

WHO SHALL CAST A STONE?

Rev. J. E. Ensign Finds a Theme in the Murder Trial.

HE WOULD ACQUIT THE WOMAN.

A Representative of a Class More Sinned Against Than Sinning—Others of Yesterday's Sermons.

"Go and Sin No More." The Rev. J. E. Ensign preached yesterday at the new M. E. church to a large audience.

The subject I have chosen to-night—"Mrs. Harry W. King; Should She Hang?"—is a live subject, but the jury will determine whether by the hangman's rope, or by acquittal, how long the subject shall be a live one.

My heart goes out as I stand here before you, for all connected with this terrible affair; for her who at this moment pines in solitary cell, wrapt in profound reflection and regret over the first wrong step.

The Roman idea of the sacredness of the family and marriage relation, will be the version of the empire. As long as those vestal virgins kept that fire burning, a symbol of purity, so long should the empire remain.

But what is the ruin and damnation of the souls and bodies of 500 of our best girls every year that this Moloch of lust may appease?

The law of this nation to-day is that our women have no right of appeal and nothing to appeal to. When you see palatial residences, as fine as any in this city, devoted to immoral purposes of what we call the "necessary" evil, I say to you such blotches on our social compact argue a mighty unhealthy and unhealthy condition of things.

The United Presbyterian. The Rev. Mr. French, of the First U. P. church preached his first sermon to his new charge yesterday morning.

At Westminster Presbyterian. Rev. John Gordon, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, preached an anniversary sermon yesterday morning to a large congregation.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething.

Knocked Down and Robbed. N. P. Nelson, who resides near Cut Off lake, reported at the police court yesterday that he had been knocked down and robbed by three men in a saloon on No. Man's road, north of the Cut Off.

They are trying in Germany to find a substitute for India rubber. No one who has used the Post-Office Postage Cure desires a substitute, as it is eminently successful in coughs, colds and all throat and lung diseases.

Jealousy is a heaven implanted principle. That woman, wrought up to a frenzy, was beside herself and it certainly was a species of insanity. Let the man who promises to you or to me, and something would happen. Woman's nature, more intense, is correspondingly less responsible.
