

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Tuesday Morning, Nov. 20. SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By Carrier - 30 cents per week. By Mail - $10.00 per Year. OFFICE: No. 7 Pearl Street, Near Broadway. MINOR MENTION.

See Joseph Reiter's fall goods. Additional local on seventh page. Cheap Railroad Tickets at Bushnell's. The Round Table meets this evening at the residence of A. B. Walker. John Jones, the main street liverman, has been the victim of an overcoat thief. L. Holcomb has been chosen as the engineer to run the electric light dynamo machine. Thomas Boucher was run in yesterday afternoon for being too drunk to take care of himself. Notarial seals—Best solid metal base $3.00. Novelty Works, Fourteenth street, Omaha. Captain Tealy is excavating on Main street, near the Creston house, for a restaurant building. F. B. Strong yesterday pleaded guilty to the unique charge of "raising h—ll at Ida Story's." It cost him $9.00. Henry Knepper received a telegram yesterday informing him that his brother, who is in Nebraska, was dying. Jennie Mack was yesterday brought to the front for being the inmate of a house of ill fame. She was fined $14.10. Loring, the tailor, charged with larceny, took a change of venue to Justice Abbott, and secured a continuance. Tim Caughey has been arrested for being drunk, and is lodged in jail. He is to have a hearing in Vaughn's court Saturday. Mrs. Gray has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of L. Burnett, for getting board under false pretenses, but he has not been found. The Pacific house folks say they have adopted the Central time because four of the railways coming in here have adopted it, instead of only two. Ernest Lewis, a boy, has been arrested on the charge of stealing ropes, etc., from Mrs. Woods. He gave $100 bonds to appear before Justice Vaughan to-day. The electrician for the Pilsch, Bowen & Vaughan electric light arrived last night, and will commence his work at once, hoping to have the light going before next Monday. Some malicious fellow throw a stone through a rear window of the Bee Hive block Sunday night, nearly hitting the colored preacher on the head, as he was conducting service there. The attachment suit of Thomas Owen vs. John Dengman, before Justice Vaughn yesterday, drew about fifteen farmers in for witnesses, but the case was continued until the 17th. The case of P. M. Marco, charged with horse stealing, has been transferred from Mills county to this county, and several pounds of the papers arrived here yesterday for the next term of the District Court to consider. A young man who hired out to a farmer in Silver Creek township, last Saturday, to husk corn, disappeared yesterday, taking with him $15 belonging to a fellow husker, C. Matheson, and a hat and pair of boots. Permit to wed was yesterday granted James R. Lawrence, of Clearwater, Kansas, and Miss M. Davis, of this city; Chris. Larsen and Amelia Anderson, both of this city; J. A. Brown, of Chicago, and Bertha J. Starr, of Galena, Ill. John Ayres, a young man found wandering about the streets a few weeks ago and who has an idea that a mob is after him, has been cared for in jail until now. It becomes evident that he is insane, and he is to be taken to the asylum at Mt. Pleasant. Henry Beecroft, who did some street filling under a contract with the city, finds that some of the property owners refuse to pay the amount assessed against them. He has commenced suit against two of these, M. H. Baird and J. P. Foulden, claiming of the former $64, and of the latter $182. These will be somewhat test cases. The masquerade ball given by Abe Lincoln Post, G. A. R., last evening, proved successful and enjoyable. There was quite a variety of costumes and much fun, and a goodly amount was realized for the worthy cause of relieving the wants of widows and orphans. The G. A. R. always makes its social occasions happy ones, and the veterans seem as enterprising in peace as they were valiant in war. Mrs. Alta Arnold, widow of Hiram Arnold, has commenced suit against Peter Riefe and wife for $5,000 damages. She claims that her husband got in the habit of drinking by frequenting Riefe's saloon, and that in August, 1882, while coming home in an intoxicated condition he fell from the carriage, receiving injuries which caused his death. The plaintiff claims that she notified Riefe two years before not to sell her husband any more liquor. But they paid no attention to the notice. Christian Johnson and A. J. Jeffers have been arrested on complaint of W. M. J. Wylie, who claims that they maliciously killed five little pigs belonging to him. The pigs were found in a pile, shot and their throats cut. Johnson, who works for Jeffers husking corn, and who is a boy, says his employer told him to kill the pigs because they were running in his field. The case is to be tried by Justice Schurz on the 22nd. Hally Lewis has fixed up his bonds of $7,000 and will to-morrow start back with it to Des Moines, and present it in person to the judge. The bundamen are W. F. Sepp, J. W. Chapman, George Carson, J. N. Baldwin, P. C. DeVal, J. L. Farman, Thos. Bowman, W. R. Vaughan and W. C. James. The bondsmen qualify in over $110,000. The farmers about Marne wanted an indication of their faith in Lewis to go on the bond, but the citizens of Council Bluffs who have known Lewis since childhood, were no less willing, as they have no thought that in his heart he had any intent of committing a crime. Cut rates to all points at McAllister's ticket office, 605 Broadway, Council Bluffs. CRUMBS FROM ORESTON. A Live City Filled With Live Citizens.

Creston, Ia., November 18.—Creston is the largest and perhaps the most important city in Southwestern Iowa—excepting, of course, Council Bluffs. It is located on the C., B. & Q. railway, just 104 miles east of the U. P. transfer in your city. It is a railroad town, or at least most of the lands on which it is built, originally belonged to the "Q." company and that corporation yet has greater moneyed interest here than any other party. Creston is the eastern terminus of the division of the "Q." between here and your city, and it contains extensive machine shops of different kinds and employs here constantly a good sized army of men. The population numbers at least 7,500 and among them are a large per cent. of public spirited and enterprising citizens, jealous for the city's welfare as they are for their own. It is surrounded by an excellent farming country, is marked by every public and social requisite that modern needs dictate, and is one of the best and most prosperous business points in Iowa. The public improvements are all that is necessary and of the very best in every particular. The public schools of Creston are of the most approved character. An ample number of modern school buildings in different parts of the city furnish every facility for a first-class education. The fire department is very credible, the members of the fire company are ever on the alert and energetic in the discharge of their hazardous and responsible duties. The church going people of Creston can choose among the several different denominations which may suit their particular fancy from out a large representation of the leading denominations of the land, of which eleven representative denominations are here. Secret and benevolent societies are happily represented here by eleven different and distinct organizations. In the business line are found both wholesale and retail mercantile enterprises; of which a goodly number will compare very favorably with any similar branch of commerce in the larger cities. Two daily papers—the Gazette and The Advertiser, as well as a number of excellent weeklies, keep the people of the city and tributary country posted on the latest doings of the world. It is needless to add that in a city of the calibre of this, and one of the tributaries of Omaha, THE OMAHA BEE, both daily and weekly, is extensively circulated by an appreciative and liberal list of subscribers. FREN. Handsome Picture Cards. Messrs. C. B. Jacquemin & Co., are distributing some of the handsomest steel plate engraved picture cards published. The better part is the notice attached by which they inform the public of the reduction in the prices of their goods, and as the holiday season is approaching it will pay all to give them a call. Lecture on Buddhism. On Sunday night there was a large audience to listen to Rev. Mr. Lemen at the Baptist church on "Buddhism." He held that it was a developed religion, the outgrowth of Brahminism, which in turn was developed out of the entire stage, which was a family worship, without priest or stated religious observance. In the earliest form of religion the elements were worshipped. Brahminism was a higher form, and many of its teachings would be accepted by many Christians to-day, but the tyranny of the institution of castes, caused the people to revolt from it, and about 600 B. C. they were ready for revolution. The right man appeared for the event, as is usually the case in great epochs. This man was Sidharta, around whose standard the people rallied, and he was the institutor of Buddhism. At his death he was defined as the last manifestation of Buddha on earth, and the religion took that name. The speaker pronounced Buddhism a lower order of Brahminism. One of its great defects is its theory that there is no God and no eternal spirit, and the only object of man could be to escape life, which could not be done by suicide, but by the greatest self-sacrifice for thousands of years. The speaker thought Sidharta fell into the same error as that of modern infidelity, especially the French infidels, who declare that the history of the church is a history of blood, and revolting from the priesthood, they blindly saw no difference between the priests and religion itself, and fought both alike. The dying declaration of Sidharta, that life was a failure, not worth living, is a curse which all should escape, was in parallel with the logical verdict of the rationalism and materialism of to-day. His next Sunday night lecture will be on "Spiritualism," and all interested in that subject are invited to be present. Real Estate Transfers. The following deeds were filed for record in the recorder's office, November 19, reported for the Bee by P. J. McMahon, real estate agent: Nettie E. Marston to S. H. Hopkins, lot 3, block 15, Macedonia—$300. Henry Neville to Joseph Casady, adj and adj nw 1/4 3, 7, 6, 38—$1. Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company to Homer I. Hunter, adj nw 1/4 13, 74, 41—$800. Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad company to Lafayette Simon, adj nw 1/4 13, 74, 39—$1,040. Hardin Jones to Harry J. Moss, adj nw 1/4 22, 77, 44—$1,200. B. F. Fiery to Peter Jacobson, lots 1 and 2, block 28, in Howard's addition—$600. Total sales, $3,541.

FATAL FALL. James Sadowski Trips and Falls Under the Cars. His Body Fearfully Crushed, and Death Instant.

Yesterday morning another life was taken by the wheels on the Union Pacific road. The victim this time was James M. Sadowski, a switchman in the employ of the Chicago & Northwestern. The accident occurred on the Northwestern track where it is crossed by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road. No one could be found who was an eyewitness to the affair, but several saw Sadowski just before his death. He was then standing on the south side of the track, and was about to uncouple a flat car which had been ordered taken out of its place, to be set on another track. An instant later he was discovered under the wheels of the train which was just pulling out of the transfer, as it passed that point. It was surmised by some that he caught his foot in the crossing thus throwing him down, but later investigation pointed to the fact that in hurrying across the rails he tripped and fell, and could not get out of the way of the coming train, and as soon as possible the train was stopped and the body of the unfortunate man was taken up. It was in a horrible condition, the wheels having run over his legs and one arm and his head, the crushing being fearful. The body lay so that his head was on one rail and his legs on the other. A portion of his skull and some of his brains were scattered about, the body being turned over as the cars struck it. He was dead, of course, when picked up and all that remained to be done was to care for the mangled remains, which were taken to Undertaker Connell's establishment, and a coroner's jury impaneled. Sadowski was a married man, whose family, living on Third avenue, consists of a wife and two little girls, one about two years of age, and one about five years. His wife is in a delicate condition, expecting every day to be a twin mother, and the news came to her with such suddenness, and with such a fearful shock, that the result may prove very serious. Dr. Green was called to attend her yesterday, and it will only be by his skill and the greatest care that she will be able to rally from the heavy blow. Her husband was about twenty-eight years of age, and has lived here for about fifteen years. He has been railroading for twelve years, and nearly all these years in the employ of the Chicago & Northwestern company. Once before he met with an accident, by which he lost one or two fingers, and about two weeks ago a younger brother had a narrow escape from death by being caught between an engine and a way car. He has another brother living here, and one in California, who has been telegraphed. The coroner's inquest resulted in the ascertaining of no new facts. A number of witnesses were sworn, among them being W. Johnson, Charles Siebold, the engineer of the train; Hanford Baker, switchman on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; W. F. Bates and Edward Archer, of the Union Pacific yards; Wm. Alstrand, section foreman; E. R. Fonda, engineer in Union Pacific yards; Charles S. Proctor, policeman, and M. A. Gregory, of the Rock Island yards. None saw the man as he fell, and all that they could testify to were the facts as above mentioned. A Quick Recovery. I give you great pleasure to state that the merchant who was reported being at the point of death from an attack of Pneumonia, has entirely recovered by the use of DR. Wm. HALL'S BALM FOR THE LUNGS. Naturally he feels grateful for the benefits derived from using the remedy for the lungs and throat; and in giving publicity to the statement we are actuated by motives of public beneficence, trusting that others may be benefited in a similar manner.
