NEW YEAR CABARET FOR HOSPITAL FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

One of the largest and most brilliant of the many events planned as a farewell to the departing year and a welcome to 1920 will be the New Year's cabaret at the Hotel Gayoso by the members of the board of the Crippled Children's hospital, of which Mrs. E. M. Ellis is president.

The guest list will include 500 of the most prominent people in the city, and for whose entertainment the members of the board have arranged a novel form of entertainment. The cabaret entertainers will each represent some Memphis firm, which has paid handsomely for the privilege of being so represented, and thus helping to swell the fund for the building of the greatly needed detention ward of the hospital.

The program of the evening will open with a band and dance by Misses Merle Mauldin Lawrence, Chattie Whitely, Eleanor Washington and Carolyn Van Cleef, and a review of the advertisements led by Ed Smith, those appearing in this feature being:

Miss Lelia Wade, as a riding girl, and Miss Louise Richardson, as a palm beach girl, representing Phil A. Haller; Miss Irene Bond, representing Roney Millinery; Millard Bosworth, representing the Hood Tire; Miss Blanche Busby, representing the Union and Planters' Bank and Trust company; Miss Blanche Phillips, representing the News Sentinel; Miss Eleanor Whitely, representing the Commercial Appeal; Miss Ada Norfleet, representing the Vanity Fair Toilet Products; Miss Margaret Carroll, representing the Princess Candy company; Miss Marietta Dunscomb, representing the Memphis Motor Car company; Miss Marguerite Randolph, representing Pan Tass's; Miss Mary Budd Stewart, representing Julius Goodman; Miss Adelaide Orrell, representing Geo. T. Brodnax; Miss Barbara Smith, representing the P. C. Knowlton company; Miss Louise Anne Roberts, representing H. I. Summerfield; Neely Grant, representing Arthur Seessel; Miss Helen Craft, representing Memphis Bread company; Miss Margaret Boyle, as a Clever girl; Miss Juliet Metcalf, as Betty Ross, representing Memphis Bread company; Miss Cornelia Knight, representing Samuel Toilet Products company, and Misses Josephine Gates, Sandra Metcalf, Virginia Falls and Louise Fry, as Moon girls; Miss Dorothy Anderson, of Cincinnati, representing Fairy Soap.

Participating in the contest will be some of the most attractive of the season's debutantes, the dancers being Misses Elizabeth Hill, Elizabeth Jordan, Jewett Swift, Judith Hunt Campbell, Mary Lee Busby, Blanche Carter, Anne Leatherman, Hattie Carr, Virginia Moore, Maxine Humphrey, Marie Cordes and Virginia Meacham.

Dr. Carroll Parker will sing "A Kingdom All My Own." The tango waltz will be presented by Miss Claire T. Estrance and Monsieur Rene Paridon, both of the Hotel Gayoso. This will be followed by a picnic dance in which the participants will be Misses Maudie Moore, Maxine Humphrey, Katherine Hayley and Gwen Dolyn Cook.

Numbered among some of the patrons of the affair will be: MESSRS. AND MIES: C. K. Smith, Henry Hayley, H. K. Jones, George Craig, J. S. Williams, W. S. Roberts, Bright Goodbar, Frank Egan, A. R. Hudson, Ralph Chew, Hugh Connell, Frank Hayden, Herbert Gannaway, Hugh Wynne, Ernest Taylor, A. M. Austin, Grover McCormick, J. M. Seriggs, A. L. Parker, Millard Bosworth, E. M. Lawrence, Hugh Humphreys, J. D. Fulmer, John Trenholm, Shelby Gabbert, Peter Grant, Henry Livingston, Frank C. Milton, Lawson Falls, R. G. Morrow, Harry Ramsay, Rayner Turley, Rayburn Dunscomb, John H. Edgar, Jack Gates, Charles Steele, G. H. Fitzhugh, S. J. Latta, C. A. Barner, Edward Barrow, D. M. Russell, Milton Smith, R. O. Johnson, E. L. Jordan, Dave Stewart, Roland Fontaine, R. L. Mallory.

MESDAMES: Mary Boyd, Abton Boyd, Margaret Carroll, Mary McElroy Harris, Ellen Craft, Julie Carr, Evelyn Rainier, John Morgan, Adele Orrell, Anne Leatherman, Jewett Swift, Judith Campbell, Lucille Warwick, FLORES: John Austin, F. S. Bragg, Napoleon Falls, T. M. Ezzell, Harry McWilliams, John Morgan, J. S. Williams, Jr., Robert Chilton, Philip Reed.

The Crippled Children's hospital, for which the benefit entertainment is given, now has 21 children as patients and these are between the ages of three and 14 years. It was the intention of the board to make 12 years the limit, but there came to their notice a case so much in need of immediate assistance that this rule was broken as the hospital is first of all for the good of humanity. This case was a little girl taken from a house boat. She was under-nourished and seemingly beyond help, but has made the best progress of any child in the hospital, which has to its credit nine cured cases.

The greatest need of the hospital just at present is for a donation of clothing, cotillions and dresses, and it is probable that the money derived from the entertainment on Wednesday evening will be put to that use.

The patients in the hospital were very generously remembered at Christmas time. They had a visit from Santa Claus and as many toys as heart could wish. One of the best gifts was a brand new five-dollar bill presented to each child by Master Snowden Snowden, who volunteered to give up his own gifts to help these unfortunate.

Miss Cleve, the head nurse, is doing wonderful work at the hospital, as is also Miss Cooper, who has established a school of four grades and has secured a piano and a typewriter, which are in the upper room devoted to study and are the joy of the children.

Those who aided in making the affair a success and who in any way contributed to the fund may feel that their efforts were more than worth while.

All those who attend the affair on Wednesday evening have been requested to be in their seats promptly at 7:30 o'clock as the program will begin at that time and to be sure and bring their tickets as otherwise they cannot be admitted.

WEDDINGS Phillips-LeClerc. The marriage of Miss Edith Jane LeClerc, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. LeClerc, to Mr. Jerome Joseph Phillips, was quietly solemnized on Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 2093 North Main street, the Rev. T. M. Lowry, D. D., officiating.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for New Orleans and other points of interest.

DON'T MISS IT! THE MIDNIGHT SHOW At the Strand Theater Tonight At 11 Six beautiful dancing girls will be a special feature. Car Service On All Lines At 12:30 a.m.

SEXTETTE OF PRETTY MEMPHIS GIRLS WHO WILL FEATURE STRAND'S NEW YEAR JUBILEE

There is going to be mirth, music, pretty girls and fun at the Strand theater's New Year eve's party, which will be staged at the Strand Wednesday night at 11 o'clock.

The sextette of pretty and talented dancers, who have been trained under the careful eye of Miss Irene Stella, will usher out the senile year and welcome the advent of His Royal Highness 1920.

The program will be started promptly at 11 o'clock and an hour of real undiluted comedy will be thrown upon the screen, the program being composed entirely of comedy features. Fatty Arbuckle and all the kings of the "Nitty" family are to be on deck and the best of the comedy bill will be at the Strand New Year's eve.

The band orchestra, under the direction of William Davis, has promised to provide one of the jazziest jazz concerts the Memphis public has ever heard and those who are fortunate enough to be in the audience at the break of the New Year are assured of plenty of fun, despite the absence this year of old John Barleycorn.

For the convenience of patrons, special arrangements have been made by C. A. McElroy of the Memphis Electric, Inc., with the Memphis Street Railway company, whereby special car service will be provided on all lines at 12:30 o'clock, with the exception of the Raleigh and the Lakeview lines.

Entertainments REX CLUB MEMBERS CELEBRATE NEW YEAR. The members of the Rex club will hold their annual New Year celebration on Wednesday evening in their handsome club home on Dunlap street.

The members of the entertainment committee, Messrs. Leo Wartzbarger, Morris Hirsch and Dr. Earl Scharf, have planned a most novel and interesting program which will be introduced during the serving of the midnight supper.

Dancing will be featured in the ballroom until 11 o'clock when the guests will be invited into the dining room, where they will enjoy the features introduced by special cabaret entertainers from the theaters and enjoy a delicious menu, interpreted by informal dancing.

At midnight the course of the new year will be celebrated with a regular carnival in which all of the guests will join.

Invited to assist in receiving the guests, about 20 of whom will have the pleasure of being present, including the debutantes introduced at the club in an amuse-bouche, are Misses Helen Jones, Neva Mitchell, Thelma Swayze, Aline Caradine, Beatty Wooten, Lucile Alexander, Irene Fraxwell, Virginia Alexander and Misses Joe Bennett, Alexander, C. T. Caradine, J. W. King, H. M. Callout, L. D. Rutherford, A. L. Caradine and William Fisher.

sage bouquet will be pink roses and valley lilies.

Miss Howard's gown will be blue with overdraperies of net and embroidery of emerald-green beads, and her flowers will be red roses in corsage effect.

Mrs. Howard will wear an embroidered velvet vest and a corsage bouquet of pink roses.

Those who will have the pleasure of presenting their young daughter, are Mrs. E. K. Moody, Mrs. J. E. Lantz, Misses Helen Price, Floyd Howard and Isabelle and Mary Fortson, of Shelby, Miss.; Messrs. Elliott Whittier, Joseph Stokes, P. W. Bell, Don Ernst, Jack Harris and Dr. and Mrs. Howard.

BOX PARTY TENDERED FOR ATTRACTIVE DAUGHTER. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Williams complimented their young daughter, Virginia Williams, with a box party at the Orpheum theater on Wednesday afternoon being her fourth birthday anniversary.

Miss Williams, wearing a gown of black satin with trimmings of jet, a black sequin hat and corsage bouquet of roses and valley lilies, entertained a group of her friends in the prettily decorated boxes. To the guests were presented bouquets of corsage bouquets and dainty bon-bons.

Miss Williams will entertain on Wednesday evening at her home, 135 Cox avenue, a children's party in honor of her little daughter, Dorothy. The occasion being her fourth birthday anniversary.

A pink and white color scheme will be prettily carried out in the decorations and to each guest will be presented a basket filled with bonbons.

Miss Margaret Dalton and Miss Lona Price, of New York, will assist Mrs. Dalton in entertaining the children.

Informal Dancing Party. Miss Sara Maddux will entertain on Wednesday evening at her home, 135 Cox avenue, an informal dancing party at her home on Carr avenue.

The college girls and boys who are at home for the holidays will bring out of town guests will be numbered among those present.

Announcements In Honor of Mrs. Stevenson. Miss Teresa Bright will entertain on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. George Stevenson, at her home, 135 Cox avenue. About 25 of the bride's friends will have the honor of being present.

CLUBDOM Musicales Planned. A musicale has been planned by the pupils of Miss Cecile Ducaque for Friday, Jan. 2, when the following program will be rendered:

Activities Among Memphis Negroes By Rev. T. O. Fuller.

This column has rendered large and willing service to the negro people of Memphis during the year now closing. At the request of some leaders of the race this space was granted that publicity might be given to the uplift agencies and that the outside world might get some knowledge of the constructive activities and the lines of co-operation between the races. We have not reached the limit of our usefulness nor have we published everything that has been done. There were some things we did not know about, and our friends were too busy to give us the facts. Happy New Year!

Lula I. Hobson, the bookkeeper at Howland street following the holidays where she spent the holidays with relatives and friends.

I have a schoolboy who is good in the use of the typewriter. Could you use him mornings and evenings?

Kraus cleaners will give their negro employees a dinner and entertainment at the Community house, 401 Beale avenue, Saturday night. It is wise to look after the leisure hours in which the habits and character are formed.

The Mount Vernon Baptist church, of which Rev. W. W. Whitten is pastor, held its annual business meeting Tuesday, Dec. 30, when reports of the year's work were submitted. The showing for the year was good.

I have several opportunities for cooks and houseboys. I could place a few teachers in Arkansas schools.

The Henderson Business college has a fine class in bookkeeping and the school has splendid facilities for such training. Many young men work in the day and pursue the course at night.

Deacons of the First Baptist church held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night. Friends are invited to the watch night service, Wednesday night.

The Cotton Farmer, published at Scotts, Miss., is on our desk. It tells the story of farm life that can not fail to interest the reader.

The true citizen, earnestly striving to better conditions in his community, will not seek to paralyze the efforts of others having the same object in view. Community of interest should bring unity of spirit and effort.

Julia A. Hooks is in charge of the negro department of the juvenile court. Children charged with delinquency or who are without protection are placed in temporary detention until something can be done for them. Work of this kind needs the sympathy and co-operation of the public. Much good has been accomplished, but the work is seldom brought to the attention of the public until something is done that brings criticism from some interested party to the transaction. The home is one of the essential social agencies and good people should cooperate.

NASHVILLE'S CLEARINGS NEAR BILLION DOLLARS

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 31. (Sp.)—Bank clearings in Nashville as reported by the local clearing house for the year ending today show an increase of approximately $18,000,000 over 1918.

The 1918 total ran to $746,652,219.55, while that for the last year totals $864,652,219.55. This is the most prosperous year in the history of Nashville and the clearings reflect the great growth of business here in spite of the closing down of the Old Hickory power plant, which was running full blast during 1918, with a weekly pay roll of more than $1,000,000. Clearings for December ran $110,000,000.

YAZOO POSTOFFICE BREAKS ALL RECORDS

YAZOO CITY, Miss., Dec. 31. (Sp.)—All records were broken by the Yazoo City postoffice during the holiday rush, not only in the number of packages and letters received at and sent from the local office, but in the dispatch with which the mails were handled as well.

In the four days preceding Christmas day the southbound train leaving Yazoo City at 7 a.m. carried 270 sacks of mail. This train carried the largest amount of mail leaving Yazoo City, but by no means all of it, since a train on the same day goes north at 6 p.m. and another train, which is of great service to Yazoo merchants in reaching territory surrounding Yazoo City, leaves at 3:30 p.m. Still another train over this latter division leaves Yazoo City early in the morning.

Incoming mail was said to have been in proportion to the outgoing mail and the force at the local postoffice is said to have been kept extremely busy since the shipping of Christmas packages began some time ago.
