

THE DAILY BEE. OMAHA. Saturday Morning, March 1.

The Weather. For the Missouri valley: Local snows, partly cloudy weather, northerly to westerly winds; higher barometer with a slight change in temperature.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

New crop clover and timothy seed for sale, Shugart, Waite & Wiser, Council Bluffs, Iowa. Corine and her "Marie Makers" left for Lincoln yesterday morning. The overland train from the west yesterday morning was about three hours late.

The C. B. & Q. has added another sleeper and day coach to its trains each way, beginning on Monday next. Two distributors of the peace walked into Judge Henke's court yesterday, and were each assessed $5 and costs, which they paid.

Judge Neville will proceed with the Sinclair case until noon to-day, when further trial will be postponed until Monday morning next.

General Howard's lecture on Gettysburg, at the Baptist church, Monday, March 3d, at 8 p. m., for Y. M. C. A. Tickets at Fleming's, Fourteenth and Douglas.

Explosion. A pair of breech-loading gun barrels were found by W. F. Stotzel two blocks from the scene, twisted out of shape and broken in two places, showing the force.

Judah Kent, of this city, yesterday resigned from the mail service, with which he has been connected for more than eight years. George W. Thomas has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

John O'Leary, while in an intoxicated condition, stole a watch valued at $25 dollars and $6 in money from Mike Dempsey. A complaint was filed against O'Leary for this offense and he is now in jail.

The overland train west, on the Union Pacific yesterday was an unusually large one. In addition to the three baggage, express and mail cars, there were three coaches, two sleepers and three emigrant cars, making in all, eleven cars.

A Swedish car by the name of Jens Larsen, who was on his way from Wisconsin to Bennett, this state, was confiscated out of $70 by a stranger on Tenth street yesterday. It was the old, old dog, of express package, etc., but it worked all right for the confidence man.

A complaint was filed yesterday afternoon by constable Kyle against A. F. Keller, a hack driver, charging him with extortion in his business. The law allows a charge of fifty cents only within certain limits in the city, and Keller charged, as is alleged, two dollars.

In the district court room yesterday, the seats and aisles were packed full of men, all anxious to hear the testimony in the Sinaloa case. It goes to show the depravity of some people's minds, and, furthermore, tends to show that there are a large number of people in the city of Omaha who have nothing to do.

F. F. Philipin has filed a complaint against Geo. L. Hall, charging him with embezzling cash and railroad tickets to the amount of $300. The two men were partners until a few days since, when Hall disappeared with the funds and tickets as above stated. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

The man Petty, who was arrested by Sheriff Spearman on Wednesday, on a charge of theft robbery on the B. & M., was held to the grand jury by a Sney county justice, in bonds of $2,000. He was unable to give bail and was brought to this city yesterday by the sheriff and lodged in the county jail.

At a meeting of the Omaha Polo Club, held Thursday in the parlors of the Millard, Jas. G. Hitchcock was elected president; C. H. Grakow, vice-president and secretary; Harry Morford, treasurer; H. S. Macdon, captain. Arrangements are being made for match games in several Iowa cities.

There now prevails to be a war between the telephone and electric light companies. The telephone company wants the electric light wires removed fifty feet from their wires, claiming that they have had two instruments burned out by the electric light wires recently. The electric light company claims that the telephone wires in many instances "short-circuit" them, and has materially damaged their plant. The Sperry company will shortly be in the field with electric light wires, and unless some amicable settlement is made there will be a red-hot time among the wire-workers.

THE CITY COUNCIL. The Contract for Paving Farnam Street Approved.

Other Business of Importance Transacted Last Night.

An adjourned regular meeting of the city council was held last evening, President Baker in the chair. Roll called found the following members present: Anderson, Behm, Leeder, Thrane, Baker, Murphy, Woodworth, McGuckin, Redfield, Dunham, Hasall and Kaufman.

RESOLUTIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS. From the mayor: Appointing C. F. Goodman appraiser to assess damages resulting from a change of grade of Farnam street, in place of D. H. Goodrich, who declined to serve. Confirmed.

From James Creighton: Certifying that A. L. Barber had fully complied with the provisions of the contract for paving Douglas street, and therefore entitled to draw 20 per cent of the contract price. Referred.

From William H. Jjams: Certifying to a judgment rendered against the city of Omaha in favor of Paul and Elizabeth Platz for $136.08. Allowed and to be placed in next appropriation.

From M. Donovan, J. C. Bowman and J. M. Eddy: Offering $2,415, $2,501 and $2,526, respectively, for lot 2, block 8, belonging to the city. Referred.

From James Creighton: Presenting contracts of Hugh Murphy & Co. for paving Farnam and Thirteenth streets, and also contract of the same for extending the Waring system of sewerage. The Farnam street contract provided for paving it with Sioux Falls granite, on a sand foundation, at a cost of $3.19 per square yard. Mr. Creighton stated in his communication that he was opposed to a sand foundation, and disclaimed any and all responsibility in the premises.

The bonds accompanying these contracts were all signed by Hugh Murphy and Nathan Shelton as principals, and John L. Webster and W. J. Brostach as sureties.

The Farnam street paving contract and that of the Waring sewer system were approved.

A motion was made by Hasall that the paving contract for Thirteenth be referred to the delegations from the First and Second wards.

An amendment was made to it that the contract be approved.

A long debate ensued upon sand as a foundation, the opinion of the council being that although the majority of the property owners were in favor of this material, time should be given until next Tuesday evening to consider their action in the premises.

The amendment was lost and the original motion carried.

The contracts provided for paving Farnam street from Ninth to Fifteenth and Thirteenth from Howard to the alley south of Leavenworth.

RESOLUTIONS. By Baker: Establishing a sidewalk on the north side of Grace street. Adopted.

By Hasall: That warrant No. 780, for $1,000, on John H. Green, be cancelled and in its stead warrants of smaller size, amounting in all to $1,000 be issued. Adopted.

By Behm: Relieving Geo. T. Mills, Peter Frenzer, A. J. Simpson and the owners of the Paxton hotel building from the necessity of taking down the stairways and area ways in the alleys in the rear of their building, providing they extend to the same with good sureties to remove them whenever called upon by the city to do so. Adopted.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES. Judiciary: Recommending that the protests of Josiah Kent and N. S. Clark be placed on file. Adopted.

Same: Recommending that the claim of Anna Morrison for alleged injuries received from detective sidewalks be not paid. Adopted.

Same: Recommending that the city treasurer be instructed to demand payment for the Sixteenth bridge of the county in May, 1884, as at that time there will be funds in the county treasury for that purpose.

The council then adjourned.

A Startling Discovery. Mr. Wm. Johnson, of Huron, Dak., writes that his wife had been troubled with acute Bronchitis for many years, and that all remedies gave no permanent relief, until he procured a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, which had a magical effect, and produced a permanent cure. It is guaranteed to cure all Diseases of Throat, Lungs, or Bronchitis. Trial bottles free at C. F. Goodman's Drug Store. Large size $1.00.

TIRED OF LIFE. William Fisher Becomes Weary of Life and Leaves by the Strychnine Route.

The age of sensations is indeed here. The jury have not made up their verdict in one tragedy before another case is awaiting the coroner's investigation.

Yesterday morning messenger from the Occidental hotel entered the police station and notified the deputy marshal that a man was at the hotel in a dying condition from the effects of poison. Officers were dispatched and the sick man was taken to the city jail, and laid upon a cot. Dr. Leisenring was sent for and immediately upon his arrival, administered several strong emetics, and it was thought for a time, that by the use of antidotes the man would recover.

It was ascertained that he had taken five grains of strychnine at an early hour yesterday and that he had wandered around until about six o'clock, when he entered the Occidental hotel and stated that he had poisoned himself.

After being taken to the jail he revived considerably and talked quite freely. He stated that he was thirty years of age, and that he had two brothers in Texas, and that one of them was a county clerk. He refused to state where he came from, and where he obtained the poison. He declared that he was tired of life and wanted to die.

He came to this city several weeks ago and has been rooming on Chicago street. He has had no work since he has been

THE INQUEST. The Coroner's Jury are Divided and Find Two Verdicts.

Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock the jury met and Mrs. Butterfield was put upon the stand. The lady used to live in the vicinity of the fertilizing works and was in the habit of passing the powder magazine daily, and stated that she often saw powder scattered upon the ground in the vicinity of the magazine and had considered it a very dangerous place.

After hearing this testimony the jury were left alone, and after considerable discussion were unable to decide upon a verdict which would meet the approval of all. Four of the jury were in favor of exonerating the company who owned the magazine for carelessness, while the other two were in favor of exonerating the company and laying all the blame to the boys, consequently two verdicts were made up, both of which we append:

THE VERDICTS. We, the jurors, find that the deceased, Chris. Madsen, William Mallus, William Abney and John Stitts came to their death by an explosion of gunpowder in the magazine of the Lattin, Rand powder company, situated southeast of the city limits, which explosion occurred by cause to the jurors unknown, on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 27th inst., and we further find that the parties having charge of said magazine are guilty of negligence in not keeping the same in proper repair.

M. S. MARTINOVICH, foreman. DAVID COLE, W. H. GATEWOOD, ROBERTSTROM, VERDICT NO. 2.

The undersigned jurors of the jury empaneled by the coroner in the case mentioned, agree to the verdict of the other jurors so far as it refers to the explosion, but in addition to the charge of carelessness on the part of the management of the house, we find that the boys were at the time trespassing upon the property, and that we consider them equally to blame for the result.

MEMORIAL. The Honorable Mr. McWhorter-Millikin.

An Omaha Gentleman's Marriage to an Illinois Lady.

Declarator (Ill.) Republican. The handsome auditorium of St. John's church was completely filled last evening at 8:30 o'clock by many of the representative families of Decatur, and quite a number of invited friends from a distance to witness the marriage of Mr. Stephen A. McWhorter, of Omaha, Neb., and Miss Dolly Millikin, of this city, both well known in society circles in this and other communities. The bridal party entered the church in the following order, while the Nilsson orchestra rendered Wagner's Lohengrin wedding march.

First came the usher, Mr. F. B. Shull, of Decatur, and Mr. Willis Post, of Peoria, and then the attendants, Miss Esther Wilson, of Bloomington, half sister of the groom, and Mr. Frank B. Johnson, of Omaha; Miss Frances Shella-barger, of Decatur, and Mr. J. W. Titus, of Trenton, N. J.; and lastly came the bride and groom. The officiating clergyman was Rev. W. H. Moore.

The accomplished bride, who numbers her friends by the score and is a favorite in society circles, was becomingly attired in a beautiful white gown grain silk, full train, with veil. The ornaments were a profusion of orange blossoms and natural flowers, diamonds and a bouquet of fragrant flowers.

Miss Shella-barger wore a pretty costume of seafoam, adorned with loops of natural flowers. Miss Wilson was attired in blue silk, with flowers and jewelry for ornaments.

There was an entire absence of kid gloves among the bridal party. Mr. and Mrs. McWhorter were given a delightfully pleasant reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hunter Millikin, at No. 242 East Wood street. The rooms were charmingly decorated with a lavish display of fresh flowers, and were filled by the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, friends from a distance and the nearest neighbors.

An elegant wedding repast was served party fashion, and after farewells were spoken Mr. McWhorter and bride left for Chicago on the midnight train. They will visit other points and then go to their future home at Omaha, where the groom is engaged in the grain commission business, and is also interested in a cattle ranch in Nebraska. He is a young man of excellent business qualifications, and is a gentleman who has a bright future before him.

The bride received a costly array of useful tokens of esteem and souvenirs of remembrance from her many friends, among which may be mentioned a magnificent Haines Bros' concert grand piano and diamond earrings from the groom, $200 in gold, a finely engraved gold watch, silver tea set, silver water set, hand painted chamber set, gold-rimmed china dinner set, and beautiful pictures, embroidered articles, books and silverware in profusion. Telegrams of congratulations to the wedded pair were received from London, England, Omaha, Terre Haute, Bloomington, New Jersey and other points.

Among the visitors present at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wilson, of Bloomington, parents of the groom; Charles Wilson, of Bloomington; Mrs. W. R. McKee, of Terre Haute; Mr. Theron Fell, of Oregon; Mr. Willis Post, of Peoria, and Mr. F. B. Johnson, of Omaha.

NEBRASKA DOCTORS. They Are Called to Assemble in This City.

ASHLAND, Neb., Feb. 26, 1884. GENTLEMEN—May 13, 1884, at 9 a. m., the Nebraska State Medical society convenes in the city of Omaha. Your presence is earnestly solicited.

It must be the aim of every good physician to make the year his most interesting and profitable to himself, his colleagues and his patrons. To assist you in your endeavor in this direction the following suggestions are respectfully offered:

Write your reports and papers now, or as early as possible, since their title must be in the hands of the secretary by April 1st, to secure a place upon the programme, or possibly consideration at the meeting.

Inform the secretary whether or not you wish the reduction of railroad fare, usually granted by the companies, operating in this state.

Remember that professional friends who may desire to become members of the society at the Omaha meeting, must make application to the secretary for blanks, which, when duly executed, shall have ample time and opportunity to inquire into the professional status of the applicants for membership.

Recollect that candidates for membership enjoy the same rights and privileges as your fellow members, and the submission of scientific papers of interest to the profession.

Your attention is also drawn to the fact that your local press, if solicited by you, ample explanation being rendered as to the workings of the society and the benefits derived therefrom by the community at large, will greatly assist in this latter for the interest of physicians and the public—the latter having a right to demand attendance of the medical adviser, upon any meeting intended to make his services more valuable to them.

Finally, remember that information of any kind, both to yourself and friends, in regard to the approaching session will be cheerfully given upon application to the secretary of the Nebraska State Medical society. Fraternally yours,

VICTOR H. COPPMAN, President N. S. M. S.

A. S. v. Mansfield, Ashland, Secretary, N. S. M. S.

Any suggestion regarding changes in the old constitution, or new matters you may think important enough to be inserted into the new constitution, will receive respectful consideration, if forwarded to the undersigned, and placed on the committee on revision of constitution.

A. S. v. MANSEFIELD.

Mr. Barrett's "Hamlet." Another fine audience greeted Mr. Barrett at the opera house last evening to witness his initial appearance in this city in the character of the Melancholy Dane. It is, we believe, not considered by that tragedian one of his leading roles, although the American people generally place him next to, if not on an equal plane therein with Mr. Booth. It is always a difficult representation, inasmuch as most reading people, and especially the admirers of the ghost and grave-digger (doubly personated by Mr. James) was not strong. In fact, it is difficult to surmise what unlooked for calamity caused the placing of the role of Queen Gertrude in the hands of Marypenney; she seemed to realize her inability to portray it properly, and in the locker scene with the stier, came very near to making a complete failure. Mr. Skinner, however, in health as to return to work, but he was evidently too weak for properly representing the fiery Laertes. Miss Wainwright's Ophelia was a most beautiful and affecting picture. The king was fair, and all the other parts possible. One great and disagreeable fault, to which Mr. Barrett was particularly susceptible, was that a few of the stage people spoke distinctly enough to be heard throughout the house. Otherwise than cited above, there was a most pleasing performance.
