

FLYERS FOR THE OMAHA MEET

Secretary Tutthill Arranging for the Attendance of Some Splendid Strings. VEDETE AND SHAMROCK ARE ENTERED.

A. Williams of St. Louis Will Bring the Best of His Stables to the Grounds—Other Interests Are to Be Represented.

J. A. Tutthill, secretary of the Omaha Jockey club, has just returned from a successful trip in the way of enlisting running horses for the meet which is to take place July 4, 5 and 6 under the auspices of the club.

At St. Joseph, Mr. Tutthill met A. Williams, of St. Louis stock-broder, whose big farm at Edgar, Neb., where he formerly resided, is one of the best known in the country. Mr. Williams expressed himself as being desirous of entering some of his horses in the first meet with which Mr. Tutthill was connected, and when he was informed that there was to be a good meet here in July he didn't do a thing but agree to come here with Vedette, the horse who ran ahead in the mile-and-an-eighth run in Chicago, making the last mile of it in 1:41 1/2; Shamrock, with his five-eighths record of 1:40 1/2, made at Gotham; Minora, the horse that went a mile flat in 1:43; Palmetto Templeton, with a three-quarter record of 1:16; Lyander, who won three-quarters in 1:17 1/2, the fastest time ever made on the Kansas City track; Dan Farrell, the winner of three races at St. Louis; J. G. I., a St. winner, who has run in eleven seconds this year, and several rapid 3-year-olds, all of which have taken place.

Three other Kansas City and St. Louis stables will also be here, and it looks as if there would be a race for every good horse that will come.

Mr. Tutthill says that Nebraska and Iowa-bred horses have run faster than they are running at Kansas City and St. Joseph, and that the standard of the Omaha meet will be one of the best of the season.

In connection with the running meet it may be noted that the fourth of July celebration is to take place at the fair grounds, and it is the purpose of the management to combine a racing and running meet with an ordinary celebration.

Latonia Conditions Perfect. CINCINNATI, June 19.—The weather and track at Latonia today were all that could be desired.

First race, purse, three-fourths mile, Annie Elizabeth (2 to 1) won, Soulely (5 to 1) second, Lancelot (4 to 1) third. Time: 1:15 1/2.

Second race, three-fourths mile, Bob (6 to 1) won, Tom (2 to 1) second, Coedance (9 to 5) third. Time: 1:24 1/2.

Third race, three-fourths mile, Lulu T (8 to 5) won, Preference (3 to 1) second, Luma Deane (3 to 1) third. Time: 1:30.

Fourth race, three-fourths mile, Mabelle (4 to 1) won, Fay (5 to 1) second, Captain Rees (8 to 1) third. Time: 1:30 1/2.

Fifth race, mile and seventy yards, Sister Mary (4 to 5) won, The Reeper (5 to 2) second, Response (4 to 1) third. Time: 1:45 1/2.

Sixth race, one mile, Peabody (4 to 1) won, Forest (6 to 1) second, Old Pepper (4 to 1) third. Time: 1:45 1/2.

Seventh race, three-fourths mile, Aurora (3 to 5) won, John Berkeley (3 to 1) second, Coedance (4 to 1) third. Time: 1:30 1/2.

Good Weather at Sheephead. NEW YORK, June 19.—The weather at Sheephead bay today was hot and uncomfortable. The track was in perfect condition.

First race, five and a half furlongs, Correction (6 to 1) won, Blue Bird (10 to 1) second, Stomel (8 to 5) third. Time: 1:49.

Second race, one mile, Antagona (80 to 1) won, Kinglet (8 to 5) second, Colt (40 to 1) third. Time: 1:41 1/2.

Third race, one mile and a furlong, Count (20 to 1) won, Gloaming (8 to 1) second, Kidder (6 to 1) third. Time: 1:52 1/2.

Fourth race, one mile, Now or Never (4 to 5) won, Sir Arthur (12 to 1) second, Anna B (20 to 1) third. Time: 1:45 1/2.

Fifth race, five furlongs, Cataract (24 to 1) won, Pizarro (4 to 1) second, Glee (2 to 1) third. Time: 1:31 1/2.

Glalloping at Gloucester. GLOUCESTER, N. J., June 19.—Results: First race, mile and an eighth; Telephone (6 to 1) won, Ed McGinnis (15 to 1) second, Myrtle (10 to 1) third. Time: 1:45 1/2.

Second race, four and a half furlongs; Artillery (4 to 1) won, Robin Hood (8 to 5) second, Blue Bird (10 to 1) third. Time: 1:45 1/2.

Third race, five-eighths mile; Express (4 to 1) won, St. Hubert (8 to 1) second, Emblem (8 to 1) third. Time: 1:45 1/2.

Fourth race, one mile; Drizzle (4 to 5) won, Lull (12 to 1) second, Hour (8 to 5) third. Time: 1:45 1/2.

Fifth race, four and a half furlongs; Deserter (20 to 1) won, Duke of Gloster (8 to 1) second, Duke of Gloster (8 to 1) third. Time: 1:57 1/2.

Sixth race, six furlongs; Miss Aggie (8 to 5) won, Vulture (10 to 1) second, Mark Stone (8 to 1) third. Time: 1:44 1/2.

Results at St. Louis. ST. LOUIS, June 19.—Results: First race, six furlongs; Advance (5 to 2) won, Hay Market (10 to 1) second, Adam Johnson (2 to 1) third. Time: 1:16 1/2.

Second race, five furlongs; Ed Smith (3 to 1) won, Charlie (8 to 5) second, Ed Smith (3 to 1) third. Time: 1:10.

Third race, five and a half furlongs; J. V. Brock (2 to 1) won, Ed Smith (3 to 1) second, Dr. Parker (8 to 1) third. Time: 1:17.

ST. LOUIS, MON. BATTERIES: McGINNIS, McSHERRY, GUNSON AND BRITTON.

Cincinnati, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

Philadelphia, June 19.—Errors by Grim and Pinkney were the only ones in the game for Cincinnati. Both pitchers were touched freely, but Cincinnati gave better support to Dwyer than was received by Stratton.

SATOLI, SOMEWHAT SILENT

Arrival in Omaha of the Papal Delegate on a Western Tour. BISHOP BONACUM WILL BE DISCUSSED

Story of the Troubles in the Lincoln Diocese—What Dr. O'Gorman Says on Several Subjects—The School Question.

Mr. Satoli, the papal delegate to the United States, arrived in Omaha yesterday. He was accompanied by Dr. O'Gorman, of Washington. Immediately upon their arrival in Omaha they were escorted to the episcopal residence, where they are the guests of Bishop Scannell.

It is stated somewhat authoritatively that the visit of Mr. Satoli at the present time is significant. Once before he planned a visit here, but abandoned it. Bishop Bonacum's trouble at Lincoln will doubtless be discussed, as a number of Lincoln priests arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. Satoli visited to speak on the matter yesterday. The papal delegate leaves for St. Paul tomorrow night.

Satoli is Reticent. Mr. Satoli dislikes notoriety. He also has an aversion to talking to reporters. A press badge, to him, is a signal for rigid reticence. In addition to this he pleads a lack of proficiency in the use of the English language. Dr. O'Gorman therefore faces most reporters who seek to interrogate the papal delegate, and as an interpreter, Dr. O'Gorman was interviewed by a Bee reporter yesterday. The statement he gave is as follows: "I have seen him in work out here think him a phenom."

Bloomington's Phenomenal Pacer. Bloomington, Ill., June 19.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A game of lacrosse for the state championship was played here this afternoon between Kearney and Lincoln. The score stood: Kearney, 3; Lincoln, 0. The game was played on a very hot day, and the players were very fatigued. Mockett of Lincoln had his match in playing against Huston, and the captain of the Lincoln team says that Huston could not play to the best of his ability in the state. The visitors put up a pretty game, but they were no match for the champions.

Kearney Won the Game. KEARNEY, Neb., June 19.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—A game of lacrosse for the state championship was played here this afternoon between Kearney and Lincoln. The score stood: Kearney, 3; Lincoln, 0. The game was played on a very hot day, and the players were very fatigued. Mockett of Lincoln had his match in playing against Huston, and the captain of the Lincoln team says that Huston could not play to the best of his ability in the state. The visitors put up a pretty game, but they were no match for the champions.

Wants to Fight Anybody. BREWSTER, Neb., June 19.—To the Sporting Editor of THE BEE: I hereby challenge to fight a finish fight any 130-pound man in the city of Nebraska, give or take two pounds, for $100 to $200, on my own terms, to show that I mean business. I have posted $25 with a well known sporting man of this city. I am, N. J. AUSTIN.

Champions Were Defeated. In THE BEE's report of the tennis game at Young Men's Christian Association park Saturday between Young and Fosbender against Cullingham and Batlin, the state champions, it was stated that the latter won. They did not, but instead were defeated. The score was 6-4, 8-6.

Ryan-Dawson Fight On. The fight between Tom Ryan and George Dawson, which was scheduled by the Chicago Columbian club for August, is off. Billy Madden, Dawson's manager, having withdrawn his $1,000 forfeit made last Friday. The fight is now scheduled for August 1st at the Australian hall, all of the Chicagoan's club he desires.

Cleaned it Out. A lively blaze was discovered in the one-story frame building at 117 North Fifteenth street by Block Watchman George Hyde at 1:30 o'clock this morning. He promptly pulled the box at Fifteenth and Douglas streets and the fire was extinguished before it had made much progress in the building. The store is occupied by the Beyer Vortrait company, and the principal damage was to their stock which was partially soaked with water. They had a quantity of finished work on hand most of which was ruined.

Those Cherokee Bonds. FORT GIBSON, I. T., June 19.—The announcement Saturday that the Cherokee Strip bonds had been sold was premature. A number of bids have been received, but no acceptance of any have been made. The Chicago and St. Louis bonds are in the hands of the tribe before August 1.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Dr. Betts came in from Denver yesterday. Bishop Von Scheele leaves for the west today. Ex-Governor Samuel Merrill was in Omaha yesterday. F. Torney and J. A. Harris of Broken Bow were in Omaha yesterday.

Mr. Satoli arrived in the city yesterday and is a guest at the Episcopal residence. Mr. Victor Rosewater, having completed his work at Columbia college, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Estes of Grand Island are visiting their son, Will J. Estes of North Twentieth street.

Attorney James Ledwith, formerly of this city, has returned to his law office in town, this county.

Mrs. Etta Matheson, cashier in the post-office, has returned from a three weeks' visit to the World's fair.

Mrs. Snow of Onawa, Ia., mother of Henry A. Snow of the Omaha customs office; is visiting her son's family on Burdette street, Clifton hill.

George Hines, formerly of this city, and now assistant superintendent of terminals in the Union Pacific Transportation department, is back on a visit.

Dr. G. Ivan Pohok of Kansas City, formerly of this city, is in Omaha. The doctor is now connected with the medical department of the Missouri Pacific railway.

Will D. Wright and George J. Smith, representative business men of Sheridan, Wyo., are in the city on business matters. Their reports of Sheridan's growth and prospects are very encouraging.

Mrs. Carrie Cummings, police matron, returned today from an eastern trip and resumed her duties at the city headquarters. Mrs. Cummings spent a week at the fair in Chicago and is well pleased with the exhibition.

Councilman McLeane and City Clerk John Gack, departed for Chicago Saturday. Yesterday they attended divine worship and listened to sacred music by a brass band from the World's fair grounds. They will be absent about two days.

Mr. Charles Rosewater returned yesterday from Cornell college. He will spend most of the summer vacation at home. Mr. Rosewater was recently elected editor of the college paper at Cornell, a position which is by no means a sinecure.

At the Mercer: George Lewis, New York; G. E. Goss, Rock Island; W. Craig, Chicago; C. O. Shumway, Lyons; J. O. Hallow, Chadron; C. H. Bruckman, Savannah, Ga.; Miss Rose Crate, Beatrice; H. W. Greenwood, Fortia; W. Burke, Salt Lake; A. Desjardins, McCarty; Denver; L. S. Metcalf; E. T. Lyon, St. Louis; E. J. Cooper, Deadwood; I. M. Wilson, New York; W. W. York, C. T. Wright, San Francisco.

New York, June 19.—[Special Telegram to THE BEE.]—John J. Moore, D. White, and J. A. Anderson, of the Lincoln and Lincoln, Lincoln; G. MacFarlane, Savannah.

Straw hats, Wessell's, 310 S. 15th st.

AT THE WILL OF THE BISHOP, WHILE PASTORS OF OTHER CHURCHES ARE IRREVOCABLELY EXCEPT FOR THE COMING OF THE BISHOP, AND IN FAVOR, AND APPOINTMENT TO IT IS CONSIDERED A PROMOTION. IT IS A FAVOR AND IS RARELY GIVEN TO A PRIEST FROM ANOTHER DIOCESE.

Thomas Wollett's Search for His Wife and Brother—Gamblers Set a Trap and Got Caught in It—Minor Police Items.

Thomas Wollett, a freeman on the Iowa Central railroad, was in Marshalltown, Ia., in the city looking for his wife, who eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

STOLE HIS BROTHER'S WIFE

Unnatural Affection and Its Startling Sequel. HOW A HAPPY IOWA HOME WAS RUINED

Thomas Wollett's Search for His Wife and Brother—Gamblers Set a Trap and Got Caught in It—Minor Police Items.

Thomas Wollett, a freeman on the Iowa Central railroad, was in Marshalltown, Ia., in the city looking for his wife, who eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where he has since resided. Three children were the result of this union and Wollett looked forward with pleasure on his return trips to his home in Marshalltown. But one day eloped from the above city on Friday. Wollett sought the aid and advice of Chief of Police Seavey and related quite a tale of woe.

Several years ago he married a bright little maiden in Marshall county, Iowa, and began married life in Marshalltown, where