Weddings

Toombs-Turnbull.

The Central Baptist church was the scene of a beautiful wedding of wide interest on Wednesday evening, when Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Saunders Toombs gave in marriage their daughter, Ruby Starling Toombs, to Mr. Steve T. Turnbull.

Prof. Ernest F. Hawke, F.A.G.O., A.R.C.O., presided at the organ, rendering a specially selected program of musical music, and preceding the ceremony Mrs. David L. Griffith's sweet voice was heard in several specially selected numbers.

Palms, ferns and great clusters of yellow chrysanthemums, with white tapers burning in cathedral holders, made an artistic setting for the marriage, which was solemnized by the Rev. Theophilus Green, D.D., of Greenville, Miss., cousin of the bride, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The bride wore an exquisite robe of duchess satin embroidered in a fleur de lis motif in seed pearls, with overdrapings of rose point lace, over which fell the beautiful veil of Belgian hand-made lace, brought from overseas by Mr. Turnbull upon his return from service abroad. This was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies.

The maid of honor, Miss Shirley McDavitt, of St. Louis, was gowned in yellow beaded chiffon veiled in tulle, with crystal garniture, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The bridesmaids, Misses Ruth Frazer Brown, Frances Wood, Margaret Bruce, with Miss Henrietta Yarger, of Jackson, Miss., were gowned in turquoise blue satin veiled in flesh chiffon and carried bouquets of Richmond roses caught with gold ribbons.

The bride's niece, little Miss Jacqueline Toombs, wore a frock of ruffled pink organdie trimmed with French roses, and carried a gold French basket filled with rose petals.

Mr. Turnbull was attended by Mr. Conrad Kuna, of New York, as best man; Messrs. Joseph Hanson, Harris Draughton and Gordon Wood, with Mr. John Halbert, of Jackson, Miss., as groomsmen; and the bride's four brothers, Dr. Percy Toombs, Mr. William Ray Toombs, of Greenville, Miss., and Messrs. Fred and Robert Toombs.

The ceremony was followed by an informal reception for only the members of the bridal party and relatives, in the home of the bride's parents, on Monroe avenue and Rainey place, which was beautifully decorated with white chrysanthemums and greenery. To receive the guests the bride's mother was handsomely gowned in black lace and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Grace Turnbull, of New Orleans, was also elegantly gowned.

A dainty wedding menu was served to the guests after they had viewed the beautiful array of wedding gifts which attested the popularity of the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull left for an Eastern trip, the bride traveling in a stylish suit of flag blue velvet with a small taupe hat of dovetail trim with quills.

Upon their return the last of the month, Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull will be at home to their friends at 1323 Monroe avenue.

Among the guests from a distance at the wedding were Mrs. Grace Turnbull, of New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Toombs, of Greenville, Miss.; Miss Shirley McDavitt, of St. Louis; Mr. Conrad Kuna, of New York; Miss Henrietta Yarger and Mr. John Halbert, of Jackson, Miss., and the Rev. Dr. Green, of Greenville.

A marriage of much interest to their many friends was that of Miss Octavia Cannon and Mr. Robert T. Bowen, which was quietly solemnized on Wednesday evening at Calvary Episcopal church, the Rev. W. D. Buckner reading the pretty ceremony.

The bride was gowned in a blue broadcloth suit with trimmings of blue and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley lilies. She was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Thomas Hope Cannon.

Miss Lucy White Cannon, who was her sister's bridesmaid, wore a brown velvet suit and carried a bouquet of pink roses and valley lilies.

Mr. John W. Cannon, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Mrs. W. E. Hyde rendered several vocal selections and Mr. Adolph Steuterman played the wedding music.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowen left immediately after the ceremony for New Orleans and other points of interest. On their return they will be at home at 1391 Madison avenue.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of St. Mary's Catholic church at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening when Miss Julia Agnes Maley became the bride of Mr. Harvey Elliott Nash, the Rev. Father Baal officiating.

The bride wore a suit of taupe cloth with hat to match.

Miss Mary Frances King, the maid of honor, wore a suit in a pretty shade of brown and a large picture hat.

Mr. Walter Brogan served as best man.

After Nov. 25 Mr. and Mrs. Nash will be at home at 957 Galloway avenue.

A very pretty wedding was impressively solemnized in the parlors of the Court Avenue Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon when Miss Mary Emma Douglass, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Douglass, of Arlington, Tenn., became the bride of Mr. Oscar Welch Thweatt.

The Rev. H. O. Hofstead officiated in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

Miss Vashli Thweatt was the bridesmaid and Mr. H. S. Cole attended the bridegroom as best man. After a bridal trip the couple will make their home at Millington, where the bridegroom is established as a successful young planter.

Misses Lillian and Catherine Creedon will entertain with a matinee box party at the Orpheum Saturday complimentary to Miss Helen Patricia Fisher, a petite bride-elect, whose marriage to Mr. Francis Reilly will be an event of interest.

The following cards have been issued: "Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willhite announce the marriage of their daughter, Myrtle, to Mr. Guy S. Hudson on Saturday, Nov. 8, 1934, Memphis, Tenn."

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson are at home to their friends at 1319 Mississippi boulevard.

Mrs. Joel Graves Harris is convalescing after an operation at Gentry-Ramsey hospital. She expects to go home in a few days.

Mrs. E. B. Hart and Miss Mary Shepherd, of Winton-Salem, N. C., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall White, at their home on LeMaster street.

Mrs. Lucie Clapp, formerly of Memphis, but now making her home in San Francisco, Cal., will arrive in the city on Sunday and remain until after the holidays.

Miss Claudine Griffin, of Salem, Va., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall White.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Thompson and baby, have gone to Chattanooga, having been called to the bedside of their mother, who is seriously ill.

Miss Matilda Overton, of St. Louis, has been welcomed for a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Goodbar, and will be a participant in social affairs here until the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stovall, of Royal, Miss., have been guests in the city for a few days the first of the week.

Bry's

MEMPHIS, TENN.

Admission Free

Professor Munter is here to introduce, explain and demonstrate his really wonderful invention, the "NULIFE" Corset, and what that corset does—what Professor Munter shows it can do, is almost beyond belief.

The "Nulife" Corset, for one thing, forces proper breathing—it places the lungs in proper position—it relieves the heart and other vital organs from dangerous pressure—it restores good health—and it produces or increases the shapeliness that is one of woman's greatest charms.

It is to be hoped that women, for their own good, will realize the importance of Prof. Munter's visit here and that they will realize this early enough that they may hear Prof. Munter's lectures and see his demonstrations at Bry's this week.

Men, also, are invited to attend Prof. Munter's lectures, which will be of interest to them also.

Now, of all times, is when you are most vitally interested in preserving your health—so why not drop in and ask Professor Munter to show you how to breathe properly?
