MORE THAN 1,000 MEMPHIS TROOPS EN ROUTE HOME

Members of the 30th, 82d and 92d Are Expected To Be in Port, on Seas Or Home Before April 1.

With Memphis troops probably aggregating more than 1,000 in number from four different overseas divisions en route home at present or awaiting ships at a French embarkation early in the month, it is expected that the 30th, 82d and 92d divisions will have returned to Memphis by the first of the month.

This was the revelation Tuesday, following Associated Press announcements of the return home of a large portion of base hospital unit P. The other three divisions sending home Memphis troops are the 30th, containing Memphis white draftees, and the 82d, containing nearly all Memphis negro draftees.

Regiments of the 82d and 92d divisions have already landed in America, as well as one small unit of the 30th division. The 30th trench mortar battery of the 82d division, composed of Tennessee Georgians and Alabama troops, has arrived at Newport News, the negroes of the 82d division landed at New York on the transport Great Northern, which bore 52 officers and 2,500 troops.

The Memphis nurses who returned home late Monday were Miss Jean Hope, Miss Cora K. Martin, Miss Ne Ne Taylor, Miss Frances Lester and Miss Laura Heath. They landed in New York aboard the Olympic.

Cited for Bravery. Miss Hope, who resides at 845 New York avenue, and Miss Margaret Cummings, 231 Linden avenue, were cited for efficient and brave work while with the Third division before Chateau Thierry. Their citation also included mention of their bravery under shell fire.

Other nurses of the same unit who landed in New York, but who have not yet returned, are the Misses Pearl Wood, Helen Tucker, Rose Bacon, Ella Smith and Mrs. Rose Wilder. They will arrive in Memphis Wednesday of Thursday, with their honorable discharges.

Others who landed at Hoboken aboard the Heredia Tuesday are Miss Myrtle Archer, chief nurse of the unit, Miss Margaret Cummings, Miss Jennie Lee Blumberg, Miss Elizabeth Garrison and Miss Myrtle Bishop. They should arrive here the last of the week, says Miss Hope.

Orders of the unit who have arrived are George Bragg, of Arlington, Charles Walker, New York avenue, and Dudley Strong, of Babson, Tenn. Miss Hope says the unit is being sent over in small detachments, but all will be in America within two weeks. She says all the enlisted men of the unit

THIRTIETH SAILS SOON

With the 27th division of New York national guardmen already on their way home, the 30th division of Tennessee and South Carolina troops is expected to leave Memphis by March 10. It is expected that the 30th division will have returned to Memphis by the first of the month.

FREIGHT SAILING DAY PLAN IS ABANDONED

The withdrawal of the sailing day plan, outlined several months ago by the Southern Railway for the handling of less than carload shipments of freight, has been abandoned. The plan was announced Monday by Memphis shippers, who have been very much opposed to the plan.

TRUANT OFFICERS HAVE MUCH TRAVELING TO DO

This is another case of where Memphis school children are a double-edged sword. It is a case of incidental expense to run the truant officers' job.

ARMORIES ORDERED FOR C. H. S. SOLDIERS

With more than 300 pupils members of the Junior O. T. U. of Central high school and no place to put them, the city board of education Monday night voted for the purchase of two armories, 20 by 30 feet, to be erected on the high school campus and will serve as houses in which to store the rifles, clothing and other equipment, and a place to drill in inclement weather.

SCHOOL BOARD NOT FOR ROTARY PLAN

Bank Proposal to Take Spending of Bond Money Away From Board.

Despite headlines to the contrary by Charles J. Haase, chairman of the joint Rotary bank committee and Board of Education, the school board Monday night, in an executive session, following the regular business meeting, decided to defer action on at least a week.

The Rotary committee, whose report was officially presented, advised a joint city and county school commission, a $2,000,000 bond issue and a federal surplus to be used for the school problem in Memphis.

The main feature of the legislation proposed by the Rotary club is a bond issue of $2,000,000 for both city and county schools, which would be leased and expanded by a commission of five, to be named in the bill.

WILSON TO HAVE BUSY THREE-HOUR NEW YORK GRIND

NEW YORK, March 4.—During President Wilson's visit in this city from Philadelphia at 8:15 o'clock and will proceed directly to the opera house under a strong police guard.

Mr. Taft in a private room and soon thereafter will commence his address. Mr. Taft, who was en route to this city today from Springfield, O., where he spoke last night, will speak in favor of the league of nations before the president's arrival.

The only other fixtures on the program at the opera house is a short address by Gov. Alfred E. Smith and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by Enrico Caruso.

Although there are but 2,326 seats at the opera house, demands for seats continued to pour in today and the committee in charge estimated that more than 30,000 applications had been received, with two tons of mail still to be opened.

The police arrangements for guaranteeing the president are more elaborate than usual. In addition to the usual secret service force, a special bodyguard of detectives, assisted by plain clothes men and motorcycle police will escort the presidential party through solid lines of police from the Pennsylvania railroad station to the opera house.

Miss Paul, leader of the National Woman's party, has announced that she will lead a delegation of suffrage pickets to the vicinity of the opera house and call the president's attention to the demands for an extra session of congress to pass the woman suffrage amendment. The women will carry purple, gold and white banners. It was announced.

The general money committee of the Central Federal union also plans to have women workers near the building with banners demanding action by the president to bring about the release from prison of Thomas J. Mooney, the Western labor leader.

MRS. WILSON IS TO ACCOMPANY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, March 4.—President Wilson was to leave Washington today on his second trip to Paris for attendance at the peace conference. Accompanied by Mrs. Wilson, he planned to sail from New York tomorrow on the transport George Washington and was expected to remain overseas several months, probably until early in June.

HIGHER FREIGHT RATES

The freight tariffs recently announced by the federal railroad administration raising the rate on sugar from Louisiana points in Memphis, concerning which the Memphis freight board made strenuous protest, have been received here.

The sugar rate is advanced from 22 1/2 cents per hundred pounds to 24 cents per hundred pounds. An advance on the coffee rate from 17 cents to 22 1/2 cents per hundred is also announced.

FREE GARDEN SEED

Homer L. Higgs, chairman of the garden committee of the Peabody Club, announces that he has on hand large packages of garden seeds for distribution free to all the members of that league.

CHOP SUEY PARLOR

Memphis is to have an up-to-date restaurant and chop suey parlor on the second and third floors in the building over the Aviators at 26 South Main street.

Owners of the property Monday prepared a building permit to improve the two floors at a cost of $3,000. The place will be operated by a wealthy Chinese from Indianapolis. Work on the structure will begin at once.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all the stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast. To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside, no sour bile to coat your tongue and sicken your breath or dull your head; no constipation, bilious attacks, sick headache, colds, rheumatism or gassy, acid stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do, says a well-known physician.

MALARIA MADE HIM A WRECK

But He Got Back His Health and Strength With Nuga-Tone. With the most satisfactory and beneficial results I have finished the Nuga-Tone. Now I am well. All that remains is the bitter memory of my shattered health at the end of last winter when I was recovering from an attack of malaria. I suffered most acute constipation, headache and general debility. No other medicine helped me but after using Nuga-Tone, I am enjoying the best of health today and I can sincerely recommend your medicine," says M. Briseno, Willis, Okla.

QUEENS OF DUROCS ON BLOCK AGAIN

T. G. James and Enoch's Farm Will Auction Sows of Purest Breed.

Sales of Duroc-Jersey sows and an occasional boar in the circuit sale in January of the state school at Blacksville, T. G. James, Enoch's Farm at Charleston, Miss., White's plantation at Columbia, Miss., and the Enoch's farm at Fernwood, Miss., broke all records for prices of hogs, but in the past few weeks C. S. Sprague at Tippecanoe City, La., broke the records made in the Memphis territory. Now Mr. James and the Enoch's farm are auctioning a sale of such fancy sows on March 25 and 26 that they hope again to bring South the Duroc-Jersey laurels.

Mr. Sprague sold 50 head of bred sows at an average of $750 per head. He has one of the finest herds in the world and it was he who bred Joe Orion II, the top-notch sire of sows, and sold him to Mr. Enoch.

The Duroc fanciers then moved across to Tippecanoe City to the sale by Ira Jackson, considered the premier hog breeder of the world. Mr. Jackson offered 57 sows and they brought on average $1,023 per head. Mr. James paid the top price of $3,500 for one of the sows. The cheapest brought $400.

Mr. Jackson offered only one boar. He is a half-brother to Grand Champion Scissors, owned by Mr. James. Bright Goodbar was there to get a head for his fancy herd at Duntreath brood to Enoch's Hill and he finally got Jackson's one offering for $10,500. He also bought $7,000 worth of fine sows and boars.

When the Blackiston school averaged $375, Mr. James, $501; Mr. White, $365; Mr. Orion, $375; Mr. Enoch, $375; and $397 for 22 sows bred to old Joe Orion II, the Southern thought that they had made records that would stand for some time, but the Sprague and Jackson sales have beaten them. Now remains to be seen whether or not they can pass the Ohio and Iowa marks.

With the hope of doing so Mr. James will offer at auction on March 25 at his Charleston, Miss., place the best under-one-year gilt that was able to breed to the Jackson sale. They will all be bred to Grand Champion Scissors. He will also offer 45 other sows, sires, to P. C. Orion King, junior champion of the National Swine show, and to Dixie Orion King, a litter brother of Scissors, which was lost to view for years on a farm in the Cumberland mountains and has just been brought to public view again. All of these sows and gilts are of the best Orion Cherry breeding.

AMUSEMENTS

Opheum. Blanche Ring, whose name has been emblazoned upon the theatrical firmament for several years, which caused one to think of musical comedies when her name is mentioned, is essaying to entertain vaudeville patrons at the Opheum this week without the usual plethora of girls, songs, scenery and comedians. How well she accomplishes her purpose goes without saying, for Blanche Ring is always to be reckoned with in an entertaining way. Miss Hope, for such she still is to the stage, gives evidence of her former active personality in her songs and mannerisms and brings to vaudeville a refreshing presence.

Another artist who is to be reckoned with because of her marked advancement is Muriel Worth, danseuse, who presents her most delightful act this season. Scientifically and artistically and professionally Miss Worth's act is by far her best offering to the vaudeville stage.

Billy Dale and Miss Bunny Hurch in comedy act, "The Riding Master," have an offering that is as fresh as it is sparkling. The lines of the skit laugh at the sort one likes to be entertained with.

Walter Brower, monologist, regales his audience with his material as effectively as ever, and Grant and Jones, song writers, tickle those musically inclined with some of the songs hits they have written. Gus Henderson, the bounding roba, and Emerson and Baldwin, jugglers, complete the bill.

"Odds and Ends." Jack Norwood's musical revue, "Odds and Ends," which is the attraction at the New Lyric theater, and which includes an engagement with the matinee and night performances Tuesday, is a revue pure and simple. The author of the play does not pretend to be a comedian with a plot, but on the other hand, announces at the beginning that it possesses no plot, but is intended solely to amuse and entertain. There are 16 scenes in "Odds and Ends," and each one is more or less separate from the other, but the score has been provided which gives tunefulness to each scene, and those who have seen the show are pleased with the variety presented. While the company boasts of no particular star, the singing of Sallie Taylor and Miss Katherine Redfield is a particularly pleasing feature.

"Daddy Long Legs." "Daddy Long Legs," under the direction of Henry Miller, comes to the New Lyric theater Friday and Saturday, with Saturday matinee. The dramatic situation of this charming story, with its bubbling humor and honest sentiment, has made a fortune for Mr. Miller. Six plays, white slave dramas and the other offerings that depend on questionable moral themes have not in any single instance furnished such a profit as has come from this simple story. Mr. Miller has provided an excellent cast which is headed by Alice Haynes as Judy.

Loew's Lyceum. George Primrose, who has been before the public eye for many years, finally has left the touch of Father Time, and this season for the first time is not actively engaged in entertaining theater-goers. Instead, the veteran minstrel has produced a blackface act of the same liberal proportions of the past few years and his place on the stage has been taken by his wife, who is no mean minstrel farceur herself. Primrose is now 75 years of age and he has virtually retired from active work, the strenuousness of dancing being too severe a tax upon his physical strength. The act is headlining the bill for the first four days of this week at Loew's Lyceum. Another big feature of the bill is Alla Nazimova's latest thriller, "Eye for Eye," in which she portrays the role of a pretty Arab girl in a love story of intense action.

18 NEGRO SOLDIERS TO GET NEW TRIAL. CHICAGO, March 4.—Eighteen negro soldiers convicted of an attack on a woman visitor at Camp Grant last May, are to be given a new trial as the result of an opinion by the judge-advocate-general that they were not fairly tried. This information was made public here today. It was said that Primrose is now 75 years of age and he has virtually retired from active work, the strenuousness of dancing being too severe a tax upon his physical strength. The act is headlining the bill for the first four days of this week at Loew's Lyceum. Another big feature of the bill is Alla Nazimova's latest thriller, "Eye for Eye," in which she portrays the role of a pretty Arab girl in a love story of intense action.
