THE O'NEILL CASE SETTLED.

Damages Asked for the Antics of an Ill-Managed Cab - Other News From the Court Rooms.

The Divorce Granted.

Judge Wakeley gave his decision in the O'Neill divorce case, and in so doing delivered a few of the passages with a great deal of feeling. Especially was this noticeable when referring to the testimony which exposed O'Neill's attempt to have his aged wife adjudged insane and sent to an asylum for the balance of her life.

Marriage Bond.

Judge Groff and a jury are giving their attention to the case of Kilburn vs. Christian. In which a large number of town lots at Florence are involved.

A Duluth Tariff.

Tuesday the Burlington put in a grain tariff for the bridge between Omaha and points in Nebraska and Duluth. The tariff is the same as that on Chicago shipments.

The Ice Gorge at Valley.

Reports received at Union Pacific headquarters yesterday were to the effect that the gorge had been broken and that the ice was moving down the stream. It is now thought that all danger of a washout is passed.

Returning from Washington.

The combination train of the Union Pacific and Northwestern, west-bound, was reported to have passed the gorge yesterday.

Railroad Notes.

The Union Pacific received two new engines from Schenectady locomotive works yesterday.

WHAT PEOPLE TALK ABOUT.

Views and Intercourse Caught in Hotel Corridors and Elsewhere.

Conductor Wilson, of the Missouri Pacific, said last night that the amount of travel commencing this spring surprised him. Mr. Wilson runs a passenger train between Omaha and Kansas City. Until recently the business has been light, but now it is big. The trains that do not come through half loaded are crowded these days to the fullest capacity.

John D. Howe has a grievance against the council of this city because hackmen are allowed to bring their cabs to a regular depot.

Why don't they set apart some special locality, designate it as a hack stand, and make these jokers stay there? At the time of making this speech Mr. Howe was a trusted salesman and collector for M. Hellman, the Farnam street clothier. He grew up, so to speak, in the store, having commenced at the wrapping counter.

On the Wrong Road.

Two more young gentlemen have gone wrong, betrayed their employers' confidence, and in one instance, at least, brought sorrow and shame to respectable parents.

Patrick White, for six years past, has been a trusted salesman and collector for M. Hellman, the Farnam street clothier. He grew up, so to speak, in the store, having commenced at the wrapping counter.

White, as is customary, had been collecting up to Saturday night. He turned no eye into the office at that time. How much the secured can be ascertained only by a call upon those for whom he was entrusted.

Colonel Pat. Humphrey, the celebrated T. P. A., is in town again, and last evening he made a little talk to the effect that, lottery prizes or no lottery prizes, "this is going to be the greatest year for business we have had for a long time."

Found.—"Health and strength, pure blood, and appetite like water, regular digestion all by taking that popular and peculiar medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. I want everybody to try it this season."

Four thefts were reported to Chief Seavey yesterday.

The first case was that of some thief breaking into a writing desk owned by Kate Eison, 156 Dorcas, and stealing a gold chain and pair of bracelets.

S. Kellenor is another sufferer. He reports that thieves broke into his barn at 1005 Howard Tuesday night, and stole a single harness worth $80.

The third case is the loss of an overcoat, steel skin cap, blue silk dress and ring necklace, which were stolen from William Roth, at 2562 Marj.

The fourth theft complained of to Chief Seavey, is the larceny of a pair of gold bracelets, valued at $100, and a pair of brass pins, which somebody has taken from Miss Louisa Dyerling, a woman named Nellie Miller, residing in the latter's party, but an officer could not find them in her room.

Pears' soap secures a beautiful complexion.

Complaint is made to Chief Seavey, that a gang of young toughs, headed by Emmett Inman and Charlie Moran, are the terror of South Tenth street in the vicinity of Williams. Their usual rendezvous is in front of a house occupied by Mrs. Moring and Mrs. Bergman at 1512 South Tenth street.

Oh, ye who teach the ignorant youth of our great nation, let them learn the noble art of self-defense, as Salvation Oil is the specific for harts.

Rolling Mills Close Up.

READING, Pa., March 6.—The failure of the Reading Iron works has caused a great flurry among the rolling mills of the country. Last night the rolling mills at Naoni and Gibraltar, this country, the greater portion of whose products were received by the Reading Iron works, closed down for want of orders, and this forenoon the Keystone rolling mills of this city, whose product is taken by the Reading works, also shut down.

Burwell's Room.

BURWELL, Neb., March 6.—(Correspondence of The Bee.)—Burwell, the only town in Garfield county, is beautifully located in one of the most fertile valleys of the west.

Foreign Press Opinion.

BERLIN, March 6.—The National Gazette, commenting on President Harrison's inaugural address, says: "There is no reason to doubt the president's pacific principle or the sincerity of his opinion regarding the peaceful adjustment of international affairs, although he recommended the strengthening of the navy. The foreign countries proclaim the beginning of a new era in American development and a display of a more assertive policy by the United States."

A Monstrosity.

"Beating and abusing his mother" is the charge preferred against something that looks like a man. It registered its name as C. Peterin at the police station last night, and was placed behind the bars with some higher classed drunks.

Resuming the Fast Train Service.

Chicago, March 6.—The Chicago & Alton fast train service between Chicago and Kansas City will be resumed on Monday. The Burlington will take the same step on Monday. It is supposed that all lines will follow their example, and that all fast trains will be resumed by the end of the month.

Fisher Printing Co., 1011 Farnam st., telephone 1244, blank book makers, etc.

It has sprung from a country postoffice in a year and a half to a neat and thrifty village of 500 inhabitants.

At present it is the terminus of the Lincoln & Black Hills railroad, and the most practical trading point for the surrounding country for a distance of forty miles. It is the best hog and cattle market in the North Loup valley, consequently the trading point for farmers for a long distance. Many farmers who have heretofore gone to the Elkhorn Valley railroad for market are now coming a greater distance to this place. Burwell expects two new lines of railroad during the coming season, the Sioux City & Ogden and the Union Pacific. It has a water power which has no equal in the state, and to be appreciated must be seen, as it cannot be described in a few words. The fall is about twelve feet per mile.

The Congregationalists are making preparations to erect a $2,000 church during the coming season. A general merchandise store is being removed here from Keot, an inland town ten miles out, also a real estate office. The erection of an opera house is being considered.

Odd Fellows are preparing to organize lodges, and will have them in running order soon.

A creamery and canning factory are among the industries which could be made to pay a large return on the investments.

For nearly a third of a century those delicious, pure and economic preparations, Van Duzer's Flavoring Extracts, have led the vanguard in popularity of articles of their class, not only in the home, but in the hotel, and in the competition between the American people. The bottles of these extracts contain surplus menses, a point of superiority over rivals, and the excess by which they are prepared prevents a contamination with any deleterious substance.

A New Town in Platte County.

COLUMBUS, Neb., March 6.—(Correspondence of The Bee.)—A new town has sprung up in Platte county, fifteen miles northwest of Columbus, six miles from Genoa and five miles from Oenoe, on the Alton branch of the Omaha Northern & Black Hills railroad, in the rich valley of the Loup river. The town has been named Moore. It is quite pleasantly located, surrounded as it is, by undulating prairie lands, which are now under a high state of cultivation. The Farmers' Protective association have an elevator almost completed, now in course of erection, having a capacity of 25,000 bushels.

Large quantities of grain, hogs and cattle are being shipped from this point, even with the meager conveniences at hand. E. A. Gerrard has platted twenty acres for a town site and will begin selling lots at once. The town of Moore contains a provision for the future, for any surplus menses to be sold on the premises as a beverage, under a future of the grant, to the original owner. A number of business houses will be erected as soon as spring opens. William Strother will start a prohibition paper as soon as a building can be procured. Mr. Strother is a graduate of the University of Kansas. That this thriving little burg will grow and flourish, there can be no doubt, as the town who have the matter in hand have money and energy to back them up. The farmers by private subscription raised the necessary funds to build the town, which the railroad company refused to put in at its own expense. The opening of spring will witness great activity in all the villages of the county, and the starting of a number of new ones.

Jeants Sue for Libel.

MONTELEONE, Tex., (Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Considerable excitement has been created in ecclesiastical and political circles by the action taken in behalf of the Jesuits against the Toronto Mail for $50,000 damages for libel. The special complaint of the plaintiffs is that the Mail published an oath alleged to have been taken by all Jesuits in which the only acknowledgment is their spiritual and temporal head, in which they renounce all allegiance to any heretical king, prince or state, and that in all things they are bound to obey the pope. Leading Jesuits declare this false and malicious and to have been published to create Protestant prejudice against them.

Saloon Men Give Up.

FORT DOUGLAS, La., March 6.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—The fight commenced against saloons in this city a few weeks ago culminated yesterday in the most hotly contested election ever held here. It resulted in the election of George J. Pearson, anti-saloon candidate for mayor, by 67 majority. The liquor seller acknowledge the futility of further resistance, and say they will close all saloons within two weeks, when, for the first time since its enactment six years ago, prohibition will be enforced in Fort Dodge.

Happenings at Curtis.

CURTIS, Neb., March 6.—(Special Telegram to The Bee.)—Three cars on the west-bound express were derailed here this morning, caused by a broken switch.

Objects to Fast Trains.

Chicago, March 6.—The officials of the Washab-to-day entered an earnest protest against the proposed restoration of the fast train service between Chicago and Kansas City. Receiver McNulta, who is in New York, notified the general manager of the Chicago & Alton that the Washab-to-day would consider ending the agreement in regard to the maintenance of passenger rates.

Sidney Bartlett Dying.

BOSTON, March 6.—Hon. Sidney Bartlett, leader of the Boston bar and director of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railway, is dying. Bartlett passed his ninetieth birthday in February.

Then she clasped her with emotion, Drew the maiden to his breast, Whispered vows of true devotion, With a tear she turned away, And her voice with sorrow ringing, "I shall not see my bridal day."

This dramatic speech broke him up badly; but when she explained that her apprehensions were founded on the fact of an inherited predisposition to consumption in her family, he calmed her fears, bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for her, and she is now the incarnation of health. Consumption fastens its hold upon its victims while they are unconscious of its approach. The "Golden Medical Discovery" has cured thousands of cases of this most fatal of maladies. But it must be taken before the disease is too far advanced in order to be effective. If taken in time, and given a fair trial, it will cure, or money paid for it will be refunded.

For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Shortness of Breath, Bronchitis, Asthma, Severe Coughs, and kindred affections, it is an efficient remedy.
