Nothing has been heard from Bismarck since Chittre's broadcast.

The election is to take place in one week, and yet Pat. Hawes is fifteen hundred miles away.

President Arthur paid a long visit to General Grant, at the latter's hotel in Washington, on Saturday, and the political wise-ones are now all out of joint.

It is now claimed, after a thorough investigation, that the cattle plague at Neosho Falls, Kansas, is not the infectious foot and mouth disease, but foot rot.

The insult offered to the American hog by the German chancellor is to be resented by the citizens of the capital of Dakota.

Van Wyck does not care the snap of his fingers for the opinion of the state officials in matters of federal appointment.

The state officials, who are sending instructions to our senators, do not seem to understand that they don't own the earth.

The Bee says the reorganized Denver Tribune is a monopoly organ because its new editor was once in the employ of a railroad company.

Birds of a feather will flock together. Touch a monopoly organ and all the other brass-bellied gentry rush to his defense.

A candidate for assessor in Denver expects to be elected on the promise to raise the valuation of property in the city from thirty million dollars to forty millions.

This may be a little overdrawn, but the fact that Denver with an assessed valuation of $30,000,000 insists upon the assessed valuation being raised, is a striking commentary upon low assessments in Omaha.

It is now claimed that there will be some difficulty after all in carrying into effect Senator Dawes' bill providing for the opening of the Sioux reservation.

DEATH OF GENERAL WEITZEL. In the death of General J. Godfrey Weitzel the United States army has lost one of its bravest and most efficient officers.

A FOOL FRIEND OF THE RAILROADS. Denver has a board of trade. It also has several newspapers that mold public opinion for the railroads.

TAKE THE SCHOOLS OUT OF POLITICS.

In the coming city election, which takes place one week from to-morrow, the only officers to be voted for on the general city ticket are three members of the board of education.

Our schools under the administration of the present superintendent, Mr. James, have been brought up to a high standard of efficiency.

There are now between 5,000 and 6,000 boys and girls in attendance upon our public schools. In 1882 the attendance was about 3,700.

Two years ago the attendance of the high school was about 60, while the present enrollment is 175.

Mr. James was for many years assistant superintendent of the public schools of Cleveland under Superintendent Rickoff.

Under all these circumstances a change of superintendents would be detrimental to the public schools and unjust to Mr. James.

Mr. Lane, it seems, is more of a politician than a school superintendent, but we hardly think he will be able to prevent the outgoing members of the board.

These three gentlemen are the oldest and most efficient members of the board, having been members for many years.

They have acquired a valuable experience. They have served the city's interest faithfully and conscientiously, without pay, and certainly ought to be retained.

Fort Pickens, Florida, and while at that port, twice crossed the bay and penetrated the enemy's lines to reconnoiter under confidential orders from Colonel Brown.

When Gen. Butler's expedition to New Orleans was determined upon, Lieutenant Weitzel was selected as its engineer.

His advice and suggestions in this expedition were followed and proved very valuable, as he had spent four years in the construction of fortifications in Louisiana.

changed. The latter sentence the court has ordered to be carried out on the 25th of April, but the prisoner objects, contending that the first sentence has priority, and he must serve out the fifty years before he can be hung.

Van Wyck's iniquitousness has been the means of bringing about an important new departure. Heretofore United States attorneys and marshals have depended for their income on fees, and as a consequence many persons have been dragged into court to answer for petty offenses, merely to make fees for the court officers.
