

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS. Thursday Morning, June 5.

MINOR MENTION. See J. Reiter's spring goods. The city council meets again to-night.

Good walks and a fountain are among the needed improvements in Bayliss park.

The main street railway track has been torn up, to be replaced with new rails, as promised by the company.

James Winans has opened a confectionery store next to the opera house, in addition to his restaurant farther up Broadway.

Although a few new benches have been added in Bayliss park, still there is need for more, especially in the sunset hours and on Sundays.

One of the prisoners set at work on the stone-pile yesterday tired of the job and climbed over the fence, barbed wire and all, making good his escape.

There were about forty couples at the dancing school at the rink Tuesday night. The prospects for the school are excellent, and the ice cream parlors are well patronized.

New lamp posts are now ordered planted at the corner of Fourth street and Eleventh avenue, Sixth street and Twelfth avenue, and Tenth street and Seventh avenue.

It seems now pretty certain that First avenue will be extended through to Hancock street. The cost is estimated at $7,000, and it is proposed to charge this up to the property directly benefited.

Hans Miller, who was arrested at Denison for striking his wife over the head with a gun, has been placed in jail here to await the action of the grand jury, being unable to furnish the $500 bail required.

R. Britton, who is writing up the ghost manifestations at Hancock, says: "Several times in our nightly vigils we have felt powerful manifestations of the spirits." That settles it--$9.60, and stand committed until paid.

Ladies and gentlemen who wish to become charter members of the Lodge of Knights and Ladies of Honor, to be organized here about June 10, may obtain necessary information by consulting W. W. Chapman, or Frank Cook.

To-morrow evening a gift social is to be given at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. It is to be hoped that citizens generally will attend, and that each will bring some offering to make the furnishings and adornments of the rooms complete.

Yesterday forenoon a farmer named Campbell, was driving his team along lower Broadway, when the horses became frightened and made a lively run. One of the horses climbed into the wagon-box, and in doing so got a bad gash on one leg.

J. J. Auwerder & Co., have displayed in their show window a very fine floral decoration, consisting of compass and square, enclosing the letter G. The whole of this Masonic design being wrought in flowers by W. W. Chapman. It has been loaned to the festival.

An attempt is being made to organize here a branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and the ladies having the matter in charge will meet at the Y. M. C. A. rooms next Monday afternoon to perfect an organization. All ladies interested are invited to be present.

There was a quiet little wedding yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by which Charles Harmon and Miss Rachel Fisher became Mr. and Mrs. Harmon. Rev. Mr. Bates performed the ceremony, and the newly wedded ones started for a westward trip. Mr. Harmon is one of David Bradley & Co.'s traveling salesmen.

Thomas Bowman, secretary of the driving park association, reports that the entries are coming in very encouragingly for the meeting. There have been ten entries in one class alone, and he predicts with confidence that there will be from 75 to 100 horses at the meeting, a larger number, and including speedier ones, than at any previous meeting.

Gus Bergman, who has been associated with the Globe for some time, has now arranged to join with T. D. King in the manufacture of cigars, the new firm to be T. D. King & Co., and the location 919 Broadway. Both are well known, and with experience in the business and many friends, there is every reason to believe the new enterprise will be a great success.

Mr. Heffelfinger is making every effort to satisfactorily settle the affairs of the Crawford county bank. He has turned over all his property, save one farm upon which he will move, thus proving his honesty of purpose and that his personal integrity is untarnished by his business misfortune. Arrangements are being made to transfer the bank and its assets to parties with an abundance of capital, with a view to paying off all liabilities, dollar for dollar, and resuming business. If this is effected the bank failure will prove only a ripple on the surface of business affairs that will seriously affect the interests of none. The change will probably be made this week.--Crawford County Bulletin.

Lately the Nonpareil claimed that an attorney of the city had some grievous charges to make against the city council. A citizens' committee investigated, of whom Spencer Smith, of The Nonpareil, was one. Another was E. L. Shugart. These two have reported to the council that the attorney had failed to put in an appearance when called upon to do so. Now it is the council's turn, and the committee is requested to name the "attorney," that all may know who he is that thus shoots from an ambush, and then declines to come out like a man.

A number of prominent property owners have filed their protests with the city council, against the special assessment made against their property for filling streets in front of their lots. They claim the city has no legal right to make such assessments, but that the cost of such improvement must be paid for out of the general fund. It looks as if there would be a chance for the courts to decide in the matter. If the courts should decide against the city, there should be a heavy drain on the general fund, and a lively commotion.

If some enterprising public carrier would start up special conveyances for carrying visitors to and from Fairmount park at a reasonable price, and make regular trips, he would have plenty of patronage. There are many here who have no means of visiting the park, and many strangers would also take a look at its beauties. At present there are no such conveniences, for those who have no private conveyances are not good walkers, and do not care to go to the expense of hiring a livery.

An old man named Easton was yesterday afternoon thrown from a load of brick on upper Broadway, by one of the wheels going down in a sort of sink-hole made by the water from one of the hydrants used in filling the street sprinklers. The old man struck in the street, on the back of his head, the wagon seat falling on top of him. He had a narrow escape from being run over by the heavy load, but as it was, he got off with no further injury than a rough shaking up.

The examinations at St. Francis academy will begin on the 23rd, and continue three days. The examinations at St. Joseph's academy will occupy the two remaining days of that week. The annual exhibition of St. Francis academy will take place on the evening of the 26th. Hereafter those exhibitions have been held in the daytime, but this year a change of time was deemed advisable.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon there arrived here a Palmer excursion train of eight coaches, containing a party of about 175 who were on their return east from a trip across the continent. The party left here over the Chicago & Rock Island. The excursionists were expected to arrive about 2 o'clock and dinner was prepared for them, but there was a delay on the road.

Ben Newman, now a prosperous Omaha merchant, was shaking hands with old friends here yesterday. George H. Backus, of Omaha, was in the city yesterday looking after the organization of a lodge here of the Knights and Ladies of Honor. S. W. Fervenson left yesterday for a trip into Nebraska, looking after his loan business. He was accompanied by C. W. H. Beyer, of Grinnell. Mrs. T. A. TRANSFER TO WISCONSIN. Mrs. T. A. Clark leaves this morning for Pocatello, Idaho, where she expects to join her husband and make him a short visit. Her daughter accompanies her. J. H. Wheeler, formerly of the Ogden, and who is now located at Janesville, Wis., in the real estate business, is back for a brief stay, preparing to move his family to Wisconsin.

MASONIC MATTERS. Further Doings of the Masonic Grand Lodge. Election of Officers.

At the yesterday's session of the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M., the committee on jurisdiction reported against the proposed dispensing with the next annual convocation, and the grand lodge concurred in this report. The report of the finance committee showed the receipts for the year ending June 1, 1884, to have been $29,576.83, and disbursements $26,955.65, leaving a balance of $2,621.18.

The committee on chartered lodges reported the whole number as 437; number of lodges extinct, 42; whole number working lodges paying dues, 389; lodges making returns up to May 15, 376; not making returns, 13. Capitol lodge, No. 110, of Des Moines, showed the largest increase for the year, their increase being $2. Otley lodge, No. 200, of Perry, showed the largest amount of work done, and sent in the model report of the year. The committee on library, through Lafo Young, reported.

The grand lodge was organized in 1844. In 1845 an appropriation of $5 for the purchase of books was made. Small appropriations followed during succeeding years, and in the year 1882 an appropriation of $1,000 was made for the purchase of the Bowen library which was the finest of its kind in the world. With the books previously gathered, added to the Bowen collection, the grand lodge now owns the most comprehensive and extensive Masonic library in the world, and it is infrequently happens that the authors and compilers in Europe are compelled to seek information on it to be found in our Iowa Masonic library. No correct estimate of the history would be complete without a visit to it. Many of the works are rare and not a few beyond price. Lovers of the curious in literature or of the strange and forgotten facts of history would be delighted with its well labeled shelves.

We are able to state that the grand library is faithful and competent in the discharge of its duties, and that he takes great pride in the 10,000 rare volumes entrusted to his care. A communication was received from the Grand Lodge of Missouri, sending greetings, and expressing regret that its officers could not be present. Yesterday afternoon the following grand officers: Grand Master C. T. Senior, of Appanoose county; Grand Secretary Warden Lafayette Young, of Atlantic; Grand Junior Warden E. A. Charles, of Cedar Rapids; Grand Secretary Theodore S. Parvin, of Iowa City; and Grand Treasurer John M. Zane, of Sac City.

Bushnell sells railroad tickets cheap to all points. In the police court yesterday morning, F. Curry, T. Martinson and T. Welch were brought before the bar on a charge of being found sleeping in box cars. Martinson was discharged, but the two others were fined $7.60 each as they were found to be armed with revolvers. They will tarry for a while on the stone pile. John Peterson for being drunk and asleep in the park, was assessed $7.50. John O'Brien, John Emmett and Nelson, were also adjudged for plain drunks.

Jennie Climer, known as "Okub," was arrested for disturbing the peace, she being concerned in some fun at Belle Clerrie's old house. Jennie Graveyard, alias Cemetery Jane, was the prosecuting witness. The case went over until this afternoon. Two young fellows, Jones and Phillips, charged with being mixed up in the row, were discharged.

W. T. BRAUN has the reputation of serving as fine meals as any in the city. His ice cream are said to be the best. Don't forget the number. It is 404 Broadway.

COUNCIL BLUFFS' MAYOR. He is Presented By Citizens With a Horse and Buggy. Yesterday forenoon Mayor W. R. Vaughan was the recipient of a very practical and valuable gift, consisting of a horse, buggy and harness. The horse was purchased of Fred Davis, a fine black horse, five years old, costing $300. The buggy is a top one, a tip-top one, one of Hattenhauer's best, costing $350, and the harness was made by Walters Bros.; it cost $45. The whole rig is one worthy of carrying the mayor of a live city of 25,000 people. The presentation was made by Alderman Mynter in behalf of the citizens who had joined with him in purchasing it. In response Mayor Vaughn returns the following card:

A CARD OF THANKS. Wm. A. Mynter, P. J. McMahon, C. G. Galt, J. P. McMenomy, Kimball and Champ, A. Louis, A. H. Howe, James Frasier, Thomas Cowens, Harry Birkenhede, H. H. Martin, H. F. Hattenhauer, Geo. F. Wright and many others, who have so kindly and heartily presented to me, through your committee so most gratefully accepted. I shall endeavor to show my full appreciation of the same by carefully looking after the interest of our city, and I trust that before my term of office has expired, in 18-8, that the inhabitants of Council Bluffs may be increased to 50,000 active people, and that each one may be free from old fogeyism and jealousy. Gentlemen, I again return to you my heartfelt thanks. Very truly, W. R. VAUGHAN, Mayor.

Casady, Orcutt & French's great clearing sale of carpets, curtains, and upholstery, will commence June 5th, and continue 30 days. Look out for big bargains. Strangers visiting the city are invited to call and inspect our stock.

A SCENE OF BEAUTY. The Display Made by Casady, Orcutt & French. Yesterday afternoon and evening Casady, Orcutt & French gave their grand opening display of carpets, curtains, etc., in their new quarters in the Masonic Temple. The scene presented was one well worth seeing, and fully justified the exclamations of delight in which the many lady visitors expressed themselves. Certain it is, that Council Bluffs never had as fine a showing. The whole of the first floor, 60 by 100 feet, was filled with a great variety of carpets, curtains, and house furnishings in that line, displayed very tastily. The exhibit was a decidedly interesting one, as well as beautiful. Rich, velvety carpets, with great variety of designs, were shown to great advantage. Among these were special patterns, one particularly drawing the attention of the Masonic visitors, it being a beautiful carpet, the design of which was made up of the symbols of the mystic order. In curtains there were also some very rich patterns, in Turcoman, raw silk, lace, etc. Some of these were displayed, all hung and draped, on poles, complete, setting forth their beauty very attractively. Turkish rugs also excited the admiration of the visitors, and some beautiful patterns of Oriental table-covers. In fact, there were many really elegant goods, and many entirely new patterns, so that the visitors gained the latest ideas about the needs of an elegant home. In connection with the display Mrs. L. A. Smith gave a very beautiful display of the fancy needlework done by herself and her class. There was a great variety of this, and many of the articles merited special notice. Among the ladies who belong to the class, and who exhibited articles were, Mrs. Charles Officer, Miss Hattie Rice, Miss Ida Casady, Mrs. Ira Scofield, Mrs. Dr. Osborne, and Mrs. E. D. Fisher. There were also some very pretty articles shown as the work of two little girls, Miss Clara Wheeler, aged eleven years, and Miss Hattie Smith, aged nine years.
