OBITUARY

Mrs. Jennie Cork Alexander, for several years a resident of Yale, died April 2, 1920, at the home of her daughter in Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Alexander had been ill for a few weeks with valvular heart trouble, following an attack of influenza. Last Monday, her condition being much improved, she accompanied her daughter to Ypsilanti. Her death was very unexpected and came as a great shock to the community.

The body was brought to Yale Saturday evening and funeral services were held at the home on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Alfred Martin, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment was made in the Speaker cemetery.

Jennie Lee, the daughter of Thomas and Betsy Lee, was born in Berlin, St. Clair county, April 9, 1852. In 1872 she was united in marriage to George M. Cork, of Berlin.

To this union was born nine children, Bessie S., who passed away in 1917; Robert L., of Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Wm. G. of Speaker; Lee A., of Metamora; Frances C., of Ypsilanti; Edward T., who died in 1919; Roy W., of Detroit; Chas. H., of Speaker; and James M., of State College, Penn.

After Mr. and Mrs. Cork's marriage they made their home in Speaker until 1908, when they moved to Yale, where the father died in 1911.

In 1916 she was married to Chas. Alexander and they have since lived in Yale.

Five sisters and one brother survive.

Mrs. Alexander was a life-long member of the Methodist church, and a charter member of the Peck L. O. T. M.

Card Of Thanks

I wish to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy since the death of my beloved wife, to those who furnished the music at the funeral, and the minister for such comforting words spoken in his sermon.

Charles P. Alexander.

J. D. Bradshaw was born in Maddock, Ont., May 22, 1846, and departed this life April 2, 1920, aged 73 years, 10 months and 11 days. He came to Michigan at the age of 19 years. Was united in marriage to Miss Henrietta McIntyre September 1, 1869. From this union were born five children, three sons and two daughters, J. W., of Highland Park; R. D., of Traverse City; C. R., of Saginaw; Mrs. W. Hudson, of Velpa, Cal.; and Mrs. J. A. Avery, of Yale, who with their mother all survive him and in his decease they lose a loving and devoted husband and father.

He was an active member of the Methodist church for over thirty years. Was confident of his acceptance of the Lord and spoke of meeting eternal things as though he was going on a visit.

Besides the family he leaves a host of friends to mourn his loss. Funeral services were held from the Roseburg Methodist church by his pastor, Elder White, assisted by Elder Cline. Interment in the North Fremont cemetery.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Bradshaw and family wish to express their appreciation for the kindness, assistance and sympathy shown them in their sad bereavement in the death of Mr. Bradshaw.

MELLOTONE

Gives walls a rare charm

Lowe Brothers Mello-tone is a flat oil paint that gives a deep, velvety finish to walls. Comes in a variety of delicate colorings, each soft as the rainbow tints. It enables you to duplicate all the subtle colorings of nature—so lovely to look at but so almost impossible to bring into the decorative schemes of your home. In short, with Mellotone you can bring the great outdoors indoors.

Its dull, rich colors furnish a perfect background for fine furniture and pictures. Has long lastingness and can be washed with soap and water.
