A Sensational Report. OMAHA, Jan. 13.—To the Editor of THE BEE: A sensational report was recently circulated that Plymouth church, Milwaukee, under the pastoral care of the Rev. Judson Titworth, in their new church building had made provision for bowling, the playing of billiards and cards, and had opened a smoking room in connection with apartments for reading and recreation. The truth is that the church has combined with its parish service the work usually undertaken by the Young Men's Christian association, after the common methods and with the ordinary appliances.

A Letter that Caused Trouble. Deputy Charles Lyons, of the United States marshal's office, has brought in a prisoner, Charles E. Rowe, a barber at Norfolk, charged with sending obscene matter through the mails. It appears that the wife of another citizen of Norfolk believed that Rowe knew the whereabouts of her husband, and she finally wrote a letter to her in which she told her story. The husband found the letter and sent it to Rowe's wife. This raised a row in his family and the barber wrote a libelous epistle on the letter and sent it to the husband.

All the rage—Red Cross Cough Drops, 5 cents per box, sold everywhere.

Everybody Read It. When THE BEE presents a treat in its Sunday edition its readers take the paper at its word. The local demand for the last SUNDAY BEE was unprecedented. About nearly a dozen news stands telephoned for more papers, stating that they had sold out early in the morning despite the storm.

There are hundreds of men in Omaha who scarcely find time to read a daily carefully throughout the week, and when Sunday comes they must have THE BEE if it is necessary to brace up against a blizzard in order to buy a copy at a convenient news stand. The greatest compliment that can be paid the high qualities of a daily is the active and general demand which was shown all over the city Sunday for THE BEE, while copies of our contemporaries lay on the counters, a drug in the market.

Guilty of Violating a Trade-Mark. Lunon J. Finch, who was indicted several months ago for violation of the trade-mark laws in imitating the wrappers and other distinctive marks of the genuine Carter's Little Liver Pills, was found guilty yesterday before Recorder Smith in the court of General Sessions. The recorder said that on the written recommendation of the District Attorney and on the testimony of complainants that the defendant had caused to be printed and distributed material designed to imitate the complainant's trade-mark, he would suspend sentence. He continued:

The complainant in this case sues with the district attorney in requesting that judgment should be suspended upon you. It is a mere suspension of judgment. If you are again found violating this trade-mark you will be brought here and sentenced to the longest term the court can impose upon this conviction. You understand you stand here now convicted of a misdemeanor. There will be no trial. You can be sentenced upon this conviction at any time the court chooses to suspend sentence upon you. If you again engage in this business of violating the complainant's trade-mark just as sure as you stand here and I have to be here you will be sentenced to the penitentiary. You can go for the present.—New York Tribune, January 8, 1890.

THE DIAMOND MUST CLOSE.

Floyd & Co. Refused a Permit by the License Board.

The license board resumed work yesterday afternoon by granting Ed Mauer a license to continue selling liquor at 1212 Farnam street.

Then the board took up the protest against E. C. Floyd & Co., the Diamond, 1115 Douglas street, with Chief of Police Seavey and Captain Mostyn and Sergeants Sigward and Hare as witnesses. The protest charges that "the applicants are not such men to whom the law provides a license may issue, and that within the last year they have violated the laws of the state and the ordinances of the city relative to the sale of intoxicating liquors, and by keeping gambling fixtures in a room over their saloon."

In the protest Chief Seavey continues: "While I have no positive evidence that other laws or ordinances have been violated during the last twelve months, it was frequently reported to me that Messrs. White, Kennedy, Morrison and Holman, bartenders and gamblers in the room over the Diamond, where the gambling fixtures are kept." The officers named were put upon the witness stand and testified that they had visited the gambling room several times and always found the doors securely locked.

His witness had been gained they saw roulette, Faro, hazard, billiard and pool tables; saw men playing cards; never saw any money in sight, but did see chips such as are used in gambling. When asked the names of the men he had seen in the room, Captain Mostyn said, "Olsen, Donnelly, Nesthouse, Roberts and Kirk." Some time ago a gentleman named E. J. Smith of Cincinnati, O., told him he had been fined out of $700 up in the Diamond.

Other persons appeared before the board and testified that they had visited the Diamond gambling rooms; had seen gambling there, and not only this, but one gentleman testified to having gambled in that place.

(Witness E. G. Floyd of Floyd & Co., testified that the "A Co." of the firm consisted of White and Morrison, and that the firm had nothing to do with the room where the gambling is going on. He said the pool room in the rear of the saloon, is run by Morrison, White, Hibbens & Kennedy. He said that Floyd & Co., lease the building from the Caldwell estate.

This closed the hearing of the Diamond matter and the board proceeded to hear a lot of promissory explanations from various saloon men relative to postponements, etc.

Licenses were granted to Jacob Lutz for 1914, South Twentieth, which had previously been refused; John Duda, Thirtieth and Walnut; John O'Donoghue, 303 North Sixteenth street; Henry Graack, 50th and Walnut, which was previously refused; Peter Feidie, 724 North Sixteenth; Peter Goos, 1115-13 Jackson; Ferdinand Adler and Albert Heller, 1114 Farnam; J. and D. Young, 906 North Sixteenth; Klittridge & Bransard, 1407 (Paxton hotel) Farnam; Schank & Prince, 523-4 South Tenth; F. and C. Metz & F. Metz, Jr., 101-12 South Tenth; The Company & Co., 120 Farnam; James Beatty, 734 South Thirteenth; Frick & Co., 806-8 South Tenth; A. H. and Max Gladstone and David Black, 1305-10 Douglas.

An executive session of the board resulted in Floyd & Co., the Diamond people, being refused a license. It was the emphatic sense of the board that no saloon should or would be granted a license where a gambling establishment was run in connection with it.

MAKE NO MISTAKE—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing by virtue of its peculiar combination, a proportion of cathartic, curative power superior to any other article of the kind before the people. For all affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system it is unequalled. Be sure to get Hood's.

A Traveling Man Married.

A very pretty wedding occurred at Fremont a few evenings ago, in which Charles H. Rosa, one of the brightest and clearest of traveling men, and a charming Chicago girl, were united. Mr. Rosa is a successful "knight of the grip" in the employment of John V. Farwell of Chicago, and the bride was Miss Helen Smith, also of Chicago.

Miss Smith traveled from Chicago to Fremont to meet her fiancé, and at the hotel the knot was tied. Charlie Thornbury of Platt & Co., Omaha, was present with a large round oyster in his hand and gave the couple well over Mr. Rosa's route and then settle down in matrimony here.

Two cases were brought before the general court of which Major E. Blatter is president, Lieutenant Mallory judge advocate, and both these men for desertion, one being a second deserter from the Ninth cavalry.

Before a Garrison court-martial which convened at Fort Omaha pursuant to orders No. 4, C. S., from the post and of which Captain Luther S. Ames of the Second infantry is president, were arraigned and tried Private Charles Curley of Company "H," Second infantry, on the charge of desertion, and a soldier, on the charge of military discipline, in this that he raised a disturbance in his company's quarters by boisterous behavior after extinguishing the lights.

A. C. Eno for being so under the influence of intoxicating liquor at the morning drill of his company as to be unable to perform his duties of a soldier. Both men were found guilty; the sentence of punishment being that each shall forfeit $5 out of his pay.

There will be a social masquerade ball at Lester's hall, Florence, next Friday evening.

Captain and Mrs. Charles A. Dempsey gave a card party last week at their quarters. Those present were General and Mrs. Frank Wheaton and Miss Miller, Captain and Mrs. J. K. Waring and Miss Waring, Lieutenant Klusie and Lieutenant Howell.

A Stenographic Contest.

On Tuesday evening, January 21, the Omaha stenographers' association will give a prize of $2.50, on conditions named below, to the stenographer who can do the largest amount of perfect typewriter work in one trial of five minutes.

1. The contest will be open to any resident stenographer of Omaha.

2. Those wishing to enter the contest must give their names to the secretary, Mr. J. A. Rooney, 311 South Twentieth street, on or before the 15th inst. They must also have their machines at the Standard shorthand school rooms, not later than 7:30 p. m. of the 15th.

3. Each contestant must furnish his own reader, machine with capitals and small letters, and writing apparatus.

4. The matter written shall be selected by a disinterested committee after the meeting convenes, and must be matter unfamiliar to and not previously written by any of the contestants.

5. Each contestant will be allowed five minutes in which to practice before beginning work.

6. The work must be paraphrased and properly punctuated. The reader may call paragraphs and punctuation marks.

7. Inactively perfect work will be required consistent with the capabilities of the machine used, and no prize will be given for work containing errors that could have been avoided in rapid work.

8. The same matter shall be written by each, and but one contestant at a time will be allowed in the room where the contest is in progress, or within hearing of the reading; provided that those who have had their trial may afterwards remain in the room.

9. Five disinterested persons shall be selected as judges to time the work and decide as to who shall be winner.

10. Speculators will not be allowed to stand near the operators while at work. This rule will be rigidly enforced.

Russian Indians.

Almost every one is now interested in knowing the proper treatment for this disease. According to the best authorities it requires precisely the same treatment as a severe cold, and it is generally known that there is nothing better for a severe cold than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken at intervals.

Extreme care should be taken to keep the feet dry and warm, the body well clothed and to avoid exposure, especially when recovering from disease, and to keep up the vitality. Persons physically weak should take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to help them to keep up their strength. It is also important that the bowels be kept regular. No ordinary care is likely to require any further treatment than this to insure a complete recovery. For sale by all druggists.

VISITORS FROM DENVER.

Supervisors and Ward Councilmen Here Inspecting Improvements.

D. Sullivan, J. A. Clark, G. N. Orndery, John G. Fleming, A. H. Root, John Tavenbaugh and Delia Thomas, a committee of Denver citizens, are in Omaha inspecting the American water works system with a view to making some suggestions regarding proposed public improvements at Denver.

The party is being entertained while here by Mr. Underwood and shown everything about the splendid plant of his corporation. They visited the company's magnificent office in the building and other points of interest; also the old pump house and reservoir. At 1 o'clock he took his visitors in a special train to Florence, where they closely inspected the new house. Mr. Sullivan is president of the old waterworks company in Denver, and it is his concern that expects to make extensive improvements. The gentlemen with him are supervisors and ward councilmen. While here they will inspect as far as possible Omaha's system of public improvements.

Catarrh

is a blood disease. Until the poison is expelled from the system, there can be no cure for this loathsome and dangerous malady. Therefore, the only effective treatment is a thorough course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood purifiers. The sooner you begin the better; delay is dangerous.

"I was troubled with catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me of this troublesome complaint, and completely restored my health."—Jesse M. Hogg, Holliston, Mass., N. C.

"When Ayer's Sarsaparilla was recommended to me for catarrh, I was inclined to doubt its efficacy. Having tried so many remedies, with little benefit, I had no faith that anything would cure me. I became emaciated from loss of appetite and impaired digestion. I had nearly lost the sense of smell, and my system was badly deranged. I was about discouraged, when a friend urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and referred me to persons whom it had cured of catarrh. After taking half a dozen bottles of this medicine, I am convinced that the only sure way of treating this obstinate disease is through the blood."—Lowell, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Price $1; six bottles, $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

JANUARY

Everybody is advertising Clearance Sales! WITH US, this January clearance business has two objects. Not only do we want to clear out the remnants of our winter stock, but our greater object is to start the New Year with a grand advertisement for the coming year's business, and we know that nothing advertises as much as SELLING GOODS CHEAP and giving big bargains. All the money we spend for the newspapers, does not do near the advertising for us than the fact that we really sell goods lower than everybody else. THAT'S WHAT DOES THE BUSINESS FOR US.

Having won the confidence of the people by giving them at all times better values for their money than they can get elsewhere—it is our determination to strengthen this confidence year after year.

When you bear in mind how low we sell our goods every day in the year, you will realize what Our Clearance Prices mean. A Bonafide Reduction from our regular low prices, means an uncommon opportunity to save money.

One dollar expended now in winter goods, will go further than a dollar and a half a month ago. Clearance prices in every department.
