

JUMBO BREAKS OUT AGAIN.

Belle Plaine's Wonderful Artesian Well Once More In Eruption.

SIoux CITY LIQUOR SEIZED.

Dubuque Welcomes the Governor's Greys—Nebraska County Patrols—Stromsburg Bonded For Waterworks.

Something Busted. BELLE PLAINE, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—"Jumbo," the big well, is loose again. A force of men had been put on the first of the week to drain it and control it, but something "busted" and now "Jumbo" is in the same condition as a year ago.

A Woman Killed By the Cars. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—Mrs. Mary, while returning from the market, was killed by a Central Iowa train at Marshall last night.

Died of His Wounds. CHESTER, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—Alan Greenfield, the young man who was accidentally shot on the 10th inst., died this morning. He had been unconscious ever since he was shot.

The Iowa Republican Campaign. DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—The republican state central committee announce 148 republican meetings for the first two weeks of the campaign. The formal opening will take place Tuesday, October 1, at Des Moines, and will be in different parts of the state, addressed by Governor Larrabee, Senators Allison and Wilson and others.

Liquor Seized at Sioux City. SIoux CITY, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—Several bottles in-the-wal were called to-day and a considerable quantity of liquor of one kind and another seized. A raid has been issued for an important business meeting of the Law and Order league next Monday evening to arrange plans for future work and carrying out the same. It is believed the league is preparing for another vigorous and active campaign.

Banqueting the Governor's Greys. DUBUQUE, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—The Governor's Greys were received to-day with a royal welcome on their return from the Philadelphia centennial. The old members of the company who went out as the first volunteers of the war in April, 1861, went down to the depot to meet them to the number of thousands of citizens. The company carried the original battle flags presented to them in 1859 by the ladies of Dubuque which had been restored to them by General Frank C. Horton, of New York, who was captain of the company when they volunteered their service in 1861. The boys marched to the Lorimer house where a banquet was spread for them amid decorations of flags and bunting. They felt very proud of the attention given them in Philadelphia, New York and Washington.

The Corn Palace. SIoux CITY, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—Decorative and illuminating arches are being erected throughout the business portion of the city and in the vicinity of the corn palace and residences, and business houses are rapidly getting on their feet in decorating the palace and grounds. At work all day in decorating the palace and already a large number of visitors are in the city every day. The palace is rapidly nearing completion and is even more beautiful and imposing than it was at first reported. The railroad companies have agreed to carry exhibits free and are arranging to run special special trains to accommodate visitors. Corn parties, corn ice cream, corn neckties, corn canes and corn decorations are all the rage. Every body is becoming a corn fan, and the event will undoubtedly be historic for Sioux City, Ia., and the northwest.

The Munchrath Case. SIoux CITY, Ia., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—To-morrow is the last day the defense in the Munchrath case will have for filing its motion for a new trial. A reporter confronting Attorney Aro to-day upon the subject, and the gentleman stated that he expected to be able to convince the court that a new trial should be granted. He says that the motion is to be filed to-morrow and argued Monday, the day fixed for sentence. It is understood that the defense will endeavor to make the point that the testimony of John Munchrath is so self-contradictory that they were not notified in advance that such evidence would be introduced. Rumors of one kind and another were set afloat to-day by report that the case would be decided by the court. The case is being prosecuted by Attorney Marsh to-day. The verdict approved very generally, and it is not thought that a new trial will be granted.

The Dawes County Fair. CHADRON, Neb., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—The second day of the Dawes county fair was a grand success considering the difficulties under which the fair opened. It cleared up early this morning and people began to congregate and exhibits kept arriving until there was hardly room for them. The display of agricultural products was simply astonishing and all varieties were well represented. The display was far beyond the expectations of any one and proves this county able to compete with any other portion of Nebraska, Wyoming or Dakota.

Arrangements are being perfected to send a display of agricultural products to the corn festival at Sioux City.

The line of the department was highly praised. The feature of this department was a collection of oil paintings by Miss Jessie Powers, of which she has reserved more comment than space will allow. A collection of blooded stock was also on the ground.

The trotting race was won to-day by Sorrel Billy from Lusk, Wyo., and the running race by Long Tom from Crawford, Neb.

The Northwest Nebraska Transients association are camped on the grounds. This association comprises five of the western counties, and has organized permanently to meet each year in either of the western states.

All the veterans visiting this reunion here were furnished good meals and quarters were provided for the reunion at this place did not exceed 300 visiting members, it was a good start and every veteran expressed himself highly pleased with the reception. In response to their greeting by Lenington, post G. A. R. they decided to hold their second annual reunion at this place next fall. When it is understood that this is only the second fair ever held in this county, and the only way to accomplish anything was by private subscription, too much credit should be conceded the officers and board of directors.

Winding Up. SCHUYLER, Neb., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—The closing day of the fair drew by far the largest crowd. Among the special attractions of the day were a balloon ascension, number of trotting and running races and the parade by company A, the local militia company. The boys presented a fine appearance in their new uniforms. The boys who had his leg broken yesterday is reported as doing nicely.

The Fair at Pawnee. PAWNEE CITY, Neb., Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—The eighth annual fair of the Pawnee County Agricultural society has been a great success. The weather has been admirably. The center of attraction was the free-for-all race yesterday, which was won by Bashful Bill in 1:30. The prize being a pair of harness, worth $100, and a high esteem by many senators and others prominent in official life.

Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Warmer, threatening weather with rain, fresh to brisk winds, becoming variable.

For Iowa: Warmer, fair weather, light to fresh southerly winds, becoming variable.

For Dakota: Local light rains, followed by cooler, fair weather, fresh to brisk westerly winds.

Death of Major Symphon. WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—Major C. C. Symphon, of Illinois, enrolling clerk of the senate, died suddenly this morning of apoplexy. The deceased had been employed in the senate for many years and was held in high esteem by many senators and others prominent in official life.

Decision in a Long Pending Suit. MARSHALLTOWN, Mich., Sept. 23.—Judge Hooker to-day sent in a decision in the celebrated Ferris-Sibley suit, which has held in Sibley's favor at Rochester, N. Y., from $300,000 to $500,000 worth of property, most of which is situated here. The matter has been in court several years or more. The Ferris boys will appeal.

Weather Indications. For Nebraska: Warmer, threatening weather with rain, fresh to brisk winds, becoming variable.

For Iowa: Warmer, fair weather, light to fresh southerly winds, becoming variable.

For Dakota: Local light rains, followed by cooler, fair weather, fresh to brisk westerly winds.

FIXING FOR BETTER BALL.

Semi-Annual Meeting of the Directors of The Omaha Club.

PREPARING FOR NEXT YEAR.

Topeka Wins From Denver and Lincoln Loses a Game With Kansas City—Other Items of Sporting News.

Important Base Ball Meeting. The semi-annual meeting of the directors of the Omaha Base Ball club was held at 8:30 last evening at Penrose & Hardin's sporting headquarters, 103 South Thirteenth street. The meeting was of one unusual importance and there was a full attendance of the members. Among other business transacted it was decided to increase the capital stock. After considerable debate it was increased from $100,000 to $150,000. Arthur H. Penrose, to represent the company at the Chicago conference where steps are to be taken toward the formation of a new and stronger league. If this league is formed Omaha hopes to be a member of it. Other business of a minor character was transacted. It is the intention to improve the record of Omaha next year, and no pains will be spared to accomplish this object.

Kansas City 12, Lincoln 8. KANSAS CITY, Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—Lincoln received another dose of the medicine she has been taking at Topeka to-day and dropped in the first game of the series to Kansas City. The latter's weakest pitcher in the box. Each team made eight errors, but the cowboys batted Swartzel freely and thus won the game. Darkness ended the contest in the seventh inning. The score by innings as follows: Kansas City.....3 1 2 1 1 3—12 Lincoln.....0 0 0 3 0 3 0—8 Earned runs—Kansas City 5, Topeka 2. Hits—Topeka 10, Lincoln 10. Errors—Topeka 8, Lincoln 8. Bases on balls—Herr, Reeder, Struck out—By Haddock 4, Swartzel 4, Double plays—Herr, Howe and Beckley, 1. Hit by pitcher—Haddock 5, off Swartzel 4. First base on errors—Kansas City 3, Lincoln 5. Passed balls—Haddock 4, Howe 2. Time of game—Haddock 3, Swartzel 3. Hit by pitcher—Rowe. Time of game—1 hour and 55 minutes. Umpire—Hogan. Batteries—Kansas City: Haddock and Graver. Lincoln: Swartzel and Hoover.

Topeka 10, Denver 3. TOPEKA, Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—The Topekas and Denvers played a good game of ball this afternoon. A number of brilliant plays were made. The visitors were defeated by the following score: Topeka.....1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—10 Denver.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—3 Runs earned—Topeka 10, Denver 3. Base hits—Stearns, Meyers, Three-base hits—Macullar, Stearns, Johnson, Goldsby. Errors—Hogan, 2. Batteries—Topeka: Haddock—Conway and Gunson, Blich and Meyers. Time of game—1 hour and 35 minutes.

National League Games. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 23.—The game between the Pittsburg and Philadelphia teams to-day resulted as follows: Pittsburg.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 Philadelphia.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 Pitchers—Galvin and Ferguson. Base hits—Pittsburg 3, Philadelphia 3. Errors—Pittsburg 3, Philadelphia 2. Umpire—Doehner. Chicago, Sept. 23.—The game between the Chicago and Boston teams to-day resulted as follows: Chicago.....0 1 0 1 0 0 0 1—6 Boston.....0 0 0 1 0 0 1 0—2 Pitchers—Van Halstrom and Madden. Base hits—Chicago 7, Boston 6. Errors—Chicago 3, Boston 4. Umpire—Powers.

Afternoon game: Chicago.....0 0 2 0 1 0 1—4 Boston.....0 0 2 0 0 0 2—4 Game called at end of eighth inning on account of darkness. Pitchers—Galvin and Conway. Base hits—Chicago 9, Boston 6. Errors—Chicago 5, Boston 3. Umpire—Powers.

Detroit, Sept. 23.—The game between the Detroit and New York teams to-day resulted as follows: Detroit.....3 0 3 0 1 0 0—11 New York.....0 0 0 3 0 0 0—3 Pitchers—Conway and Keefe. Base hits—Detroit 15, New York 6. Errors—Detroit 4, New York 2. Umpire—Barnes.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 23.—The game between the Indianapolis and Washington teams to-day resulted as follows: Indianapolis.....0 1 0 4 0 0 0—5 Washington.....0 0 3 0 0 1 1—4 Pitchers—Gilmore and O'Day. Base hits—Indianapolis 7, Washington 6. Errors—Indianapolis 2, Washington 3. Umpire—Valentine.

American Association. BROOKLYN, Sept. 23.—The game between the Brooklyn and Athletic teams to-day resulted as follows: Brooklyn.....1 0 2 0 0 3 0—6 Athletics.....0 0 0 0 0 7 3—10 Batters—Petersen, Fernald and Fernald. The Baltimore and Metropolitan teams to-day resulted as follows: Baltimore.....0 0 0 0 0 0 1—7 Metropolitan.....0 0 0 0 0 2 0—15

Northwestern League. DES MOINES, Sept. 23.—At Milwaukee, Milwaukee 4, St. Paul 3. At La Crosse, Eau Claire 13, La Crosse 5.

The Louisville Meeting. LOUISVILLE, Sept. 23.—One-half mile for two-year-olds: Golightly won, Rambler second, Fifth third. Time—59 2/5.

One and one-half mile, Fostoral won, Kirkin second, Lewis Clarke third. Time—1:29 2/5.

Three-year-olds, Poter Jennings won, Harry Russell second, Redstone third. Time—1:30.

One mile, for two-year-olds: Bertha won, Patton second, Kentucky Can third. Time—1:36.

Seven furlongs, all ages: Walker won, Hopelade second, Chance third. Time—1:33.

Brooklyn Jockey Club Races. NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The weather at the Brooklyn Jockey club track at Gravesend to-day was rainy and disagreeable and the racing very heavy. Following is the summary: Six furlongs. Badge won, Stuyvesant second, Umpire third. Time, 1:20 2/5.

One mile and a quarter: Swift won, Exile second, Ten Housers third. Time, 2:45 2/5.

Two-year-olds, six furlongs: Fordham won, Locust second, Carrie G. third. Time, 1:29 2/5.

For three-year-olds, one mile and furlong: Besse June won, Lady Primrose second, Alarie third. Time—1:37 2/5.

Six furlongs: Fernald Jennings won, Harry Russell second, Redstone third. Time—1:30.

One and one-half miles: Maggie Mitchell won, Carrissima second, Bonnie P. third. Time—2:30.

Speakers at Detroit. DETROIT, Sept. 23.—The weather was cold, the track slow and the attendance small.

Two-year-olds, stake: Griffon won, Jaquette second, Pilot Maid third. Best time—2:38.

2 3/4 class, racing, purse $1,000: Oimes F. won, Wayne Wilkes second, Dr. West third, Daniel S. fourth. Time—2:24 2/5.

2 3/4 class, trotting, purse $1,000: Aloysius won, Senator second, Footsteps third, Iowa Harold fourth. Time—2:24 2/5.

Two-year-olds, stake: A walk-over for Eminence in 2:31 1/2.

Omaha Rifle Club. The weekly shoot of the Omaha Rifle club at the Bellevue range resulted as follows: Walter Kinner.....62 W. W. Bingham.....49 R. B. Hudson.....49 D. C. Harvey.....50 Dr. E. Morris.....47 Dr. H. W. Bingham.....47 D. J. Collins.....39 C. S. Parrotte.....37 F. E. Farnelle.....37 Mr. Kinner holds the "Berlin" medal until the next shoot on a score of 62. A cash prize will be shot for Wednesday, September 28.

Sporting Notes. The Penrose & Hardin annual tournament takes place October 25, 26, 27 and 28. There will be three sets of traps kept constantly running—sections A, B and C. Section B a live bird trap, where all birds will be shot; sections A and C will be used for artificial birds. A referee and score f will be at each set of traps, in consequence of which there will be no delay. The programme will be ready in a few days. Large quantities of birds are expected from all parts of the country, both live and artificial birds. Much enthusiasm is being manifested regarding the event.

The fall meeting of the North Nebraska Sportsmen's tournament takes place October 3 and 5 at Sioux City. The tournament will be under the management of Captain Penrose, of Penrose & Hardin, this city. Captain Penrose successfully conducted the May tournament at the same place and this fact is a sufficient guarantee that it will be a social success.

Recent cold days have made excellent shooting of teal, duck and jack snipe.

A Tip of the Yacht Race. NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram to the BEE.)—Edward Burgess advised his friends to-day not to bet on the Volunteer and not to give odds. He says nothing is so uncertain as a yacht race.

Ex-Prisoners of War. CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—At to-day's meeting of the Union ex-prisoners' association the pension measure outlined in these dispatches last night was adopted. It will be presented to the G. A. R. for endorsement at the St. Louis convention to be held there before congress. George W. H. Powell, of Belleville, Ill., was elected president; A. T. Decker, of New York, first vice president, and additional trustees were named from each state having local organizations. A resolution was adopted declaring that the president should comply with the law by displaying the captured rebel flags in some public place, Indianapolis was chosen as the next place for meeting. A resolution was passed declaring that the relief of ex-soldiers suffering from the effects of barbarous Indian attacks should be the first duty of the government. Another resolution says: "We view with sorrow and painful regret the appointment of ex-rebels to judicial, executive and other positions of honor and of applications of union soldiers for needed and just relief through pensions. Adjourned."

Cleveland Acknowledged the Honor. HARRISBURG, Pa., Sept. 23.—Some time since Mrs. John Hostetter, of Perry county, gave birth to triplets, two boys and a girl. The parents decided to call them Grover, Cleveland and Frances respectively. The birth of the triplets was the first of the kind in the county and the parents for their courtesy and expressing the best wishes for the children.

An Inter-State Violator Arrested. MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 23.—F. McFeeley, agent for the Manitoba railroad at Moorhead, Minn., was arrested yesterday by the sheriff of a complaint of C. B. Benedict and others, charged with violating section 5 of the inter-state commerce law. The agent refused to transfer west to another road. The case will be watched with much interest.

Missionary Doane Released. BOSTON, Sept. 23.—The American board of foreign missions has received advice from Missionary Doane that the Spanish governor of the Caroline islands has released him and assured him that in the future the mission work will be unimpeded.

Heavy Mortgages. NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Mortgages for $255,000 have been placed on the property of L. S. New York Co., manufacturer of sugar machinery at Yonkers, to secure the principal creditors.

Death of an Archbishop. NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Archbishop LeRoy of Hartford, Conn., died in France yesterday.

Mr. Washburne Better. CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Ex-Minister Washburne, who reported late to-night to be slightly better.

REAL ESTATE. Transfers Filed September 22, 1887. Elizabeth M. French and husband to Isaac N. Hammond, lot 10 blk 13, Central Park, w. d., $3,500.

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 23.—The game between the Detroit and New York teams to-day resulted as follows: Detroit.....3 0 3 0 1 0 0—11 New York.....0 0 0 3 0 0 0—3 Pitchers—Conway and Keefe. Base hits—Detroit 15, New York 6. Errors—Detroit 4, New York 2. Umpire—Barnes.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 23.—The game between the Indianapolis and Washington teams to-day resulted as follows: Indianapolis.....0 1 0 4 0 0 0—5 Washington.....0 0 3 0 0 1 1—4 Pitchers—Gilmore and O'Day. Base hits—Indianapolis 7, Washington 6. Errors—Indianapolis 2, Washington 3. Umpire—Valentine.

American Association. BROOKLYN, Sept. 23.—The game between the Brooklyn and Athletic teams to-day resulted as follows: Brooklyn.....1 0 2 0 0 3 0—6 Athletics.....0 0 0 0 0 7 3—10 Batters—Petersen, Fernald and Fernald. The Baltimore and Metropolitan teams to-day resulted as follows: Baltimore.....0 0 0 0 0 0 1—7 Metropolitan.....0 0 0 0 0 2 0—15

Northwestern League. DES MOINES, Sept. 23.—At Milwaukee, Milwaukee 4, St. Paul 3. At La Crosse, Eau Claire 13, La Crosse 5.

The Louisville Meeting. LOUISVILLE, Sept. 23.—One-half mile for two-year-olds: Golightly won, Rambler second, Fifth third. Time—59 2/5.

SHE LIVES IN ST. JOE.

Though His Whereabouts at Present Are Unknown.

Nearly two weeks ago a young man named Alonzo C. Rees applied for and was given board and lodging in the residence of Charles V. Mos, foreman for L. P. Prayn. He impressed his hosts in a favorable manner, having a large and well-filled trunk, quite an amount of clothes and working implements, the latter intended for use on the Omaha View school house, which is about to be commenced by Contractor King. He came, he said, as a brick mason for King and was waiting until the latter should be ready to go to work upon the school house. As there was a delay, Rees was in town yesterday and time ran best he could, and while doing Mrs. Mos learned from him that he had left a girl behind him in St. Joe. He thought of this damsel almost continually, and times ago he had been discouraged because he could receive no letter from her. He bore patiently with his disappointment until one night in the latter part of last week, when he telegraphed the lady only to learn that she was not to be found at the address given. This almost threw him into despair and caused him to rush to the telegraph office, where he sent another telegram which cost over $1.00. No answer was received this and it is thought that the boy's disappointment as well as possible. Last Monday he came to town with Mr. Mos, and since that time has not been heard from or seen. His disappearance was not announced until it was somewhat mysterious. Rees claimed to have about $300 in his possession and both Mr. and Mrs. Mos fear that the young man has been impelled to the commission of some crime. On Monday last, however, he had hardly left for town when a letter was received from the St. Joe young woman, but there is nobody to learn his contents.

AMUSEMENTS. Two Entertainments at the Opera House. The production of "Hamlet" last night by Mr. Thomas Keene was witnessed by a magnificent audience. Mr. Keene played with extreme care, gradually finding appreciation, until, in the climax, he was greeted with fervid peals of applause. And yet, he did not play to the applause. His reading was studious and thoughtful—more that of a man than that of a machine with flesh and blood, and void, in the main, of the forceful, melo-dramatic style to which the character is subjected even by favorites who have essayed it in Omaha. Whatever be the theories of auditors and Shakespearean students as regards the sex, age, mental condition of Hamlet—theories which it is sometimes difficult to determine, it is true that Mr. Keene's interpretation is made apparent in the first two acts. It is such an one as may, despite the pretense, disjunct and morbidly morbid nature of Hamlet's character and sentiment, be followed with ease by an audience of average intelligence. It satisfies a close observer, while it not inappreciably affords a great deal which will be appreciated by others not so disposed. His support did not appear to the same advantage that it did in Kiechell. It is inconceivable how the Ghost, aside from the recital of his tale, could harrow up the soul of Hamlet, because his was one of the truest recitals a ghost has yet indulged in. The Polonius of Mr. Curran was characteristically loquacious. Miss Boyle was only passable as Ophelia.

One of Artemus Ward's Letters. The following characteristic epistle from Artemus Ward to an Elmira, (N.Y.) girl, was published for the first time last week by the New York Mail and Express: "Ward, N. Y., Sept. 18, 1861.—My dear Miss I. I cannot tell you how much I miss you. It seems as though I had lost all my relatives, including my grandmother and the cooking stove. I don't put you in a bottle and bring you down here with me! But I am always forgetting something. The other day I went off and forgot my aunt Sarah, and she's a good deal bigger than you are. I don't know how to get you down here. He frequently goes off and forgets his washerwoman. Mr. Ramsey is a very fine looking looking man. He reminds me of Mr. Green, the Malden murderer. When Mr. Ramsey goes to the penitentiary, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon, we must send him doughnuts, magazines and other literary documents. Mr. Ramsey can read pretty well, too. I should like you just as well if you were twelve years older. I am very singular about some things. You spoke to me about a boy who is my rival. I should feel very sorry to kill that boy, but he may drive me to it. I am in hopes that he will take himself into a premature tomb—that he will choke himself with a large piece of pudding. When I do I shall certainly feel free to load him with chains and read all my lectures to him. That will finish him. His boots may remain, but I will bestow him upon a miserably long bed. You must be a good little girl and always mind your mother. Never let your excellent mother feel sorry that she is acquainted with you. If it hadn't been for me you might have been a fortune teller, which will be very soon