THE LIFE OF PRESIDENT EBERT

First Lady of Berlin Comes From Humble Home Near Bremen—Family Must Take Up Social Ropes.

BERLIN, Feb. 17. (By the Associated Press.)—The mistress of the German presidential residence is a comely "Hausfrau" of medium height and slender, who up to the present time has always been divided by her own household duties, the family cooking, and has even been her own dressmaker. Frau Luise Ebert, wife of the president of the new German republic, was born 45 years ago in a small insignificant home near Bremen. She views her new social environment with resignation.

"I know we must be prepared for attacks from the right and the left," she said today, in discussing the position in which the Ebert family finds itself. "Those coming from the left will probably be the worst. They will charge us with attempting to extricate ourselves from the castle in which we have been reared, but that will never occur. Whatever may come, we are going to remain true to our traditions as a plain workingmen's family."

The oldest son of the family, Friedrich Ebert, Jr., has entered newspaper work. The second son, who was only recently discharged from the army, the only daughter, Annale, 15, until a short time ago was employed as a clerk by a downtown firm. She now accords herself on occasion the privilege of riding in the presidential motor car.

President Ebert lost a son in the fighting in Macedonia and another in the Chemin-des-Dames operations.

The family, up to two weeks ago, had been living in a suburb of Berlin, but now is installed in official apartments of the department of the interior in the Wilhelmstrasse, which formerly were occupied by high officials. The permanent official residence of the new president has not been determined upon, and President Ebert has expressed aversion to the Bellevue palace, the last of which on the ground that it is "too imposing."

Just how the newly elected president will approach the solution of the various complex questions facing them in their new status has not yet been developed. The president's official reception is already worrying certain circles in the capital, who contemplate with concern the fact that from the splendor of the Hohenzollern leaves to the threatened Jeffersonian simplicity of the new regime.

The new position to which Frau Ebert has attained has already caused her to be beset with offers from Berlin modistes and tradespeople.

SOLDIERS NOT TO GO WITH GERMANS

Order Issued Forbids Men at Coblenz From Patronizing German Physicians.

COBLENZ, Feb. 17. (By the Associated Press.)—Further evidence of determination to prevent the intermingling of Germans and those of the army of occupation was given yesterday in issuance of orders forbidding American soldiers to patronize German doctors. Regulations against fraternization are still strictly enforced, and the order was in line with that forbidding the local purchase of foodstuffs.

Local newspapers to arouse more popular interest. A slight, but virtually insignificant, increase in the meat supply has been made possible by an order directing the sale of condemned American army horses. The shortage of milk, according to statements by physicians, is being reflected in the health of babies. Local appeals have been made to the people to use a little milk as possible, even though ill. The milk consumed by babies in Coblenz is not 2.50 cents daily. Before the war this consumption, as shown by statistics, was 23.250 quarts.
