CLUBDOM

NINETEENTH CENTURY CLUB CHAIRMAN HONORED BY CLASS

The many friends of Mrs. Mary L. Beecher, who has for a quarter of a century been the leader of the current topics class of the Nineteenth Century club, of which she is a charter member, gathered in the drawing room of the club Wednesday to pay tribute to her in honor of her birthday.

Mrs. Beecher, who is one of the club humorists and one of its most beloved members, has been greatly missed during the winter when she has spent in Denver. The meeting had been planned as a New Year's greeting to Mrs. Beecher, but on account of the ban on public gatherings at that time the meeting was postponed. This program in honor of Mrs. Beecher was the happy thought of Mrs. Joseph P. Carey, who was the chairman for the day and presided in her usual charming way.

Knowing Mrs. Beecher's love for brightness and humor in the club gatherings, she asked those participating to make the program as humorous as possible and everyone entered with enthusiasm into the spirit of the occasion.

Mrs. Carey, in her happiest vein, gave the guests of the morning her own experiences as a member of the public speaking class which brought forth a case of matrimony. In this manner she cleverly introduced Miss Sarah Wright, the chairman of the public speaking class, who spoke on "The Footsteps of the Club Members."

Washing Won't Rid Head of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid armo, apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most of the dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid armo at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Tightens Her Skin—Loses Her Wrinkles

"I want to tell you how easily I got rid of my wrinkles," writes Luella Marsh. "While in London a friend, much envied because of her youthful look, gave me a formula for a homemade preparation which has the effect of instantly tightening the skin, thus smoothing out wrinkles and furrows. The principal ingredient is powdered saxolite, which can be had at drug stores here. An ounce of saxolite is dissolved in a half pint witch hazel. After bathing my face in this but once the transformation was so marvelous I looked years younger. Even the deep crow's feet were affected and the annoying creases about my neck, it seems difficult to believe anything could produce such results. Several go whom I recommended the recipe have been similarly helped, one an elderly lady whose cheeks had become quite baggy."—Social Mirror.
