He stood the torture until this morning when it became so unbearable that he visited Dr. L. B. Graddy's office. The steel had to be literally operated out, which is a very painful operation. The eye will be saved.

FAINTED IN COURT.

A Young Lady Charged With Stealing Silver Ware.

After Being Brought to, the Charge Against Her is Withdrawn.

A lady of this city on Tuesday found herself missing, and upon looking about discovered also that seven silver-plated knives, six forks, one dozen towels and half a dozen napkins, the whole valued at $15, had disappeared. The lady, putting this and that together, naturally concluded that as the servant had taken away her trunk, the articles were stowed away there. She reported the matter to the police and, furnished with a good description of the servant, Marshal McClure and Officer Donohue started in search of the girl. They soon found the expressman who had removed the goods and he directed them to a house on Harney street as the place he had taken them to. There the girl's trunk was found and upon being opened the articles before named were discovered. The girl was taken before Judge Bencke yesterday and there she was confronted by her former mistress. The girl is very pretty and refined-looking and bore herself in a lady-like manner. She said that the lady with whom she lived had owed her $6, and that she asked for the money several times without receiving it. She acknowledged readily that she had taken the articles but alleged in extenuation that she had not been paid her wages. The judge called the girl before him and read the section of the statutes which covered her case. It provided that upon conviction the culprit could be fined $100 and sent to jail for three months. As the judge began to read the girl was noticed to change color rapidly and as he mentioned the word "jail," she suddenly gasped for breath and toppled over on the floor in a dead swoon. This sensational feature of the case caused great excitement among the small audience. The other lady, however, immediately set to work and by considerable chafing and the copious use of water soon restored the young girl to consciousness. The girl almost had another hysterical fit until she was assured that she was not to be sent to jail. The charge was withdrawn as all the goods had been recovered, and the girl was allowed to go free. She seemed utterly overwhelmed by the disgrace of her position.

Unpleasant Reception.

A man named Patrick Cooney, working at Steele, Johnson & Co.'s oil house, went home last night and found a disagreeable acquaintance comfortably chatting with his wife. This was not altogether pleasant for Cooney to contemplate, more especially as he was not entirely sober. As he tells the story he rapped loudly for admittance but his wife told him it was no use as she did not intend to let him in. As he persisted she suddenly threw open the door, and as he alleges, struck him a terrible blow on the head with a hatchet. His head was frightfully gashed, although the skull was not fractured.

A Heavy Loss.

A few days ago Mrs. McDonald, living on South Thirteenth street, went out into the country to buy a load of hay. On her way back she threw an old skirt containing $275 in bills and 25 cents in silver on the top of the load. She walked on ahead and reached home. The wagon unfortunately struck a washout at the lower end of South Thirteenth and was overturned. Before it had been gathered together again and loaded upon the wagon, it caught fire in some unexplained way and was entirely consumed. When Mrs. McDonald returned to look for her money she found the silver which had escaped unharmed, but the greenbacks had gone up in smoke.

A PROFESSIONAL.

He Does Some Work in Fremont and Tries it Here.

Sheriff Robert Gregg, of Dodge county, was in the city yesterday, looking for a man who committed quite a robbery in Fremont Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Tom Turner had left her house and gone to visit some friends. The thief taking advantage of her absence broke into the house and took everything of value he could find, which included a valuable gold watch and chain, silver spoons and several articles of jewelry, amounting in all to $400. As soon as the robbery was discovered the sheriff started after the thief. He had got into a box car, which was on a track at that place, loaded with potatoes for Omaha. When the evening freight train came along the car was locked up and attached to it. When the train got along the road towards Omaha Conductor Clark discovered the man, and having been warned by the sheriff to look out for him, he immediately telegraphed Gregg the fact. The sheriff started for Omaha to get him, but when he arrived the bird had flown. Some one had broken open the lock and allowed the man to escape. The same individual went into Laughlin's place yesterday and stole a silver watch worth about $15. Laughlin was eating his breakfast in a room back of the store, when the man quietly walked in the front door, slid back a glass door of the front show window and picked up the watch Laughlin, having noticed the man, came up to him to see what he wanted. The fellow, with great presence of mind, said that he had a pistol which he wanted to sell. No bargain for it was struck and so he walked out. As soon as the loss was discovered Laughlin looked for the man but found him not. The police were notified but they have not yet been able to find him. He evidently is an old hand at the business.

Anthrax Again.

It is said that anthrax, which has been made famous in this section of the country by Doc. Foot's alleged discovery in Council Bluffs, has broken out in a violent form at Creek bottom, near Lincoln. The cattle are said to be suffering terribly from the disease and all efforts to stay its progress, up to the present, have been unavailing. Physicians say that this is always a terrible disease for if the virus from the cattle enters a man's hand it causes his death in a very short time.

Mr. W. P. Ryder, 124 Lexington street, Boston, Mass., in making reference to his experience in certain directions thus remarks: I am pleased to say that I have used St. Jacob's Oil for rheumatism with the best success. My case was one of two years standing and baffled all other treatment, but St. Jacob's Oil cured me.

WELCOME BACK.

The May and December Couple Return to the City.

It is Said That all has Been Forgiven Them.

The young man and middle aged school teacher who caused such a furore in Omaha social circles last May by eloping returned to the city from their prolonged bridal tour yesterday. The particulars of the affair as they appeared in THE BEE at the time are as follows: The lady was a teacher in the High school and the boy was her pupil. He soon became her favorite pupil and the fact caused considerable gossip among the other pupils. Apparently the attachment became mutual, for it is said that the young fellow often took the teacher out walking, at the conclusion of which he would accompany her to her apartment. One evening in May last the young fellow did not show up at his paternal abode as usual, and this fact caused considerable anxiety to his parents. The next morning a search developed that the fair female was also absent from her domicile. Putting all of these facts together it was wisely concluded that the twain, incited by that little cuss called Cupid, had flown to some more congenial clime there to bask in the light of each other's love. The next heard of them was from Kansas City where the lady had previously lived. A local paper had a sensational account of the history of the lady there, which was accompanied by the statement that she had just been married to a person many years her junior. This caused a good bit of gossip here and elsewhere because of the fact that the bride was old enough to be her husband's mother. Since then the affair had died out, other scandals having come up to appease the appetite of the gossip mongers. Yesterday the couple returned and were received with open arms by the father of the young husband.

Liquor Dealer's Meeting.

The liquor dealers held a meeting last night at Turner hall. After minor business had been disposed of, the question of a conference with the temperance people was discussed by the association. It was decided to appoint a committee of five to confer with the temperance party. Such committee was selected and comprised the following gentlemen: Julius Treitsacke, Ed. Leader, Henry Hornberger, Chas. Kaufman and William Sievers. To-day at four o'clock the committee will meet and consult with Watson B. Smith and other temperance people upon the much agitated question of liquor selling. After the conference the liquor men will hold a meeting in the evening to talk over the result of the conference and also to devise means for future action.

HO! FOR COOL MINNESOTA.

The Last Excursion to the Great Summer Resorts-$12.00 for the Round Trip.

Another excursion, the last of the season to this famous summer resort of cool Minnesota, has been arranged to leave Council Bluffs on September 5th, at 7:45 p. m., by the great Sioux City route. The rate will be the lowest ever given over this line, the round trip being only $12.00. Just think of it. It is cheaper to travel than to stay at home. The tickets are good for thirty days. This will give an excellent opportunity for everybody to visit the greatest fair in the northwest, at Minneapolis, which lasts all week, commencing September 5th. The rates at this fair will be well worth traveling twice the distance to see. No opportunity for genuine enjoyment will be offered again this season, and all who take advantage of the exceedingly low rates will be sure to get their money's worth fourfold. Make a note of this, and don't forget it. For further information, apply to

A Costly Fire.

Mr. P. McArdle, of Elkhorn, who was in the city yesterday, says that a stable belonging to William Korner, a blacksmith in that place, burned to the ground Tuesday night. The stable at the time contained two horses, one a valuable one, and a couple of hired men made a desperate effort to save the animals. Both of the men were almost overcome by the smoke and escaped from the building with the utmost difficulty. One of them in attempting to loosen a horse was badly kicked in the face by the frenzied animal and will probably be marked for life. Both horses were roasted alive, and the stable was burned to the ground. The entire loss will be about $800. The origin of the fire is unknown.

RATHER BRISK.

A B. & M. Man's Opinion of U. P. Ball Tossers.

"Individually I like the U. P. boys," said A. B. & M. base ballist yesterday. "I've got a good many friends down in that building; but I must say that when you get a crowd of them together they are like the railroad they work for—they want to grab everything. For instance, they want us to play for that prize ball, which is our personal property. That's a nice challenge indeed to make. We don't want to play them for the headquarters championship and what's more we won't play them. They must stand on their own merits, but they must ring in professionals to beat us. On the square, dead level game we could get away with them every time. Why don't they go around and play other headquarters nines like we do. They ain't got the sand, and don't you forget it. Very nice challenge that of the U. P. boys; very nice, indeed." And the B. & M. ball tosser turned to another page of his Clipper.
