NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

One Instance in Which an Omaha Crowd Escaped the Local Police.

ARRESTED AN ENTIRE COACHING PARTY

Members of the National Fenelices and Doid Opera Company Have a Gay Time and Narrowly Escape a Police Court Scene.

A party of twenty-six persons, composed half and half of the female members of the Doid Opera company and the National Fenelices of Washington, D. C., had a collision with the Council Bluffs police force Sunday night that came near leading the entire outfit in the city jail. They visited the Bluffs in a trolley coach and took possession of a prominent saloon shortly before midnight. There they held a musical carnival until long after midnight, dancing, drinking beer, and having a high time of the old fashioned sort. The hilarity was interrupted about half past 12 by the appearance of Officers Murphy and Clair, and a very decided damper was thrown on the company. The officers were informed that they must close up at once or be arrested for violating the 12 o'clock order. The party at once left the saloon and started away on their trolley.

When they were a convenient distance from the hotel they resumed their merry-making, the noise of which could be heard for a quarter of a mile. In making their rounds they happened to run a second time across the track of Officer Clair, who gave chase and overhauled them not far from the corner of Broadway and Bryant streets. On their way to the police station some of the bold soloist boys dropped off the trolley and ran into the street, and were taken through the alley. Before they had gone twenty steps they ran into Officer Murphy, who was waiting to apprehend them. The whole party was kept at the city jail until a promise was extracted from the officers that if they would take a lightning gat for Omaha. They were then released.

The unfortunate Fenelices made a deservable effort to keep the particulars of their experience a secret, but the story leaked out and is the cause of a good deal of guffing from the other troops.

The Chautauque Program. Managers Trepner and McGee are putting the finishing touches to the program of the Chautauque which opens July 2, with Governor Boies as the orator of the day. Every day of the two weeks is crowded with attractions, and the prices are made so that the people at large can reach up to them. Entertainments that would ordinarily cost a dollar a ticket are offered at 50 cents. A whole week's entertainment is offered for 35 cents and all the entertainments of the season for $3.50. This is surely cheap enough. There are many names on the program which are of national familiarity, and the immense amphitheater will be crowded more than once.

High School Report. LIGHTNING AND POWDER. Fifty People Injured by a Combination of the Two in Kentucky.

SOMERSET, Ky., June 20.—Yesterday, during the severe lightning and thunder storm that passed over this section, the general store of W. H. Ryan at Glasgow, Ky., was struck by lightning. Two kegs of powder exploded, throwing a heavy iron safe through the roof and wounding all the occupants of the roof, fifty in number. Several physicians were called to attend to the sufferers, but the lightning struck a victim. Not a single occupant of Ryan's store escaped serious injury, and many, it is thought, will die. Ryan, formerly a member of the legislature, is a gentleman of considerable prominence and a former representative of Wayne county in the legislature.

SOUTH OMAHA. District Good Templars Meet in Regular Quarterly Session.

Forty-five delegates, representing nine subordinate lodges of District lodge No. 8, Independent Order of Good Templars, met in the Methodist Episcopal church yesterday afternoon, the occasion being the regular quarterly meeting.

The roll called showed the following lodges represented: Life Boat Lodge, Beacon Light lodge, Mayflower lodge, Omaha; Magic City lodge, South Omaha; Fletcher lodge, Fletcher; Herman lodge, Herman; John E. Gough lodge, Blair; Valparaiso lodge, Valparaiso.

The roll called showed the following lodges represented: Life Boat Lodge, Beacon Light lodge, Mayflower lodge, Omaha; Magic City lodge, South Omaha; Fletcher lodge, Fletcher; Herman lodge, Herman; John E. Gough lodge, Blair; Valparaiso lodge, Valparaiso.

District Chief Templar J. L. McGee of Valparaiso presided at the session. The session lasted until 5 o'clock and adjournment was taken until 7:30 o'clock. Business of interest to the order was transacted, the greater portion of the time being taken up by reports from the officers and routine work.

The evening meeting was called to order at 7:30 and Rev. Van Buren of Omaha, grand counselor, presided. The lodge changed the district, and in the future it will be of purple color. Sixteen candidates were initiated into the district lodge.

The following permits were issued by the superintendent of buildings yesterday: Swift & Co. three-story brick fertilizer and boiler rooms, 178x76, $12,000.

Swift & Co. three-story brick beef co., 112x12, $13,000.

Frank Pivonka, three-story brick business house, Twenty-sixth and N streets, $17,000. The total aggregates $37,000, which is a very creditable showing, and illustrates that the building boom in the Magic City is still on.

Had a Successful Trip. John Walliwork returned yesterday from Liverpool, England, where he has been with a big shipment of port cattle. He had in charge 1,103 head, the largest lot ever shipped from the United States. The trip was made without accident and was attended with good results. The cattle were loaded at St. Louis, Omaha yards, and one or two other Nebraska points.

In the Horse Market. A big lot of Oregon and Wyoming horses were received at the yards yesterday and will be offered for sale at the regular Wednesday market at the Omaha horse market. It is proving to be a big thing and attracts weekly prominent horsemen and buyers from all over the country.

Notes and Personal. Councilman Schulz is in Grand Island. C. G. Jaycox is home from Omaha. Frank Jones has returned from Michigan. C. H. Rich of the Daily Stockman left last evening for Chicago.

J. C. McConnel of Stromsburg was in the city yesterday, enroute home from England, where he has been with a big shipment of port cattle. F. D. Babcock of Ida Grove, Ia., spent Sunday with his nephew, W. S. Babcock.

D. W. Osborn, who has been the guest of Samuel P. Brigham, returned to his home at Kalamazoo, Mich., yesterday.

The council failed to meet last evening owing to the failure to secure a quorum. A meeting will be held Tuesday evening.

Frank Pivonka yesterday took out a permit for his new building at Twenty-sixth and N streets. It will be of brick, three stories high and cost $17,000.

A team of horses driven by Julius King took fright yesterday and ran away. King was thrown out and Dr. Herwick found his orator of the day. Every day of the two weeks is crowded with attractions, and the prices are made so that the people at large can reach up to them.

DO NOT GET HOT!

If a good sensible republican happens to meet you on the street and tells you "Ben Harrison will be re-elected as sure as the sun shines," don't get hot. If a rockribbed democrat insists on cornering you, and in excited tones informs you that "Grover Cleveland will do Ben up so hard that he'll never be heard of again"—don't get hot. If an honest old "Alliance Farmer" catches you in his strawberry patch, and tells you that "General Weaver will dispense public patronage from the White House after next March,"—don't get hot. If somebody happens to tell you that the "Nebraska Central" will never be built—or that your pet company drilled like a lot of old cows—don't get hot.

KEEP COOL

Under all circumstances—keep your temper—come down to the store some day this week and buy a fine black alpaca coat for seventy-five cents—or a fancy brilliantine coat for a dollar—and a Yeddo straw hat, like the hat fellows sell for a dollar twenty-five, for eighty cents—and some very fine balbriggan underwear (cool weight) at thirty cents—the forty-five cent kind—a fine negligee shirt that's worth dollarnahaf, for ninety cents—and a silk grenadine Windsor for a quarter—and a Guyot style suspender for a quarter—and silk embroidered socks for a quarter. Then put on a pair of old slippers and a pair of ventilated pantaloons, find an inviting hammock—get a good cigar and—two's company.
