

OMAHA BURIED THE PIRATES

Rowe's Rustlers Make it Three Straight at the Expense of the Toledo. DAD CLARKE HAMMERED OUT OF SHAPE.

"King" Kelly Made a Home With Three Men on Bases—Columbus Stuns Kansas City Again and Starts for Omaha.

Omaha, 7; Toledo, 4. Columbus, 1; Kansas City, 7.

OR ONCE IN HIS life once told the truth yesterday. He made a home on the banks of the Maumee, and every crank in town is correspondingly bappy.

It is the only three straight we have had an opportunity to feast upon this season; two in succession was the best up to this series.

All three of the games were beautiful ones, the Rustlers winning each by hard and timely hitting, and it is the stick that makes a contest interesting.

The greatest feature about these Toledo games, however, was the fact that Dad Clarke did the grunting act in two of them, and in both he was patted so hard that his cerebellum ached.

After yesterday's struggle he looked like a Christmas tree stripped of its presents.

The afternoon was again just right. Heavy clouds cast a pleasant shroud over the park, and the breeze was just stiff enough to be refreshing.

But despite this comfortable state of affairs and the fact that the boys are putting up a superb article of ball, the crowd was disgustingly small.

In the fifth inning came the play of the game, one seldom seen in a lifetime. Sir Thomas Gilbert from Holly Point, N. J., smote Dad for a safe one, Nowell's notch spared Shy and Gilks made his second hit.

The bags were full and Kelly at the bat. The universe rested on his shoulders. Dad clenched his teeth and concentrated all his force in his angular frame into his woodcress arm.

It was a momentous moment. Not a whisper disturbed the quiet of the groamy afternoon. The salute was intense. Far away was the world with all its darkening sorrows and sad corollary cares.

"An strike!" sounded McQuaid's baritone lungs. Dad's face would have made a good stamp for children's cookies in holiday time.

"Two strikes!" He grinned in Britishish glee. Crack! King Kelly had met an Oswegoan curved and it sounded like the explosion of a giant torpedo.

It was one of those royal smashes you see but once in a season. A homer with three men on the bags.

The crowd howled in their agonizing joy, and their unearthly mocking tones sounded to Dad—so he ached at the close of the game—as if they had emitted from a legion of mechanical throats.

That hit won the game, for only one more run got in after that, and it went to Toledo's credit, which by the way, was as good as the First National bank's just now.

After the fifth Handjob relieved Vicky, who was not feeling well, he was touched deeply, but kept the hits scattered. Mr. McQuaid umpired in his usual fair and impartial manner, although he was forced to listen to some impassioned oratory on the part of several blood-thirsty pirates, and was also the receiving end of a remark which cost Vicky $10.

Omaha buried the pirates. Toledo, 4; Omaha, 7. Columbus, 1; Kansas City, 7.

Earned runs: Omaha, 4; Toledo, 2; Columbus, 1; Kansas City, 4. Home runs: Kelly, 2; Toledo, 2; Columbus, 1; Kansas City, 1.

Uncle Dave swears by the rings around Saturn, and those around the monkey's tail also, that he was on his whiskers this afternoon. Snyder robbed him here before and he will in a measure even up or bust a suspension.

Darby will be in the box for the Rustlers and will exert himself to pull out on top. In the game he pitched against Columbus when they were here before they only got three hits, and beat us 2 to 1 by the grace of Snyder's generosity.

Refused to Sell His Players. A representative of the Louisville club was here yesterday for the purpose of buying Colony and Kelly of the local team. President Stout was offered $1,500 for Colony and a nice sum for Kelly, but absolutely refused to listen to any proposition that would take these men. He was offered two fine players in exchange if he could sign them, and every inducement was held forth to effect the deal. But it was no go.

From the patronage he is receiving it is a mystery why he did not jump at the offer. Most men would have not only closed out Colony and Kelly under the circumstances, but would have thrown in the grandstand for good measure. The fair thing is not being done the Omaha ball club.

Kansas City, Mo. June 6.—Columbus made it three straight today. Score: Columbus, 7; Kansas City, 1. Earned runs: Kansas City, 4; Columbus, 3. Home runs: Kansas City, 1; Columbus, 1. Errors: Kansas City, 2; Columbus, 3. Batteries: Kansas City, 2; Columbus, 3. Double plays: Kansas City, 1; Columbus, 1. Unassisted bases on balls: Huff, 7; Huff, 7; Huff, 7. Errors: Huff, 7; Huff, 7; Huff, 7.

ADDITION TO THE SISTERHOOD

Passage of House Bills Admitting Arizona and New Mexico. HATCH'S ANTI-OPTION BILL PASSED

Some of Its Provisions—Mr. Henderson Scores the Democrats of the House—Payne Makes a Persistent Inquiry—In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—In the house today, after a roll call for a quorum, Mr. Hatch of Missouri moved to suspend the rules and pass the anti-option bill, H. R. 1087.

Mr. Hatch spoke in support of the measure. Mr. Herbert of Alabama opposed the bill on constitutional grounds, as did also Mr. Boatner of Louisiana, who declared that its endorsement by a democratic house would be the endorsement of a more flagrant violation of the constitution than had ever received the endorsement of the republican party.

Mr. Rayner of Maryland protested against introducing a bill of such importance under a suspension of the rules. It was one of the most dangerous measures that had ever made its appearance. It destroyed every conception of state sovereignty and would carry to its logical conclusion the breaking down of the distinctions between federal and state governments.

Mr. Castle of Minnesota thought the bill should be entitled "A bill to depress the value of all products raised by the farmers." Cummings Quotes Shakespeare. Mr. Cummings said that a republican congress had given six days to the consideration of the force bill, and yet the democratic congress refused more than fifteen minutes to discuss a bill which was more grossly unconstitutional than the force bill.

Mr. Henderson of Iowa opposed the bill. Mr. Hatch, in the few minutes which were reserved for him, said he had fought for a honest convention—the bill was a conduct between the boards of trade.

The motion was agreed to, and accordingly the bill was passed. The first two sections of the bill define options and futures; the third names as the articles to which they shall relate "wheat, corn, soybeans, flaxseed, pork and other edible products of swine" and the fourth imposes a license of $1,000 on dealers in options and futures and a tax of 5 cents on each pound of cotton, hops, pork, lard, bacon and other edible products of swine and 30 cents for each bushel of any other articles which are the subject of any "option" or "future" contract which such dealer, as vendor, shall make, either in his own behalf or on behalf of others.

River and Harbor Bill. Instantly the vote was declared Mr. Blanchard of Louisiana was on his feet and was recognized and moved to suspend the rules to reconsider the suspension of the river and harbor appropriation bill and to agree to a conference.

Mr. Holman of Indiana demanded a second, which was ordered by a vote of 155 to 110. The motion was concurred in by a vote of 146 to 99, and Blanchard, Catchings and Henderson of Illinois were appointed conferees.

On motion of Mr. Hervey of Alabama the senate amendments to the naval appropriation bill were non-concurred in and a conference was ordered. Hervey, Elliott and Boutelle being appointed conferees.

Mr. Bryan of Nebraska moved to suspend the rules and pass a bill appropriating $50,000 for a hotel for the territory of New Mexico to the sisterhood of states.

Mr. Perkins of Iowa demanded a second, which was ordered by a vote of 155 to 110. The motion was concurred in by a vote of 146 to 99, and Blanchard, Catchings and Henderson of Illinois were appointed conferees.
