

Roosevelt Pledges Heavy Hammer To Speed Up Senators

WASHINGTON, July 19.—Amid the waving of many hands and the cheering of employees of the department of which he is acting head, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice-presidential nominee, was given a formal welcome back to Washington yesterday.

Committees of employees of the Washington navy yard marched to the navy department where they joined navy air-marine officers, enlisted men and civilian employees in extending the welcome. Mr. Roosevelt made a brief address in which he pledged continuation of his friendship for the laboring man.

On behalf of the Metal Trades council of the navy yard, Paul Donley, a machinist, presented the nominee a gavel made of oak-wood, taken from the hull of the presidential yacht Mayflower and inscribed with silver.

"If in the course of events you go to the high office to which you have been nominated, I hope to see you use this tool to keep your colleagues in the senate in good order," said Mr. Donley.

"I hope to use it for the first time on the fourth of March, next," was Mr. Roosevelt's reply. "It may be necessary for me to go to the navy yard and borrow one of those instruments known to workmen as 'beev' hammers' and if I am compelled to do so, I promise that by that means, if by no other, we will get some legislation out of the United States senate."

Prior to the formal welcome held in front of the navy department, Mr. Roosevelt met the ranking officers of the navy department and marine corps, including Admiral W. S. Benson, chief of naval operations, and Maj.-Gen. Le Jeune, commander of the marine corps, in his office. He also received there the congratulations of several hundred women employees of the department.

The nominee arrived in Washington early in the day from New York and spent most of the day clearing up matters which had arisen during his absence.

Announcement was made by Mr. Roosevelt during the day that he would resign his position in the navy department about the first week in August. He said he expected to be formally notified of his nomination about August 7 at his home in Hyde Park, New York.

Calomel

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all kinds of troubles, just go to your drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow. Besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. You can give it to children, too.

The Report Charge Is Made For A Service Rendered

REPORT charges are only made under certain conditions on person to person long distance calls (which include appointment and messenger calls), and then only in cases where the telephone company has performed for you a real service in the use of its lines and operators.

When you give a messenger instructions to deliver a message across town to a particular person and to bring you an answer and the messenger carries out your instructions but reports that the party was absent from the address given and could not be located, what do you do? You pay the messenger a fee for the service he rendered.

When you ask the telephone company to locate a person in a distant city for you and it connects with the given address but the person is not there and it so reports to you, it has done all it could. It used its agencies fully but it could not control the whereabouts of the person whom you desired to reach. It has done what the messenger did. It employed its wiles and effort was expended by its employees to perform the service requested by you, and for this service a charge is made.

This is the report charge.

The telephone company does not charge for all reports.

No charge is made for reports of "busy," "out of order," or "don't answer."

Unless the company succeeds in reaching the designated station and reports to the calling station within one hour after the call is made, there is no report charge.

Regardless of the number of reports made on a call for a particular party at a particular address, only one report charge, when applicable, is made.

If the call is completed any time during the day filed, all charges for reports are cancelled.

If there is anything about our rates and practices you don't understand, call the local manager and he will be glad to explain the whole schedule to you.

Or, if you are billed at any time with charges in conflict with the above rules, take the matter up with the local manager. He will gladly and promptly correct the mistake.

We believe that the willingness to correct error, inevitable in all enterprises using human agencies, is one of the prime elements of public service.
