

LAST GAME WITH DENVER.

Omaha Wins in the Final Contest, With the Mountaineers.

ONLY SEVEN INNINGS PLAYED.

Knell, the Home Team's New Pitcher, Shows Up Well—Milwaukee Beats Minneapolis—Standing of the Clubs.

Standing of the Clubs.

Appended will be found the standing of the Western association up to and including yesterday's games.

Table with columns: Club, Played, Won, Lost, Per Cent. Lists teams like Omaha, St. Paul, Milwaukee, etc.

Omaha Beats Denver.

The Omaha and Denver played their last game of the season at the local park yesterday afternoon.

Knell, Omaha's new pitcher, was in the box for the home team, and pitched an admirable game.

Following is the score:

Score summary table for Omaha vs Denver.

Score summary table for Milwaukee vs Minneapolis.

Score summary table for St. Paul vs St. Louis.

Score summary table for Chicago vs Cincinnati.

Score summary table for Boston vs Philadelphia.

Score summary table for New York vs Washington.

Score summary table for Cleveland vs Detroit.

Score summary table for Louisville vs St. Louis.

Score summary table for Cincinnati vs Chicago.

Score summary table for St. Paul vs Milwaukee.

Score summary table for St. Louis vs Cincinnati.

Score summary table for Chicago vs Boston.

Score summary table for Philadelphia vs New York.

Score summary table for Washington vs Cleveland.

Score summary table for Detroit vs Louisville.

Score summary table for St. Louis vs Cincinnati.

Score summary table for Chicago vs Boston.

Score summary table for Philadelphia vs New York.

Score summary table for Washington vs Cleveland.

Score summary table for Detroit vs Louisville.

Score summary table for St. Louis vs Cincinnati.

Score summary table for Chicago vs Boston.

Score summary table for Philadelphia vs New York.

Score summary table for Washington vs Cleveland.

Score summary table for Detroit vs Louisville.

Score summary table for St. Louis vs Cincinnati.

Score summary table for Chicago vs Boston.

Score summary table for Philadelphia vs New York.

Score summary table for Washington vs Cleveland.

Score summary table for Detroit vs Louisville.

Score summary table for St. Louis vs Cincinnati.

Score summary table for Chicago vs Boston.

Score summary table for Philadelphia vs New York.

Score summary table for Washington vs Cleveland.

A RADICAL DEPARTURE.

A Congregational Minister Advocates Women for the Pulpit.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Considerable of a sensation and some applause was occasioned at the Congregational ministers' assembly in this city to-day by the Rev. Clayton E. Wells, who had a paper on the subject, "Shall women be ordained as pastors and be installed in our pulpits?"

ILLINOIS JUDGES.

The Snicker Stays Their Vacancies After Two Years.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—The taxpayers of Illinois and Cook county will pay out $22,798.12 this year, for which they have received no return.

INDIAN TROUBLE FEARED.

Citizens of Hackberry, Arizona, Preparing Themselves.

NEEDLES, Cal., Sept. 16.—Intelligence has reached here of anticipated trouble with the Indians at Hackberry, Ari. Prominent citizens of Hackberry have telegraphed to Kingman for arms and ammunition.

A Celebrated Poisoner Dead.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Lorenzo Krug, the celebrated wife poisoner, died in the Joliet penitentiary to-day where he was serving a term of eight years for the murder of Lucy Heidinger in this city.

Nearly Two Millions Behind.

BOSTON, Sept. 15.—Somehow sensational rumors were heard to-day as to the magnitude of the deficits of Brown, Stearns & Clark, and the failure of the examining committee to find assets approaching in any degree the amounts raised on notes of the firm.

Murdered by His Niece.

ZANESVILLE, O., Sept. 16.—Frank Amos, one of the most prominent citizens of Morgan county, was murdered at his home in the western part of this county by Mrs. Hampton Amos, his niece, who had recently returned and had been plotting with a butcher knife which she carried for weeks, avowedly for that purpose.

Pierre Street Railway Building.

PIERRE, S. D., Sept. 16.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Saturday contracts were let to grade and complete three miles of the Pierre city railway and work commenced to-day. It is expected to be finished in thirty days.

The National Liquor Dealers.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—The executive committee of the National Liquor Dealers' association held a meeting here to-day at which the report of General Secretary Turner, of Louisville, was presented and acted upon.

The Hamilton Case.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The grand jury to-day examined witnesses in the Hamilton case and afterwards found two indictments, one for grand larceny and the other for conspiracy, against Mrs. Swinton, John Mann and Harry Hamilton.

A Quaker Ends in Suicide.

ST. PAUL, Neb., Sept. 15.—Godfrey Richards, a farmer, committed suicide by hanging himself in an oat bin on his farm four miles from here. He had been quarreling with his wife for several days and had threatened to kill her children. He was also heavily in debt.

A Heavy Frost.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 16.—A special from Needles, Wis., says a heavy frost visited that section last night. Cranberry growers will lose heavily.

JUDGE GROFF APPOINTED.

The Announcement Made by the President Yesterday.

HE WILL SUCCEED STOCKSLAGER.

A Hot Campaign Already in Progress Among Attorneys Who Want to Fill the Vacancy on the District Bench.

Named as Land Commissioner.

DEER PARK, Md., Sept. 16.—Lewis A. Groff, of Omaha, Neb., was appointed commissioner of the general land office this morning, vice S. M. Stockslager, resigned.

Judge Groff's Career.

Judge Lewis A. Groff was born in Wooster, O., December 31, 1841, and is consequently forty-eight years of age. He was educated in his native county, and in 1861 commenced reading law in Napoleon, Ohio. In 1867 he was admitted to the bar and immediately afterward commenced practice in the city of Toledo.

A Talk With Judge Groff.

Judge Groff returned last evening from Blair, where he went yesterday morning to hold court. He read in The Bee the exclusive announcement of his appointment as general land commissioner.

LOUISVILLE'S FATAL FIRE.

Six Brave Firemen Killed While Doing Their Duty.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 16.—Rain this morning aided in extinguishing the fire which burned the building in which were Bamberger, Bloom & Co. and other firms. The men killed were standing on the saloon in the rear of the fire, putting hose in place, and the rear wall of the burning building crashed down on them, completely demolishing them.

Three Passengers Killed and Fifteen Wounded.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 16.—A special from Corning says: The Erie passenger on the Toga river branch ran into the Fallbrook freight train at Toga Junction this evening.

Timber and Buildings Burning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—Fires are raging near Spring Valley Lakes, Cal., in Ventura county and other parts of the state. Miles of fences, considerable timber and many buildings have been destroyed.

DEATH OF BOB YOUNGER.

The Noted Outlaw Breathes His Last.

STILLWATER, Minn., Sept. 16.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Bob Younger, the famous Missouri outlaw, died of consumption at 10:30 o'clock to-night at the age of thirty-four years after an imprisonment of thirteen years. Death came suddenly and was hardly expected under two or three weeks yet.

A NAVAL WONDER.

The Baltimore's Performance Creates Great Enthusiasm.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The general topic of interest at the navy department to-day was the remarkable performance of the new cruiser Baltimore on her trial trip Saturday. Secretary Tracy sent a telegram to ex-Secretary Whitney congratulating him on the magnificent performance of the vessel, the directions for which were prepared by the director of the navy.

Face Mashed in With Knucklers.

A red-hot iron bar, heated at the Ash Grove yesterday morning between John McColligan and Benjamin Watson, two employees at J. C. McProud & Co.'s restaurant, at McColligan used a pair of knucklers and broke Watson's face.

Stabbed and Senseless on the Road.

Late Sunday night Gus McDonough, a popular man at the stock yards, was found on Twenty-fourth street near L. in an insensible condition. He had been struck on examination a knife wound in his right side was found, from which the blood was flowing freely. The perpetrator of the dastardly assault is not known.

A Valuable Station Dead.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 16.—The valuable station, the Glen, is dead at the Ash Grove stand. He was the son of the noted George Wilkes, dam Violet by Mambrino Star, and valued at $10,000 by his owner, W. L. Simmons of this city. His death was caused by pinky.

EXHIBITS GO UP IN FLAMES.

St. Joe's New Era Exposition Destroyed by Fire.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Sept. 16.—The New Era exposition was burned Sunday night. The fire started just after the close of the evening concert by Beck's orchestra and the building and grounds were still thronged with visitors. The art gallery had just been closed when the flames were seen issuing from the roof of the passage way that connected with the south end of the main hall. The alarm was immediately given and the fire company, which was kept on the grounds, responded promptly.

FLLOUR IN A FIERY FLAME.

Onkamp & Haines' Mill at Twentieth and Pierce a Total Loss.

A MIDNIGHT CONFLAGRATION.

Lively Time for the Fire Department—A Loss of From $40,000 to $50,000, Covered by Insurance.

A Flour Mill Burned.

Last night about 12 o'clock a young man employed in John A. Wakefield's lumber yard discovered a volume of smoke pouring from the windows of the flour mill of Onkamp & Haines, at Twentieth and Pierce streets. He at once turned in an alarm and in a very short time the entire fire department were on the spot battling with the fierce flames that would not be subdued, and in less than twenty minutes the huge structure, with its large stock of flour and grain, was completely destroyed.

LOUISVILLE'S FATAL FIRE.

Six Brave Firemen Killed While Doing Their Duty.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 16.—Rain this morning aided in extinguishing the fire which burned the building in which were Bamberger, Bloom & Co. and other firms. The men killed were standing on the saloon in the rear of the fire, putting hose in place, and the rear wall of the burning building crashed down on them, completely demolishing them.

DESPERATE CRIMINALS.

Condemned Murderers Escape But are Captured by a Mob.

SOMMERS, Pa., Sept. 16.—Nicely brothers, confined in the jail here under sentence of death for the murder of Farmer Umberger, this morning over-powered the sheriff, and when the deputy sheriff went to his assistance he and his men made good their escape. The deputy sheriff's wound is a serious one and may result fatally.

RAN INTO A FREIGHT.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 16.—A special from Corning says: The Erie passenger on the Toga river branch ran into the Fallbrook freight train at Toga Junction this evening.

Timber and Buildings Burning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—Fires are raging near Spring Valley Lakes, Cal., in Ventura county and other parts of the state. Miles of fences, considerable timber and many buildings have been destroyed.

DEATH OF BOB YOUNGER.

The Noted Outlaw Breathes His Last.

STILLWATER, Minn., Sept. 16.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Bob Younger, the famous Missouri outlaw, died of consumption at 10:30 o'clock to-night at the age of thirty-four years after an imprisonment of thirteen years. Death came suddenly and was hardly expected under two or three weeks yet.

A NAVAL WONDER.

The Baltimore's Performance Creates Great Enthusiasm.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The general topic of interest at the navy department to-day was the remarkable performance of the new cruiser Baltimore on her trial trip Saturday. Secretary Tracy sent a telegram to ex-Secretary Whitney congratulating him on the magnificent performance of the vessel, the directions for which were prepared by the director of the navy.

Face Mashed in With Knucklers.

A red-hot iron bar, heated at the Ash Grove yesterday morning between John McColligan and Benjamin Watson, two employees at J. C. McProud & Co.'s restaurant, at McColligan used a pair of knucklers and broke Watson's face.

Stabbed and Senseless on the Road.

Late Sunday night Gus McDonough, a popular man at the stock yards, was found on Twenty-fourth street near L. in an insensible condition. He had been struck on examination a knife wound in his right side was found, from which the blood was flowing freely. The perpetrator of the dastardly assault is not known.

A Valuable Station Dead.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 16.—The valuable station, the Glen, is dead at the Ash Grove stand. He was the son of the noted George Wilkes, dam Violet by Mambrino Star, and valued at $10,000 by his owner, W. L. Simmons of this city. His death was caused by pinky.

FLOUR IN A FIERY FLAME.

Onkamp & Haines' Mill at Twentieth and Pierce a Total Loss.

A MIDNIGHT CONFLAGRATION.

Lively Time for the Fire Department—A Loss of From $40,000 to $50,000, Covered by Insurance.

A Flour Mill Burned.

Last night about 12 o'clock a young man employed in John A. Wakefield's lumber yard discovered a volume of smoke pouring from the windows of the flour mill of Onkamp & Haines, at Twentieth and Pierce streets. He at once turned in an alarm and in a very short time the entire fire department were on the spot battling with the fierce flames that would not be subdued, and in less than twenty minutes the huge structure, with its large stock of flour and grain, was completely destroyed.

LOUISVILLE'S FATAL FIRE.

Six Brave Firemen Killed While Doing Their Duty.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 16.—Rain this morning aided in extinguishing the fire which burned the building in which were Bamberger, Bloom & Co. and other firms. The men killed were standing on the saloon in the rear of the fire, putting hose in place, and the rear wall of the burning building crashed down on them, completely demolishing them.

DESPERATE CRIMINALS.

Condemned Murderers Escape But are Captured by a Mob.

SOMMERS, Pa., Sept. 16.—Nicely brothers, confined in the jail here under sentence of death for the murder of Farmer Umberger, this morning over-powered the sheriff, and when the deputy sheriff went to his assistance he and his men made good their escape. The deputy sheriff's wound is a serious one and may result fatally.

RAN INTO A FREIGHT.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 16.—A special from Corning says: The Erie passenger on the Toga river branch ran into the Fallbrook freight train at Toga Junction this evening.

Timber and Buildings Burning.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16.—Fires are raging near Spring Valley Lakes, Cal., in Ventura county and other parts of the state. Miles of fences, considerable timber and many buildings have been destroyed.

DEATH OF BOB YOUNGER.

The Noted Outlaw Breathes His Last.

STILLWATER, Minn., Sept. 16.—[Special Telegram to The Bee.]—Bob Younger, the famous Missouri outlaw, died of consumption at 10:30 o'clock to-night at the age of thirty-four years after an imprisonment of thirteen years. Death came suddenly and was hardly expected under two or three weeks yet.

A NAVAL WONDER.

The Baltimore's Performance Creates Great Enthusiasm.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The general topic of interest at the navy department to-day was the remarkable performance of the new cruiser Baltimore on her trial trip Saturday. Secretary Tracy sent a telegram to ex-Secretary Whitney congratulating him on the magnificent performance of the vessel, the directions for which were prepared by the director of the navy.

Face Mashed in With Knucklers.

A red-hot iron bar, heated at the Ash Grove yesterday morning between John McColligan and Benjamin Watson, two employees at J. C. McProud & Co.'s restaurant, at McColligan used a pair of knucklers and broke Watson's face.

Stabbed and Senseless on the Road.

Late Sunday night Gus McDonough, a popular man at the stock yards, was found on Twenty-fourth street near L. in an insensible condition. He had been struck on examination a knife wound in his right side was found, from which the blood was flowing freely. The perpetrator of the dastardly assault is not known.

A Valuable Station Dead.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 16.—The valuable station, the Glen, is dead at the Ash Grove stand. He was the son of the noted George Wilkes, dam Violet by Mambrino Star, and valued at $10,000 by his owner, W. L. Simmons of this city. His death was caused by pinky.

RITCHEE WAS ACCQUITTED.

A Police Court Jury Find the Alleged Masher Guiltless.

The case of Attorney Ritchie, charged with assaulting Miss Leola Holland, on the evening of September 11, came up in police court yesterday and resulted in a verdict of acquittal, the jury being out about five minutes.

AMERICA AND INDIA.

An Interesting Talk at the Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

Miss Anna Kugler, of Philadelphia, Pa., who for six years past has been in India as a medical missionary of the Lutheran church, delivered an interesting lecture at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. last night, descriptive of life among the Hindus. She had a little child with her dressed in the fashion of the country. The lecture was novel, amusing and instructive.

A SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Mrs. Lottie B. Lacey has made application for divorce from her husband James K., alleging cruelty and habitual drunkenness. The petition states that the parties were married October 21, 1884, and have lived together ever since. For the past five years Tracey has been a habitual drunkard, and when drunk would come to the house at twenty-second and Lehigh, where the complainant was obliged to kick, beat, strike, and otherwise ill-treat her.

County Court.

Sigmund Blath has filed a petition in the county court, alleging that he was employed by Haas Bros. as a traveling salesman to sell cigars at a salary of $125 per month under a contract which expires December 1, 1889. He was discharged with the explanation that he did not suit the parties. He sues for the four months' wages, alleging that the cigars were so poor that he could not sell them.

He Carried Knuckles.

Thomas Hironaka, an Italian young working man who is employed at Armour & Cudahy's packing house in South Omaha was arrested on Saturday night charged with carrying concealed weapons. A pair of knuckles were found on his person at the time the police apprehended him. He explained that he carried the knuckles for protection, and that two of them were about to engage in a fight when he noticed the knuckles and that he carried them away from him. Since that time he had forgotten that he had them. Judge Shields ordered Hironaka to carry no such furniture in future and discharged him.

Marriage License.

Only one marriage license was issued by Judge Shields yesterday, to the following parties: Name and residence. Ann Thomas, C. Leavenworth, Omaha, ..... $2. Mary Costello, South Omaha, ..... $2.

AMUSEMENTS.

J. B. Polk presented his new play entitled "The Silent Partner" at Boyd's opera house last night for the first time in Omaha, and it created a good impression. No prettier cleaner, or more interesting comedy of modern construction, barring possibly, "The Hearties," has ever been seen on an Omaha stage. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and original. The play serves to be congratulated upon having secured such a clever production. It is bound to become one of the great successes. "The Silent Partner" was written by Herbert H. Winslow, a young newspaper man who evidently has great talent, originality and genius. It is really something new and