

THE DAILY BEE. OMAHA. Tuesday Morning, July 24. LOCAL BREVITIES.

ENTERTAINING EGAN.

The Omaha Irishmen Treat the Ex-Treasurer Handsomely.

Sentiment and Sound Sense Wrestle to Predominate.

The most interesting and significant event of last evening was the reception and banquet tendered to Hon. Patrick Egan, the distinguished Irish patriot, by the Irishmen of Omaha.

Mr. Egan arrived in Omaha on Saturday, and has been since that time a guest at the Millard Hotel. The distinguished gentleman has had many callers, and was last evening given a public reception at Crouse's hall, when hundreds of friends and admirers of the honest and honored ex-treasurer of the land league, called to pay their respects.

At the conclusion of the reception at 9 o'clock, Mr. Egan was given a handsome banquet at the Millard hotel. Mr. J. E. Markel, who is entitled to all the credit for the arrangements of the table, etc., did his level best and the result was a spread that would do honor to any metropolitan hotel.

Mayor Chase presided as chairman, and the distinguished visitor occupied the seat of honor on the right. Among those who were present were the following: Ex-councilman Dennis Cunningham, John Groves, Mr. O'Donohoe, ex-Commissioner Ford, Joe McCaffrey, T. F. Brennan, F. J. McShane, Esq., Larry Mangum, Thomas Tallon, Peter O'Malley, S. P. Reynolds, Robert P. Rickerby, C. J. Smyth, Mike Lee, Andy Murphy, C. A. Boland, James Brennan, J. E. Riley, Tom Callan, J. J. O'Connor, Hon. P. F. Murphy, James McShane, W. A. L. Gibbon, J. McCarthy, C. O'Donovan, John Feeney, James O'Boyle, Col. Frank Hanlon, M. J. McMahon, John Regan, Charlie White, Pat. Foley, P. N. Tarry, B. Maginn, Wm. Shelly, Tom Dalry, Thos. Swift, Rev. James Williams, Dr. McKenna, Dr. Den, Hon. James Neville, Colonel C. S. Chase, F. W. Gray, George Linden, Hon. John Bush, Ed. O'Connor, J. C. Brennan, Wm. Dwyer, John McFarland, H. M. Maguire, Al. Sorenson, of the Republican, Captain Jackson, of the Herald, and W. H. Kent, of THE BEE.

The guests took their places at the table at 9 o'clock sharp, and an hour was passed in doing justice to the magnificent spread, after which champagne was poured out liberally, fragrant Havanas were passed around, and amid the sparkling wit of the one and the curling smoke of the other.

Mr. Egan introduced Mr. Egan, who expressed his thanks for the great kindness and attention he had received in Omaha, and more especially for the high compliment paid him here to-night. He said it was far beyond what any services of his would entitle him to. He accepted it as an honor for the cause of Ireland rather than any attributes of his.

ment which alone can come from America. The fight is being carried on all along the line. The new organization, the Irish National League, is being steadily pushed throughout the country, and there are already 400 branches in Ireland, and over 80 in Europe. In addition to that the people are everywhere fighting the English landlord garrison, and in all positions within the gift of the people they are supplying their places with honest tenant farmers. It is that way the country is placing its public opinion before the world.

I have no doubt, if the opportunity is offered, that the great majority of people will stand up for freedom of trade. No reasonable man will deny that the Irish people would be justified in striking for freedom in that manner; but without reasonable hope of success it would be the highest crime against Ireland's opportunity, and when the opportunity arrives we will not object to the use of that opportunity.

The Philadelphia convention of the Irish race in America has inaugurated a new era for the Irish people on this side of the Atlantic. The platform is moderate and wise, and it met with the unanimous approval of the cool and clear-headed American people. If the platform be accepted and acted on by the Irish people here, it will do as much service on this side of the Atlantic as it will do in Ireland.

Mr. John rush responded eloquently to the toast, "CHARLES STEWART PARNELL," and was followed by Mr. Alfred Sorenson, city editor of the Republican, whose theme was "THE PRESS."

Mr. Sorenson is one of the best of hand speakers in this part of the country and he last evening eclipsed all former efforts, and made a speech full of truth and sound sense as well as sparkling with humor. He closed with an eloquent prediction of Ireland's future freedom.

Mr. Egan introduced Mr. Egan, who expressed his thanks for the great kindness and attention he had received in Omaha, and more especially for the high compliment paid him here to-night. He said it was far beyond what any services of his would entitle him to. He accepted it as an honor for the cause of Ireland rather than any attributes of his.

When in 1847, England and the Irish landlord garrison banished the Irish people from their homes, and the English people and press were exulting that the Celt was going with vengeance, and was becoming as rare as the Indian on the shores of Manhattan, England little thought of the store of hate and danger which she was piling up in the future, from the ex-patriated people.

LET THERE BE LIGHT!

Be It Coal Tar, Water Gas or Electric Lamps. An Important Subject Freely But Ineffectually Handled.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held last evening, at which all the members were present. Forty-eight pages of minutes were read, occupying fifty minutes of time.

On motion the council went into COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE, with Mr. Kaufmann in the chair, to consider the subject of light.

Mr. Anderson, chairman of the committee on gas, presented the various propositions, petitions, etc., received for lighting the city.

On motion Mr. J. T. Clark, general manager of the Northwestern Electric Light and Power company, was allowed to present the merits of his company, which is to furnish the city with twenty arc lights, doing away with 120 gas lamps, and would run the same price as from twilight to midnight.

Mr. Hascall thought the request of the electric light should be placed in prominent places and reasonable terms could be made with the company, there could be no objection to giving them a contract.

Mr. Behm and Mr. Anderson spoke on the same question, but wanted a little more definite understanding as to the distribution of the lights.

Mr. Dunham wanted to give the electric light a chance and wanted the matter settled at once.

Mr. Baker wanted the council to make haste slowly and to look into the cost of lights before taking any steps. He didn't want the streets which were already lighted, given more lights and the outskirts of the city left in darkness.

Mr. Thorne also wanted the light all night and, and thought the price demanded for electric light too high.

Mr. Clark being called on again said he would prefer not to run their light later than 12 o'clock at night, but if the council preferred it they would run all night. The net difference in the cost to the city between twenty arc lamps and one hundred and twenty gas lamps would give ten times the light of the gas lamps.

Mr. O'Connor stated that his company would not light up after the electric lights went out. He stood by his original proposition. He offered $35 per lamp, etc.

Mr. Clark asserted that Mr. Murphy had made different propositions and went on to say that the water gas was dangerous to the public, and in Paris, where it was originally invented, it was not allowed to be used.

Mr. Behm offered to prove that the twenty arc lights were not equal to over fifty gas lamps.

On motion the committee rose and reported that they desired to sit again before taking any definite action, which was granted.

Mr. Hascall offered a resolution that Hon. A. J. Poppleton and Judge Thurston be retained to assist the city attorney in the injunction suits recently brought to restrain the letting of the paving contracts, provided their services could be secured without cost to the city. Mr. Hascall stated that Judge Thurston had already tendered his services to the city. Adopted.

Mr. Behm offered a resolution that the city pay $200 of the cost of paying Tomlinson in front of James Stephenson's barn. Wm. Mack would give $100, and the stone would sell for $275, leaving $93 for Mr. Stephenson to pay. Referred.

Adjourned.

SAD ACCIDENT. An Aged Lady Run Down in the Streets. Brutal Conduct of an Unknown Driver.

An old lady whose name is unknown was yesterday morning run over on Seventeenth street, near Davenport. It appears that she was walking in the street when a team, driven by some reckless man, ran into the poor old lady, who is over 77 years of age.

She was struck by one of the horses and whirled under the hind wheels, one of which passed over her chest. Dr. Leisenring, the city physician, was summoned and answered promptly, in the mean time sending a telephone message to police headquarters for a conveyance.

It was a pitiful sight to see the aged lady prostrate upon a sofa in front of a house on 10th street. She was asked various questions but could not answer any, owing to age and pain. The driver, who was the cause of the accident is not known, but if he was so unmerciful as not to stop and pick up the poor old soul he deserves punishment. Whether he did the mischief by reckless driving or not, we know that the old lady was too infirm to get out of his way. She was removed to the hospital where she will be properly cared for. The accident may yet result fatally.

How Much Will it do? How much of Thomas' Electric Oil is required to cure? Only a very little. A few drops will cure any kind of an ache; and a little more is needed for sprains and lamenesses. Rheumatism is not so readily affected as a cold and sometimes two ounces are required. No medicine, however, is so sure to cure with the same number of applications.

Mr. B. Hellman, of Chayenne, who has been in Omaha visiting friends, left for the west Sunday afternoon.

DEI. BERGEN—July 23, at 7:15 o'clock p. m., Oscar Godfried, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bergen, aged 9 months. Funeral to-day, July 24, at 2 o'clock p. m., from residence, No. 1277 North Nineteenth street. Friends invited.

ART AND ARTISTS.

A Fine Exhibition at the Studio of Prof. O'Neil.

A Bee reporter visited the studio of Mr. J. K. O'Neil, the well known and successful artist, No 1512 Douglas street, which was opened a few days ago and where there are on exhibition a great many fine specimens of oil, crayon and water color paintings, executed by the artist and his pupils. It is well worth a visit to see this work, which is remarkable in more than one respect. Among the gems of the collection but a few can be specially mentioned and many deserving of praise omitted.

THE BAGNIO BUSINESS.

An Alleged Wholesale Settlement on Ninth Street.

The Bee reporter was yesterday shown a petition signed by the resident property owners on block "70" in the third ward, corner Ninth and Capital avenue, which will be presented to the city council to-night. They demand that the proscribed territory for women of bad repute be extended to three instead of two block radius about the third ward school building. It is claimed that two or three houses are about to be moved on the vacant lots on this block to be rented for bad purposes and the respectable citizens of that locality object.

Our informant stated that the houses would be added as proposed by the following number of girls: 29 Americans, 29 Irish, 19 Swedes, 9 Germans, and five Ethiopians. This is probably an exaggerated estimate, but cutting it down by half it would be bad enough and would check the improvement begun in that vicinity.
