

DISCREDIT REPORTS OF WAR

Japanese and Chinese Legations at London Have Not Heard of Hostilities.

WOULD PLEASE SOME OF THE OFFICIALS

They Express Their Delight at the Prospects of Fighting in the Immediate Future—Details of the Negotiations.

LONDON, July 22.—The London reporter of the Associated press visited the Japanese legation here to learn if possible whether the report was true that war had been declared between China and Japan because of the difference between the two powers in regard to Korea.

At the Chinese legation it was stated no news of a declaration of war had been received. It was added if the rumor were true the first report of it would come from Japan and not from China.

Japan had rejected the proposals made by the British minister, although the latter had declared a peaceful settlement of the dispute.

The officials when further questioned, said they had discredited the rumor that war had been declared. Inquiries were also made at the foreign office, but it was stated that no news had been received there.

A telegram from Yokohama received tonight states the acceptance by Korea of the reforms proposed by Japan is conditional upon the withdrawal of the Japanese troops from Korea.

MAKING WARLIKE PREPARATIONS.

China Preparing to Fight and Japan is Not Far Behind.

SHANGHAI, July 22.—China continues to make preparations to assert her claimed rights in Korea and from the present indications it is judged war is inevitable unless Japan recedes from the position she has hitherto maintained.

Orders were recently issued for 12,000 troops to prepare for departure to Korea. The preparations were hurriedly completed and on Friday the soldiers were ordered to march to the front.

Warlike preparations are being made in all directions. A strong body of troops will shortly leave for Ochof for the Li Chou Island. It is the government's intention to send a fleet to the coast of Korea.

TO AFRICA INSTEAD OF AMERICA.

Plan of Minister Crisp with Reference to Future Immigration.

ROME, July 22.—In the senate today Prime Minister Crisp in the course of a speech referred to the recent capture of Kassala by the Italian forces. He announced reinforcements were not required to enable the Italians at Kassala to maintain their position.

TO TRY CARNOT'S SLAVERS THIS WEEK.

Police and Military Guards Will Surround the Court House Daily.

PARIS, July 22.—Remarkable precautions will be taken during the trial of Santo Caserio, the murderer of President Carnot. The trial will begin in Lyons on the 28th.

ONE THOUSAND WENT DOWN.

That Number of Lives Lost with Columbia.

ODESSA, July 22.—It is now certain 1,000 persons went down with the Italian Columbia which collided with the Russian steamer in the Black sea a few days ago. All the evidence badly incriminates the Russian steamer who deliberately abandoned the Columbia and her crew and passengers to their fate.

TROUBLE IN ECUADOR.

Senate Approves the Suspension of the Interest on the Foreign Debt.

LONDON, July 22.—The Ecuadorian congress has endorsed the cabinet for concealing budget excesses. The finance minister has resigned. The senate has approved the suspension of the interest on the foreign debt.

NORWEGIAN STEAMER SUNK.

BREST, July 22.—The steamship sank off this port with the Norwegian steamer Olin bound from Barcelona, Spain, for Bergen, Norway. All of the crew were saved.

MINISTER GARNETT DISMISSED.

TANGIER, July 22.—It is reported Sid Garnett, the foreign minister, has been dismissed from office and replaced by his secretary.

LORD BRASSEY TO TOUR AMERICA.

LONDON, July 22.—Lord Brassey will leave England next month to make a long tour of the United States.

ANARCHIST EDITOR SENTENCED.

ROME, July 22.—Signor Zappala, director of the anarchist journal La Bomba, in Mes-

THOUSAND LIVES LOST.

Constantinople Correspondent Declares this the Result of Recent Earthquakes.

LONDON, July 22.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Standard telegraphs that notwithstanding the attempts at concealment it is clearly established that over 1,000 persons lost their lives during the recent earthquakes.

SPANIARDS SURPRISED BY MALAYS.

MADRID, July 22.—It is officially announced that a force of Mohammedan Malays surprised the Spanish troops and Mindanao in the Malay archipelago. In the fighting that ensued, which finally resulted in the capture of these islands, fourteen Spanish, including one officer, were killed and forty-seven were wounded. The Malays lost twenty-seven killed.

COXEY CALLS FOR MEN.

Wants the Unemployed of the East to Move West.

NEW YORK, July 22.—J. S. Coxe, commander of the Commonwealth army, at Ridgewood Park, L. I., today, where he was tendered a reception by the representatives of the party, who were present in a large number. General Coxe made an address at the big afternoon meeting.

"I represent a party," he said, "that does not want money that is reasonable in going exclusively by money that is reasonable in everything that is used in this country."

General Coxe then unfolded the details of his good roads scheme, which he said would give employment to twenty workmen in this country and make the United States the most powerful country in the world.

"I want a party," he said, "that does not want money that is reasonable in going exclusively by money that is reasonable in everything that is used in this country."

General Coxe then unfolded the details of his good roads scheme, which he said would give employment to twenty workmen in this country and make the United States the most powerful country in the world.

"I want a party," he said, "that does not want money that is reasonable in going exclusively by money that is reasonable in everything that is used in this country."

General Coxe then unfolded the details of his good roads scheme, which he said would give employment to twenty workmen in this country and make the United States the most powerful country in the world.

WILMINGTON, Del., July 22.—

Carl Brown and seventy members of the Coxe party, including the speaker, today left for Washington to see the servants of the United States.

RAIPTS AT TORONTO.

Distinguished Ministers of the Convention Conduct Services.

TORONTO, July 22.—The pulpits of the city were today filled with distinguished ministers in attendance upon the Baptist convention. Prayer service was conducted this morning by Rev. S. A. Brown of Port Weymouth.

REPUBLICAN VOTES WILL COUNT.

Senators Voorhees and Lindsay are among the other democratic senators who may speak in the day, and many others, including Senators Hill and Vilas, who will possibly participate in the debate.

REPUBLICAN VOTES WILL COUNT.

Senators Voorhees and Lindsay are among the other democratic senators who may speak in the day, and many others, including Senators Hill and Vilas, who will possibly participate in the debate.

ALL OVER A CAN OF BEER.

Five Chicago Men Badly Injured in a Fight.

CHICAGO, July 22.—As a result of a fight over a can of beer in the stock yards district the following men are in the county hospital: Stanley Wozicka, face cut from ear to mouth.

CHICAGO, July 22.—

George Feakel, left arm badly cut, abdomen cut open for a distance of eighteen inches. Anton Ponsak, head badly cut. Frank Casper, slashed on the left arm. George Fullum, slightly cut about the back.

TARIFF TALK WILL BE WARM

Interest for the Week Centers in the Senate Discussion.

SOME SPEAKERS WILL NOT MINCE WORDS

Senator Gorman is slated for Remarks on the Subject of the President's Letter and His Intentions Will Show His Escutcheon.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The interest in the tariff controversy raised by the report of the conference disagreement. The week will begin with this question in the foreground and no one can foresee what amount of time will be consumed upon it or what will be the result of the debate which will be inaugurated tomorrow.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

There is now little doubt that tomorrow's proceedings will be of a very animated character—probably no less so than those of Friday, and possibly more so. All efforts to compromise the differences on the tariff and to allay the feeling engendered by the president's letter to Mr. Wilson have so far been unavailing and unless unusual effort is made and exceptional success secured between this time and the hour of meeting the day's session will be a long one.

ORGANIZED LABOR IS BARRED

Southern Pacific Requiring All Employees to Desert Their Societies.

THEY CAN DO BUSINESS ON THIS BASIS

Railroad Officials Claim They Can Secure All the Men They Desire Who Will Not Join Strike Orders.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—In anticipation of the calling off of the strike, it was given out by local officers of the Southern Pacific yesterday when the strike was declared off the company would employ, in addition to those now in the service and those coming under engagement such men as may be needed, who have not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

ORGANIZED LABOR IS BARRED

Southern Pacific Requiring All Employees to Desert Their Societies.

THEY CAN DO BUSINESS ON THIS BASIS

Railroad Officials Claim They Can Secure All the Men They Desire Who Will Not Join Strike Orders.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—In anticipation of the calling off of the strike, it was given out by local officers of the Southern Pacific yesterday when the strike was declared off the company would employ, in addition to those now in the service and those coming under engagement such men as may be needed, who have not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

On behalf of the company it was stated that officials would be careful that no injustice be done to the men who had not during the strike wilfully damaged railroad property or forcibly prevented its employees from performing their usual and regular duties; each case to be considered separately and upon actual application and to be disposed of according to the merits of applicant.

KNIGHTS' LEADERS ARRIVE

All Members of the Executive Board Here Except Mr. Sovereign.

WHAT THEY HOPE TO ACCOMPLISH

Special Effort to Be Made at Organization in Nebraska—Talk with Secretary Hayes about Subjects of Prime Interest to Labor.

The local members of the Knights of Labor are in a joyful mood at the present time, owing to the fact that so many of their noted leaders upon whom they so much depend are now in the city and will remain here for a week or more considering grave questions that concern the toilers and their families.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim Keeney, as he is familiarly known here, was shaking hands with his Omaha friends yesterday by the score. Mr. Keeney is apparently well pleased with the position he now holds, and from his looks one would judge that he has been in the habit of eating at least three meals each day since his departure from Omaha.

Smiling Jim