

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Saturday Morning, June 23.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier - 30 cents per week; By Mail - $10.00 per Year.

OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway.

MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's spring styles. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. The Congregationalists had a pleasant social last evening.

The Pacific house had "Our Summer Boarders" last night.

Malvern has thirty-three old soldiers who propose to organize a post of the G. A. R.

"Patience" is to be given this evening at Bohann's by the Chicago Ideal Opera company of Chicago.

Another break in the bank of the creek at Madison street has endangered travel there across the foot bridge.

The examinations at St. Joseph's academy begin on Monday and continue through Tuesday. The closing exhibition will be given Tuesday evening.

The iron bridge formerly at Madison street, and which was taken down and stored to make way for the culvert, is to be thrown across Sixth street now.

Congressman Pusey announces a competitive examination to be held in this city July 10, to fill the vacancy created by the graduation of H. J. Gallagher, at West Point.

Alderman James could not do better by his constituency that by getting the council to order a new sidewalk along by W. C. James' property, as the present excuse for a walk is horrible.

C. R. Scott has been selected as the Fourth of July orator for Persia. This makes five oratorical Missourians who are to be sent forth from Council Bluffs on that day to entertain and enlighten the surrounding country.

What has become of Council Bluffs' military company? A city of this size should have enough young men willing to form and maintain not one but two companies at least. The citizens would take pride in them and help them along, too.

The Glen avenue wooden culvert, which was lately repaired by a gang of men who worked so thoroughly that it took three men to hold a plank while one sawed it in two, has broken in again. This time a wagon run over it, crushing a hole in its top.

M. Larkin, Esq., of Oskaloosa, Iowa, agent of the Iowa state society of spiritualists, will lecture in rooms No. 4 and 5 Shugart & McMahon's block, to-morrow (Sunday) evening; also good test mediums will be present. Circle at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The second spiritualist society will continue its meetings and lectures at Plattner's hall, middle Broadway, every Sunday at 2 o'clock, p. m. and evening at 7:30 o'clock, p. m. The best mediums and lecture talent of the city is secured. Mr. Winchester will assist the meeting to-morrow.

Ernest Wright, son of Joe Wright, while at work in Overton's yard on lower Main street, met with a bad mishap, the axe by some slip striking his foot between the toes and cutting very deeply, necessitating the careful attention of a surgeon. The wound will disable him some time, but it is hoped not permanently.

Frank T. Sheppard, in succeeding Brother of The Walnut News, has changed the name of the paper to The Walnut Bureau. The improvement made in quantity and quality of news, will cause the drawers of the Bureau to be filled with shining dollars, if Walnuters really appreciate a good thing when they have it.

Officer Morse arrested E. C. Clifford yesterday for being drunk at the transfer. Clifford paid his fine out of the $32.70 he had in his pocket, and when sobered up claimed that he had $70 with him and been robbed. He rather laid it off on the officer and entered his complaint before the mayor. When a man is drunk he is always richer than when sober.

Ferdinand Fray, the poor fellow who has been blowing a horn on the street corners to warn people of the coming end of the world, was before Justice Abbott again yesterday. A philanthropic citizen consented to take the unfortunate young man and care for him, as he was homeless though evidently a little cracked on religious subjects.

Charlie Woodbury is the only boy who has been graduated from the high school here in two years. Prof. Farman in introducing him to the audience at commencement exercises very happily called attention to the appropriateness of the subject of his oration, "Courage." Why do not more boys avail themselves of the excellent chance to gain so goodly an amount of practical education.

Mr. Weidensall, the western secretary of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A., is meeting with very much success and encouragement in his attempt to collect means for the local association in this city, and there are many others who will doubtless contribute cheerfully when they fully understand the purposes and plans of the young men interested.

An attempt is made to protect the bank of the creek between Seventh and Eighth street, by a levee of posts and planks. There is doubt about it standing, however, as it is liable to be washed around, and under, and finally go. Already it is found that at the bend in the creek the posts are not strong enough, and heavy timbers must take their place. This age of experiments may finally result in solving the creek problem. It is evidently not solved yet.

John Dierks met with a serious accident while in a hack near Kirkman. The team, in descending a steep hill, became unmanageable, and to save himself Dierks jumped out. He received a double fracture of the leg, the bone protruding through the flesh. Had he remained seated, as afterwards appeared, he would have been all right, as the team was soon brought under control without any other mishap.

Arrangements are already being made for next fall's fair, with the expectation of making it the biggest sort of a success. The following superintendents of various departments have been chosen: N. F. Story, horses and mules; F. M. Macey, cattle; Col. A. Cochran, hogs; Fred Lamb, Sr., sheep and poultry; John Hawthorn, implements and machinery; S. G. Underwood, vehicles, tools, hardware, etc.; Wooster Fay, grains and vegetables; Mrs. R. M. Osborne, pantry and kitchen; Thos. Officer, implements and fixtures; A. S. Bondam, fruits; Mrs. B. S. Terwilliger, plants and flowers; N. M. Pusey, fine arts.

Erb Schriver, who is with Casady & Orcutt, kindly remembered THE BEE yesterday by a beautiful bouquet of roses, which gave much cheer to the scribe toiling and perspiring over the editorial table.

Horace Everett has commenced suit against the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad, claiming $136 damages for windows being broken and buildings shaken by the dynamite explosion in September, 1881.

John R. Martin, the next door neighbor to THE BEE, has taken the contract for the plumbing of Bochtele's new hotel. That makes it certain that the work will be done well.

Leave to wed was yesterday granted to Maids Peterson and Kerstine Peterson, both of this city. They are not only like name, but also of like age, each being 26.

A young man named Harter, while riding a blind horse near Harlan the other night, was thrown, breaking one collar bone and fracturing the other.

The water works employees were again made happy yesterday. Prompt pay.

The Jewett refrigerator is the best in the market. Cooper & McGee have them, 41 Main street.

The CAUGHEY HOUSE on Broadway is one of the best hotels of its size in the west.

Dr. West, Dentist, 14 Pearl street.

TAKING AWAY A WITNESS.

The Story Told by Story, Arrested at Oakland for Perjury.

J. H. Story was brought to this city on a warrant secured by Deputy Sheriff Chatterback, charging him with perjury. He at once gave bail before Justice Abbott, and is to have a hearing to-day.

Story says he was a witness in the trial of a saloon man at Oakland, named W. T. Callison, charged with selling whisky. Story was the prosecuting witness, and had been in Callison's employ but had trouble with him, and a short time ago sued him for his wages. While waiting for the trial to commence he was arrested and brought to this city. He exonerates the officers from having any part or parcel in what he believes to have been a put up job to keep him from testifying, but he naturally feels that he has been misused by the others concerned. The officer was in that part of the county on other business and the warrant with the instruction not to arrest Story until told to do so. He followed instructions without knowing even that Story was a witness, and having other business at Hancock he took Story right along with him. Story is quite exercised about the way he was taken from the trial.

If you want a refrigerator that will reduce your ice bill and give satisfaction, call at Cooper & McGee's and buy a Jewett.

To-day we expect to receive a car load of California oranges and a car load of the celebrated Kentucky cider.

DUQUETTE, GUBERT & Co.

Knuckled Down. William Hepper met with quite a serious accident at Walnut on Wednesday. He was at work in the elevator of Clayton & Scofield, when his clothing became caught by a knuckle of the main shaft, drawing him under and breaking his arm, dislocating his shoulder and causing several bad bruises. It is feared that he may have to lose his arm, but it is not thought the injuries will prove fatal. Mr. Hepper is about 60 years old, and consequently the injuries are much more serious than to a younger man. His wife was in Wisconsin visiting friends at the time.

Don't forget the sociable at Spiritual hall this evening. Good music and dancing, also ice cream, &c.

Is your wife's health poor? Are your children sickly? Give them Brown's Iron Bitters. It will revive them.

Our New Loan and Improvement Co. Investigation into the matter convinces us that one of the most equitable, reasonable and feasible plans of building houses is that proposed and in operation by the Mercantile Loan, Trust and Improvement company of this city. By investing in shares in this institution, which is backed by some of our best and most reliable business men, it becomes possible and comparatively easy for a man of moderate means to secure a comfortable home for himself and family. In taking a certain number of shares, at a certain monthly payment, in a few years a man can own a house of his own for about the same as he pays monthly for rent. We believe the Mercantile Loan and Trust company, by organizing and opening up a certain number of shares, at a long felt want in Council Bluffs. Their plans and system of loans will bear the most careful scrutiny and examination, and we have no hesitancy in pronouncing them reasonable and equitable, and backed by gentlemen of honor and integrity. As the company exists it becomes at once an institution of value and credit to our city.
