

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

Good Advice Given the Public by the Real Estate Owners' Association.

HAS OMAHA TOO MANY EMPLOYEES?

Question of Economy in City Administration Halted by the Salary List-Findings of a Committee.

The directors of the Real Estate Owners' association held a meeting yesterday afternoon at which they transacted any amount of business.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this organization that it is in the best interest of the city of Omaha, if he values the prosperity and success of the people of the city to patronize home merchants and home manufacturers.

Resolved, That no money be expended in the interest and priority of the city at heart can afford to have any work done or purchase material elsewhere than of our own merchants and manufacturers so long as such articles can be obtained in this city at such prices as are asked for the same articles in other cities.

Another resolution was adopted looking to the use of brick for sidewalks in the residential portions of the city, providing the brick can be obtained at a cost that will not be more than 20 per cent in excess of wood.

George H. Boggs, John C. Hatters, George P. Bemis, George N. Hicks, St. A. D. Halcombe, A. L. Reed, Jeff W. Bedford, D. J. O'Donohue, W. S. Propperton, C. R. Scott and E. A. Benson were appointed a committee to help entertain the members of the transmississippi congress that convenes in this city October 15.

Major Balcombe said that he had a list showing the salaries paid county and city officials. He read the list, the same that was published in The Bee.

Colonel Scott asked how much these men had been stealing.

Major Balcombe said that he could not accuse them of theft. "They had been hired by the men who were in authority."

"The list is a long one," remarked Colonel Scott, "and in it, major, do you find any clerks who need the assistance of additional clerks?"

The major thought Colonel Scott was inclined to be ironical. If the city was run as a business corporation, the expenses could be reduced at least one-half. The trouble was that the officials and employees were not qualified. If men with brains were in charge of the affairs of the city government there would be no more business transactions, less red tape. He did not favor small salaries, but wanted an exchange of brains for the salaries paid.

Mr. Gathers replied that the official residing in Sarpy county and drew his salary, $125 per month, from the city of Omaha.

Major Balcombe explained that Inspector Gilbert did reside in Sarpy county, but that he was a good man and earned his salary. He was appointed from Sarpy county because there was no man in Omaha who was competent to fill the position. Gilbert had been faithful but the council had refused to stand by him and as a result he had been expelled. He had robbed the city right and left.

Mr. Boggs said that there was something radically wrong in the management of the city and the association should call the heads of the departments into consultation and make an attempt to correct the evil.

Mr. Gathers wanted to see the official wanted to see a different system, if it cost all of the official beans in the city.

The paying of salaries was discussed and then the investigating committee submitted a report on the Berlin-Ransom matter that was considered last week.

The trouble in the case of the grading of South Thirteenth street. The contract was let to Carr. Berlin brought suit to enjoin payment and the county commissioners and the defendants, the county commissioners, paid the costs.

The findings of the committee were: The costs, $25,000, were paid by the county commissioners. One of the defendants, the county attorney, was ordered to pay the costs and attorney fees. The money for costs and attorney fees was ordered to be paid out of the public funds.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

Mr. Berlin on the part of the county commissioners and other parties interested to have the contract set aside. He was ready to make up the difference between the contract and the actual cost of the work.

MRS. TURKESON'S SAD TALE.

Her Marriage Was a Failure and She Wants Her Freedom.

Peter Turkelson and his wife Anna do not appear as they once did. Matters have even reached a state where Anna has stopped in and asked the courts to cut the nuptial knot that was tied in Council Bluffs, St. Valentine's day, 1880.

Anna alleges that for a number of years Peter was a model husband. In later years, however, he formed the habit of chasing her around the house and she became weary of his attentions.

She met one Eliza Norman and for a long time continued to worship at his shrine, neglecting the wife of her bosom, who was an invalid. The wife protested against Peter lavishing his affections upon Eliza, but instead of mending his ways he grew angry and beat the patient.

Only last June, so the plaintiff avers, Peter told her that he loved Eliza with his whole heart and she was to be his wife. This was the start to leave home, but was caught by Peter, who, after beating her until she was a mass of bruises, threw her into a wagon and hauled her home to a home. This abuse she stood until August 9, when she left home never to return.

In addition to wanting her freedom, she also wants the $3,000 of Peter's property, which, she alleges, is of the value of $4,000.

Mrs. Turkelson also claims that her life is in jeopardy and she appears in court through her attorney, J. W. Elise, and asks that her husband be restrained from interfering with her rights in any manner.

Agate grocers, coffee mills with foot power, bearing refrigerators, better cutlery catalogue of Borden & Seidels Co., Chicago.

J. J. Johnson & Co. have removed their coal office to 220 S. 15th street.

CAUGHT THE BURGLARS.

Two Omaha House Robbers Arrested at the State Fair.

Charles Riley and Edward Lewis are under arrest in Lincoln and will be brought to Omaha to answer to a charge of burglary and grand larceny, which, it is alleged, they committed in this city about six weeks ago.

The men are charged with burglarizing the residence of Mr. Wierham, corner of Seventeenth and Ohio streets, and stealing property valued at $100. Among the stolen articles were a seakink jacket, overcoat and shotgun. Detective Jickard worked up the case and recovered the overcoat, and is now on the track of some of the other property. He located the men in Lincoln and caused their arrest.

They were formerly in the employ of S. P. Morse as a drapery hanger, and Lewis is an all-around crook. The men will be brought back by Detective Vaughn, who is in Lincoln on business in connection with a suit in which he is sued for $10,000 damages for false imprisonment.

Detective Vaughn arrived in the city at 7:15 last night with the prisoners and at once took them to police headquarters where they were searched and locked up.

HELD FOR FORGERY.

Thomas Hague was Too Handy With Other People's Names.

Thomas Hague, an ex-real estate dealer, is in jail, charged with forgery and with uttering and publishing forged paper.

The complainant is Edward W. Green, who alleges that he was defrauded of $1,000 by the name of J. V. Patterson on a check for $7.95 on the American National bank.

Mr. Green further alleges that on the same day the prisoner passed the check with knowing it to be fraudulent. In addition to these charges, it is alleged that Hague attempted to pass forged checks at several saloons in the city.

Hague waived examination and was held to the district court in the sum of $750.

For Schiltz beer apply to R. R. Grotzke 1029 1/2 Franklin.

Hissing Omaha.

OMAHA, Sept. 9.—To the Editor of THE BEE: The New York Times in a recent issue said:

They are still talking you out in Omaha of "securing" the republican national convention next year. It is not only a waste of time, but it is a waste of money. The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

The republican party in Omaha is not interested in the nomination of any man for president. It is only interested in the nomination of a man who will represent the interests of the people of Omaha.

PAUL TATE'S WELCOME HOME

Prison Bars Hold Him to Answer to a Charge of Robbery.

ADMITTING TAKING THE BAG OF GOLD COIN.

The Young Man Tells of the Impulse That Led to the Theft—Part of the Money Recovered.

As it was after police court when the trial arrived from Denver with Paul B. Tate on board, he was taken directly to the county jail. He was taken before the police judge yesterday for a hearing, but had not employed an attorney and did not know whether he wanted a preliminary hearing or not.

He was recommitment for examination. Tate admits stealing the $3,000. The bank has recovered $3,000 of the amount. Tate says he spent $1,000 of the missing $3,000, but claims that he was robbed of the other $2,000 in New Orleans. He says he left the money in a suitcase in his grip on the outside of a railroad eating house, while he went to get a meal, and when he came out it was gone.

The bank officials, however, do not put much faith in this report. As to the theft, Tate says he entered the vault to look after a special deposit, yielded to another impulse and impulse to take the money, but the officers of the bank tell a different story. They claim that the robbery was premeditated and say that Tate plotted to take a blank pasteboard to represent a special deposit, and had it placed in the vault with his name on it, that on July 1, during the rush of business, he obtained permission from the paying teller to go in and look at his deposit, and while there appropriated the bag of gold.

He placed in a grip that he had in his department, and when he now claims was accidentally having been used to take his clothing to the laundry. At night he walked away with the grip and the money. He did not leave until July 20, and for a month or more had a very elegant time. He does not seem to feel very bad over the situation in which he now finds himself.

He has put in his spare time in getting a beard, and is somewhat thinner than when he took his sudden departure from Omaha six weeks ago. In the court room this morning, after the case was disposed of by the judge, Tate and discussed upon the comparative merits of the Denver and Omaha jails for the benefit of Jaier Hoergeran. It is stated that the guarantee company which was on Tate's bond will vigorously prosecute the case.

If you could see your own scalp through an ordinary magnifying glass, you would be amazed at the amount of dirt, dandruff, and dead skin thereon accumulated. The most popular preparation for cleansing the scalp is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

GIVES THE WEST A CHANCE.

"Home Visitors" Excursions Meeting With Success From the Railways.

The agitation in favor of a "home visitors" excursion has received another impetus and it is safe to say that people in the west will be given an opportunity to visit their former homes in the east at reduced rates.

This matter was first urged by the Central Passenger association which made a rate of one fare for this purpose, but the Western Passenger association refused to meet the responding rate in its territory and the plan seemed to be defeated. The Alton at once made a one fare rate, round trip, from Kansas City and St. Louis, which must of course be met by the other lines in the territory.

The Trans-Missouri association, at its meeting this week in Kansas City, made a one fare round trip rate from all points in the association territory to Ohio, Michigan and Indiana, for September 22, tickets to be on sale one day only, with a transfer on the two days, except from Utah, New Mexico and Montana points, where the transit limit will be four days. These tickets will be good, returning, until October 22.

The action of the association on either side of it and of the Alton within its territory will favor the Western Passenger association, and make excursion rates on the date mentioned, so that the home visitors' excursion is an assured fact.

Another matter on which action was taken by the Trans-Missouri association in which Omaha is interested was the making of a rate of one and one-half fares for a round trip within a radius of seventy-five miles of Omaha on Tuesdays and Wednesdays during the continuance of the Omaha exposition. Tickets to be good returning until the Saturday of the week of issue.

The lines in the association also agreed to exchange tickets with lines outside the association territory. This will be an advantage in the holding of conventions and other meetings in Omaha. Delightful excursions are provided with certificates which entitles them to reduced rates, but heretofore the lines in one territory have not recognized the certificates from another territory.

The Latest Conundrum.

Why is Haller's Sarsaparilla and Burdock like the most popular soap of the day. Because they both cleanse the skin and leave it both soft and velvety.

On the 6th day of August, a ledger, between Washington Hill and Little and Leavenworth, belonging to the Danish Ladies' Relief Society. Reward if returned to Washington Hill.

ITS FIRST CONVENTION.

The Central Philatelic Association Pleasured with Its Prospects.

The Central Philatelic association held the closing meeting of the convention Wednesday night at the rooms of the organization in the New York Life building.

The constitution and by-laws, as prepared by the committee appointed Tuesday evening, was presented and adopted. The name of the association was changed to "The Central Philatelic Association."

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, George A. Joplin, Omaha; vice-president, Edgar C. Bigger, Fremont; secretary, G. Sanders, Council Bluffs; treasurer, Henry Fisher, Omaha; librarian, O. W. Dunn, Omaha; superintendent of exchange, W. H. Mackey, Council Bluffs; executive committee, A. H. Sanders, Omaha; F. H. Knowlton, Fremont; George A. Miller, Cambridge.

Several short addresses upon philatelic subjects were made. The members were all confident of the great success of the association in the future. The location and time of the next annual meeting were left to the executive committee to arrange. A vote of thanks was extended to the Omaha Philatelic association for the use of the room during the convention, and to the local press for the very encouraging reports that have been given from day to day in the Omaha papers during the convention.

The officers of the association are very anxious to hear from all parties who are interested in the collection of stamps through the use of the stamps of Omaha, and they will be pleased to correspond with all who will send in their names and addresses.

Use Haller's German Pills, the great constipation and liver regulator.

HE HAD A RECORD.

And Was Willing to Fight Any Man Who Disputed.

Congressman W. A. McKeighan, of the Second district, was one of the interested parties in a sensational little episode at the recent Grand Army of the Republic reunion at Grand Island that has not heretofore found its way into print.

It all happened because some of the old soldiers ventured to call the congressman's army record into question, which angered Mr. Laws' successor that he gave way to a very unstatesmanlike exhibition of temper and publicly dared any unbelieving veteran who would dispute the record. He got into the crowd and accepted the invitation, and Mr. McKeighan shouldered his offended honor and his wrath and walked away, accompanied by the crowd.

The way it happened is thus described by Mr. H. W. Hewitt of this city, who was there: Mr. McKeighan had been billed for a speech during the reunion, but failed to put in an appearance. Friday evening while the campfire and "experience" meeting" was being held some one discovered that the congressman on the grounds and induced him to step inside the ring and give the boys a talk. He was also opposed to wearing the Grand Army of the Republic badge or button, which was but another way of boasting, by constantly calling attention to the fact that he was a member of the organization. He declared that it did not meet with his ideal of the brave man and here, and it departed from rather than anything of the glory that attended the front of the union soldier. He said he was a soldier and belonged to the Eleventh Illinois.

He took issue with McKeighan when several of the boys who had heard the rumor that Mr. McKeighan was dishonorably discharged began to call loudly upon him for his record, but he walked away. Several of the veterans told their "experience," and then Mr. Hewitt was called for. He said that he was not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

This was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

HE HAD A RECORD.

And Was Willing to Fight Any Man Who Disputed.

Congressman W. A. McKeighan, of the Second district, was one of the interested parties in a sensational little episode at the recent Grand Army of the Republic reunion at Grand Island that has not heretofore found its way into print.

It all happened because some of the old soldiers ventured to call the congressman's army record into question, which angered Mr. Laws' successor that he gave way to a very unstatesmanlike exhibition of temper and publicly dared any unbelieving veteran who would dispute the record. He got into the crowd and accepted the invitation, and Mr. McKeighan shouldered his offended honor and his wrath and walked away, accompanied by the crowd.

The way it happened is thus described by Mr. H. W. Hewitt of this city, who was there: Mr. McKeighan had been billed for a speech during the reunion, but failed to put in an appearance. Friday evening while the campfire and "experience" meeting" was being held some one discovered that the congressman on the grounds and induced him to step inside the ring and give the boys a talk. He was also opposed to wearing the Grand Army of the Republic badge or button, which was but another way of boasting, by constantly calling attention to the fact that he was a member of the organization. He declared that it did not meet with his ideal of the brave man and here, and it departed from rather than anything of the glory that attended the front of the union soldier. He said he was a soldier and belonged to the Eleventh Illinois.

He took issue with McKeighan when several of the boys who had heard the rumor that Mr. McKeighan was dishonorably discharged began to call loudly upon him for his record, but he walked away. Several of the veterans told their "experience," and then Mr. Hewitt was called for. He said that he was not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

This was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the war or only a few months, and whether he was discharged from the army or not, he can explain his record in answer to public inquiry.

He was followed by more cries for McKeighan, and presently the congressman started into the ring. He was understood that some old Grand Army man had insulted him. He understood that they were not a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and also unlike him he was not a soldier. He was not a soldier, whether he served all through the