

The Daily Bee. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Saturday Morning, May 5. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier, 30 cents per week. By Mail, $10.00 per Year. Office: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's spring styles. Additional local on seventh page. The funeral services of Patrick Powers were held yesterday afternoon.

Dr. F. S. Seybert has been chosen as the medical examiner of the Druids. Marshal Jackson has lost his pet gray horse, some sudden illness taking him off.

Mr. Emptie, of hardware fame, is improving greatly his residence on Sixth street. Mr. Covatt is building a very neat cottage on Harrison street north of Washington avenue.

Al. Helmer now is a happy father, the new comer being a daughter, weighing seven pounds. Many thus far do not seem much on the marry, as no licenses have been taken out since the first.

Mr. Grayes, of Streetville, has raised a house and is making marked improvements in his place. There are on the docket for the coming term of the district court 117 new cases and 116 old cases.

L. C. Brackett expects to move into John Epener's handsome residence, having leased it for three years. One plain lodger, Charles Elliott, was the only one to be turned loose from the calaboose yesterday morning.

The trains out this afternoon are the Chicago & North-western, Wabash and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. The work on Main street has been retarded by the rains but the filling will now go on at a lively rate again.

Nim Long and R. J. Graham were booked at the police station yesterday by Deputy Marshal White for fast driving. The cigar makers still continue to take life easy, they and their employers not having reached any satisfactory adjustment of their differences.

The papers were filed yesterday by which Mrs. Mollie Lacy seeks to get a divorce from T. B. Lacy, charging him with driving her out doors. The prostitutes of the city were yesterday notified to call at headquarters and go through the form of being fined, but which practically means paying a license.

James Murphy, who was injured by a fall at the new building of Furst & Bradley, has sued the contractors, Wickham Brothers, setting his damages at $5,000. Among the new cases filed for the district court is one of Mrs. L. Smith versus H. S. Gallagher, claiming damages for being ejected from the latter's building.

It is understood that Mr. Fiedinger intends to build a handsome residence soon on the beautiful lot recently purchased by him on Fourth avenue, near Mr. Patterson's. The cases of the boys charged with breaking into a carpenter shop, came up before Justice Vanhanen this morning, and a red hot neighborhood row is to be aired up this morning.

Caroline O'Reilly has commenced suit against the Chicago & Rock Island railroad company for $5,000, on account of her husband, Eugene O'Reilly being killed while coupling cars June 22, 1881. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spleers have been sadly bereaved by the death of their little Maudie, aged only five years, who died Thursday night of membranous croup. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Sunday entertainments at Spiritual hall rooms, Nos. 4 and 5, St. Agart & McMahon's block, at half past 10 o'clock, a. m. Lecture by Mrs. Bradley in reply to Judge Page. Afternoon and evening spiritual circles will be held as usual.

The report that Mayor Bowman intends to appoint another colored man on the police force seems to be without any foundation, though one gentleman of color has been openly avowing that he was offered a position and was still deliberating whether he would accept or not. The mayor has got himself in a queer boat by appointing one such, and he will not probably try the experiment again, in view of the comment of his democratic constituency.

The playgrounds of the Bloomer school house furnish so limited accommodation to the large number of children in attendance, that the large piece of vacant property on the corner is appropriated by the boys daily. It has been suggested that steps be taken to secure all the ground from the building clear to the corner, and devote it to the use of the school, if a purchase could be made on reasonable terms. Whether this is advisable or not, it is evident that so large and beautiful a school building should have more and better playgrounds.

There should be as free and full accommodations as possible given to those who have the enterprise to build, and thus improve the city, but there should be due care taken in occupying the streets with building material, lest—at night particularly—accidents occur. The lumber and brick piled on Broadway now is, in the darkness, quite a stumbling block and should be illuminated by lanterns at night. Thursday night a physician of the city had a narrow escape from serious injury there. He was out late, attending to some patient, and in driving along in the dark, the gas in that vicinity being out, his buggy struck the lumber pile and was overturned, throwing him out, but luckily breaking no bones. In all of such places there should be lanterns at night.

Strawberries, fresh and ripe, received daily at W. T. Braun's European restaurant, 404 Broadway.

A CRAB GAME.

A Young Blood Loses a Fat Roll in a Chumpish Manner.

The Fellows Who Fleeced Him Pay the City Its Share.

A young man giving his name as Van Buren, and claiming to be from Chicago, has been here and in Omaha for two or three days, having a spree, which began across the river, and which closed here in rather a costly manner for him. Thursday afternoon he was drinking with some of "the gang," and had in his pocket a nice fat roll of between $400 and $500. In the evening he was invited into a room on Broadway where a game of poker was in progress. According to his statement he became quite interested in a hand held by Joe Ketter, who was playing against Jim Wilson, and had such faith in Joe's winning that he backed him up from his own roll, until he had given him $435. When the call was made Wilson had the strange hand, and now the money, leaving Ketter's "friend" out of pocket by this large sum. The victim was told that he as well as the others who were there at the poker game were going to be pulled by the police, and Ketter pretended to be so frightened that he was going to skip, too. He got young Van Buren to start for the depot yesterday morning, but Marshal Jackson stopped them and brought them into court. Ketter pleaded guilty to the charge of gambling and was fined, including costs, $30. He paid up and walked off. An information was filed against Wilson also, but the latter kept very shady, doubtless desiring to get the witness out of the way before he came to the front, as it might save him a fine of $40, which would more than pay the victim's expenses to Chicago.

It is claimed that Ketter first fell in with young Van Buren at Lincoln, and that he has kept in tow, borrowing money from him, and betting until this loss, which was too much for the young man, and hence the break. It is to be hoped that now that the council has got the grip on this business that it will keep it, and will keep prosecuting and fining, shutting up and confiscating the tools, until some change is made that will do better the reputation which Council Bluffs now has of being the worst gambling place in the county.

Home made candies and fancy confectioneries at W. T. Braun's, 404 Broadway. C. J. Beckman, having moved from Broadway, is now all ready for business in his new quarters, No. 519 Main street, where he has as complete a harness and saddlery goods establishment as there is in the city.

I will place on sale the next ten days all my men's underwear, coats, hosiery, children's dresses and other notions at the very lowest prices, having determined to close out that department. Mrs. D. A. Benedict, 337 Broadway, Council Bluffs.

All of Harry Leland's meat accounts have been left at my office for immediate collection. Call and pay at once. W. R. VAUGHAN, Justice of the Peace.

Lucious bananas and other fruits at W. T. Braun's European restaurant, 404 Broadway.

PERSONAL. Richard Rawlings, for a number of years foreman in The Globe job rooms, has resigned his position with that paper to accept a more lucrative one with The St. Joseph Herald. Dick leaves for his new place to-day and the good wishes of his many friends here will follow him.

Hon. E. F. Clayton, of Macedonia, with Geo. Sherman and others, have been looking into matters at the deaf and dumb institution. He leaves to-morrow for Nebraska, where he has large land interests.

A. J. Earling, the division superintendent of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and I. B. Beardsley, assistant superintendent, were in the city yesterday.

T. B. Blake, the postmaster of Avoca, and the Naby of the east end, came into the city yesterday on business.

L. R. Wadleigh, of Clinton, was among the arrivals at the Ogden yesterday, and greeted old friends here.

C. H. Norton, of Avoca, spent the day in the city and returned home yesterday.

J. Voeburg and John M. Evans arrived at the Pacific yesterday from St. Louis.

D. B. Miller, of Red Oak, was at the Pacific yesterday.

A. Hess, of Des Moines, was among those at the Pacific yesterday.

A. W. Mann was a man at the Ogden yesterday.

E. H. Combs, Miles City, Montana, arrived at the Ogden yesterday.

Chas. Eisenman, of Yankton, is at the Ogden.

C. W. Green, Des Moines, was at the Ogden yesterday.

E. J. Geiman, of Los Angeles, California, is at the Ogden.

George H. Estabrook, of Chicago, was at the Ogden yesterday.

Neil Johnson, of Lincoln, Neb., was in the city yesterday.

John W. Hutchinson, of Salt Lake, arrived at the Pacific yesterday.

E. S. Allen, of Logan, was greeting friends here yesterday.

M. G. Graham, of Atlantic, visited the Bluffs yesterday.

THE OTHER DAY FOR BUILDING A WOODEN SHED INSIDE THE FIRE LIMITS.

Swelgart Came Tearing Around About It and Jackson Told Him that if he got an order from Alderman Keating to withdraw the complaint he would do so.

To the marshal's surprise Swelgart soon returned with the order signed by the alderman, virtually sanctioning the violation of one of the city ordinances. The marshal on the strength of this withdrew the complaint.

Yesterday information was filed against Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Stelnbach for building sheds inside the fire limits. Their cases were continued by Judge Aylesworth until Saturday, May 12th, in order to give these property owners time to remedy the buildings, so as to do away with the alleged violation of the ordinance.

*Those who deaden sensation and stupefy the patient to relieve suffering make a grave mistake. They proceed upon the false idea that it is legitimate to procure relief from pain by destroying physical sensibility. This method, carried to the last extremity, would kill the patient to end suffering.

It is not presumed that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will raise the dead but it often does restore those who are given up as hopeless cases.

If you are not married, write the Marriage Fund and Mutual Trust Association, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, for circulars explaining the plan. 63c.

How to Shorten Life's The receipt is simple. You have only to take a violent cold, and rest quietly, the great English surgeon, asked a lady who told him she only had a cough: "What would you have? The Plague? Beware of 'only coughs.' The worst cases can, however, be cured by DR. W.M. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. In Whooping Cough and Croup it immediately allays irritation, and is sure to prevent a fatal termination of the disease. Sold by all druggists and dealers in medicine.

This is a recent ordinance in the town of Bellary, India: "Resolved, that as the loose monkeys in the town have become exceedingly troublesome, by attacking women and children carrying eatables, and overturning the tiles of the roofs of the houses in the town, these animals be caught and sent out into the open country, and arrangements be made that monkeys may not receive any injury while being retted."

Coughs and Colds Those who are suffering from Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and other ailments, should try BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES. Sold only in boxes.

Money for the Unmarried One of the most solid and substantial institutions in this country is the Marriage Fund and Mutual Trust Association, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. They are organized under the laws of Iowa, and their officers and directors are among the leading and most prominent business men of Cedar Rapids. Every unmarried person should have a certificate in this association.

It is a splendid investment, as safe as government bonds. You can just as well have a good sum of money to commence married life on as not. A large number of members have been paid off, receiving over 300 per cent on their investment. Write for circulars fully detailing the plan, which is the finest known. Do not postpone it. Good agents wanted. Mention where you saw this notice. 15-3m.

Our New Loan and Improvement Co. Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of
