

COX VICTORY IN OHIO DEPENDS ON CINCINNATI VOTE

Lawrence Finds Prohibition Issue Which Has Helped Democrat in Past Dead in National Contest.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE.
(Special Correspondent of The News Scimitar.)

CINCINNATI, Oct. 25.—Gov. Cox's chances of carrying Ohio have seemed to depend largely on what he can do in such Republican strongholds as Hamilton county, which includes in its boundaries the city of Cincinnati. Every time Cox has run for office in Ohio, he has either cut down the Republican majority or carried the county. The Hamilton county explain it on the ground that the "wet" helped Cox, or that the Republican organization itself was lukewarm toward such pronounced "drys" as Frank B. Willis, the opponent of Cox in two of the gubernatorial races.

What, therefore, will Cox do this year in Hamilton county? It seemed worth a special investigation. First of all, much to my surprise, there is no wet and dry issue. Liquor organizations as such are not active or visible. The Republican workers, however, being not at all blind to the fact that Hamilton county contains many Republicans who have voted in the past for Cox on the wet issue, simply reprinted in large quantities one of the newspaper dispatches from the Far West wherein Cox said in effect he would have voted dry had he been a member of the United States senate.

Friendly Feeling for Donahay.

But the prohibition question is not a factor of importance. The same friendly sentiment for a Democratic governor prevails toward the Democratic nominee for governor—C. A. Donahay—yet, with respect to the national ticket, traditional party lines seem to be followed.

The Republicans talk of carrying Hamilton county by 50,000. The Democrats privately concede Cox can not carry the county, but they insist the majority for Harding will not be much better than the Hughes majority of 14,000 or its equivalent, 25,000, with the women voting this year.

If Gov. Cox can come down to Hamilton county with a lead of 35,000 to 40,000, he would still be able to carry Ohio by a majority of from 16,000 to 15,000. That's Democratic optimism in Southern Ohio.

Workers whose morale must be kept up and leaders whose hopes are never dashed to the ground till the last vote is counted, firmly believe the reduction of the Harding majority in Hamilton county will mean a Cox victory in the state.

To dispute this claim, or rather to determine the validity of the foregoing argument of the Democrats, one must journey to Northern Ohio and other sections of the state, where Cox must pick up the afore-said lead over Harding. That will be the writer's task tomorrow in Toledo and Cleveland and the northern tier of counties.

As for Springfield, O., this correspondent learns that the normal Republican majority will probably be increased there and that in Dayton a bitter fight is being made which will have the effect of keeping down the decisive majority which the friends of Cox have been expecting in his home county.

Stimulated by Drift to Cox.

The governor is due to speak here this week and the local Democrats who have been stimulated by the noticeable drift to Cox in the last few days think the effect of the visit will be to cut down further the Harding majority in Hamilton county.

It is easy to dismiss Ohio with the whispered statements of several well-informed Democrats who think the state is lost on purely Wilson and anti-Wilson issues, but there is no denying the steady growth of Democratic strength ever since Senator Harding made his speech at Des Moines which was interpreted as a rejection of the present league of nations.

One of the newspapers here printed 100,000 copies of the covenant for free distribution and the supply was quickly exhausted. The Democrats who were inclined to scoff at the league of nations issue as a vote-getting proposition admit that they should have become enthusiastic about it earlier in the game.

They now see its possibilities. They insist that a mere reading of the covenant has incited some simply because the text of the document refutes many of the arguments and misrepresentations that have been made by opponents of the pact.

On the other hand, Hamilton county reveals as elsewhere a fundamental desire for change in government at Washington based entirely on domestic issues. Some of Gov. Cox's campaign speeches have not awakened the ardor of independents. His slush fund talk and constant criticism of his opponent have failed to win him votes and, in some cases, indeed, have lost for him such strength as he had.

Friendliness to Cox.

There is a distinct friendliness to Cox in this county. He knows personally many of the voters. There's a swing to Cox on now, but whether it will be sufficient to win Ohio is difficult to determine at this end of the state. Drifts are largely conjectural, though they are reflected in street talk and the announcement of independents and proleagan enthusiasts that they will vote for Cox.

The Republicans themselves admit that their gubernatorial candidate—Harry Davis—is losing strength and this may affect adversely the Republican ticket which is on the same ballot, but they do not agree that Cox is benefiting particularly by that phase of the situation.

Hamilton county, which helped elect Cox governor of Ohio, will go Republican. If the remainder of the state gives Cox a lead, he could win without Hamilton county.

To determine how Ohio will cast her electoral vote, the political wayfarer must go to Northern Ohio.

Tired Of Beatings She Decides To Kill

Tired of being beaten, she said, Thelma Taylor, negro, shot and killed Jerry Taylor, negro, in a room at 365 Beale avenue at 6:30 Monday morning.

Taylor was dead when Emergency Officers Vannucci, Henderson and Fleet reached the scene. He had been shot twice in the body, one bullet penetrating the heart. The woman, who was in the room when police found her, claims she fired but two shots. The revolver showed three empty chambers. She is charged with first degree murder.

The woman admitted the shooting at once, charging the negro with continually beating her. She said she could stand it no longer and decided to end it during a quarrel Monday morning.

TO STUDY COLOSSIANS.

The recent Bible conference was a great help to the Tuesday night Bible class, in renewing interest in the work according to the teacher, C. G. Dean. The class is now studying the book of Colossians. Meetings are held in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock and the class would welcome the presence of other men and women interested in Bible study.

May Locate New Boat Concern Here

A new boat corporation, which will operate a new type of river boat, may locate in Memphis in the very near future. F. O. Bleicher and R. T. Durrett, of Louisville, who are organizing the corporation, will join the workers in the campaign to sell controlling stock in the Kate Adams at their luncheon Wednesday. It is believed by local men that a satisfactory deal can be negotiated with the Louisville people, which will go hand in hand with the proposition to buy the Kate Adams.

The new type of boat proposed, while not described in detail, is said to have been planned with the idea of economy of operation in mind. Officials of the corporation state that its affairs will be in the hands of experienced and efficient executives.

M'KELLAR FORECASTS DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

United States Senator Kenneth D. McKellar, who has just reached Memphis after a tour of the state during which time he spoke in the interest of the Democratic nominees, was a visitor at the courthouse Monday.

Early in the day he called upon Edward H. Crump, county trustee who has just returned to the city, and later he was kept busy shaking hands with constituents around the building.

The senator declared that he believed beyond any doubt that Gov. Cox would be elected.

Cuba Farmers Will Lease Big Hangars

As a result of permission granted by the war department, the hangars at Park field will be leased by farmers in the Cuba neighborhood and will be used to store cotton. The permission of the war department came Monday in a telegram to Congressman Hubert Fisher, who is here lending a helping hand in the local political campaign.

C. W. Watson, market expert of the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, and F. M. Landess, agricultural agent for Shelby county, represented the farmers in their successful efforts to secure the hangars. The hangars will be leased for a period not to exceed six months. The new warehouses are expected to be big factors in the holding movement, which in turn is expected to aid in the upswing of values.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING POSTPONED, NO QUORUM

Absence of two members of the board of education from the city and slight illness of another member prevented the holding of the regular meeting of the board Monday. Only two members of the board and Wharton S. Jones, superintendent of education, were present at the meeting. After the meeting had been officially postponed for lack of quorum an informal discussion was held relative to the disposition of the remaining $256,000 in bonds authorized by the 1919 legislature. It was stated that the early disposition of these bonds was urgent, but it was also pointed out that it would be almost impossible to sell them until money matters have eased up.

Young Bandits Raid Craps Games, Hold Court, Take Fines

Sheriff Perry Monday opened an extensive investigation of charges made by persons whose names he would not divulge that a group of young white men in the county, impersonating officers, raid craps games, hold "court" on the scene and take all money found on the "sully."

The sheriff said he had been informed that the young men were making "raids" and "high jacking" all those "arrested."

The latest instance, he said was at a livery stable where several negroes were caught playing their classic game. Considerable money was taken from them after "court" was held.

Sheriff Perry said he would bring such activities to the attention of Attorney-General Sam O. Bates and the grand jury. He has several clues which might lead to an arrest at any time, he added.

Mothers! Give The Little Ones Syrup Pepsin

They like Dr. Caldwell's, and it quickly relieves their constipation and headaches.

BEGIN to teach the child regular daily elimination as young as possible, and much constipation will be avoided later in life. The most convenient hour throughout life is immediately upon arising. It does not then interfere with play, school or work.

When in spite of your efforts a member of the family becomes constipated, give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the size dose directed on the bottle. It is a mild, gentle laxative safe for young babies; effective for grownups. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, and most economical as a sixty cent bottle will last you many months.

For your information, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. Look on it as a good family friend, useful to relieve constipation and symptoms like headache, biliousness, colds, fever, bad breath, loss of appetite and sleep. 13 Eggs A Day From 17 Young Pullets

Mrs. Niles Starts 6-months Old Pullets Laying. Tella How.

"Early in November, I bought a package of Don Sung and started giving it to 17 pullets. In the first 30 days they laid 138 lovely eggs. All through December I got 11 to 12 eggs a day.—Mrs. E. S. Niles, R. F. D. 2, Lucerne, Ind.

Mrs. Niles found how to start young pullets laying and keep them laying. The same method helps hens through the moult, and starts them laying. You can test that our risk.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself, we'll pay you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

You can obtain Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send $1.04 (includes war tax) for a package by mail. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.
