C. Haynes, of 908 Davenport street, complains of being bothered by insects about the murdered man De Goede. He says he knows nothing about him and never kept boarders.

Rev. Joseph T. Duryea, D. D., will lecture on the subject of "How the Yankees Kept America," at the Beth-Eden Baptist church, 815 Park avenue, on Thursday evening, for the benefit of the ladies' aid society.

A test of the pressure of the water in the various hydrants in the city showed a variation of from ninety to one hundred and twenty-five pounds, according to the location. The highest is in a Pierce street hydrant.

Ten new members were added to the Omaha Mutual Protective Union, and now there are thirty members. It takes in the organizations of Hoffman, Thiolo and Shunk, and a few from the opera house orchestra.

Judge Berka has come to the rescue of the reporters once more. This time he defends them from the unfeeling lawyers that haunt the police court, and for want of something better to take big game notes of the "beat" and "beat" tables.

Home Carri Upset. In going to the fire yesterday morning horse car No. 2 was upset while making the turn on Sixteenth street. The vehicle was slightly injured and the firemen were bruised but not badly hurt.

The Effects of Vice. John Pell, the vagrant whose vice are destroying his mind, but who is hardly insane yet to be cared for in the state, was given twenty-five days in the county jail.

A Bawdy House Nuisance. Property owners on Harney between Eighth and Ninth streets complain that the building used as a bawdy house is a nuisance and have sent a petition to Chief Seavy to have the occupants notified to leave. The inmates will be compelled to emigrate.

Chattel Mortgage. William J. Eva, of Manawa county, Iowa, yesterday gave a chattel mortgage on his livery stock at 430 North Sixteenth street, to Ballou Bros. for the consideration of $1,850. The stock includes thirteen head of horses and a number of buggies and carriages.

Visitors From Valley. Charles Curtiss and Henry Adams, two crooks who stole a large quantity of clothing at Valley a few days ago, were placed in the county jail yesterday to serve a thirty days' sentence which they received for the offense. They were tried before a justice at Valley.

An Obstruction to Firemen. J. J. Galligan, chief of the fire department, has asked Chief Seavey to have his officers see that the water that form an obstruction in the alley between Harney and Howard and Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets be removed, as they are dangerous. Last night the assistant chief of the fire department ran into one of them.

Fleeced by Auction Sharks. D. R. McDermott, a Scotchman, who has just come to Omaha from Canada, was a victim of the Tenth street auction sharks. He was invited into the establishment and through the encouragement of cappers was induced to pay $30 for a lot of worthless jewelry. A. E. Oberton, who wrote the receipt, is to be arrested for getting money under false pretenses.

Looking After the Fort. President Martin, of the board of trade, yesterday appointed John A. Wakefield, G. M. Nattlinger, Charles H. Brown, John Evans and D. H. Wheeler, as a committee to co-operate with Senator Manderson in obtaining information looking to the further enlargement or extension of the fort for suitable grounds for Fort Omaha in accordance with the bill already enacted by congress.

The First M. E. Church. The plans for the new Methodist church which will be located on the southeast corner of Davenport and Twentieth streets, and tober drawings pertaining to the structure, are nearly completed at the office of Mendelsohn, Fisher & Lavinie, architects. The exterior walls will be laid of Roman bricks of a pattern the like of which has never been used in this city, and the ornamental trimmings will be of corresponding color of terra cotta. This house, when erected, will be an ornament to the part of the city in which it is to be built, and a central meeting place for the people of the denomination who will own it.

A Lively Morning Fire. An explosion about 4 o'clock started the people in the vicinity of Second and Iard streets yesterday, and a few moments later Miller's restaurant and George Stratman's saloon were enveloped in flames. Mr. Miller was thrown a number of feet by the force of the explosion, but was not seriously injured, and but slightly burned. The headquarters of hose company No. 6 is only across the street, but the fire was so hot and so tinder and the restaurant building was consumed in an incredibly short space of time. The saloon, however, was saved after about $300 worth of furniture had been done. The building consumed was owned by Otto Lang, and could be replaced for $300. It was insured. The fixtures in it were worth about $150.

The Loveladays Corralled. The Bess's investigation of the mystery attending the disappearance of the Lovelady family was read far and wide Monday and late last night telegrams from interested parties were received from points in Iowa asking for further particulars concerning the mysterious family. The Bess, however, did not content itself with his exposition of the disappearance, but sent telegrams to half a dozen points asking for information concerning the missing people. Answers were received to all, and with one exception, none of the correspondents knew anything about the Loveladays. Finally, however, the Bess's enterprise was rewarded, and from T. C. Harris, postmaster at Bardonia, Ia., was received the following telegram: "Mr. and Mrs. Lovelady are at L. N. Curtis, two miles southwest of Bardonia. No explanation of their disappearance was vouchsafed. The fact of their being found was as greatly surprised their old neighbors as was the announcement of their murder. They have been found, however, through the enterprise of THE BEE.

Hallenback, of Hallenback & Davis, Union Stock Yards, New York, says: "I have used ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS for rheumatism in the shoulder. It was so severe that I could not raise my hand to my head, and occasionally kept me awake most of the night. I am glad to say that I found ready relief from ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS in less than two hours, and was entirely cured in three days."

State Shooting Tournament. The fifth annual tournament of the Nebraska State Sportsman's association will be held at Norfolk in May next. The exact date and programme will be announced later. Five thousand live pigeons have been guaranteed by the North Nebraska Sportsman's association, and artificial targets enough to afford unlimited sport for all who may attend. Shooters will be classified according to record, so that all will have a fair chance, and amateurs will not be compelled to compete with professionals. A number of the best shots in the United States will be present, and the best tournament ever held by the association is expected. This announcement is made by J. E. Barnes, president, and B. F. Locke, secretary.

THE GREAT ART SALE. Of interest to All Who Wish to Decorate Their Bare Walls. The demand for etchings, engravings, water colors, oleographs, chromos and artotypes advertised in THE BEE on Sunday by A. Hospe, has been far beyond the gentleman's expectations. All this week he is giving 25 per cent off the amount purchased and it is certainly a drawing card.

Monday and yesterday customers flooded his art store at No. 1513 Douglas street, with customers being from surrounding localities. Mr. Hospe has been established fifteen years in Omaha and when he advertises 25 per cent off he gets a big trade—as the public knows that it gets the best grades of goods at their dealers are always agreeable.

In picture frames A. Hospe can't be excelled and his prices are always the lowest. His is an exclusive art store in the strictest term, and Mr. Hospe personally attends to the trade. His 25 per cent off sale continues this week only.

STILL SILENT. Mount, Anderson and Their Use of the People's Money. Since the outbreak and discussion of last Saturday, matters have assumed a funeral aspect in and about the county commissioners' headquarters. The loud talk, guffaws and general levity of other days have given away to whispered conversations, gloomy looks and inharmonious grunts.

O'Keefe, Mount and Anderson were at the room a while yesterday, but they had very little to say. To Mount and Anderson the BEE reporter is becoming, if appearances be not deceptive, a very unwelcome caller. Still, they condescend to answer questions that please them, though conversation on matters in which irregularities are alleged, to fall in with the satisfactory consideration. Recent exposures have closed these functionaries up tighter than ever. But it is asserted there is a grand explosion coming and it is claimed not to be very far away. An accounting, it is claimed, must be made sooner or later, and since two of the board have arrayed themselves against O'Keefe and the strategy has narrowed itself down to a contest of strength and popularity between them, the latter propose to force the matter to an issue at an early day. The vault crookedness, which is to be examined into, will not be postponed much longer. O'Keefe says he is satisfied the balcony will cost $1,500, can be duplicated for just one-fifth that amount, or $300. Running measure, the balcony is just fifty-six feet in length. It is to be raised up on a series of girders of gas pipe, the flooring is cast iron and the back rack sheet iron. There is nothing to fear, therefore, that may be called expensive.

Architect Myers has been notified that he must either be here by next Saturday or stand on his refusal to accept of the charges against Superintendent Shane, or the board will not wait on him any longer. They say that work on the hospital must be resumed.

Woodruff Granite Quarry. I am prepared to furnish Woodruff granite in paving blocks, door sills and steps, or blocks of any dimensions at cheap figures. Also handle at my Lincoln yard all classes of cut stone for any part of the state. Ask for figures. Thomas Price, Lincoln, Neb.

Daniel Sullivan Dead. Mr. Daniel Sullivan died at his late home, 1315 Chicago street, shortly after midnight Monday. He had been suffering for several months and for three weeks past had been bedridden. Mr. Sullivan was a well known and respected citizen and had been a resident of Omaha for twenty years. He was born in Kenmore county, Ireland, just sixty-nine years ago. He came to America while young, and was married to Miss Margaret Hines at Zanesville, O., September 2, 1852. Later the young couple came west and settled in Iowa, and in 1859 they took up their residence in Omaha. Ten children were born to them, three of whom have died. Mr. Sullivan engaged in the lumber business, but the base connected with W. J. Young for fifteen years. During the last two or three years he has been engaged in public work, and was connected with J. H. Sullivan, the tinner on Capitol avenue, near Sixteenth street. The funeral will take place on next Thursday. Requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Philomena's church. Interment will be in Holy Sepulcher cemetery.

A QUIET LITTLE MILL. A Byker Knocks Out a Pedestrian at the Coliseum. John Hourahan, the sprinter, went into the coliseum yesterday with his fighting togs on and his hide soaked in horse liniment. He was noisy and boisterous and greatly annoyed the lady bykers in training there. Manager Eck remonstrated, but John wouldn't have any of it. He said the $10,000 bounty, or one one could stop him. Eck protested and John pulled off his coat and wanted to scrap. Eck said "no." All he wanted was respectful conduct on John's part, but the ped was out for gore. He followed Eck round for a period of a half hour, continually bawling him to fight. But Eck refrained until Hourahan made a break at him, and active hostilities began. The sprinter promptly stopped Eck's right with his nose, then grabbing his antagonist by the neck, John threw himself head under the byker. Then John was scientifically thumped, and after Eck had administered enough, the great-fallen and bruised hero of the sport track was grabbed up by the Coliseum attendants and fired bodily into the street.
