

MAY GIVE A DAY TO EXPOSITION

Speaker Reed Will Probably Report a Rule to that Effect Soon.

CHANCES STILL IN FAVOR OF THE BILL

Several Turns in the Congressional Mill Change the Situation Materially and Make Its Passage Possible.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—(Special Telegram)—Still a new complication has arisen in the Transmississippi matter. Speaker Reed has practically refused to recognize a member of the Nebraska delegation to put the bill on its passage under unanimous consent, but those close to the speaker think he inclines to bring in a rule, giving a day to expositions, which may result in the bill being talked to death. The bill could be passed in twenty minutes if allowed to go before the house, but to throw down the bars and invite unlimited discussion might jeopardize its chances, in view of Speaker Reed's known views against appropriations at this time. The unanimous report favoring the Nashville exposition, which came from the committee on appropriations today, may help matters yet. There is no telling how the situation may line up, although Tennessee members personally waited on Reed today to urge upon him the importance of not allowing the Nashville bill to stand in the way of granting time to the Omaha bill. Dave Mercer, who is in charge of the Transmississippi bill, is hopeful of the final outcome, and is leaving for St. Louis to see its passage. Unexpected developments in the senate today may have a tendency to put the bill in a safe harbor, for adjournment now would certainly leave it outside the bar.

While the republicans are fuming and fretting over the sharp trick played upon them by the democrats in taking up the bill in the face of the river and harbor bill they are determined that no such snap judgment shall be played upon them again, and if necessary will stay here until after the democratic convention, as it is evidently the desire of the democrats to prolong the session beyond the republican convention. Heretofore the Omaha bill in case Speaker Reed persists in his present attitude.

Attorney Brown made his maiden speech before the supreme court today in the case of the Union Pacific against James and made a favorable impression.

Representative Gamble succeeded in passing through the house a bill authorizing and empowering the state of South Dakota to select the Fort Sully military reservation as part of the lands granted under the provisions of an act to provide for the admission of South Dakota into the union. The secretary of the interior is hereby given authority to issue the patents.

SOUTH OMAHA'S POSTOFFICE SITE. The site for the South Omaha postoffice will in all probability be selected tomorrow. The assistant secretary has passed upon the site and it now goes to the secretary for approval. It is expected he will pass upon the site before the cabinet meeting.

Representative Mercer presented the resolutions of the city council of Beatrice, favoring the Omaha exposition; resolutions of the Johnson City, Iowa, association, favoring the Omaha exposition; resolutions of the Johnson City, Iowa, association, favoring the Omaha exposition; resolutions of the Johnson City, Iowa, association, favoring the Omaha exposition.

Senator Allen presented a memorial of a community of settlers on the Fort Niobrara reservation, requesting that the committee on Judiciary today reported favorably the bill restoring John N. Quackenbush to the rank of commander in the navy.

RULES FOR FOREST PROTECTION

Teller Introduces a Bill Which Has Already Passed the House.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Senator Teller today from the committee on forest reservations reported favorably a bill for the protection of the public forest reservations. The bill provides that no public forest reservation shall be established except to improve and protect the forest within the reservation, or for the purpose of securing favorable conditions of the waterflow and to insure a continuous supply of timber for the use of the states wherein such forest reservations are located. General rules and regulations are laid down for the protection and government of such reservations, and the bill gives to states wherein such forest reservations are situated civil and criminal jurisdiction over persons within such reservations. Senator Teller also reported to the senate a bill amending existing laws so as to permit the use of right of way to the extent of twenty-five feet, together with the use of necessary ground, not exceeding forty feet, for the construction of electric lines by citizens or associations of citizens for the purpose of generating, manufacturing or distributing electric power. WOULD FORCE CLEVELAND TO ACT

Resolution Directing Him to Issue Proclamation of Belligerency.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Representative Woodman of Illinois introduced a resolution today providing that the house of representatives directly request the president to make immediate proclamation that a condition of war in Cuba is recognized and that it is the purpose of this government to preserve a position of neutrality, and that the United States will look with special disfavor on the continuance of any methods of warfare not recognized in the rules of war as practiced by the leading nations of the civilized world.

In the preamble it is recited that the executive department of the government has taken it upon itself to act upon the recommendation of the people as expressed by both branches of congress, and that "the situation in that most unhappy island is becoming a stench in the nostrils of christian civilization, outrages, barbarities and horrors perpetrated by the Spanish in Cuba are so notorious that civilization itself stands appalled."

BRUTAL OUTRAGE ON A YOUNG GIRL

Murdered by a Negro Almost Within Sight of Her Home in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Elias Kreglos, a white girl 16 years old, was murdered today in a ravine near the National Zoological park, about 100 yards from her home. Members of her family heard her scream for help and ran for the scene, arriving in time to see the girl stagger into the middle of a shallow stream and fall. The water was quickly stained with blood that gushed from six knife wounds in her neck. The young victim's clothes were pulled from her body and were strewn about for quite a distance along the bank of the stream, showing evidence of her desperate struggle with her assailant. A faint, but distinct, bloodstain reports having seen a negro running from the ravine about the time the murder was committed. There have been no arrests. The Kreglos are industrious working people and Elsie was one of five sisters.

DISCUSSES THE BOND ISSUE

Senate Decides to Give it Preference to Rivers and Harbors.

DAVID B. HILL TALKS AGAINST TIME

Defends Secretary Carlisle Against Attack—A Yes and No Vote—Debate Adjourned for Lack of Quorum.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The outlined program for the senate procedure this week was shattered early in the day's session by two unexpected motions. When the intended action to consider the rivers and harbors bill was attempted it was antagonized by a motion by Mr. Turpie, democrat of Indiana, to consider the Dupont election case. Mr. Mitchell, with considerable display of feeling, sought to prevent this course, but by a yeas and nays vote, resulting 32 to 31, the senate decided to take up the Dupont case. Later an agreement was effected to postpone the matter until the rivers and harbors bill was passed, the final vote in the election case to be taken two days after consideration was begun. At 2 o'clock the unfinished business came up in the form of the bond investigation resolution. Mr. Peffer refused to further delay the matter, and his motion to proceed with the resolution was upheld by 39 to 28, thus displacing the rivers and harbors bill. Mr. Hill then spoke until adjournment on the floor and spoke until adjournment on the floor and spoke until adjournment on the floor.

The Dupont case was unexpectedly brought forward on a motion by Mr. Turpie, democrat of Indiana, to proceed with the consideration of the case. Mr. Mitchell, republican of Oregon, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, stated that it was surprising this motion should be made, as the case out of his hands, when there was no disposition on the republican side of the chamber to delay a vote. He had expected to go on with the Dupont case as soon as the rivers and harbors bill was out of the way.

Mr. Gorman interposed with a suggestion of a compromise by which the case would be taken up next Monday at 10 o'clock, 4 p. m. next Tuesday. No consent could be obtained and the roll was called on Mr. Turpie's motion, which was adopted by a vote of 32 to 31. All the republican senators against the motion, while the democrats and four populists, Allen, Butler, Kyle and Peffer, voted for the motion. Mr. Jones of Nevada was not in the chamber, but Mr. Stewart was and did not vote.

The vote having been announced, Mr. Mitchell, showing evident feeling despite his efforts at calmness, said impressively that in eighteen years of service this was the first time he had seen such unjustifiable action. Under ordinary circumstances there was comity among senators without reference to party. And yet, with several senators on the republican side of the chamber absent and unpaired, without any intimation or notice, this motion to proceed with the Dupont case was made and carried.

CRITICISES THE SENATORS

Boutelle Charges Them with Inconsistency in Battleships Matter.

VOTES AT VARIANCE WITH THEIR TALK

Consideration of Amended Navy Bill Likely to Embrace the Whole Subject of Large Appropriations at This Time.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The first skirmish over the senate amendment to the naval appropriation bill, reducing the number of battleships provided for in that bill from four to two, occurred in the house today, when Mr. Boutelle, chairman of the naval committee, moved to nonconcur in all the senate amendments and request a conference of the senate. Mr. Boutelle undertook to chastise some of the senators for their inconsistency. He referred to the war scares of the past and the battleships resolutions introduced in the senate and then sarcastically contrasted the war talk of some of the senators with their voting to reduce the number of battleships provided for in the bill.

Mr. Quigg, republican of New York, called Mr. Boutelle to order for criticizing members of the upper house and was sustained by the chair after some very lively sparring. Mr. Boutelle, however, accomplished all he had intended, despite the chair's ruling. Subsequently Mr. Sayres of Texas moved to concur in the senate amendment reducing the number of battleships, but by consent the motion went over for action until tomorrow, when it is likely that the whole question of large appropriations at this time for strengthening the navy will be reopened and ventilated.

Quite a number of bills were passed during the day, mostly of minor importance. Among them were bills for the protection of yacht owners and ship building firms, to create a new division of the eastern judicial district of Texas, and pension General Joseph R. West at the rate of $50 per month, and to authorize South Dakota to select the Fort Sully military reservation as part of the lands granted to that state.

The house committee on Pacific railroads decided to make a favorable report to the house on the motion to confer all the charter rights of the Atlantic & Pacific railroad on the purchasers of the property. This will permit the reorganization of the company.

TROUBLE WITH THE SPEAKER.

Mr. Boutelle, republican of Maine, chairman of the committee on naval affairs, moved that the house nonconcur in the senate amendments to the naval appropriation bill and request a conference. Mr. Boutelle proceeded in contact with his motion to call attention to the action of the senate in reducing the number in the bill from four to two. He characterized the senate's action as a "retrograde change of front." He referred to the fact that when four battleships were provided for by the house the public mind had been "greatly inflamed and excited by rumors of war." The senate, he argued, had contributed largely to this state of the public mind. He referred briefly to the warlike message of the president with reference to Venezuela and the precipitate action of the senate in reducing the number of battleships. He went on to refer to the "remarkable and extraordinary proposition" advanced by the senate to maintain the "novel and aggressive attitude" of the senate and the bills introduced by Mr. Chandler for the purchase of $100,000,000 of war material, the resolution of Mr. Hale for calling out the militia, and the resolution for the purchase of all the other bills and resolutions introduced during the day.

He quoted from Mr. Vest's speech in the house on the morning of May 1 he noticed several heaps of broken glass at the corners of Fifteenth and Harney streets, which he was positive were not there the night before. Mr. Boutelle stated that a quantity of glass was found on various streets west of Sixteenth, and south of Cumine.

In conclusion, the chief states that he has detailed a special officer to further investigate. He suggests that if any bicyclist catches any person committing the nuisance he shall at once report him, and the culprit will be prosecuted.

Mr. Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee, gave notice that he would demand a vote in the house on the senate amendment to reduce the number of battleships. After some sparring Mr. Sayres entered the motion to concur in the particular amendment, after which it was arranged that the matters should go over until tomorrow, when the vote should be taken.

Mr. Fidler moved to suspend the rules and setting aside Wednesday, the 6th, and Wednesday, the 13th, for the consideration of private pension bills, under a rule allowing ten minutes debate on each bill. The democrats resisted, and when the roll was called the quorum failed, 114 to 44, and thereupon the house adjourned.

Lead Agents Are Laid Off. WASHINGTON, May 4.—Twenty special agents of the general land office were today ordered suspended from May 16 to June 30, inclusive, on account of an inadequate appropriation for the current fiscal year.

Dragnet of Gold from the Treasury. WASHINGTON, May 4.—The treasury today lost $2,218,900 in gold coin, of which $2,150,000 was for export, leaving the true amount of the gold reserve $121,612,576.

New York Gold Exports to Europe. NEW YORK, May 4.—Hofelber & Eichelberger & Co. expect to ship $500,000 in gold bars by tomorrow's German steamer.

Baring, Magoun & Co. have ordered $500,000 gold at the subtreasury for the account of Kidder, Peabody & Co. of Boston. Heidebach, Eckelbarger & Co.'s engagements of gold at subtreasury is for $1,650,000. This makes the total amount thus far engaged for shipment $2,150,000. All of this gold goes to Germany, and is expected to be transhipped to Russia. It is all in mostly $5 and $10 pieces. Legal tenders have been deposited at the subtreasury in each city. Heidebach, Eckelbarger & Co. has $2,000,000 in gold for Russia.

Minister Tripp Coming Home. YANKTON, S. D., May 4.—(Special).—Hon. Bartlett Tripp, American minister to Austria-Hungary, will arrive in Yankton on May 12. It is alleged that his visit at this time has no political significance. There is, however, a fear of certain democratic circles that he may be here in the interest of administration democracy. The democratic state convention to be held at Aberdeen will probably be a free state delegation to the Chicago convention. Judge Tripp's visit to South Dakota was determined on last fall.
