Lost on the Run. During the exhibition run by the fire department Wednesday evening, one of the ornamental silver eagles in one of the lamps of the chemical engine was lost, also badge No. 24.

A Gala Day. The Omahas will play at Missouri Valley one week from Monday, with Lovett and Nagle as the battery. They are making preparations at the Valley for the event, and say that they will have one of the largest crowds present that ever assembled in the town.

He Goes on the Streets. John Gilmore, the man who attempted to snatch Officer Horrigan's watch Tuesday evening, was arraigned before the police court yesterday, and given ten days' hard labor on the streets. Gilmore is an intelligent fellow, and a straight story, still his guilt was undeniable.

Two Small Fires. The fire department was called out for two small blazes last evening. One on Day sport street near Tenth pulled a curtain down over a lamp and it vanished in flame. The roof of a Chinese laundry on Harney street near Twelfth caught fire, it is supposed from a piece of fireworks. The "Siege of Sebastopol." The damage in each case was trifling.

House Robbed. The residence of John Clinton, in Sarpy county, near the city limits, was entered while Mr. Clinton and family were attending Barnum's show, and $15 in money and various articles of value were taken. Persons were seen leaving the house, and it is believed that they are the robbers. The police are on the track of the robbers.

He Waited For His Mail. OMAHA, Sept. 6. To the Editor of THE BEE: It is the surplus of the treasury of the United States large enough to employ extra help at the general delivery of the post-office. Thousands of strangers awaiting mail had to wait until it suited the convenience of the postoffice officials. Or is it a national holiday and the government at Washington ordered it closed.

How He Was Shot. Robert Richlin, the young man who was shot on Sunday evening, gives a slightly different account of the affair from the one already published. He was attacked about 8:30, instead of midnight, and his assailants were two in number, instead of three. They shot him without warning, but failed to go through him, as he regained his feet before they reached him, and that apparently disconcerted them. He will lose two fingers by the shot.

The Metropolitan's Round-Up. There was a motley collection of vagrants and plain drunks in Judge Heron's yesterday morning. They were disposed of in short order. The docket composed fifty-three names, eight of whom were hucksters, who were run in for obstructing the streets. Tom Cunningham, who got drunk and broke in the window of a house of prostitution, was fined $15 and $100. Frank Winship, who got intoxicated and relieved his feelings by smashing one of the windows of Ollie Price's house. He was punished with a fine of $20 and costs. John Gilmore, a vagrant, was sent to the county jail for ten days, the first and last two on bread and water.

Oh, if I only had her complexion. Why, it is easily obtained. Use Pozzoni's Complexion Powder.

Mary Minus Her Watch. Mary Miller, a young lady who holds down a chair in the first part of the People's theater, claims to have had her watch stolen from her yesterday. She says that she went into a wine room to get a $3 bill changed when Al Phersonal approached her and snatched her watch. Phersonal is said to be a foreman in a Douglas street harness shop.

The proprietors of the wine room say that the theft did not occur in their place, but that Phersonal and the woman spent about four hours in the place during the day. One of them stated that the woman gave Phersonal the watch to wear for a short while. He went out of the place and did not return. Mary then hunted him up and found him standing in front of the place where he works. She asked him for it and he told her she had pawned it. He was arrested by Officer Hasey at her complaint.

Had a bilious attack and one of those indescribable cases of constant vomiting. Took quite an other remedy without relief. Took Dr. Jones' Head-Clover Tonic; am strong and well. Asa Thompson, Logan, Ohio. Goodman Drug Co., agents, Omaha.

A CLEVER SWINDLE. A Forged Check Worked Off in a Novel Way.

Last Saturday evening a young man walked into the store of Thompson & Heiden and handed a check for $50, having the signature of Samuel Burns attached, to Mr. Heiden to have him cash it. He was in his shirt sleeves and stated that he was one of Samuel Burns' clerks, and that Mr. Burns desired the accommodation. Mr. Heiden, desiring to be more sure without hesitation, asked him to oblige his neighbor. The young man walked out, stopping at the door a moment to chat with Mr. Thompson in regard to the condition of the day's business. Mr. Thompson, for a moment, looking at the check, and watched the supposed clerk cross the street and enter Mr. Burns' store. His suspicions were allayed. Mr. Burns stated that he had noticed the man enter his store, and the supposition is that he merely looked in and departed. The $50 check is a rank forgery, the name being made whatever to imitate Mr. Burns' signature. The signature attached to the check was written in a delicate, womanish hand, and the name "Samuel Burns" is written in bold and heavy, and is written "Sam'l Burns." Mr. Thompson could not recall the name who perpetrated the fraud, and he thought the transaction legitimate and did not notice him closely.

TRIED TO DIE. But a Stomach Pump Prevented His Intended Demise.

A man by the name of McLaughlin, who is a watchmaker in the employ of a Tenth street jeweler, attempted suicide yesterday afternoon. About 4 o'clock Officer Savage picked him up in the alley behind the store with an empty vial in his hand. It had evidently contained morphine, which McLaughlin had swallowed. He was rushed to the city jail and Dr. Ralph with his stomach pump summoned. After a long and severe struggle McLaughlin was relieved of the morphine and his life saved. It was learned that he had been drinking heavily for about a week. He has been separated from his wife for several years, and lately she has been writing to him from Chicago, asking him for money and requesting him to return to her. The doctor examined the vial and said that he would "try it again some time and would not get left again." As he lay at the station he could only toss his head from side to side, and mutter: "I love you, love you, no matter what you've done." But little could be gathered from his talk except that his wife was to blame for their separation. He is a man of fine physique, well dressed and very intelligent looking. His wife's residence could not be located.

Champion Jimmy Lindsay. The Police Gazette medal, emblematic of the middle weight boxing championship, was formally presented to its winner, Jimmy Lindsay, yesterday afternoon. The presentation was made in the presence of a large crowd of sporting men, who were invited to the Grand Ice sample room for the express purpose of meeting the clever young boxer. On behalf of Richard K. Fox, Prof. Patsy Fallon pinned the beautiful golden trophy on Lindsay's breast. The young champion accepted in a short speech.

Held Up, Sand-Bagged and Robbed. John Hovey, a fine appearing farmer boy, came in from the neighborhood of Springfield to buy a suit of clothes. While passing along the Union Pacific tracks between Q street and the stock yards crossing six and seven o'clock, he was sand-bagged and held up. He was terribly battered up. The police have the matter in hand and will bring the guilty ones to justice if it is possible.

The Biting Tongue. Slander attacks us from behind. The bite is rarely felt unless it is malignant and persistent. Disease, too, often steals upon us through a vital channel. The air we breathe affects the lungs—if it be malarious it enters the blood, if not, it enters the system, and the temperature it produces disease of the throat, etc. Whether Hostetter's Stomach Bitters be used to prevent or to remedy the various forms of disease produced by miasm, such as intermittent fever, dumb ague, acute or bilious remittent, it is and ever has proved to be an effective and thorough remedy—one which does not only ameliorate the symptoms of the malady of this type, but eradicates their cause. Dyspepsia, liver complaint, rheumatism and all other troubles arising among the humanity afflicting troubles which it promptly relieves and ultimately removes.

Fell Off the Bridge. Once more the Omaha and Council Bluffs bridge was the scene of an accident, but fortunately not a fatal one. Yesterday Geo. Miller and John Pollock were wearing boiled shirts and Sunday clothes, and taking one-half a day off. They were at work on the lower portion of the false work and happened to step upon a loose plank, which, as it always does, threw both of them into the river. Miller struck out for the shore, and Pollock held onto the plank, and both of them were picked up by the bridge company's skiff.

In a Critical Condition. Dr. Ralph called on Mike Connelly, the man cut by young Duke Tuesday evening, and found him in a very unfavorable condition. He had passed a bad night, and yesterday was restless and feverish, and the chances seem to be against recovery. The doctor thinks, however, by careful watching and nursing, he will pull through all right.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Evangeline" at the Grand Opera House. There was a large audience at the Grand opera house last evening, and "Evangeline," known and still popular burlesque, "Evangeline," was most appreciatively received. After something like a dozen years this work appears to have lost none of its power of attraction, and, perhaps, will not for as many years to come when properly presented. Such treatment it gets from the company now at the Grand, which is one of the strongest that has ever appeared in this class of entertainments in this city. The burlesque was given last night with none of its well known attractive features omitted, and was especially fine in the costume and spectacular effects. The chorus singing was also fine, while Miss Montague as Evangeline, Miss Templeton as Gabriel, Maffat as the Lone Fisherman, and Fortesque as Captain, merited the cordial recognition each received from the audience. It was a pleasing, satisfactory entertainment, and will be repeated this and tomorrow evenings and at the Saturday matinee.

"A Tin Soldier" at Boyd's. The attraction at Boyd's opera house last evening was that familiar three act farce, "A Tin Soldier," and it was witnessed by a crowded house. The average individual wants to be something more than entertained at a theater—he wants to be amused. The production presented at Boyd's last evening is amusing, exceedingly so, but cannot lay claim to anything else. The author did not trouble himself about a plot, and was not harassed or hampered by any regard for the unities. He struck upon an idea that was funny to him and put it into a form to please others. It was a highly successful venture, and seems likely to continue so until he or somebody else can think of something better. The company presented "A Tin Soldier" at Boyd's this week is not as a rule above criticism, but those upon whom the real responsibility of carrying the performance is devolved are highly successful. It is an entertainment to amuse solely, and this it accomplishes. It will occupy the stage at Boyd's during the remainder of the week, including a Saturday matinee.

Sebastopol's Popularity. Another large audience last night witnessed the spectacle of the Siege of Sebastopol. Similarly large audiences are likely to witness it for a couple of weeks yet. Last night it was attended by the traveling salesmen who made such a grand display in the parade. The specialty features still continue to be an admirable attraction, and the entertainment and spectacle of the Siege of Sebastopol is growing more elaborate with almost every performance, and each time there is something new to attract and interest.

For the benefit of such persons, I have written a book giving a general description of the most common diseases and conditions, my treatment, success, advice, etc. After reading it, persons will have a clear idea of their condition and can write me more intelligently and to the point. It will therefore be seen that our object in writing these pages is not to furnish reading matter to a class of persons who read out of mere idle curiosity, but for the benefit of the many who are suffering to a greater or less degree from diseases, or the effects of diseases or abuses, of the sexual or urinary organs. Not a day passes but we receive many calls or letters from persons suffering from this class of diseases, or their sequel. Many of them are ignorant of the cause of the difficulty that has wrecked their constitutions, thrown a cloud over their bright prospects and in shortening their days.

FALL ANNOUNCEMENT.

At the beginning of the Autumn Season we offer our greetings to our friends and customers with the pleasing conviction, that they will give a ready attention and kind reception to our offering.

Our patrons know that our advertisements are always well worth reading, in fact that it pays to read them carefully. We never advertise or promise impossibilities. We don't try to humbug people as is done in many clothing advertisements; we appeal only to sound judgment and reason. We adhere in our advertisement strictly to the truth, and whenever we do announce some special bargain the people are always sure that it is something extraordinary, and no every day affair.

We are now ready for the new season with a new stock. We have made every effort to the selection of a stock, which, in all respect should have no superior; not even an equal in this part of the country and we think that in this we have succeeded. When we say that it is without exception the largest display of goods for Men's wear, ever exhibited in any one establishment outside of New York or Philadelphia, we mean exactly what we say. Our trade is constantly increasing and we have prepared this fall for a larger increase than ever. Though we have only recently added considerable space, we have again not room enough to display this seasons stock properly. Every table on our three immense floors is fairly groaning under its weight of goods.

The clothing for all ages which now lies upon our counters is the best proof of the well directed efforts we have made to win and deserve your patronage.

And not only in clothing do we make such a display, every department of our large establishment is equally well stocked. Our Hat Department contains more hats than any two of the largest exclusive Hat stores together. Our Underwear, Hosiery, Glove and every other department is crowded with new goods.

About prices we only have this much to say. COME AND SEE HOW OUR GOODS ARE MARKED. Old customers need not be told how much they can save by trading with us. OUR GOODS ARE MARKED THIS SEASON WITH THIS GREAT OBJECT IN VIEW—OF RETAINING ALL OUR OLD CUSTOMERS, AND GAINING FOR US MANY THOUSAND NEW ONES.

STRICTLY ONE PRICE.
