

ORMONDE, KING OF THE TURF

Monarch of Racers and Prince of Sires Holds a Lease in Omaha.

SKETCH OF A NOBLE RACING ANIMAL

His Unbroken Record in Contests with Other Cracks—Now the Head of a Great Army of Priceders—Progeny—Daily Sports.

The Palace stables are sheltering something like $250,000 worth of thoroughbred horse flesh, in the shape of the great imported English stallion, Ormonde, a half dozen thoroughbred English brood mares, with foals at side, and a number of American-bred race horses belonging to W. O. B. Macdonough, the celebrated and wealthy horseman of San Francisco, Cal. These horses are enroute from New York to Frisco, Ormonde and the English brood mares having arrived in New York from England, where they were recently purchased by the late Duke of Devonshire, and are a part of the Californian runners' stable and have been running eastward since they were shipped to the coast, having been shipped from Jersey City last Tuesday night and arriving here yesterday morning. They are comfortably quartered at the Palace in neatly cleaned box stalls and will remain here until this evening, after which they will be taken to the track, being the only stop over they will make between here and their destination.

So far this valuable gang has withstood the fatigues of their journey remarkably well, each and every one of them being in the highest form of condition, and as full of life and energy as they ever were in the stables. Henry Lossing, the stud groom of Ormonde, said that the great stallion, as well as the mares and their foals, were equally fortunate in making the trip across the Atlantic, all of them being in full health and prime condition on landing here.

Personality of a King.

Ormonde is by Ben d'Or, out of Lily Agnes, and was bred in the stud of the great sire on earth. He is a beautiful bay with black points, of good size and noble conformation. His deep chest is broad shouldered, and his short coupling indicates the enormous strength he is known to possess. His head is moulded after the most perfect type, and in every detail he is a grandly and beautifully built horse, exhibiting all the essential qualities of a champion. He stands six hands and one inch and weighs in the neighborhood of 1,200 pounds. As a race horse Ormonde left the track unbeaten, and in his long list of victories are numbered such events as the 2,000 guinea steeplechase, the English derby, the Grand National, the Epsom derby, with Archer up, in 1886 and in 1887 the Hardwick stakes, £400, as a yearling, which he won by a wide margin. At this time he was owned by the Duke of Westminster and was hauled off that his strength for breeding purposes might not be deteriorated by racing. The purchase was made at that without the California turfmen ever having seen the animal, all negotiations having been made by cable.

His Notable Value is in the exclusive charge of Henry Lossing, the stud groom, who is as watchful over his welfare as a mother is of her child. Lossing is a typical Englishman, with the typical English face, mutton-chop whiskers, aldermanic patch and all. He is with the priceless animal day and night, but especially in the morning, exhibiting him, especially to horsemen, and in a quiet way telling of his master's qualities. Before being engaged by General Slocum, Lossing was the head groom in the stables of George Alexander Baird, alias Squire Abington, who came over to this country with the late Mitchell and Jim Hall six months ago, who died in New Orleans last March of acute pneumonia, contracted at the ring side of the Fitzsimmons fight. The purchase has been engaged by Macdonough at a salary of $5,000 a year to continue in his position of stud groom to the great stallion in this country.

Among the imported thoroughbred brood mares at the Palace and belonging to the California stud are the following: A young money winner, with a beautiful foal by Sener by her side; Serpentina, with foal at side by Enterprise, who is today one of England's greatest brood mares, with foal by side by Enterprise; Kissinetrout, with foal by side by Enterprise; and Beau Brunnet, with foal by side by Windflower, Miradonna, Cottage Girl and Countess Landgrave in England, and served by the king of sires.

Among the American bred runners are Monowah, Grande, Miss Annie and Flurry, all of whom have proven winners on the eastern tracks but Flurry, whose intractability has raised her chances as a money-getter.

The two carloads of horses are under the immediate charge of E. D. Sweeney, who has assisting him a number of no less than fourteen men, excluding the purchase boys. Many interested horsemen paid their respects to the highbred animals yesterday.

RACING RESULTS.

Judges at the St. Louis Fair Grounds Track. ST. LOUIS, Sept. 1.—The judges made a peculiar decision at the fair grounds today, and the penitentiary registered a big kick. While the horses were at the post in the second race, a 2-year-old colt, Can Reed, bolted into the place of fence, and was run through with a piece of timber, and died a few minutes afterwards. The judge ordered all bets off and allowed twenty minutes for a new book. This proceeding the bookmakers claimed was wrong, as the horses were in the hands of the stake, and according to the rules, all bets should stand. Can Reed was heavily played, and the decision proved popular with the crowd.

First race, six furlongs: Prince Leon (2 to 1) won, followed by 2 to 3 second, Hillsboro, 12 to 1 third.

Second race, five furlongs: Prince Leon (2 to 1) won, followed by 2 to 3 second, Hillsboro, 12 to 1 third.

Third race, four furlongs: Fabel Gray (even) won, April Fool (2 to 1) second, Aunt Lida (20 to 1) third. Time: 50 1/2.

Fourth race, six furlongs: Safe Home (5 to 2) won, Cicero (7 to 1) second, Lida (10 to 1) third. Time: 1:14 1/2.

DUN'S REVIEW OF THE WEEK

Everything in the Business World Indicates a Return of Confidence.

SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT NOTICEABLE

Failures Diminishing and the Number of Suspended Institutions Resuming Increasing—A Satisfactory Progress Toward Good Times.

New York, Sept. 1.—R. G. Dun & Co's. weekly review of trade will say: The money markets throughout the country are healthy, failures diminishing in number and resumption by a number of the banks and other establishments illustrate the general tendency toward a revival of confidence. Manufacturers do not yet feel the upward impulse and exhibit, on the whole, rather less signs of improvement than a week ago. The record of the week has been mainly one of satisfactory progress toward recovery. Wheat was affected to some extent by the Vienna report, though it was presently realized that the estimates as to this country were no more reliable than those of the Department of Agriculture, and that the estimate as a whole gave no assurance that the heavy surplus of old wheat would be required. Corn yielded a little with more satisfactory crop reports, but in spite of better advices from the more important cotton producing states the price of that staple was advanced an eighth of 1 per cent.

The stock market closed with a decline, without any allowance for such a decline in consumption as has been witnessed during the past half year, apparently renders it probable that there will be a decline in price for a year to come. The stock of American at home and abroad is about 1,800,000 bales.

Industrial Situation.—The industrial situation needs but little. The signs of improvement observed a week ago are scarcely sustained, for while textiles and thirteen iron and steel concerns have resumed after stopping, fifty-five textile and twenty-one iron and steel concerns have stopped. In addition thirty-five others have reduced working time and several have reduced working forces, and a large number of works, including most of the iron and steel, have reduced working time to 10 to 20 per cent. A more cheerful tone is seen in iron and steel markets, but the price of iron does not improve, nor are orders sufficient to cause general resumption of work. The shipments of boots and shoes from Boston show a decrease for the last week of 26 per cent, as compared with the corresponding week of last year.

The anxiety about money has been greatly relieved and scarcely any premium is now paid for credit. The feeling among concerns which required cash for payment of hands has stopped, while many others are using checks and other substitutes for cash.

Imports and Exports.

The decrease in imports at New York in August was about 30 per cent, while exports from here there was a small increase of 30 per cent. Since the advance in rates by the Bank of England, the value of gold for shipment to this country has increased, though $7,750,000 arrived during the week. Disbursements on September 1 are about $2,000,000, and the receipts are about $1,000,000. The balance in the Treasury is about $100,000,000. The failure number during the past week in the United States was 148 for the same week last year, and in Canada twenty-two, against 120 for the same week last year. In the eastern states of firms failing in the United States only ten were employing capital exceeding $100,000 each, and only sixty-two others exceeding $50,000 each. In the eastern states the failures numbered 149, and the western 142, in the southern sixty-five, while improvements are noticed in each section.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Omaha and Other Business Centers Showing Much Improvement. New York, Sept. 1.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: The clouds over the general business of the country have continued to break away in the second week in which actual improvement has been recorded, by an increase in volume and distribution of merchandise reported at Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha. More travelers have been sent out from these and other points, and manufacturing centers, as well as larger eastern centers, have, in a number of instances, begun shipping orders without delay.

Field Day at Sportsman's Park.

The second game of the series between the Young Men's Christian association and the Nonpareils will take place at Sportsman's park this afternoon, commencing at 3:30 sharp. Both teams will be out in their fullest strength and a rattling ball game is expected. In addition to the ball game a good card of athletic sports will be given, including a 100-yard sprint, high jump, hurdle and kick, two hops and a jump, putting the shot and half mile race, tumbling and a game of basket ball.

TRouble is Feared.

Louisville & Nashville Shop Hands at Danger Go Out on a Strike. CINCINNATI, Sept. 1.—Up north the officers of the Louisville & Nashville have received no advice of a strike at any point between this city and New Orleans. The chiefs of the railway employees organizations are in session at Louisville and orders of strike when issued will emanate from there.

Suspension of a Denver Bank.

DENVER, Sept. 1.—The Denver Savings Bank, with a capital of $500,000, today assigned and will liquidate. The International Trust company of this city is the assignee. The liabilities are $670,000 and the assets are $620,000, consisting of $120,000 in cash and $500,000 in notes and securities, which are perfectly good but cannot be realized upon on account of the present depression. Since the middle of July, when the trouble in banking circles began here, there has been a steady withdrawal with few deposits. The directors and stockholders are prominent and wealthy men and the depositors will be paid dollar for dollar.

Street Car Employees Strike.

JUDGE GOGGINS' DECISION

It is Still the Subject of Much Comment in Chicago.

HE EXPLAINS HIS CONDUCT ON THE BENCH

His Quarrel with Judge Brentano and What Brought it About—Ex-Congressman Mason's Opinion of the Sunday Opening Decision.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Scandal was piled up today in the litigation over the World's fair Sunday closing. Judge Goggins for the first time told his side of the story at length. Judge Goggins' remarkable explanation of his unprecedented decision in favor of the Sunday opening of the fair, is:

"In my opinion it is a judge's duty to decide a case without reference to what either German or American, Scandinavian or Irish newspapers thought of it, but simply as to where the right and justice lay. I was within my rights when I kicked Judge Brentano, but the bench with me; and kick him off I did. I wanted no more of his advice. Judge Brentano is responsible for the fracas yesterday. He Judge Dancy has myself had met and consulted about the case. Judge Brentano and I agreed that the case should be decided on the merits, and on Sunday, keeping the fair open on Sunday, should be decided. Judge Dancy thought it should not.
