

A Happy New Year To All

Greetings! A Happy New Year To All and our sincere thanks for the friendship and support you have given us during the past year. May we all look forward to a happier year to come with a greater hope for health and happiness and always with a thought for those less fortunate than ourselves. We do, indeed, wish you a Happy New Year. We do, indeed, thank you for your wonderful friendship during the past year. We hope for a continuation of same and in return agree to do our own best part toward making your drug store trading pleasant and profitable to you.

Happy New Year. Was Santa Claus good to you on Christmas. Our merchants report a fine Christmas trade this year. Regular meeting O. E. S. Wednesday evening, January 3. Mrs. Ed. Sheehy and children spent Sunday with Melvin relatives. Victor Learmont, of Detroit, spent Christmas with his parents in Yale. Rex B. Holden spent Christmas day among Almont young friends. A happy, healthy and prosperous New Year to all of our subscribers. Donald Gillam, of Niles, was a Christmas guest in the Dr. V. A. Lacy home. W. F. Barr, of the Chevrolet Garage, was in Flint Wednesday after new cars. The Marine City Reporter comes out with a nifty pink dress for its Christmas edition. Chas. Parker, of Detroit, was in Yale this week on a visit to his daughter and brother. Maurice Merrill, of the U. of M. is spending the holidays with his Yale relatives and friends. L. G. McDonald, of Pontiac, spent part of last week with relatives and friends in Yale. Mrs. Sam Ingram and daughter Thelma went to Detroit on Saturday to spend Christmas. Mrs. Hiram Brown spent the past week in Crosswell with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Loree. Bernice Farley, of Richmond, visited her girl friend, Mildred Patterson, Wednesday night. Kenneth Thompson of Altoona, Pa., was the guest of the Frank W. Andreae family Christmas time. Mr. and Mrs. S. Howard Smith, of Detroit, were guests of Grant Holden and family Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Tice and baby of Detroit, were guests in the Learmont home for over Christmas. Bruce N. Tappan, son of Judge Harvey Tappan, has been elected as president of the Kawanis club of Port Huron. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crocker and daughter Lulu spent Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Menno Bean. Mrs. Charles Cavanagh has been suffering this week from an attack of appendicitis. She is much improved today. Mrs. Mary Simmons went to North Branch on Tuesday, where she will visit for a time with her brother, J. A. Rapply and family. Mrs. A. Windsor is in Detroit this week on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Middleton. Dick says he is chef cook and bottle washer now. Nick Ingroville, of Grand Rapids, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Alfred Martin, at the Presbyterian manse, over Christmas. Members of the Micheal Sheehy family went to Detroit to spend Christmas with their mother and other relatives, holding a family reunion. Mrs. Battie Hisey came from Wayne last week to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Andreae for the remainder of the winter. Mrs. E. G. Smith and niece, Martha Jane Calkins, went to Detroit Saturday to spend Christmas with Martha Jane's mother and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Lynford McDonald of Avoca, made the Expositor a short call Wednesday while returning from Imlay City on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Middleton. The Christmas exercises, programs and parties held by the various Sunday schools of the city, were all happy occasions and deeply enjoyed by the participants. Lawrence Sheehy entertained a party of young people at his home on Christmas eve. A big dinner was served at which twenty-one were present, several being out-of-town guests. Mrs. H. W. Brown received a neat card from her daughter at Crosswell, this week which contained the following: "Announcing the arrival of Breta Estella Loree on Dec. 15, 1922. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Loree."

It cannot be said that the re-appointment of Mrs. LeMotte as postmaster at Memphis has created an uproarious enthusiasm. There were a number of live Republicans at Memphis, entitled by reason of good service to a political reward, from which selection might have been made. Our Louie, who does not think much of live Republicans, reappoints the Democrats.—Mt. Clemens Monitor.

E. T. Blackney, county school commissioner, of Port Huron, made a short visit in Yale while driving home from Capac, Saturday last. He made the Expositor office a pleasant call. Vera Wallace from Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Art Dennis and children from Kinde, Mrs. Wm. Tomlinson and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rawley Hallman and children of Yale, had Christmas dinner on Sunday at the James Wallace parental home. James Muir, of Detroit, at one time a resident of Yale, was in the city Friday and Saturday calling on friends. Jim has made good since his residence in Detroit and is in comfortable circumstances. He still owns his forty-acre farm north and west of Yale. A Christmas dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fletcher with Watson McPhee of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Al Sitter of Speaker, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Andreae and children of Avoca and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Andrews and children of Midland as guests. Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Herbert entertained on Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Draper and children from Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Parmlee from Port Huron, Will Hayes and family, George Hayes and family and Charley Hayes and family from Greenwood township.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Andreae were in Detroit on Saturday. Donald McIntyre was up from Detroit for the holiday. Kenneth Lacy was at home from Chicago for Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Luke Conroy and daughter Genevieve are spending the holidays in Detroit. Leta Holden came home from Grand Ledge the last of the week for the Christmas vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor and daughter Betty autoed to Davison to spend Christmas day. We missed the name of Dick Staley last week among the college students home for the holidays. Cyrus Ludington, whose home is in Flint, is in Yale where he will remain for a time working at his trade. Mr. and Mrs. Jule Hennessy and family, of Port Huron, were guests of Yale relatives for the Christmas week end. Mr. and Mrs. J. Charles Smith, of Port Huron, were guests at the J. A. Menzies home from Saturday until Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peacock left Friday evening for an extended visit with Mr. Peacock's parents in Cuba City, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brown and son Colin are spending the week in Battle Creek with their son Jas. L. Brown and family. Jeannette Curtis, teaching at Flint, is home for two weeks vacation. She brought one of her kindergarten pupils home with her. A number of young people finished up the Christmas day with an evening of dancing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andreae. Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw had several of their children home for the Christmas season, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Wilt and children from Ionia, Madeline from Detroit, Norma from Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bradley from Roseburg. Thomas Mullaney, of Detroit, who came to Roseburg to spend Christmas with relatives was taken suddenly ill on Sunday, becoming unconscious almost at once. The case was pronounced pneumonia. Physicians and two trained nurses are in attendance and it is hoped that the patient may recover. Frances Andreae received a somewhat unique but a wonderful Christmas gift in the shape of a pedigree German Police dog, a puppy about six weeks old, bred in the kennels on Long Island. Frances is thoroughly pleased with her new pet. All who saw "Strongheart" in "Brawn of the North" at the Princess on Christmas day, will know what this puppy will look like when he grows up.

The Things Us Folks Like to get—

It ain't the biggest things that puts most comfort in yo' soul,
An' it ain't the weight of money-bags that makes this old world roll.
I'd give a heap more value to a word kind-spoke an' fair,
Than to all the gold an' glitter of a crown I couldn't wear.
