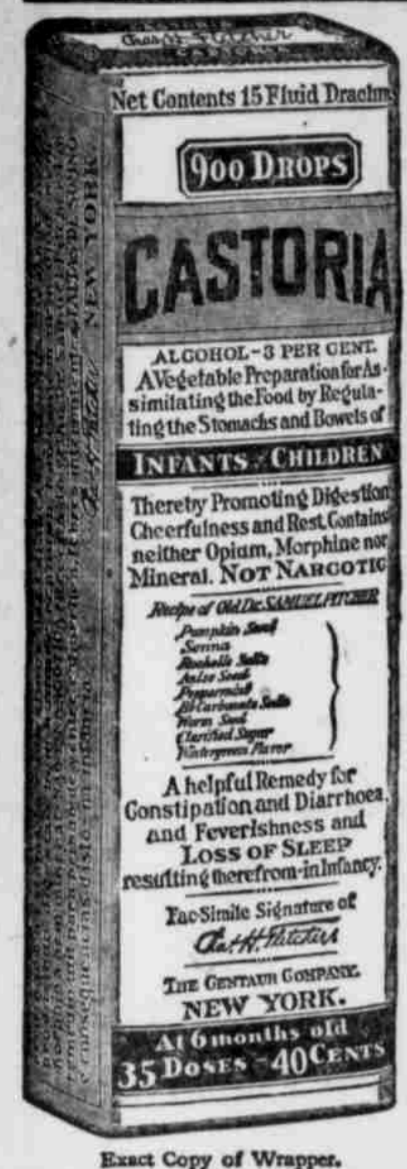

Pontiac—A bullet from a revolver in the hands of her mother passed through both limbs of two-year-old Violet Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Scott. The revolver was kept in the house for the protection of Mrs. Scott in the absence of her husband and she was trying to extract the cartridges. The child will not be crippled.

Holland—Mrs. John Fraaijema, 70, who has visited the cemetery and read the inscription on her own tombstone for 15 years, has been buried beside the body of her first husband, C. Posthumus, former engraver of tombstones. Before his death, 12 years ago, he engraved two stones, one for his wife and one for himself, and set them up in the cemetery. She has since twice married.

Muskegon—The Miami Metal company of Chicago has been announced as the concern which will actively take up the installation in Muskegon of pig iron blast furnaces which will put out 500 tons of metal daily in this city for the use of all of the local foundries. As a by-product, the concern will manufacture 11,000,000 feet of gas a day and of this 5,000,000 feet will be used to operate the plant, leaving 6,000,000 feet to be offered to the city.

Grand Rapids—J. M. M. Joosten, the man who baited the Kaiser at the Holland frontier on that morning in the fall of 1918, when the war lord fled for safety, is in Grand Rapids to study business conditions preparatory to becoming European selling agent for the J. B. Ford company, Wyandotte. Joosten, who is 25, was a lieutenant in the Holland army and was stationed at the frontier, when he held up the emperor and his staff at Eyseden, a village on the boundary line, until orders came.

Paw Paw—County Farm Agent W. C. Eckard could not have done it had there been such a thing as a hen labor union to restrict working hours. During the month of January he sold $152.38 worth of eggs from his 160 Rhode Island whites. In doing so, he proved his theory that the reason hens don't lay in the winter time is because the day is so short. To lengthen it and get his hens busy producing eggs early in the day he turns on the electric lights in his poultry houses at 4 a. m. and "lights out" isn't sounded for Biddy until 7 p. m.

Acid-Stomach Makes 9 Out of 10 People Suffer

Doctors declare that more than 10 per cent organic diseases can be traced to Acid-Stomach. Starting with indigestion, heartburn, bloating, food-repeating, hoarseness, gassy stomach, the entire system eventually becomes affected, every vital organ suffering in some degree or other. You see these victims of Acid-Stomach everywhere—people who are subject to nervousness, headache, insomnia, biliousness—people who suffer from rheumatism, lameness, sciatica and aches and pains all over the body. It is safe to say that about 9 people out of 10 suffer to some extent from Acid-Stomach. If you suffer from stomach trouble or, even if you do not feel any stomach distress, yet are weak and ailing, feel tired and dragged out, lack "pep" and enthusiasm and know that something is wrong although you cannot locate the exact cause of your trouble—you naturally want to get back your grip on health as quickly as possible. Then take EATONIC, the wonderful modern remedy that brings quick relief from pains of indigestion, belching, gassy bloating, etc. Keep your stomach strong, clean and sweet. See how your general health improves—how quickly the old-time vim, vigor and vitality come back! Get a big size box of EATONIC from your druggist today. It is guaranteed to please you. No Discussion. "I don't hear a word of discussion about the film," remarked the house manager. "The people seem to be departing in utter silence." "Well, it was a story about an abused wife, and that's a good theme for married couples to keep away from."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR. To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

Balance the Books Occasionally. It is good to have money and the things that money can buy, but it's good, too, to check up once in a while and make sure you haven't lost the things that money can't buy.—Anon.
