PLACE OF THE CHURCH IN REFORMS
Prof. Heron of Cornell Investigates
NEW YORK, March 5.—The place of the Church in Social Reform was the subject of a public meeting held under the auspices of the Social Reform club in Cooper union tonight. Ernest H. Crosby presided. He said that in his opinion, the church might say that the conditions which did not give more work were wrong and that a system which compelled men to work too many hours a day was wrong. It could be said further, he thought, that it was a blasphemy that man should be compelled to work twelve and fifteen hours a day. The great danger to this city was not tammy, but "mammy," he declared in conclusion.
