John E. Boyle, press representative of John B. Morris "New Monster Shows" is in town. The show exhibits in Omaha June 2nd.

It is rumored that some parties have been making efforts to have District Attorney Godwin removed and another appointed in his place. It is no wonder that some people want him removed, he is making it too hot for them.

A police court yesterday morning, three men charged with vagrancy were discharged; one distributor of the peace was fined $3 and costs. Two cases of intoxication were fined $10 each and costs.

A Bess reporter was shown yesterday by Mr. Russell, of the Meyer & Co., a copy of The New York Sun. The sheet is a three column folio and is dated New York, Tuesday, September 3, 1883.

It was reported just after dinner yesterday that a saloon-keeper named Mac Leman, at the corner of Twenty-fifth and Omming streets, had been shot and killed by his wife. A Bess reporter hastened to the place only to find Max standing behind the bar and dishing out the beer as usual.

John Murphy was arrested yesterday for stealing from W. S. Potter a satchel containing some clothing. Judge Benke pleaded guilty and was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail on bread and water and ordered to pay to plaintiff the sum of $40.50, the value of the goods stolen.

A large number of workmen commenced work on Farnam street at the intersection of Ninth street yesterday morning. The stone which is in the street is being picked up. It will be pounded up and after the street is graded will be placed upon it making a macadam base upon which to place the granite blocks.

Manager McKelvy, of the Union Pacific base ball club, has arranged three games of base ball with the Rock Island team, to be played on the St. Mary's avenue grounds, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The Rock Island are a new organization, having started out the beginning of the present season. They have played some of the finest clubs in the country, and their record shows them away ahead on games now. Only recently they beat the famous "Reds" by a handsome score, and a short time previous scoured the scalps of Charley Lord's Kewanee Sluggers. They are ball players, and the Union Pacific will have to do their prettiest to keep their reputation.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday as a board of equalization. Under the amended law this session can be twenty days long, which time will probably be consumed before this work for this year will be ended. SEWER CONTRACTS. A Number of them Let by the Board of Public Works Monday Evening.

The board of public works met Monday evening. All members present.

The contract for laying the extension of the Jones street sewer eastward to the river was awarded R. T. Shannon. The award was made subject to revision in the event that the bonds of the contractor should not prove satisfactory. The amount of the bid was $4,800. The bonds were set at $4,000.

The contract for the construction of the south branch of the North Omaha sewer was awarded to McHugh & McGavock, the amount of contract being $12,150, the bond being set at $6,000.

The contract for the building of the south branch of the South Omaha sewer was also awarded McHugh & McGavock. The amount of the contract is about $12,000, and the bonds $6,000.

The time given for the completion of the sewer in North Omaha was set at the 1st of October, and for the completion of the South Omaha, 1st of September, with a $10 forfeit for every day remaining unfinished beyond that time.

The question of awarding the contract for the construction of the South Omaha sewer westward, and the north branch of the North Omaha, to J. Fox & Co., was discussed. The matter had placed the lowest bid, nevertheless the chairman stated of certain facts should be made to the council and if they decided to uphold the contract then they should be made to the council. Mr. Creighton stated one of the partners had been an inspector and had given the fraction and had to be discharged; he had been a workman and had not given satisfaction, and the chair did not feel like assuming the responsibility in letting a contract under such circumstances, even though the bid was the lowest.

Mr. Barker agreed with the chairman, though Mr. Wilson seemed to think that the bond of the party would be sufficient. The contract was awarded with the understanding that the facts of the case would be set before the council.

The work on the South Omaha sewer westward is to be completed September 1st, the contract amount being $9,618, and the bond $5,000. That on the North Omaha branch on October 1st, the contract price being $15,671, and the bonds $7,000.

Adjourned.

SUBURBAN NOTES. Correspondence of The Bee.

FLORENCE, June 2.—The village begins to feel once the throbs of life. Everyone knows that it is "beautiful for situation" and Omaha's right arm reaching out toward it, may yet touch it with its finger tips. It is a very pleasant drive from Florence to Omaha, and one proof of it is seen in the many carriages that may be daily seen going to and from the city.

Mr. Al Smith, gardner, has purchased a house and garden grounds in the village and intends taking possession of the same in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Vandercook, of Omaha, having sold about $2,000 worth of property in the city, have purchased 150 acres about a mile north of Florence, and have begun to open up a picturesque farm and home there. They expect to take permanent possession of the same in the fall.

The pastor of the Congregational church of Irvington, who has been preaching in Florence once in two weeks for over eighteen months, and who takes great interest in the place has purchased a 14-acre plot of bush land somewhat elevated in the northern part of the village, which he calls his "Mount Nob." He has had four acres in the center cleared and put in cultivation and from this point can be had a view extending over a great portion of the city of Omaha and covering the river to the north and the south and the village near and regions for to the west.

There are other points about Florence that may possess equal advantages in this respect when made accessible by clearing.

The attendance at public services Sunday evenings is remarkably good, and a Congregational Sabbath school has been organized, which bids fair to be not only permanent but successful. Mr. A. Smith is superintendent and there is a good corps of teachers.

Much credit is due Mr. Smith, Mr.

and Mrs. Jones, Mrs. W. H. DeLand, Miss Mary Webber and other for a revival in the vocal music. Description is being circulated for money for an organ which will soon be forthcoming for public worship and the Sabbath school.

ASPHYXIATED PLUMBERS.

Three Workmen in a Trench Narrowly Escape Death.

Late yesterday afternoon three plumbers engaged in making connections for gas for the building to be erected on the corner of Fifteenth and Farnam by Mr. Paxton, had a narrow escape from death. These men, named Wood, Adams and Ryan, employed by the gas company, were down in the trenches at work perforating the gas main. While Mr. Ryan was busily engaged over the pipe, a plug on the side near him was forced out, the gas being emitted directly into the workmen's face. Ryan was instantly overcome by the gas and fell upon the bottom of the trench. Adams, who was near him, attempted to stop the escaping gas, and also succumbed to the deadly medium. Wood by this time was also lying senseless in the trench.

The workmen at the top pulled their senseless comrades out as soon as possible. They were placed in such positions as would enable them to breathe the pure air freely, and soon recovered consciousness. In half an hour they were all at work again. By inquiry from those men it was learned that these accidents frequently occur, and that owing to the putrid nature of the gas used in Omaha its effect is much more injurious and harmful than that of the ordinary gas.
