POPULAR COUPLE CELEBRATE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

The Holly Springs Reporter carries a pretty story of the celebration of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Dancy, which took place in that city on Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Dancy have many friends in Memphis.

The old Southern home, with its colonial columns, red brick walls and green blinds, was decorated for the occasion in autumn flowers with palms and ferns artistically arranged. Golden-red was used profusely to carry out the color scheme of yellow, white in the rear parlor the figures 1869-1919 in flowers were conspicuously displayed. The quaint wedding invitation of 49 years ago and a full account of the beautiful affair in one of the little city's papers were proudly exhibited by the happy couple.

Only two of the guests of the long ago were present, Mrs. W. A. Anderson, a bridesmaid, and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, who was a small child.

The children and grandchildren, who were Mr. and Mrs. Moore Dancy, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dancy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Dancy, Jr., Mrs. Yale Jeffreys, Miss Roberta Dancy, Cora Cary, Nell Mary and Master Lucius Dancy, formed the receiving line. Two attractive young great grandchildren, sons of Mrs. Jeffreys, were also present.

During the evening Mrs. Wall Dancy sang "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. E. Anderson sang "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

Rice and olivers were thrown at the couple, one of the olivers having been brought from Egypt many years ago, inside the toe of which was an appropriate verse.

Mrs. Dancy was Miss Mary J. Jones, one of Holly Springs' fairest daughters. She has retained her beauty and she and her popular husband number their friends in the hundreds.

A delicious wedding menu was served, the cakes and ice suggesting love, happiness and good luck.

Alleges Conspiracy To Defraud Him Of Bachelor's Domain

Claiming conspiracy to defraud him of his half interest in the Bachelors Domain apartments, Third street and Union avenue, Bryant L. Gulce, through his attorney, Ernest Bell, Friday filed a bill in the chancery court, seeking to enjoin H. M. Gibb, his former partner in the apartments, Gibb's wife, Miss Annie Gavin, and others, from disposing of the property involved and asking for an accounting and for the appointment of a receiver for the partnership.

Gulce and Gibb last February entered into an agreement of partnership to operate what is known as the Bachelors Domain apartments, it is charged. Gulce says that Gibb sold his partnership in the partnership to Miss Annie Gavin for a consideration of $2,000, the sum of $1,000 cash and a lot at the corner of McLemore avenue and South Fourth street. Gulce alleges that Gibb put the $1,000 in the Memphis-Battery Battery company and had the title to this lot put in the name of his wife, placing a mortgage on the lot and falling account to him for any of the money.

Gulce alleges that the defendants are conspiring to beat him out of his partnership in the apartment and asks that an injunction issue, restraining defendants from selling the lot or rescinding the contract of sale made with Miss Annie Gavin and also asks that an attachment issue against Gibb's interest in the battery company.

CLUBDOM

Mrs. Fraser Custodian.

At a meeting of the executive board of the Nineteenth Century club on Wednesday, Mrs. Walter Fraser was unanimously elected the custodian of the club to fill the vacancy left by Miss Beesie Shanks, who resigned because of illness.

Mrs. Fraser has held many offices in the club, and has ever worked enthusiastically in its behalf, during the years which she has been a member. The appointment of Mrs. Fraser as custodian of the club at the beginning of what promises to be the most brilliant year in its history, is a fitting tribute to her splendid co-operation and her efficient work along all lines. The executive board of the Nineteenth Century is fortunate in having secured her services.

Mrs. W. W. Farabaugh was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. S. A. Wilkinson, who resigned as she will be out of the city the greater part of the winter.

Several proposed changes in the by-laws of the club will come before the members at the meeting of the entire membership on Monday, Oct. 29, when plans of the activities for the year will be fully discussed.

Ladies' Temple Auxiliary.

It is a far cry from "the tumult and the shouting" that seems to be war's aftermath to the spirit that pervaded Thursday's meeting of the Ladies' Temple auxiliary. The meeting was a hark-back to things spiritual, to things permanent, to things founded upon the Rock of Ages.

The opening number was the beautiful greeting by the newly elected president, Mrs. Harry Lewis. After announcing the committees for the year and definitely outlining their respective duties, she declared that now that the year was over the Temple auxiliary proposed to turn its attention to the duties of peace. The pre-eminent duty being a newly awakened religious spirit.

To and the opening hymn, "I have dreamed of you," was given by Mrs. William Fincher, while the two little Fincher boys gave the wine and the bread. The beautiful musical numbers by Miss Emma Kuhn and Mesdames Tindall and Johnson. Mrs. Fincher also gave a reading appertaining to the subject.

QUOTAS FOR "Y" CAMPAIGN FIXED

A. campaign, Oct. 29-30, were fixed and accepted by the county directors of the respective counties Thursday at the conference of the district campaign committee at Jackson, Tenn., and general plans outlined for conducting the campaign. Tennessee's quota for the state, national and foreign work of the Y. M. C. A. for the year 1921 is $150,000.

The county quotas as announced are: Shelby, $3,000; Benton, $250; Decatur, $250; Carroll, $500; Chester, $400; Crockett, $600; Iyer, $2,500; Fayette, $800; Gibson, $2,500; Hardeman, $700; Hardin, $300; Haywood, $1,000; Henderson, $500; Henry, $1,000; Lake, $700; Lauderdale, $2,000; McNairy, $800; Madison, $2,500; Obion, $1,500; Tipton, $1,000; Weakley, $1,500.

During the South-wide campaign it is the purpose of all cities having Y. M. C. A. buildings to raise similar budgets to free all associations of debt.

In the boys' work department it is proposed to establish three boys' camps in Tennessee at a cost of $45,000. The next step in the preparation for the campaign will be the organization of county campaign committees which will be taken up at once.

UNITARIAN PASTOR IS PLANNING NEW CHURCH

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 2.—Both pastors and laymen in Louisville are centering their attention on the First Unitarian church, where the Rev. R. Ernest Aklin, 54, has accepted the pulpit, and has announced his intention to church conduct. Rev. Aklin steps from the Methodist pulpit to the Unitarian church, his recent charge having been the largest Methodist church in Detroit, located near the Ford automobile plant.

Pastor Aklin attracted attention upon taking over the Unitarian church here by the announcement that he intended building up a new church solely for "young folk," as he did in the Detroit church.

"I believe," he emphasized, "that the best way to do this is to have a steady religious service each Sunday morning, and that the evening service should be turned over to the young people. A picture show with a moral lesson and a little talk on the subject followed by a supper served by the women of the congregation in the parlors of the church, are part of my plans. All of this would be free to the young folks of the city."

Members of his congregation have asserted that the directing board of the church will "stand by the minister in every way possible to carry out his ideas."

We made a most thorough search of the clothing world for men; we examined and tested clothing from every angle, and finally selected this particular line because it has proven the greatest combination of—

Style, Fit and Quality

It was possible to find. Selections of materials were unusually broad, workmanship was second to none, and the fact the line has long been regarded as the final word in styles for men in New York.

Materials Are All Wool

There are no shoddy or mixtures of wool and cotton; no piecing out of linings or other parts. Every material, color, style and pattern finds representation in a bewildering maze, and the prices—$25, $30 and $35—represent a degree of clothing value impossible to duplicate. We have made exhaustive comparisons and know this.
