

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Fifteen Requests for Leave of Absence Presented in the House.

THEY ARE TEMPORARILY LAID ASIDE.

Adoption of Sherman's Resolution for the Meeting of the Senate at O'Clock Hereafter—

Other Doings.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The speaker laid before the house fifteen requests for leave of absence.

Mr. Chandler of Indiana inquired whether if these leaves were granted a quorum would be left in the house.

The speaker announced his inability to answer the query.

Mr. Buchanan of New Jersey thought that until this question was determined it would be better not to grant the leaves, consequently the requests for leaves were passed over for the present.

Mr. McComas of Maryland called up the conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill.

Mr. Matheiser of Pennsylvania opposed the report on the ground that according to the statement of the District commissioners if the bill passed in its present form there would be a deficit in the revenues of the District of about $275,000 and $400,000.

After the conference report was agreed to and the house went into committee of the whole on the senate amendments to the sundry civil bill.

Mr. Cannon made an attack upon the director of the geological survey and in favor of the senate irrigation amendment.

Mr. Cannon replied briefly.

Pending action the committee rose and the speaker announced the appointment of the following members on the committee to investigate the charges against Commissioner Harum, Messrs. C. S. Suggs, G. S. Gault, and Martin of Indiana. Adjourned.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—In the senate today Mr. Hoar presented a memorial of the North Carolina Republican association of the District of Columbia in favor of the passage of the national election bill.

Mr. Vest presented a memorial of the wage workers' alliance of the District of Columbia demanding the bankruptcy of the government.

Mr. Sherman offered an amendment to the deficiency appropriation bill, which was referred to the committee on appropriations, appropriating $50,000 for making a boundary line between the United States and Mexico and called attention to its urgency.

The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Sherman, fixing the daily hour of meeting at 10 a. m., was taken up.

Mr. Collier, in advocating the resolution, compared the work done in the two houses during the present session with that done in the two houses during the last session.

LOWA NEWS.

Roasted the Nebraska Board. Des Moines, Ia., July 30.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The Iowa railway commission today received a communication from a prominent railroad man in Nebraska in regard to the working of the Nebraska board of transportation. In this he says, regarding the stand of the board towards the railroads:

"The hostility has apparently been an instinctive one with the honorable members, a thing inherited to their nature, a piece of inherited prejudice and not reachable by argument or to be influenced by considerations of public facts or ethics."

He says that the board's idea seemed to be that if a railroad earned 5 or 6 per cent, that was enough. He said that what the board officials were writing to the different companies and found them to be as follows: The Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha, 50 miles, 2 per cent; Union Pacific, 50 miles, 2 per cent; Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, 300 miles, 3 per cent; on other branches, the rates range from 10 to 15 per cent, or an average of about 12 per cent. Upon the above showing the board concludes that there is room for a reduction of the present maximum rates.

Want No Original Packages. Des Moines, Ia., July 30.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The original package house, the first for this town, was opened here yesterday and did a booming business until closed up last night by the sheriff. The house was run by John Rowan of Glenwood, Charles Dunbar of Pacific Junction, and John Schell of Council Bluffs, as agents for the Pals brewing company. The house was a success, and many busy waiting customers during the few hours the business was allowed to run. They were arrested on a charge of keeping a salaried man in the house, and the house was closed up. The liquor was also taken into custody. The matter came up before Judge Johnson yesterday and was waived examination and gave bond in $1,000 each for appearance at district court.
