

CUT IN A DRUNKEN BRAWL

Waverly the Scene of a Dangerous Row Saturday Night.

THOMAS TUEDOR SERIOUSLY INJURED

W. A. Martin Stabs Him Six Times During the Progress of the Fight—Too Much Beer the Cause of the Rumpus.

Waverly, Neb., June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A first-class row was inaugurated here about 11 o'clock last night in the vicinity of the depot. It was the result of three beers of Lincoln beer that had been so freely imbibed by a pretty fair sized rowdier, all of whom were heavily under the weather and were quarreling over the distribution of the liquor, when two of them got into a fight, W. A. Martin and Thomas Tuedor. Tuedor was flourishing and both were badly cut. Tuedor got the worst of it and was carried home, when it was found that he had received six lacerations. Dr. Davis sewed his wounds up. There were three other men in the row, one of whom was also injured. A warrant was sworn out by Tuedor before Judge Littlefield for the arrest of Martin and Constable Frantz went out to John Hellman's farm, some three miles southeast of town, but the fellow had taken his bed and could not be found. Diligent search will be made and further particulars reported.

Found the Unknown. Waverly, Neb., June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The unknown man mentioned in a previous dispatch, has been located at the Cameron Beris farm one-half mile south of town, where he is being taken to Dr. Davis for medical attention, which he also received in the fight with Thomas Tuedor Saturday night. The warrant already sworn out by Tuedor has been changed to a preliminary examination of the two men and a preliminary examination will be held on Monday at 9 a. m. before Judge Littlefield on the charge of felonious assault. Dr. Davis has been called to the hospital and is in the town today and it is estimated that at least forty persons were in the crowd at the time of the row. The better class of citizens have been waging such open violation of the law.

Marshall Clark received word here from Havelock that F. W. White had absconded with a horse. The horse was reported to be in the hands of a man in the neighborhood of Havelock. The marshal immediately notified the authorities of the fact hoping to intercept the man at Omaha.

SUDDENLY LOST HIS REASON. George Rohrer's Desperate Fight with the Nebraska Authorities. GEORGETOWN, Neb., June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Yesterday George Rohrer, a butcher in the employ of George Wichman, suddenly became violently insane. He first threw a customer named Saturday and went upstairs to the living apartments of the family and attempted to throttle the mother, who screamed for help. He was beat off and left the house returning a few moments later to find the door barred. He then began smashing windows with his fists and seriously lacerated his hands. He was taken into custody by the authorities, when he suddenly broke away and took after a boy. An exciting chase followed, which probably had been used to his wounds were dressed and he was taken to Papillon, preparatory to sending him to the asylum. There was no apparent cause for his strange conduct, excepting the loss of his money, of which he has about $2,500 saved from his salary. He has always been and exceptionally quiet, industrious young man.

INDEPENDENT ORATORS. Senator Allen and J. M. Devine Will Address Numerous Meetings. LINCOLN, June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Senator Allen arrived at Lincoln this afternoon and will leave tomorrow to speak at a number of independent meetings throughout the state. He will be accompanied by J. M. Devine of Colfax county, and both will be chaperoned by Chairman Blake of the independent committee. Meetings will be held in the afternoons at the following places: Monday, June 12, at Omaha; Tuesday, at Beatrice; Wednesday, at Geneva; Thursday, at Lincoln; Friday, at Franklin; Saturday, at Alma; Sunday, at Indianola; Tuesday, at Holdrege; Wednesday, at Hastings; Thursday, at Kearney; Friday, at Nelora; Saturday, at Lincoln. Judge Maxwell's dissenting opinion in the impeachment case will be discussed at an important figure in the discussions.

EVIDENCE OF MURDER. Body of a New-Born Infant Found in Salt Creek at Lincoln. LINCOLN, June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Three Bohemians, while walking along the Rock Island track in the northern suburbs of the city today, were attracted to a neatly wrapped square package floating upon the water at the edge of the salt creek overtop. Upon undoing it they found it to contain the body of a full-grown baby. There was a string around its neck and it was wrapped in a cloth used to choke it. It had evidently just been placed in the water, as only one side of the package was wet, and one of the newspapers in the package was wrapped in a cloth. The discovery was reported to the police and the body turned over to the coroner and now lies in Guilds & Co's. morgue awaiting investigation.

Closed on a Chattel Mortgage. OMAHA, Neb., June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—The store of A. F. Drake, general merchandise, at Odell, was closed on a chattel mortgage held by the First Commercial bank yesterday. The bank's claim is $17,500. The other indebtedness will aggregate about $2,000. The creditors are Kemper, Hundt & McDonald, St. Joseph, Mo.; Robert Kraus of Davenport, Ia.; Rogner & Shoup, Sycamore Grocery company, Atchison, Kan.; Gilmore & Ruhl, Omaha; C. A. Merry & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Died of Blood Poisoning. FORT DODGE, Neb., June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Mrs. Lee Rehall, wife of Private Schall, troop E, Sixth cavalry, died at 11:30 a. m. of blood poisoning. Schall being a member of the regular Army and National union all members of that organization will attend. Temperature at post today, 104° in the shade.

Going to the Lincoln Asylum. BEATRICE, June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Three inmates of the Gage county poor house, Mrs. Elizabeth Shepley, Aaron Hoisie and Emerson Howell, will be removed to the Asylum for the Insane at Lincoln Monday. Hoisie has not had a stitch of clothing on him for the past two weeks, while Howell is dead as well as crazy.

General Van Wyck Improving. NEBRASKA CITY, June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—General Van Wyck has so far recovered as to be able to leave the house, passing some time in the open air yesterday for the first time since he was stricken. His chances for complete and speedy recovery are now most encouraging.

Preparing for the Fourth. OMAHA, Neb., June 1.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—Oblivious is making elaborate preparations for a grand celebration on the Fourth of July. Ample funds have been raised for expenditure upon various sports, and a grand display of fireworks is planned for the evening. Rev. Johnson of Friend has been secured to deliver the oration. Music will be furnished by the Omaha Cornet band. There will be a dance at the opera house, a bowery dance and amusements of every description, suitable to the tastes of all classes.

WASHINGTON'S SAD SUNDAY

Many of the Victims of Friday's Awful Accident Laid to Rest.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The remains of the dead victims of the horrible wreck of Ford's theater Friday have nearly been disposed of. Washington was today a city of funerals, and all day long mourners have gone about the streets. Everyone knew what the sad procession meant and the sympathy of all was extended, albeit unexpressed in many cases to the sorrowing stricken ones. Inquiry confirms the statement that none of the victims were men of property, and lived on their salaries, which furnished means of livelihood, but left little for a day like this. Most of them were married and some had large families, who are now left, if not entirely dependent on friends and relatives, at least lacking in funds for immediate use.

Cared for by Comrades. The body of George Q. Allen of Pennsylvania was taken yesterday to Philadelphia, where his relatives reside, for interment, after a funeral service conducted by Rev. Father Korvick.

After the last sad rites had been performed over the remains of Emanuel Gates Shull, also of Pennsylvania, the casket was taken to Gettysburg for interment.

The remains of J. B. Moore were sent to his home in Evansville, Wis., where a widow with three children awaits their arrival.

The body of Captain Michael T. Mallary is now on its way to New Orleans, that of Samuel P. Barnes to Bristol, Pa.; that of Joseph Daly to Remota, Pa.; that of Charles Miller to Cambridge, Mass.

Nearly all of these men were members of various military or civic organizations, and their funerals and escorted their remains to the railway station. One of the most prominent was Grand Army man and Kit Carson post gave him a military funeral and buried him among his comrades at Arlington.

W. A. Miller, one of the best known colored men in the government employ here and his funeral at the Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal church attracted a enormous crowd, which included the colored militia companies.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Frederick B. Loftis at his home on 14th street, N. W., where he was survived by his wife and six children and many friends.

Massive Burial of the Fallen. The Masonic fraternity, through B. B. French lodge, conducted services over Captain Ben Miller, Rev. Mr. Rogers of the Methodist church officiating. The service was held at 2 o'clock and the remains were started for Utica, N. Y., where the interment will be made. Kit Carson post, Grand Army of the Republic, sent a delegation to the funeral.

What remained of Otto F. W. Maeder was interred at Arlington, after services by a German Lutheran minister.

The body of Dr. Burrows Nelson was interred at Mount Olivet cemetery and that of Wm. W. Manning at the Lincoln cemetery. The body of the late Congressman, Rev. Samuel Green preaching the funeral sermon.

Independent Order of Mechanics laid at rest in Greenwood cemetery, the body of Joseph Richard Fagan and Garfield post, Grand Army of the Republic, interred at Arlington, the body of their late comrade, J. C. Chapman.

John Bussiss was buried this afternoon from his late residence and interred in one of the private cemeteries. Schrieber will be held at College Park Md., tomorrow morning, and his remains interred at Baltimore.

The remains of J. H. McFall will be taken to Lynchburg, Va., for interment. It is to have a share in that control or a predominance therein they will have to fight for the Washington newspaper, which cannot afford to permit Europe to have any management in a waterway designed primarily for the use of the nations of this hemisphere.

The revolutionists in Nicaragua should strike against a continental policy in Nicaragua. All nations may use the canal when it is opened, but the very different matter from allowing European governments to place their agents in the Board of Administration of the canal.

Nicaragua's New Government Said to Be Anti-American. New York, June 1.—The World's City of Mexico special says: The Mexican Financier says: "The downfall of the Saca government in Nicaragua appears to have behind it an intricate and very different hostile to the continuance of American control in the Nicaraguan ship canal, an enterprise purely American in its inception and sustained entirely by American capital.

When the canal was begun, little attention was paid to it, but now that it is likely to be successful, the American governments wish to have a share in that control or a predominance therein they will have to fight for the Washington newspaper, which cannot afford to permit Europe to have any management in a waterway designed primarily for the use of the nations of this hemisphere.

The revolutionists in Nicaragua should strike against a continental policy in Nicaragua. All nations may use the canal when it is opened, but the very different matter from allowing European governments to place their agents in the Board of Administration of the canal.

Nicaragua's New Government Said to Be Anti-American. New York, June 1.—The World's City of Mexico special says: The Mexican Financier says: "The downfall of the Saca government in Nicaragua appears to have behind it an intricate and very different hostile to the continuance of American control in the Nicaraguan ship canal, an enterprise purely American in its inception and sustained entirely by American capital.

When the canal was begun, little attention was paid to it, but now that it is likely to be successful, the American governments wish to have a share in that control or a predominance therein they will have to fight for the Washington newspaper, which cannot afford to permit Europe to have any management in a waterway designed primarily for the use of the nations of this hemisphere.

The revolutionists in Nicaragua should strike against a continental policy in Nicaragua. All nations may use the canal when it is opened, but the very different matter from allowing European governments to place their agents in the Board of Administration of the canal.

Nicaragua's New Government Said to Be Anti-American. New York, June 1.—The World's City of Mexico special says: The Mexican Financier says: "The downfall of the Saca government in Nicaragua appears to have behind it an intricate and very different hostile to the continuance of American control in the Nicaraguan ship canal, an enterprise purely American in its inception and sustained entirely by American capital.

WASHINGTON'S SAD SUNDAY

Many of the Victims of Friday's Awful Accident Laid to Rest.

SORROW PERVADED THE ENTIRE CITY

Sympathy, Deep and Heartfelt, Expressed as the Mourful Processions Took Their Way Through the Streets—Condition of the Injured.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The remains of the dead victims of the horrible wreck of Ford's theater Friday have nearly been disposed of. Washington was today a city of funerals, and all day long mourners have gone about the streets. Everyone knew what the sad procession meant and the sympathy of all was extended, albeit unexpressed in many cases to the sorrowing stricken ones. Inquiry confirms the statement that none of the victims were men of property, and lived on their salaries, which furnished means of livelihood, but left little for a day like this. Most of them were married and some had large families, who are now left, if not entirely dependent on friends and relatives, at least lacking in funds for immediate use.

Cared for by Comrades. The body of George Q. Allen of Pennsylvania was taken yesterday to Philadelphia, where his relatives reside, for interment, after a funeral service conducted by Rev. Father Korvick.

After the last sad rites had been performed over the remains of Emanuel Gates Shull, also of Pennsylvania, the casket was taken to Gettysburg for interment.

The remains of J. B. Moore were sent to his home in Evansville, Wis., where a widow with three children awaits their arrival.

The body of Captain Michael T. Mallary is now on its way to New Orleans, that of Samuel P. Barnes to Bristol, Pa.; that of Joseph Daly to Remota, Pa.; that of Charles Miller to Cambridge, Mass.

Nearly all of these men were members of various military or civic organizations, and their funerals and escorted their remains to the railway station. One of the most prominent was Grand Army man and Kit Carson post gave him a military funeral and buried him among his comrades at Arlington.

W. A. Miller, one of the best known colored men in the government employ here and his funeral at the Metropolitan African Methodist Episcopal church attracted a enormous crowd, which included the colored militia companies.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Frederick B. Loftis at his home on 14th street, N. W., where he was survived by his wife and six children and many friends.

Massive Burial of the Fallen. The Masonic fraternity, through B. B. French lodge, conducted services over Captain Ben Miller, Rev. Mr. Rogers of the Methodist church officiating. The service was held at 2 o'clock and the remains were started for Utica, N. Y., where the interment will be made. Kit Carson post, Grand Army of the Republic, sent a delegation to the funeral.

What remained of Otto F. W. Maeder was interred at Arlington, after services by a German Lutheran minister.

The body of Dr. Burrows Nelson was interred at Mount Olivet cemetery and that of Wm. W. Manning at the Lincoln cemetery. The body of the late Congressman, Rev. Samuel Green preaching the funeral sermon.

Independent Order of Mechanics laid at rest in Greenwood cemetery, the body of Joseph Richard Fagan and Garfield post, Grand Army of the Republic, interred at Arlington, the body of their late comrade, J. C. Chapman.

John Bussiss was buried this afternoon from his late residence and interred in one of the private cemeteries. Schrieber will be held at College Park Md., tomorrow morning, and his remains interred at Baltimore.

The remains of J. H. McFall will be taken to Lynchburg, Va., for interment. It is to have a share in that control or a predominance therein they will have to fight for the Washington newspaper, which cannot afford to permit Europe to have any management in a waterway designed primarily for the use of the nations of this hemisphere.

The revolutionists in Nicaragua should strike against a continental policy in Nicaragua. All nations may use the canal when it is opened, but the very different matter from allowing European governments to place their agents in the Board of Administration of the canal.

Nicaragua's New Government Said to Be Anti-American. New York, June 1.—The World's City of Mexico special says: The Mexican Financier says: "The downfall of the Saca government in Nicaragua appears to have behind it an intricate and very different hostile to the continuance of American control in the Nicaraguan ship canal, an enterprise purely American in its inception and sustained entirely by American capital.

When the canal was begun, little attention was paid to it, but now that it is likely to be successful, the American governments wish to have a share in that control or a predominance therein they will have to fight for the Washington newspaper, which cannot afford to permit Europe to have any management in a waterway designed primarily for the use of the nations of this hemisphere.

The revolutionists in Nicaragua should strike against a continental policy in Nicaragua. All nations may use the canal when it is opened, but the very different matter from allowing European governments to place their agents in the Board of Administration of the canal.

Nicaragua's New Government Said to Be Anti-American. New York, June 1.—The World's City of Mexico special says: The Mexican Financier says: "The downfall of the Saca government in Nicaragua appears to have behind it an intricate and very different hostile to the continuance of American control in the Nicaraguan ship canal, an enterprise purely American in its inception and sustained entirely by American capital.

When the canal was begun, little attention was paid to it, but now that it is likely to be successful, the American governments wish to have a share in that control or a predominance therein they will have to fight for the Washington newspaper, which cannot afford to permit Europe to have any management in a waterway designed primarily for the use of the nations of this hemisphere.

The revolutionists in Nicaragua should strike against a continental policy in Nicaragua. All nations may use the canal when it is opened, but the very different matter from allowing European governments to place their agents in the Board of Administration of the canal.

Nicaragua's New Government Said to Be Anti-American. New York, June 1.—The World's City of Mexico special says: The Mexican Financier says: "The downfall of the Saca government in Nicaragua appears to have behind it an intricate and very different hostile to the continuance of American control in the Nicaraguan ship canal, an enterprise purely American in its inception and sustained entirely by American capital.

crash on Friday. found that no support had been placed under the center arch, where the excavation was made and the street. The arch should have been run from the basement and then floor to floor in the front part of the building. The accident was caused by undermining the pillars. The job was a risky one and there are evidences of a careless undermining.

"If the coroner's jury finds a verdict involving criminally it would be my duty to report the matter to the grand jury for investigation and action," said District Attorney Birnie. Indictments will probably follow unless it is true that the blame is so much distributed as to make such a course impossible. This might be the case if it was the coroner's jury that congress is the party to be blamed.

"I have taken no action in this unfortunate matter," said Mr. Birnie. "I cannot do so until after the coroner's inquest, however, send one of my assistants to attend the coroner's inquest and make such suggestions as appear necessary in the course of the investigation and the witnesses to be examined.

"You may be sure that we shall follow the case as far as the law department is to have an investigation of its own. The result of this, taken with the findings of the coroner's inquest, will be of value to a case suggested, an appeal, or a writ against anyone. Between the two investigations it ought to be possible to fix the blame, if there is any."

Comparative Statement from the Treasury Department. WASHINGTON, June 1.—The bureau of statistics in a comparative statement reports to the Treasury department that the values of exports of mineral oils were, as follows: For the month ended May 31 last, $3,758,149, an increase over the month of May 1892 of more than 200 per cent. The corresponding period of 1891 ended May 31 last, $1,011,394, a decrease from the corresponding period of 1892 of more than $2,700,000.

The total values of the exports of cotton in the month ended May 31 last, $10,400,000, an increase over the corresponding period of 1892, of nearly $900,000 over May of last year. For the nine months ended May 31 last, $74,759,578, a decrease over the corresponding period of 1892, of nearly $1,000,000 as compared with the same months of 1892; for the five months ended May 31 last, $35,240,000, an increase over the corresponding period of 1892, of nearly $1,000,000 as compared with the same months of 1892.

The bureau reports the total value of beef, hog and dairy products exported as follows: For the month ended May 31 last, $10,400,000, a falling off of nearly $700,000 as compared with the exports of a similar period of 1892; for the five months ended May 31 last, $52,400,000, an increase over the corresponding period of 1892, of nearly $1,000,000 as compared with the same months of 1892.

Resigned Under Fire. WASHINGTON, June 1.—President Cleveland has received the resignation of Appraiser Cooper at New York. He has notified the board of appraisers, but may not, until a final report is received from the commission investigating the New York customs house on this part of the inquiry.

It is rather unusual for an official to tender his resignation during an ongoing investigation, and it is more unusual when accepted in such circumstances. Intimation is made by the Treasury department officials that the resignation of Cooper is not to be accepted until a final report is received from the commission investigating the New York customs house on this part of the inquiry.

Bravery Rewarded. WASHINGTON, June 1.—Secretary Carlisle has awarded a silver life saving medal to Captain William Jones of the steamer Frigate, plying on the great lakes, for saving the lives of six men and one woman from the targe Sunshine, near Pelee, Lake Erie, in October, 1892. The act was one of great gallantry and Captain Jones, in its performance, displayed the greatest heroism, which with its cargo was worth about $1,500,000.

MAY BE ACQUITTED. Lizzie Borden's Friends Confident She Will Go Free. FALL RIVER, June 1.—All day long talk has been plentiful on the subject of the Borden murders, and there can be no denial that it is the general opinion about town that the prosecution thus far has a very weak case. This opinion is being strengthened by rumors current here to the effect that Lizzie Borden's counsel will shortly explode a bomb shell into the camp of the authorities.

The hatchet incident, with its accompanying denial, is a source of much comfort to the friends of the prisoner, the special of the police authorities are by no means demoralized. Officer Mulready's strange, unexpected statement about finding the hatchet, is, they say, in keeping with the general tone of the testimony given by him before in court. He has been known several times to take a position in less important cases in defiance of the fact that five or six of the officers and witnesses testified positively that he was wrong. One of the police authorities thinks that Officer Mulready's statement says he will not advise the district attorney, but favors an acquittal.

The matter of wrapping up the hatchet, testified to in two ways by Medley and Desmond, can be easily explained. They say both men did wrap up the hatchet, Desmond wrapped it in a cloth and Medley, who afterwards opened it in the cellar to show another officer. It is a frequently expressed opinion that the defense has built a case on the fact that the hatchet was set off before the case is finally submitted.

By the events of tomorrow it will be decided whether the government shall go sailing on the sea of doubt, or whether it will feel happy. It is believed, and with reason, that upon this testimony the government largely relies, and while in the hands of the jury, the government necessarily take the stand to refute the statements made at this time under pressure, or to let the jury stand for the facts as they are. It is believed that the jury here these first statements nothing which can be said at this day can counteract the effect of the previous statements. It is authoritatively stated tonight that the case is just begun and that the medical expert testimony will take us quite a long time to get to the bottom of the case for a longer period than any witness yet, and that at least two weeks may be confidently looked forward to before the close.

Will Make a Searching Inquiry. Deputy Coroner Shafer was engaged today in making preparations for the inquest which will be continuing on Tuesday and suppressed several witnesses and it is his intention to secure all the witnesses to the case. Those to be examined tomorrow are: W. T. Richardson of the record and pension department; Building Inspector Entwistle, superintendent of record and pension department; J. E. Sins, clerk; T. Lynch, bricklayer, and Robert Clarkson and D. T. Cissell, contractors.

Evidences of Bungling Work. Patrick Doyle, a contractor for forty years in Washington, says that five months ago he was sent for by the officials of the record and pension division. War department. "They wanted me," said Mr. Doyle, "to take the charge of the old structure for the stand for putting in an electric plant. I would not touch the job. I have several reasons for this refusal. The first was, that it was a risky and dangerous undertaking; secondly, they did not have any plans or specifications for the work; thirdly, there was no civil engineer or expert to supervise the operations; and the contractor was supposed to go ahead at random or in a haphazard manner; fourthly, they were ignoring about the amount they wanted to pay for the work, and evidently desired it done in a cheap-john fashion. For these very good reasons I kept my hands off the work, and in the light of recent events, I am glad I did, for today perhaps I would feel like an assassin."

I examined the pit today into which the mangled victims were precipitated in the

WILL ASK FOR NEW BIDS

Secretary Carlisle Determines on a Plan for the Omaha Federal Building.

BIDDERS MAY OFFER ANY SORT OF STONE

Free-Of-All-Kind Laid Down—Supervising Architect to Have the Final Say in the Matter—Moser's Promise is Finally Rejected.

WASHINGTON (DEPARTMENT OF THE BEE.) 213 FOURTH STREET, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1. Secretary Carlisle has decided to re-advertise bids for the construction of the Omaha federal building. The new advertisement will not specify any particular stone. Proposals will be drawn up at once, but it is probable that a new advertisement will not be sent out for at least sixty days. Under the law the selection of material is left entirely with the supervising architect. It is understood that a private offer has been received at the department from a firm of Nebraska quarries, who agree to furnish granite gratis if the government will furnish the stone. All the officials of the treasury as well as Secretary Carlisle have determined that Omaha's new federal building shall be constructed of granite.

Moser Must Face the Music. Judge Lambertson left tonight for New York to visit his sister, who has been ill. He will go from New York to Chicago to attend the World's fair. Judge Lambertson is a correspondent of THE BEE and has been very interested in the efforts that have been made to compromise the Mosher case.

Mr. Mosher has been here, went to New York last night. It is reported that he received so little encouragement from Attorney General Olney in his efforts to secure a pardon for the Mosher case that he will not return. Mr. Mosher came here as attorney for the depositors of the late Capital National bank, to urge Attorney General Olney to accept the offer of compromise which meant the payment of $100,000 for the bank and the dismissal or amelioration of the prosecution against Mosher, so that he would not be imprisoned. Several propositions have been made in this direction but the Department has shown no disposition at any time to accept the overtures of Mosher, representative, and it may be stated officially that the federal authorities will go on with the case on the lines laid out.

Senator Kyle will be here this week to take a hand in the district campaign for the South Dakota district. Attorney Ezra W. Miller is already here. The vacancy in the office of marshal of the district will probably be filled at once. The district clerk, J. C. Peemiller, for the place. Colonel Mark W. Shaefer, register of the Waterbury land office, is a standing candidate for the position of chief clerk of the district. Peemiller, chief clerk of the district, and Peter Coughman of Walworth county, democratic in alliance for governor last election.

P. S. H. MANNA FOR THE HUNGRY. Grover the Dedicated Lets a Flood of Hope in on Waiting Democrats. WASHINGTON, June 1.—[Special to THE BEE.]—The appointment of three consuls general to the Hawaiian islands, which days last week shows that the president has determined to make peremptory disposition of the valuable patronage at disposal in this bureau. Daniel Webster Maratta may not find a consul general's residence at Melbourne as satisfactory to a gentleman of his marked democratic instincts as the internal revenue collectorship he sought, but he will receive compensation of $4,500 a year, and the allowance for mileage and traveling expenses will have every opportunity to profit by a four years' residence on the Yarra-Yarra. Moreover, the fact that this appointment remains undecided is a standing invitation for a preference from the field of local politics in North Dakota will doubtless prove as gratifying to the local politicians as it is to the state as it must for similar considerations to the incalculable Jim of the North Platte.

Most notably is the growth of the feeling of resentment on the part of the public against the persons responsible for the wreck. In advance of the verdict of the court's jury and before the court of inquiry, ordered by the War department, there is no general agreement upon this point, but the public are rather indiscriminate in condemning everybody who has anything to do with the control of the wrecked building from congress down to the very laborers who were digging in the cellar when the crash came.

Condition of the Injured. The injured now in the hospitals are, with the exception of two, in a fair way to recover. The serious cases are those of J. P. McCormack of Wisconsin and Frank Metcalf of Massachusetts. McCormack received a depressed fracture of the ribs and has been in a critical condition. Death is likely to come, but it is very doubtful whether he will survive. Metcalf sustained a dislocated hip and was doing well as could be expected under the circumstances, until pneumonia developed and he was unable to now able to predict the result in his case.

F. W. Test of Illinois is getting well and will be removed to his home tomorrow. The Amos of Iowa is improving, but is still in a serious condition. P. J. Pennington of Alabama will recover. R. M. Smith of Connecticut shows an improvement over yesterday.

H. B. Esterling of Kansas, W. S. Gustin of Ohio, E. Lezer of Mississippi, Captain J. B. Doved of Indiana and J. H. Thomas of Missouri are all doing well.

F. V. Calvert of Missouri has been removed to his home and is steadily improving. John Baker, one of the injured, is rapidly recovering, but A. P. Whitney is at home suffering greatly and is in a precarious condition.

Will Make a Searching Inquiry. Deputy Coroner Shafer was engaged today in making preparations for the inquest which will be continuing on Tuesday and suppressed several witnesses and it is his intention to secure all the witnesses to the case. Those to be examined tomorrow are: W. T. Richardson of the record and pension department; Building Inspector Entwistle, superintendent of record and pension department; J. E. Sins, clerk; T. Lynch, bricklayer, and Robert Clarkson and D. T. Cissell, contractors.

Evidences of Bungling Work. Patrick Doyle, a contractor for forty years in Washington, says that five months ago he was sent for by the officials of the record and pension division. War department. "They wanted me," said Mr. Doyle, "to take the charge of the old structure for the stand for putting in an electric plant. I would not touch the job. I have several reasons for this refusal. The first was, that it was a risky and dangerous undertaking; secondly, they did not have any plans or specifications for the work; thirdly, there was no civil engineer or expert to supervise the operations; and the contractor was supposed to go ahead at random or in a haphazard manner; fourthly, they were ignoring about the amount they wanted to pay for the work, and evidently desired it done in a cheap-john fashion. For these very good reasons I kept my hands off the work, and in the light of recent events, I am glad I did, for today perhaps I would feel like an assassin."

I examined the pit today into which the mangled victims were precipitated in the

WANTS THE GATES OPENED

Cardinal Gibbons on Sunday Closing of the World's Fair.

TO SHUT UP THE GROUNDS ON THE SABBATH. He Says, Would Leave Many Visitors Open to Temptation on that Day.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The World will tomorrow publish an authorized interview with his eminence, Cardinal James Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore and primate of the American Catholic church in regard to the proposed closing of the World's fair on Sunday. Cardinal Gibbons is quoted as saying: "When the question was first brought up, I gave it as my opinion that it would not be advisable to close the fair for the entire Sunday. I favored opening it Sunday afternoon for many good reasons, which I have mentioned in my very strong and well founded opinion. In the first place we would not go as far as the upholders of the Puritan Sunday, such as I condemn the lax observance of the Lord's day in European countries, but we would leave the Lord's day to be not only a day of rest and religious observance, but a day on which innocent recreation is allowable. If a visit to the fair comes within the limit, the opening of the fair to provide innocent recreation. Sunday afternoons, cannot be considered a deterioration of the day. Having performed the religious duties required of them on the morning, our Catholic people are free then to spend the day in such recreation as becomes the Sunday."

Cardinal Gibbons is quoted as saying: "When the question was first brought up, I gave it as my opinion that it would not be advisable to close the fair for the entire Sunday. I favored opening it Sunday afternoon for many good reasons, which I have mentioned in my very strong and well founded opinion. In the first place we would not go as far as the upholders of the Puritan Sunday, such as I condemn the lax observance of the Lord's day in European countries, but we would leave the Lord's day to be not only a day of rest and religious observance, but a day on which innocent recreation is allowable. If a visit to the fair comes within the limit, the opening of the fair to provide innocent recreation. Sunday afternoons, cannot be considered a deterioration of the day. Having performed the religious duties required of them on the morning, our Catholic people are free then to spend the day in such recreation as becomes the Sunday."

Cardinal Gibbons is quoted as saying: "When the question was first brought up, I gave it as my opinion that it would not be advisable to close the fair for the entire Sunday. I favored opening it Sunday afternoon for many good reasons, which I have mentioned in my very strong and well founded opinion. In the first place we would not go as far as the upholders of the Puritan Sunday, such as I condemn the lax observance of the Lord's day in European countries, but we would leave the Lord's day to be not only a day of rest and religious observance, but a day on which innocent recreation is allowable. If a visit to the fair comes within the limit, the opening of the fair to provide innocent recreation. Sunday afternoons, cannot be considered a deterioration of the day. Having performed the religious duties required of them on the morning, our Catholic people are free then to spend the day in such recreation as becomes the Sunday."

Cardinal Gibbons is quoted as saying: "When the question was first brought up, I gave it as my opinion that it would not be advisable to close the fair for the entire Sunday. I favored opening it Sunday afternoon for many good reasons, which I have mentioned in my very strong and well founded opinion. In the first place we would not go as far as the upholders of the Puritan Sunday, such as I condemn the lax observance of the Lord's day in European countries, but we would leave the Lord's day to be not only a day of rest and religious observance, but a day on which innocent recreation is allowable. If a visit to the fair comes within the limit, the opening of the fair to provide innocent recreation. Sunday afternoons, cannot be considered a deterioration of the day. Having performed the religious duties required of them on the morning, our Catholic people are free then to spend the day in such recreation as becomes the Sunday."

Cardinal Gibbons is quoted as saying: "When the question was first brought up, I gave it as my opinion that it would not be advisable to close the fair for the entire Sunday. I favored opening it Sunday afternoon for many good reasons, which I have mentioned in my very strong and well founded opinion. In the first place we would not go as far as the upholders of the Puritan Sunday, such as I condemn the lax observance of the Lord's day in European countries, but we would leave the Lord's day to be not only a day of rest and religious observance, but a day on which innocent recreation is allowable. If a visit to the fair comes within the limit, the opening of the fair