THE BEE PUBLISHING CO., PROPRIETORS

THE DEMOCRATS are not troubling themselves about Cleveland's boots.

THE WOMAN suffragists have entered a formal protest against the admission of Dakota as a state on a constitution exclusively for men.

THE BEE is anxious to have the legislature sit down on Brad Slaughter, standing candidate for chief clerk of the House.

IT IS SAID that lightning does not strike twice in the same place. This is not true, however, with regard to the office of sheriff of Erie county, New York.

SENATOR VAN WYCK'S resolution to have commercial treaties discussed in open session is just to the point.

LINCOLN has organized an exposition association, with a capital stock of $30,000. The principal object of the organization is to secure the Nebraska state fair for the next five years.

THE AUTHORITIES of the city of Lima, in Peru, evidently do not appreciate humbug.

ACCORDING to the testimony of a witness in the investigation of the alleged irregularities in the first comptroller's office in Washington, Mr. Barker is a universal and mastodonian liar.

SERGEANT BATES, who distinguished himself by tramping through the south and waving the stars and stripes along his pathway, is not only sick but financially embarrassed.

GOVERNOR CRITTENDER, of Missouri, has written a long letter to the prosecuting attorney of Nodaway county in that state, urging vigorous measures for the arrest and trial of the lynchers of "Omaha" Charley.

THE Pullman car company has always maintained that it is not responsible for the goods and chattels of its passengers.

THE railroad commissioners of Iowa have been at last aroused to action concerning the oppression of the farmers by the railroads whose exorbitant charges for freight transportation are causing such widespread distress.

EDUCATING THE INDIANS.

The government is doing a good work in affording a certain number of the Indians an opportunity to obtain an education in schools specially designed for them.

That the Indians appreciate the efforts that are being made to educate them is shown by the large number of their children which they gladly send to the government schools.

Our railroads are managed for the most part by men selected by Wall street, who operate the road with both eyes on the dividends of Wall street investors.

Every quarter of a cent decline in the price of wheat means a loss in the market value of the wheat crop of the country of $1,000,000.

It strikes us that the controversy that has arisen over the chief relic of the lost cause is simply made up of nothing.

The question of color is bound to frequently heat the halls of congress, especially as long as the democrats are in power.

The town clock of Lincoln is now on the tick. Miller is to have a newspaper and will put on airs.

ment, thus tinkered by Breckinridge, was adopted. This will give the railroads the right to "short" their passengers as they may see fit.

The Sage of Grammercy has been re-invigorated sufficiently by the recent democratic breeze to send out word from Copher Alley that he proposes to have a word or two to say in the formation of Grover Cleveland's cabinet.

The address of the Toledo Produce Exchange to the railway managers of the west asking for a reduction in railroad rates corresponding to the lower prices for grain and other products is a wise and temperate statement of facts and embodies a reasonable request.

The farmers of Nebraska and Kansas are receiving but 10 to 15 cents a bushel for their corn, and 35 to 45 cents a bushel for their wheat.

The Herald opposes any movement to compel the Union Pacific to pay its debts at maturity, as this would force the road into bankruptcy.

Wall Street Must Divide. Wall street owns and manages the highways of the west.

This is a policy, the railroads cannot afford to have them. It is a policy that injures the farmer.
