SCHOOL YEAR ENDS TONIGHT

Class of Twenty-Eight Graduates—Has Been a Busy Week for Instructors and Students

Baccalaureate Sermon
The Methodist Episcopal church was crowded Sunday evening with people interested in the welfare and doings of the graduates of Yale High school.

At eight o'clock, to a march on piano and organ, the graduates, twenty-eight in number, preceded by the several ministers of the city, entered the church and proceeded down the middle aisle to front seats. They were followed by the faculty, members of school board and wives. Parents of the graduates were seated in a body and the ministers upon the rostrum, which was prettily decorated with flowers.

The choir gave some fine music in solos, duets and anthems, and Rev. F. D. Mumby, pastor of this church, preached a very appropriate and excellent sermon, helpful to the student just turning away from high school, to enter various fields of choice, and inspiring to others.

Revs. Martin, pastor Presbyterian church, Yale; Tucker, minister Church of Christ; and Norton, pastor Baptist Church, Melvin, assisted in the devotionals.

Junior Banquet, Monday Evening

The custom followed many years by the Juniors of Yale Hi, in honoring the Seniors with a banquet, was carried out the same as usual this year.

The dining room of the Presbyterian church was the scene selected for the feast and after-dinner program, and the time Monday evening at seven o'clock. The room was beautifully decorated with class colors, yellow and white, in crepe paper, festooned and garlanded. The tables looked very pretty with bouquets of lemon lilies.

The school orchestra furnished the music and played a march while the 130 guests filed in and took their places.

Grace was invoked by Charles King, father of Helen King, one of the graduates, and then the banquet was served in three courses by waitresses from the Sophomore class, and was spoken of as a delicious meal. When the tables were cleared and the punch served the following program was given:

As president of the Junior class, Blanche Cheeseman gave the first toast, "All Aboard," and introduced the toastmaster, Supt. A. T. Greenman.

Selection—Orchestra
"Putting Out to Sea as a Freshman"—Ben Clyne

"The Sand-bars in My Sophomore Year"—Herbert Cavanagh
Vocal Solo—Miss Lambkin
"Reefs of the Class of 1923"—Nora Edwards.

"Entering the Port"—Chas. H. Palmer, Member Bd. of Education.

Vocal Solo—Miss Wilson
"The Crew"—D. M. Sinclair
Selection—Orchestra

The toasts were all cleverly handled and the entire program was very enjoyable.

Class Day Exercises

Tuesday evening although the weather was extremely warm for indoor sitting, a large audience greeted the graduating class at the Auditorium. The curtain rose on a prettily decorated stage of peonies and ferns and three rows of chairs in semi circles were required to seat the twenty-eight graduates.

The program published in last week's Expositor was adhered to as nearly as possible, all the graduates taking part in either orchestra, school chorus or individually in the way of oration or paper.

In the radio demonstration a portion was heard very clearly but atmospheric conditions were not so good for some numbers.

The Seniors acquitted themselves very creditably, but for the most part their voices did not reach to the back of the room, which is always an unfortunate circumstance as it tends to lessen the interest of the people if they cannot hear distinctly. The school orchestra has attained quite a degree of excellence and its part in all the commencement exercises has been very much enjoyed.

Commencement Night

An account of the commencement program which, is being given this Thursday evening, will be found in next week's issue of this paper. Mr. Fred Dale Wood is the speaker for the evening, and the diplomas will be awarded the graduates of Yale high school for 1922.

HYMENEAL.

No Man Can Either Live Piously, or Die Righteously Without a Wife.—Hielder.

The editor of the Expositor being rather modest prefers to publish the marriage of his daughter, Ruth Elizabeth to Mr. J. Charles Smith as it appears in the Port Huron Times-Herald of June 3rd, Smith-Menzies

A wedding which came as a surprise to the friends of the bride and bridegroom, was that of Miss Ruth Menzies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Menzies of Yale, to Mr. John Charles Smith, of Port Huron, formerly of New York State. The ceremony was performed Friday afternoon at the Menzies home in Yale and was attended by only the immediate family, and Miss Menzies' associates in the office of David T. Monteth, register of deeds who learned of the approaching marriage and motored to Yale to witness the ceremony.

Miss Menzies was married in white Canton crepe, worn with a corsage of deep pink roses and valley lilies. There were no attendants. The officiating minister was Rev. Alfred Martin of the Presbyterian church at Yale.

A wedding dinner was served after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are on a short wedding trip. They will reside in Port Huron, and later will take up their residence at Cedarwood beach for the summer.

Miss Menzies has been in the office of the register of deeds for a few years and has a large circle of friends among the young people of Port Huron. Mr. Smith, who is make-up man at the Riverside Printing company, has lived in Port Huron three years.

Donnenworth-Ulrich

A pretty home wedding was quietly solemnized at 12 o'clock Thursday, June 1st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Ulrich, when their only daughter, Ethyle Agnes became the bride of Mr. Raymond E. Donnenworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Donnenworth, of Yale.

The attendants were Miss Vera Nelson, Port Huron, and Clara Slosser, of Yale. The wedding march was played by Miss Lulu Crocker.

The happy couple left immediately after dinner for a short wedding trip among relatives, after which they will reside on their farm near Yale.

Williams-VanCamp

Married in Yale at 8:20 Tuesday evening, June 6th, 1922, Mrs. Robt Williams and Mr. L. F. VanCamp.

Rev. Alfred Martin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. VanCamp left immediately on an extended wedding trip through the state. On their return they will be at home to their friends in the recently remodelled residence of Mr. VanCamp, on Mary street.

Both are well known and highly respected by Yale people. Their friends join with the Expositor in extending hearty congratulations. May they live a long and happy life together.

FARMERS TO POOL WOOL

Farmers of St. Clair county will pool their wool this year at Memphis and Avoca. The pooling dates have been set by the Michigan State Farm Bureau for Tuesday, June 20th at Memphis, and Wednesday, June 21st at Avoca. Last year over 100 farmers pooled wool through these two points. It is expected that as many or more will take advantage of the Farm Bureau wool pool this year.

Checks in settlement of last year's wool pool were issued to farmers of St. Clair county last week. Farmers not having received their check as yet may do so by calling at the bank through which they received initial payment.

In order that the farmers of this locality may know the facts concerning the Farm Bureau wool pool, arrangements have been made for holding meetings previous to the pool at Memphis and Avoca. C. L. Brody, former County Agent of this county, now Secretary-Manager of the State Farm Bureau, will be present at these meetings and give those present the facts concerning the wool pool. Don Williams, manager of this year's wool pool will also be present to discuss the 1922 pool.

These meetings will be held as follows: Memphis, M. E. church hall, Thursday evening, June 15, and Avoca, Friday evening, June 16th at Brinkman's hall. Both meetings will be called for 8:00 o'clock.

If farmers have any doubts as to the value of grading and pooling wool, they will be well repaid for attending one of these meetings.

Rural Carriers Meet
Capac, June 2—The last semi-annual meeting of the St. Clair County Rural Carriers association was held at the church house Monday evening, attended by 25 carriers, three postmasters, one clerk and one visitor.

The following were elected to attend the state meeting of Rural Carriers as delegates: Avery Thompson, Yale; V. P. Graham, Capac; Mr. McCormick, Smith's Creek; Chas. Conant, St. Clair.

It was decided to hold the next meeting at Yale in September.

FORD TURNS OUT 6,000,000th MOTOR

Ford Motor Number 6,000,000 was lifted from the assembly line in the Highland Park Ford Plant at 9:14 a. m., May 18th, just 5 1-3 seconds later No. 6,000,001 was finished.

The unusually heavy demand for Ford cars and trucks at the present time has necessitated the building of 5,400 motors daily. These are shipped in carload lots to the various Ford assembling plants throughout the United States.

The first Model "T" Ford motor was completed Oct 1st, 1908; number 1,000,000 left the assembly line Dec. 10, 1915, and No. 5,000,000 came through May 28th, 1921.

Although the Ford Motor Co. turned out a number of different models prior to 1908, the present numbering system began with the first Model "T".

MY TOWN

I know my town, and I love my town,
And I want to help it be
As great a town to everyone
As it seems to be to me!

I praise my town and I cheer my town,
And I try to spread its fame;
And I know what a splendid town 'twould be
If you would do the same!

I trust my town and I boost my town,
And I want to do my part
To make it a town that all may praise

From the depths of every heart,
I like my town and I sing my town,
And I want my town to grow;
If I knocked my town or I blocked my town,
That wouldn't be nice, you know!

I think my town is the very best town
In all the world—to me!
Or if it's not, I want to get out
And try to make it be!

I talk my town and preach my town,
As I think a fellow should
Who has more at stake than to win or make
For the love of the common good!

I bet on my town, and I bank on my town,
And I think it fine to feel—
When you know your town and you love your town—
That it's a part of your honest zeal.

I'm proud of my town, I love my town,
And I want to help it rise—
And that's the way to help a town
—Not curse it and despise.
