POLITICS IN THE NEW STATES.

Candidates in Plenty, But All of Them Apparently Anxious to Be Senators—Prospects for a Jubilee.

Yankton and Omaha.

YANKTON, Dak., April 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The United States district court closed today and the jurors were discharged. Only four indictments were found and they were not made public, and are understood to be trivial. Judge Tripp goes to Bismarck to-morrow to help to make an appointment for the constitutional convention election. The prohibition convention this afternoon at Yankton has resolved that they would support no one for delegate to the constitutional convention who was not pledged to support the prohibition amendment. Kanouse spoke at Yankton last night, and will speak at Omaha to-night.

Measuring the Muddy. Bismarck, Dak., April 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Government engineers have started to make a survey of the Missouri river from this point south to Leavenworth, Kan. Another party has gone to Fort Benton, Mont., 1,000 miles northwest, to make a complete survey of the stream from Fort Benton to Fort Leavenworth. It is the first survey of the Missouri river ever completed, and the work is being done with many difficulties.

A Murder Trial. Huron, Dak., April 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Nearly a hundred men were called before the grand jury at Huron to-day to witness the trial of a man who had been followed by a line also paralleling the river on the south side, both of which would open vast sections of country to Yankton's encroaching interests. The trial was held at the residence of the defendant, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

Going Back to Hang. Bismarck, Dak., April 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Gov. Mellette to-day received the return from the grand jury of Lewis county, W. Va., received the requisition papers for the return from this territory to West Virginia of Dowd, the murderer of Farmer West, of Lewis county, the sheriff having given him a lease of life for thirteen years. He will hang as sure as he is returned to West Virginia, and the sheriff will be deputy say they will see that he does not escape.

A Dakota Appointment. WASHINGTON, April 9.—Among the appointments made by the president to-day was that of James McDowell, of Dakota, to be register of the land office at Huron, Dak.

Freight Houses Destroyed. Boston, April 9.—The two freight houses of the Boston and Lowell division of the Boston & Maine railroad burned this evening. The buildings were filled with an almost indescribable variety of general merchandise, including a large quantity of oil, tins, and iron, and the explosion served to intensify the flames and cause a rapid spread of the flames. Standing on tracks within the structure were about forty freight cars, many of them loaded, and all were destroyed, and the fire spread to a place of safety. A portion of the large building was used as a grain elevator, and it was stored with 30,000 bushels of grain and a large quantity of flour. The fire is still burning, though under control, and it is expected to be out by to-morrow.

The Inter-State Commission. CHICAGO, April 9.—The first meeting of the Inter-State Commerce railway association since A. F. Walker was chosen as its chairman, was held at the Hotel Sherman in Chicago to-day. The association were represented. The question of fast trains between Chicago and Kansas City was considered at length. The matter was finally referred to a committee of managers. A general discussion of the inter-state commerce act was also held, and it was unanimously decided to enforce its provisions and learn by experience whether or not it is practicable. The next meeting will be held on the second Tuesday in July.

Business Troubles. NEW YORK, April 9.—Henry Rothschild & Co., special partners in the firm of Downs & Finch, shirt manufacturers, who assigned last week, have begun action in the supreme court to set aside the assignment on account of fraud. It is claimed that Downs & Finch, who were the assignees, disposed of about $160,000 of the firm's property.

A Naval Commission. WASHINGTON, April 9.—An order will probably be issued from the navy department to-day or to-morrow convening a court-martial for the trial of Lieutenant Commander Book, who is charged with having been in the command of the Pinkie when it returned to the United States without proper commission.

The Death Record. PARIS, April 9.—Michael Eugene Chevreul, the distinguished French chemist, is dead.

Farwell's Office For Postmaster. CHICAGO, April 9.—In an interview to-day Senator Farwell said he had written to President Harrison asking for the appointment of Colonel James J. Sexton to the postmastership of Chicago.

Asphyxiated in a Bath House. DETROIT, April 9.—A Port Huron special said that two men were overcome by gas in a bath at the mineral bath houses there and died shortly after being taken out. The proprietor received serious injuries.

Another Trial Bankrupt. LONDON, April 9.—Lord Francis Cecil, second son of the Marquis of Exeter, has been declared bankrupt. His liabilities amount to £21,000.

Machine Shops Burned. LOUISVILLE, April 9.—The Louisville Bridge and Iron company's machine shops burned last night, causing a loss of $91,000; fully insured.

Wanted a Clock. August Vanocok wanted a clock badly. He didn't have a chance to carry off a clock, but adopted the next most promising plan of securing one, and took the coupons out of 21-cent packages of cigarettes belonging to his employer, N. A. Kuhn, that number of coupons entitling the holder to one clock. Vanocok was arrested at Mr. Kuhn's office.

Benevolent Firemen. The Firemen's Benevolent association will hold its second annual ball at Exposition hall, Tuesday evening next.

Stranger (after ten years' absence) When I came out of Bad Luck & Co. I found that I had been in financial straits all the time.

WHEN LEE SURRENDERED.

The Memoirs of the Occasion Reviewed in Story and Song. The twenty-fourth anniversary of the battle of the Appomattox, at which General Lee surrendered to General Grant, was celebrated last night by Custer post of the Grand Army of the Republic. Among the prominent speakers was Colonel Savage who, after referring to the feeling of sympathy and friendship that existed in the army, said he never saw any of the old soldiers and never met any of them but he had seen the fire as they had in the wilds of North Carolina. He related the experience of some of the officers who were quartered in a little cabin house at that time, "but," said he, "the commissary was around as usual, and in pretty good spirits." At that time the men felt that it would not be very long before they would be sent home as they had in the wilds of North Carolina. He related the experience of some of the officers who were quartered in a little cabin house at that time, "but," said he, "the commissary was around as usual, and in pretty good spirits." At that time the men felt that it would not be very long before they would be sent home as they had in the wilds of North Carolina.

Deaths in a Well. The Sad End of Knud Nelson, a Well-Known Citizen. Knud Nelson, a contractor who resided at 3204 Davenport street, was drowned yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by falling into a cistern. He was fifty-seven years of age, and was quite wealthy for a man who has made his money by hard labor. Nelson had been an invalid for the past year, and yesterday was his first day out in the air. He had also been a well-digger before he became a contractor, and his impulse upon going into the yard was to look into the cistern. During the night he had been subject to fits of dizziness. As soon as he raised the wooden cover from over the cistern one of these fits attacked him, and he went headlong into the water and was drowned.

Amusements. The programme announced for the Albany concert at Boyd's opera house, last evening, attracted a fashionable and critical audience. The attendance was the largest of the season, and the program was well received. The program consisted of a variety of songs, duets, and instrumental pieces, all of which were well received.

A Boy Killed. Frightful Death of a Little Lad Under Johnnie, the little seven-year-old son of Mrs. Mary Maloney, met with a fearful death while playing near his home at the foot of Davenport street, at 6 o'clock last evening. The little fellow, as was the custom of the neighborhood, was playing on the tracks of the Union Pacific. He was down on his hands and knees, and was when another car was thrown down on the side track, striking the car by which he was playing. The boy started to run but was knocked down and fell on his head, and the car wheel passing over his body, cutting him in two. Mrs. Maloney, who saw the accident, carried the boy to the hospital, where in a few minutes he breathed his last. Coroner Drexel was notified and will hold an inquest this morning.

Late Arrests and Misdemeanors. Alexander Persons, a young artist about eighteen years of age, committed an aggravated assault upon young Murphy, the bicycle rider, last night and pounded him up in a horrible manner. Murphy, who is only thirteen years of age, was riding his bicycle in the encounter. Persons was arrested.

A Few Prohibitionists. The Metropolitan Prohibition club, or more accurately speaking, five of its members assembled last night in its rooms on Fifteenth and Dodge streets for the purpose of making arrangements to send delegates to the state convention to be held at Lincoln next Wednesday and Thursday. The number of Omaha delegates will attend the convention will be twenty.

A New Train. The connecting trunk between Nebraska and Kansas has just been placed in service by the Union Pacific railway. This train leaves Council Bluffs daily at 4:45 a. m.; leaves Omaha at 5:05 a. m., and runs through without change to Manhattan, Kan., making direct connections there with the Kansas division of the Union Pacific railway for all points in Kansas and Colorado west-bound, and for Topeka, Lawrence, Kansas City and points east and south via Kansas City. Returning, train leaves Manhattan at 2:25 p. m.; arriving at Beatrice at 6:25 p. m., Lincoln at 7:50 p. m., and Omaha at 11:20 p. m., Council Bluffs at 11:40 p. m., making direct connections for Council Bluffs, Beatrice, Lawrence, Topeka, Kansas City, and points east and south via Kansas City.

Eloped to Fremont. Charles Johnson, an employe of the Wells Fargo Express company, left the city yesterday accompanied by pretty May Tigler, the daughter of a widow lady living on Seventh street. It appears that Johnson has for some time been pressing his suit with Miss Tigler and found his affection reciprocated. Miss Tigler, however, did not take any great amount of stock in the young man and ordered her daughter to refuse to longer accept his attentions. This led to the elopement which was consummated yesterday. The young lovers were overtaken at Fremont by the irate mother, who will bring her daughter home to-day.

Drink Drove Him to Suicide. Owenboro, Ky., April 9.—Dennis Collins, doorkeeper of the Indiana legislature, committed suicide here by cutting his throat with a razor, he was found by a friend at Cannellton, Ind.

THE CITY COUNCIL IN SESSION.

Lots of Business Was Transacted Last Night.

MOSTLY OF A ROUTINE NATURE.

Petitions From Many Quarters—Introduction of Important Ordinances—The Police to Be Investigated.

The City Council. Charles Weber, of the board of education, dropped in at last night's meeting of the city council and secured a front seat. His next drop was into a peaceful fro-mo-sour slumber, from which he was wakened by the sergeant-at-arms after the council had adjourned. His unconscious condition during the meeting was evaded by many present, whose duties required them to keep awake. Messrs. Burnham, Bedford, Davis, Hasall and Snyder were absent at the opening of the session, but Messrs. Davis and Hasall arrived in time to take a hand in the paving contract squabble. The business was disposed of with a minimum of delay. Communications and petitions were received.

WYOMING'S NEW GOVERNOR.

Democrats and Republicans Warmly Welcome Him.

MOONLIGHT NO LONGER SHINES.

Enthusiastic Cheers For the New Executive and the Policy He Represents—A General Holiday in Cheyenne.

Warren and Home Rule. CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Francis E. Warren, the newly appointed governor of Wyoming, was inaugurated yesterday. The event was a national holiday in Cheyenne. There was a grand parade of the civic societies and military organizations and the inaugural ceremonies concluded by a magnificent display of fireworks and an inaugural ball with a cold easterly wind, made an unpleasant combination of weather. Cheyenne failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the new governor's friends. The muddy condition of the streets had the effect of lessening the number taking part in the parade. The decorations were profuse. All of the public buildings, the business houses and private residences were handsomely decorated with flags and bunting. At 3 o'clock the parade formed to escort the new governor to the capitol building. It moved in the following order:

First Division—City police, marshal and staff. Seventeenth infantry with band of thirty officers in service of the United States infantry, 300 men, under command of Colonel Henry Mizer; Company A, Wyoming National Guards of Laramie; Company B, Wyoming National Guards of Cheyenne; Company C, Wyoming National Guards of Torrington; and Company D, Wyoming National Guards of Casper, under command of Major Warren's band, drawn by four horses. With the governor were four members of the Wyoming State Bar Association, Wyoming, and Hon. J. M. Carey, delegates to congress. In the second carriage were Attorney-General Donnellan, Secretary of the Territory, S. D. Shuman, and Hon. G. W. Zevors, of the reception committee.

Third Division—Wyoming posts of Grand Army of the Republic, chapters containing members of the Cheyenne city council and city officials, Cheyenne band, fire companies of the city, and by an inaugural band. The line of march was through the principal streets to the capitol building. The inaugural ceremony was held in the north arm of the capitol. Judge Sandy administered the oath of office. Rev. R. E. Field offered prayer. A governor's salute was fired from a battery of artillery in charge of the Fort Russell troops. There was an immense cheer for Governor Warren and home rule.

From a Business Standpoint. Chicago Tribune: "You are the editor of this paper, I believe."

"I am Mr. Swillem, the whisky merchant who was coddled on the street yesterday by a woman for selling liquor to her husband. You had a column article about it this morning."

"Well, sir, we are going to do about it. Have you come here to—"

"You needn't grab your revolver, sir. I didn't come here to raise a fuss. I only want you to say in to-morrow's paper that Swillem, the saloonkeeper on Soup alley, who was thrashed by a woman for supplying her husband with liquor, refuses to be interviewed on the subject, but wishes his friends and the public to understand that he is still at the same old place, and has the best stock of liquors over brought to the city. Thankful for past favor, he hopes to merit a continuance of the same, etc. Fix it up in good shape. Here's $10. Do not let a southerner get a look on the subject, and when it comes to take a legitimate business advantage of any affair that brings me before the public I am old permissious, sir. Good morning."

Fashion's Changes. Philadelphia Record: Mr. Lightburn, who will get up in London the 6 o'clock tea has been succeeded by 4 o'clock. Couldn't you advance a step further and have your 5 o'clock at 3? Mrs. L.—I've been thinking of it."

Combination may raise prices; may not. Sometimes it benefits the many; oftentimes only a few. Here's a case of benefit for the many, for the few, and for you.

The combination of blood cleansing and nerve strengthening remedies in Paine's Celery Compound makes it the best spring medicine. It's a sure case of benefit every time. Feel languid? Lack appetite? Don't sleep well? Sort of pimpled? Blue? Need spring medicine? Then use Paine's Celery Compound.

Testimonials? We have lots of them. Will send you copies if desired. Ask your neighbors about it, your friends, your druggist, everybody is taking it this spring, why not you?

Enthusiastic Cheers For the New Executive and the Policy He Represents—A General Holiday in Cheyenne.

Warren and Home Rule. CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 9.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Francis E. Warren, the newly appointed governor of Wyoming, was inaugurated yesterday. The event was a national holiday in Cheyenne. There was a grand parade of the civic societies and military organizations and the inaugural ceremonies concluded by a magnificent display of fireworks and an inaugural ball with a cold easterly wind, made an unpleasant combination of weather. Cheyenne failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the new governor's friends. The muddy condition of the streets had the effect of lessening the number taking part in the parade. The decorations were profuse. All of the public buildings, the business houses and private residences were handsomely decorated with flags and bunting. At 3 o'clock the parade formed to escort the new governor to the capitol building. It moved in the following order:

First Division—City police, marshal and staff. Seventeenth infantry with band of thirty officers in service of the United
