BRITTON'S LOSS

It seems to be Aberdeen's Gain in a Fine Race on July 20th.

The race between Jim Sheldon and Kaitena which was to have taken place in Britton goes to Aberdeen on July 20th. This was a great mistake on the part of our merchants and hotel keepers as the town will lose at least $1000 by the transaction. There was a special train to be run here from Aberdeen, besides what would have come from other parts, and when you look into the matter fully you will easily see that our estimate is very near correct, besides the advertisement to the town is worth the whole of the amount if nothing else. Aberdeen has given Mr. Hinkley $150 to go there win or lose and he couldn't afford to turn this offer down. This amount could easily have been raised right here and not one person ever missed it. As it will take all of this and more to go to Aberdeen and see the same race that we could have seen here. The money would have been all spent here as Mr. Hinkley is no miser, he is a large hearted fellow, gives employment to at least 20 men. His purse is always open to any one in need and any public enterprise. On the other hand Aberdeen is alive to her own interests. Ben Ward will make a clean thousand out of the deal in his business alone, besides the other hotels and business houses you can safely state that Aberdeen will make $5000 out of our misfortune.—Marshall Co. Sentinel.

GORGEOUS SPLENDORS. Matchless Magnificence of a Free Street Pageant.

If the announcements are to be believed—and there is no reason why they should not be—the great free street parade of the Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' Enormous Shows United this year is the most gorgeous spectacle ever beheld upon the streets of American cities. Nearly all the material that enters this parade is new, and constructed especially for it during the past winter months. The cages, tableaux, chariots, and all sorts of mammoth vehicles are resplendent with every prismatic hue. The most interesting novelties introduced this year are in the form of many open dens of wild beasts, drawn by camels; elephants and other animals than horses. Over 400 of the finest draught horses in America will be seen in this parade, the four herds of elephants, nearly 100 thoroughbred, mettlesome horses of high degree, and everything that goes to make up a wealth of magnificence and splendor will be seen. The parade will move from the show grounds at about nine o'clock, passing through the principal streets of the city over its route, which will be given later in the papers. It is intended that this parade shall be only a forerunner of the glories of these shows, within its own metropolis of tents, rather than have it the best part of the shows as is frequently the case with circuses. The date will be Monday July 13.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I had suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents cured me." For sale by all druggists
