LONDON PAPERS DEMAND EXPLANATIONS

Importance of the Incident Generally Commented on by the Press-Significant Utterances of the Spanish Minister to England.

Copyright, 1895, by Press Publishing Company. LONDON, Oct. 23.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The London Times gives its leading position today to a long cable from its New York correspondent, quoting in full the World's London dispatch...

Monday night last concerning an interview and other communications between Lord Salisbury and Ambassador Bayard on the Venezuelan question. The London Chronicle's New York correspondent also cables back the same dispatch in full, and all this afternoon's newspapers comment editorially upon it.

TRUTH WELL VOUGHED FOR

As to its truth, the World's informant had certainly no conceivable object in perverting the facts, but when the State department furnishes to congress its full instructions to Ambassador Bayard, a part of the latter's summer and Lord Salisbury's reply on the question of our assertion of the Monroe doctrine in relation to Venezuela, his good faith in this regard is seriously questioned.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN OF REFORM

Meetings to Be Held Each Night from This Afternoon.

HAVE THE VOTERS' ATTENTION

Speakers for the Cause of Municipal Reform Are Listed To.

One of the notable features of the meetings that are being held under the auspices of the Citizens' league is that the audience that greet the speakers everywhere take a deep interest in the discussions and do not seem to get tired as long as the cars are running. Different speakers go into discussions of the issues of the campaign at considerable length, but as long as there is a speaker or a candidate in the hall who is willing to offer a platform for consideration to the audience, the meetings are held.
