FRENCH SUGAR SHORTAGE WILL CONTINUE 3 YEARS

ROBSONS, France, Dec. 30.—The sugar shortage in France, due to the German invasion, will not be relieved for three years, according to government reports and commercial statistics furnished to the correspondent of the Associated Press today by the authorities who arranged his trip of inspection through devastated regions to witness reconstruction work.

BERGER MAKES ATTACK UPON AMERICAN LEGION

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 30.—Victor L. Berger, Milwaukee Socialist, attacked the American Legion in a speech here last night, as the "outspew of capital" declared big business "stole" half the money spent by the United States during the war and reiterated his statement that he would retract nothing he had said against this country's participation in the war.

HUN CHIEF CALLS UPON ALLIED COUNCIL OFFICIAL

PARIS, Dec. 30.—Kurt von Lersner, head of the German delegation at Versailles, called yesterday on Paul Ducloux, secretary of the peace conference. Great reserve was maintained as to the subjects discussed and it is only known that Von Lersner did not bring the German reply to the last note to the Berlin government from the allies.

TAKE HUN'S PROPERTY

BERLIN, Dec. 30.—The Tagelblatt says it has been informed that a court official yesterday entered the residence of Dr. Karl Helfferich of the Tiergarten quarter and attached his property in order to cover a fine of 200 marks imposed upon the vice-chancellor by the war responsibilities investigation committee.
