

THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS OFFICE, NO. 12, PEARL STREET. Delivered by carrier in any part of the city at twenty cents per week.

MINOR MENTION. N. Y. Plumbing Co. Reiter, tailor. Fall goods cheap. The union veteran legion meet this evening.

The county board of supervisors will be in session this morning in the county auditor's office. The Congregationalists will have a social Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. C. B. White.

Officers Unthank and Stevens went on duty yesterday, and Covalt and Tamisen now go on night duty. Daughters of Rebekah are to hold a social next Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. Hammer.

One "umbrella tinker" is hooked at the police station, as being drunk and asleep on the sidewalk, with his tools in trade. The boat house of the Omaha rowing association at Lake Manawa is completed. The club house will be added in the early spring.

Abe Lincoln post G. A. R. have decided to go to Omaha on Wednesday morning on the 7:40 o'clock train to take part in the procession in that city.

With the opening of September most of the city churches change the hour of their evening services to 7:30, a half hour earlier than during the summer.

For all the signal service stations in this city for several days past have predicted cooler weather, the thermometer yesterday reached as high as 92°.

The new hook and ladder truck for the fire department has been tested and is now in the running. It will probably reach this city before the end of this month.

Allie Hanley is in jail, having been found wandering about the street late Saturday night. She went into several places inquiring for a lodging house and finally found one.

The public schools open this morning after a vacation of ten weeks. During the vacation just ended much has been done about the school building in the way of repairs, etc.

The German Lutheran church, of Omaha, and the churches of the same denomination in this city and Boomer township yesterday held missionary services in Palmer's grove.

John Flarty last evening kicked up a row at his home on South Main street, and was brought to the police station in the patrol wagon, charged with drunkenness and disturbance of the peace.

The city council meet this evening in regular monthly session, which virtually means that little or no business will be apt to be transacted, except the allowance of the regular monthly bills and reading the reports of the different heads of departments under the city government.

The county auditor is in receipt of a petition signed by 150 persons in the vicinity of Crescent, asking the board of county supervisors to reconsider their action in reducing the bounty on wolf scalps to $1. They ask it to be increased to $3, and on wildcat scalps it be fixed at $2.

Sol Foster, M. B. Brown and George Metcalf gave a "stag" party Saturday night in their new cottage in Regatta place. The occasion being the opening of the first summer cottage in Regatta place. There were about twenty in attendance and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Now begins the uneasy time for the prisoners in the county jail. Experience shows that they are being more closely from the time they are indicted until they are safe inside the walls of the penitentiary. It is about their last show for escape, and if they are depending upon any such scheme, generally ripens about this time. Jailor O'Neill keeps his eyes and ears open, however, the year round, and they will be sharp indeed if they get the better of him.

The iron stairways, steam heating apparatus, plumbing and gas pipe, as well as the plastering and lathing for the new government building have been advertised for, and it is thought that action will again begin upon the building the latter part of this month. It cost the government over $400 in September to superintend the work progressing on the building and no work was done, but the "workers" in the party must have money.

Money to loan. Cooper & Judson. List your property with Cooper & Judson, No. 120 Main street.

Free-For-All Fisticuff. A regular rough and tumble go-as-you-please free fight occurred late Saturday night in the sitting and reading room of the Tremont house, opposite the dummy depot.

The room in which the fight occurred is located next to the bar-room, where the contestants had previously indulged freely in beverages on sale therein. Chairs, spittoons and the like were seen flying promiscuously about the room and several sore heads are reported.

The police arrested a man named Montgomery, finding him near the packing house, and placed him in the city jail. He was the only one of the disturbers taken, they having all skipped for home.

It is quite probable that they will be brought to the front to-day upon warrants. There are four of them, Donahue, Kaylor, Haskins and Metting.

One of the disturbers in a drunken stupor walked to the city jail and told the jailer the police told him they wanted him. He was taken in charge and gave the name of Campbell. Yesterday he pleaded guilty and paid his fine.

J. W. and E. L. Squire lend money. Watches, clocks, jewelry, etc., the best in the city. C. A. Squire, No. 415 Broadway. Repairs a specialty.

Personal Paragraphs. Dr. D. Mocras is in Washington, D. C. A. Cramer, of Avoca, put up at the Pacific house yesterday.

Mrs. George Rudlo and daughter are home from a six weeks trip east. Isaac Weil, of St. Joe, with his son are in the city visiting their son and brother B. F. Weil.

J. D. Warren, of St. Louis, is in the city inspecting the new houses recently erected by him. Colonel J. S. Tam, of Stuart, and his brother, John L., of Sioux City, were in the city yesterday.

Mrs. F. H. Stewart returned yesterday from the east, where she has spent the past month in purchasing fall styles of millinery and enjoying a recreation trip.

Mrs. J. D. Edmundson's condition was reported yesterday as being so serious that her friends had little expectation of her recovery. Complications had arisen involving the action of the heart itself, and there seemed little ground for hope.

The news has caused much sadness to a large circle of friends.

A GLANCE AT BLOODED STOCK.

Return of Stewart's Speedy Racers, with Some Promising New Ones.

POLICEMEN ON WHEELS.

"The Maples" Return.

John T. Stewart's stables has returned from the east. Five thoroughbreds are now located at the Council Bluffs driving park, of all of which much is expected in time to come.

After the $35,000 fire at the driving park, during which eleven horses belonging to Mr. Stewart were burned, he only has four left, to take east. Nine of those burned were entered in races which have since taken place. The two that have been east and have just returned are Gypsy Baron and Serenader. Besides these Mr. Stewart purchased one yearling colt and two yearling fillies at Commodore Kitson's sale at Sheephead Bay. These are in the stables, just arrived.

The yearling colt is by Reform out of Giddelia. Giddelia has made the fastest one-and-three-quarter-mile on record. It being 3:40 ago, and so far seemingly can't be beat.

The brown filly is by Reform, out of Aricula and the bay filly by Imp. Dainardoe is out of Rance.

Charlie Stewart's road mare also returned with his father's stables. The mare walked away from all corners, double or single, at Long Branch and was probably the best of attracting the Branch correspondent's attention to Charlie, previous to the appearance of the broadly copied newspaper article which called Charlie the western millionaire cowboy, and referred to him, as attracting the attention of all society belles gathered at this famous summer resort.

During the eastern trip, Serenader and Gypsy Baron were at the Brooklyn Jockey club races, Coney Island Jockey club, at Saturday Beach, and Monmouth park. Neither won a race. Not on account of their inferiority but from lack of condition. Gypsy Baron never started but once, and he was out before he had taken the start. Serenader made several starts but didn't win. Bad luck seemed to follow the stable from the time they left Council Bluffs after the big fire.

Mr. Stewart had to pay a large forfeit in the races where his nine burned horses were entered. Each of those burned were considered superior to the two saved, and no doubt some stake-winners were among the lost ones.

They have been in charge of S. C. Williams during their trip, who had two men and two boys under him. The three green horses will be broken now and put in condition for the coming season.

Besides these there are five yearlings at "The Maples" stud farm, located three-quarters of a mile beyond the institution for the deaf and dumb. They will be brought and broken shortly.

"It is a hard undertaking to break so many horses when you haven't anything to work with them," said the trainer yesterday to a BEE representative in the stable at the driving park. He continued: "We left Monmouth park on August 30th and went to New York by boat, after which we came straight home without incident."

Nine hundred dollars were paid for the new colt purchased east, and $1,000 has already been refused for him. Several parties have wanted to purchase both of the fillies, but no price was set on them as they are not for sale.

Stewart's stables comprise over twenty thoroughbred mares, with Panice at their head. Messrs. Dwyer Bros. paid $17,500 for him four or five years ago. He is a fine racer, by Alarm, out of Maggie Boone, dam of Irving, and is about seven years old. Six of these mares are in Illinois, bred to Voltiger. He is the sire of some famous race horses, several of which have sold for $10,000 each and upwards.

Policemen on Wheels. The police report for the month of August show a large increase in the number of arrests.

The increase is attributed solely to the putting on of the patrol wagon. The arrests are classified as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Arrest type and number. Includes Drunks, Exposing person, Reckless driving, Disturbance of peace, etc.

Total arrests 239. There were 134 calls for the patrol wagon divided as follows: Calls sent in by telephone, thirty-six; American district telegraph, two; box 34, sixteen; box 42, twice; box 14, one; box 32, ten; box 12, twice; box 46, four; box 35, five; box 23, eight; box 36, five; box 53, eleven; box 51, one; box 47, one.

There was only one false call, it being from box 31. The patrol wagon was also used in the serving of eight warrants.

One thousand head of one, two and three-year-old steers for sale. Will give credit to reliable parties. Enquire of A. J. Greenmayer, 623 Myuster st., tele-211.

Visit the new jeweler, C. Voss, No. 415 Broadway, if you wish anything in his line. He has a fine assortment of the best goods.

Very Fair Rates. Excursion tickets for Omaha fair will be on sale in Council Bluffs until September 10. Tickets include admission to fair. Good until September 13.

Regularly organized and uniformed bands and drum corps attending the G. A. R. reunion to be held in Omaha from 5th to 10th will be carried free.

Union Pacific excursion tickets to Lincoln "state fair," will be sold September 9 to 16, good for return September 17 at $2.40, including admission to the state fair.

Excursion to Camp Logan, Omaha, 50c, all rail, September 5 to 10. Not good after September 10. Trains run within about three blocks of the fair grounds, stopping both ways to accommodate those going to the fair.

Excursion tickets to Shelby, Iowa, October 5 to 7 inclusive, at $1.35 round trip and Shelby county fair.

Quarterly Meeting Services. At the Broadway Methodist church the pastor, Dr. McCreary, took for the subject of his sermon, "Humanity Complete in Christ Alone." He took for his text the tenth verse of the second chapter of Colossians. He asserted that in Christ alone is found the completeness of all perfect strength, grace, courage and tenderness; that every virtue is found in perfection in Him alone; that a Christian became more perfect in all virtues as he became more perfect in Christ, and that the religion of Jesus Christ is the only source of complete happiness.

After the sermon quarterly collection $75 taken up and the holy communion administered.

The Temperance Meeting. A union temperance meeting was held last evening in Dohany's opera house, composed of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregational and Baptist church congregations under the auspices of the Council Bluffs law and order league, the principal object being to raise $1,000 with which to press the prohibition cause.

Among the prominent personages upon the stage were: Rev. E. D. McCreary, Rev. S. G. Phelps, Rev. D. H. Cooley, Rev. G. W. Crofts, Rev. Hoover, Rev. Reichenbach, Colonel L. J. Dodge, Henry Curtis, A. B. Walker, N. P. Dodge, D. C. Bloomer, C. A. Beebe, J. G. Lemen and others, as well as the choir.

The house was crowded to overflowing and even the upper gallery was well filled. The meeting was very successful. Attorney Sims, who has engineered the prohibition cause through the courts, was also in the audience.

After the reading of a portion of the scriptures by Rev. Cooley and prayer by Rev. Crofts, Colonel Tulleys said the object of the meeting was to try to enforce the prohibition law and make it a complete success in this city. He said the saloon men had not left a stone unturned to defeat the law.

Rev. Dr. McCreary then addressed the audience. He referred to the dangerous traffic in liquor. He didn't care how much the sale of liquor was restricted, it was poisonous. It was the rattlesnake, it was the fang of the rattlesnake.

He said the class of men who upheld the saloons were gamblers, thieves, jail birds and murderers. There are many honest men who believe in the saloon, but every one of those previously named were in favor of it. He anticipated very soon to find the entire Catholic church in a body against the saloon. He then referred to the best people in the land as well as the best newspapers lending their aid in the advancement of temperance, while the murderers, crooks and thieves were on the side of the saloon.

The saloon man breaks the law as much as a house thief and places himself upon the same platform as a thief and should be treated in the same manner. He referred to the murder of Rev. Mr. Hadlock, and said a saloon organ was just a just desert for what he had done.

He closed it as anarchy. It is no wonder, he said, that the better element is raising against the saloons. The saloons are a power in this city. He closed his remarks by saying that he expected it would be the last time he should be able to address a Council Bluffs audience upon this subject.

Mrs. Wadsworth then sang "Angels Ever Bright and Heavenly Hosts," accompanied upon the piano by Miss Julia Officer.

J. J. Steadman was then called from the audience and introduced by the chairman. He said the entire citizen is interested in the proper observance of the law. No meeting of greater interest has ever been held in this city. He referred to the passage of the prohibition law, to reports from Kansas being unsatisfactory, but he believed now the prosperity of a city does not rely upon the number of gilded saloons in it. Money is being invested in these very places where prohibition is in force. He concluded by saying he believed in the enforcement of the laws. His remarks were applauded several times.

Rev. Dr. Phelps said he did not desire to speak as a politician, he never was one, and never wanted to be. He was sorry the temperance question had drifted into politics, and that everyone who spoke on this cause were classed as politicians. He was there to speak on interests of every man, woman and child, and not to speak with bitterness. He said the saloon men were responsible for their positions. He was surprised, astonished, to hear that the law cannot be enforced against saloons and gambling in this city.

He didn't believe it. [Applause.] Durbin's remarks he referred to the platforms of the two parties as being one prohibition, the other license. These churches gave up their evening services as an acknowledgment of interest in the enforcement of this law. He asked that Council Bluffs wheel into line rather than anchor and be swept over by the anti-prohibition force. He thought there was no charge of great as whisky; we should all fear it; we can't afford to let this law remain a dead letter. He'd heard of this city before he arrived here. It is looked upon as a sort of refuge for the lawless. He heard good people say they didn't dare to take their children and property to the lawless city of Council Bluffs. They say that money is needed and the president of the law and order league asked me to say to you that they need $1,000. I appeal to the men themselves to stop the traffic and save the city the costs; I ask all church members to take part in this; make the sacrifice, if necessary, as it is on the right; I appeal to high, low, rich and poor to stand together for the prosperity of the city.

The following named gentlemen then headed the list with $100 each: N. P. Dodge, L. W. Tulleys and an unknown, besides O. W. Gordon, J. N. Brown $50 and three unknown ladies. The balance was raised in sums ranging from $25 down, including sums as low as $1.

Alleged Intent to Kill Assault. Louis Welch, a Pacific house porter, yesterday became overloaded with intoxicants and proceeded to "do up" another colored man named Matt Hall.

It is reported that Welch drew some sort of a knife and was going to "cut the head" out of his dusky antagonist. Hall wouldn't quietly submit, and to back up his ideas he hit Welch over the face with a shovel, which had an effect to speedily bring him to his senses.

The police arrested Welch and booked him with "assault with intent to kill."

Tobacco Dealers Want His Portrait. "Uncle" Willis Blackwell, who lives near Great Bend, is probably the oldest man in Kansas. He was born in a store in Fauquier county, Va., Nov. 20, 1775. He owns a good farm, which he will neither mortgage nor sell, and the county supports him, he having outlived all his family. He is a voracious tobacco chewer, and insists that if he were to leave off he would die.

Economy and strength are peculiar to Welch's Sarsaparilla, the only medicine of which "100 doses one dollar" is true.

The G. A. R. Welcome. St. Louis, Sept. 3.—D. P. Grier, chairman of the local G. A. R., in an interview this evening, said that the people of St. Louis without regard to party, religion or color, are prepared to welcome the comrades of the G. A. R. with open arms and treat them as honored guests of the city. This feeling is entertained by people generally and by all the city officials, from the mayor down.

Electric Lustre Starch will not stick to the iron. It is the best starch.

Held Knobbers Under Arrest. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 3.—A United States officer passed through here to-night, having in charge Jackson Silvery and seven other held knobbers, who were being shipped to Cuba by the St. Louis and North Missouri river steamship company. Atwood and Raliff lived on government land in Douglas county and the knobbers are being taken to Jefferson City to be tried by the United States district court.

Unexploded Belle of the War. William L. Miller, of Charleston, S. C., has at his office two immense iron shells, said to be the first two shots fired at Battery Wagner at the beginning of the war. The shells were never exploded, and weigh 300 pounds each.

"Do you think the man legally guilty according to the evidence?" was the question, and immediately every lawyer present inquired with extreme anxiety: "What is the amount of his assets and liabilities?"
