It is estimated that about twenty or thirty bodies are yet unrecovered, but several hundred more are being searched for. It will take charge of funds raised by soliciting up the debris and dragging the creeks. Six more bodies, four dead, two alive, were recovered this morning. The missing child of Luke Montgomery was found this morning fifty yards north of Washington avenue bridge, 200 yards from home. The little one's skull was crushed in and the brain all gone as if scooped out. This completes the list of persons who were killed by the storm. A negro child, unidentified, found last night. A negro child, unidentified, was picked up in the city cemetery. Two bodies were found in the city cemetery. It is reported that twelve bodies of dead whites are being brought in from north of Sherman.

DAY OF HARD WORK.

KANSAS CITY, May 16.—A special to the Journal from Sherman, Tex., says: At daybreak this morning searching parties were again on the scene of yesterday's awful calamity. Several bodies were removed from Post Oak creek this morning, and others were found hundreds of yards from the path of the tornado. The hospitals have presented a scene today, which is impossible to picture. Every five minutes death has come as a relief to some suffering victim, which would immediately be removed to an undertaking establishment, where preparation for burial would be made. The loss of property and life is greater even than was supposed last night. The city tonight contains seventy new graves, and a total number of people buried exceeds 250. One hundred young men, with picks and spades, went to the graveyard this morning and prepared the last resting places for their relatives or friends.

Reports have been received from several sections of the country, within a few miles of Sherman, which state that the loss of life and property is great. Almost every day in this portion of the country, something for the burial of the sufferers and those who have been rendered destitute by the terrible storm.

HORRIBLE MUTILATIONS.

The details of the storm grow more horrible as they are made fuller. Bodies have been decapitated, limbs torn off, eyes gouged out and lying on cheeks, fingers and toes cut off clean as with a knife, hair pulled out, great silvers of wood sticking through skulls, and brains crushed and brains scooped out. Some of the victims lying in the morgue have broken backs, others are mutilated horribly. Some are not broken or bruised at all, but apparently lie serene in death. Many private homes are used as hospitals. Ladies of the city are doing all in their power to save the wounded, care for the distressed, dress the dead, and undertake the burials. The city is full of newspaper men, every paper that comes to the city containing an account of the storm is eagerly sought and contents devoured. The people are greatly excited and view the dark skies and threatening clouds with evident apprehension.

RUIN AND DESOLATION.

A word picture cannot approximate or portray the terrible aspect of the pathway torn through the city. Great oaks are uprooted by the roots and twisted like reeds. The remnants of once beautiful homes are scattered and blown in all directions. Everywhere the commons are covered with debris. Hundreds of domestic animals are lying dead and innumerable fowl are scattered about, in various places picked perfectly clean, and in every instance timbers are thrown about promiscuously and more often against the course of the storm than with it. Barbed wire fences are scattered about fence posts several times. Stones and bricks, evidently from the Ely residence, are found several hundred yards north driven into the ground. The electric track is just south of where it crosses Lamar street, and here it was 200 yards. At other points it rarely or never exceeds 150 yards, and often narrowed to not over 100 yards. One of the first men to go over the track of the storm was Mr. C. B. Sale. He told a reporter of the above conditions.

Called Again for Expert Testimony.

Dr. McGrew has been retained to give testimony in court in a case involving questions concerning diseases of which he makes a specialty. This is not the first time the doctor has been called upon for expert testimony in the state courts. He has been called at the most eminent authority in the west today on diseases peculiar to men; he is justly entitled to this reputation, as he has made the disorders and diseases of men a study and life work, and his diagnosis is always found to be correct.

THREE MEN KILLED IN A WRECK.

Freight Train Killed Near Milwaukee. MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 15.—Ties piled on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway at Waldo, a few miles north of this city, derailed a southbound freight train tonight. Three men were killed and two injured. The dead: ENGINEER JOHN O'CONNOR, Green Bay; BRAKEMAN EMIL CASPER, Milwaukee; and the fireman, Louis Tannis, Freeman, hands and arms scaled and crushed; "General" Turbin, a tramp, leg broken.

FIN ON THREE CONVENTIONS.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—A special to the Republic from Sherman, Tex., gives some particulars of the financial condition of the County Committee Meets and Sets the Dates for Two of Them.

Candidates Anxious to Have Their Fate Settled Early.

At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the republican county central committee it was decided to hold the convention for selecting delegates to the state convention on Friday, May 20, the primaries to be held on the preceding day. The county congressional convention will be held on July 3; the congressional district convention on July 9, with primaries the preceding Saturday, July 6.

Chairman John Lewis called the meeting to order. J. M. Gillan and A. E. Walkup were nominated for the position of secretary pro tempore. Mr. Gillan withdrew and Mr. Walkup was elected. The reading of the minutes of the last meeting and the roll call were dispensed with. The chairman then stated the reason for having called a meeting of the committee. He said there was considerable work to be done before the commencement of the fall campaign and much of it could be accomplished at this time. He then declared the meeting open for any business that might come before it.

By consent of the committee a number of proxies were received, among them being one that named "Mayor" Wenzel in the meeting. On motion of Gillan it was resolved that, in voting, the representatives of the various delegations should cast the full vote of their respective delegations. It was resolved that there should be held three distinct conventions and three distinct sets of primary elections.

Reports have been received from several sections of the country, within a few miles of Sherman, which state that the loss of life and property is great. Almost every day in this portion of the country, something for the burial of the sufferers and those who have been rendered destitute by the terrible storm.

It was suggested that it might be a good thing to learn where the various candidates stood on the amendment. Commissioner Williams called for and responded, saying "the sooner some of us get late away to rest the better it will be. I'm in favor of the amendment." Ivey of the Seventh ward was called and said that he preferred that the primaries and the convention be held as late as possible; he, therefore, opposed the amendment. Captain Palmer, representing the Church Street ward, said that the man whose cause he championed had confided to him that he was in favor of an early settlement of the matter. The roll was called and the amendment of "the mayor" carried by a vote of 21 to 14.

It was decided that the representation in the county convention should be the same as in the last convention, and that the same rules as governed the last primary elections should again be used. "These rules do away with the caucus system and give every citizen an opportunity to express his opinion on these dates. He said he disliked very much to speak in the house of Congress. He wanted to say, however, that it was the desire of the candidates for congressional honors that the conventions in which they were interested should be held on the same date as the county convention, and that the same rules be enforced. The meeting then adjourned.

OBIO MAN PLACED ON AN EQUAL FOOTING WITH OTHER CANDIDATES.

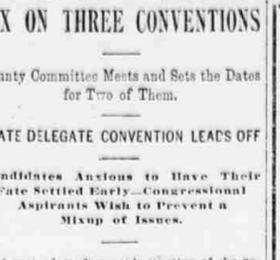

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Today's session of the American Protective association supreme council was the most interesting of the convention because the action of the executive committee of the advisory board in blacklisting Mr. McKinley as a presidential candidate was to be reviewed.

SILVER'S FRIENDS TOO NUMEROUS.

Dubuque Democratic State Convention Will Be One-Sided. DES MOINES, May 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Practically all returns from all county conventions show that the sound money democrats will have about 250, votes out of a total of 947 in the Dubuque convention, assuming that the free silver majority will exclude the four contesting sound money delegations. At any rate, the free silver men will have a majority sufficient to give them absolute control of the convention. Excluding the four counties in which there are contests, four in which the silver question was not raised and no poll of delegates taken and three small counties which have not reported, the following vote: For free silver, 575; against free silver, 231. The silver men are expected to carry the convention in 1895 voted for free silver 376; against, 525. As 474 will be a majority of the convention, the outcome can be foreseen.

TO LEAVE A CONTESTING DELEGATION.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—The Kansas congressional district held a convention today to elect two delegates to the national convention, with alternates and to nominate a candidate for congress. The delegates chosen to the national convention are ex-Congressman Nathan Frank and Charles D. Comfort and the alternates Thomas Arnold and Chris Schoenhardt, all of St. Louis. For congressman, Major Charles E. Pierce of St. Louis was nominated and for presidential elector General Nelson A. Cole was chosen. The Filley wing of the party held a convention in this district two weeks ago and elected delegates and alternates to the national convention, but the Kansas-Comfort followers claim that that convention was irregular and will ignore its action before the national convention.

More Boies Delegates Elected. Cherokee County Democrats Instruct For Silver and the Iowa Man. CHEROKEE, Ia., May 16.—(Special Telegram.)—The democrats of Cherokee county met in convention at 3 p. m. today and selected the following delegates to the state convention to be held at Dubuque May 29: James Dalton, Claud M. Smith, John J. Condon, A. J. Clark, Peter Holom, H. C. Krogg and S. S. Hixley. There was a four-hour parliamentary debate on the ban-four silver faction by a good majority. Resolutions were adopted in favor of silver and making it full legal tender for all debts on the same basis as gold. President Cleveland and his bond issuing policies were bitterly denounced by the silverites, some going so far as to insinuate "nest feathering."

JEFFERSON, Ia., May 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Cass county democrats met in convention and selected eight delegates to the state convention. No resolutions or instructions were given, but six out of the eight delegates are supposed to be for Boies and free silver.

ATLANTIC, Ia., May 16.—(Special Telegram.)—Cass county democrats met in convention and selected eight delegates to the state convention. No resolutions or instructions were given, but six out of the eight delegates are supposed to be for Boies and free silver.

DUBOIS LEADS THE DELEGATION. Idaho Republicans Instructed to Work for a Silver Man. BOZEMAN, Idaho, May 16.—The republican state convention met here today and proved a harmonious gathering. The Dubois men were in control by about 180 to 70. The financial plank is very emphatic and comprehensive. It begins:

"Whereas, the republican national convention of 1888 declared in favor of gold and silver as standard moneys of the United States and condemned the action of the democratic party for its efforts in attempting to demonetize silver, and

"Whereas, the republican national convention of 1892 substantially reiterated the declaration of 1888, and

"Whereas, the question of crystallizing into law the utterances of the last two conventions named and of every utterance heretofore made by the republican party of this state recently arose in the United States senate, and

"Whereas, Senators Henry M. Teller, Fred T. Dubois, Thomas H. Carter, Lee Mantle and Frank Cannon demanded the enforce-governor. The members in the majority were opposed to any such extension being taken. They were addressed in short speeches by Dr. Hanchett, Isaac Harsell, Judge Gordon, Leo Estelle, John Butler, A. E. Wenzel and H. S. Jordan. It was decided that no action should be taken at the present time in the matter, but that it should be deferred until the next meeting of the club, which takes place at Forest hall next Saturday night.

Waited for an Opportunity.
At the meeting of the Young Men's Republican club of the First ward at Schroth's hall Friday night a red hot discussion took place in connection with the endorsement of W. J. Broatch for governor. Mr. Robertson made a motion during the earlier part of the evening that the club should give the major its support. It was promptly tabled. Shortly after a motion to adjourn had been made and carried, and the greater portion of the members who left the hall, the subject was again brought up by some of the mayor's friends, and notwithstanding the dissenting voices of a number of persons opposed to it still in the room, was carried with loud acclaim by Broatch's forces. The question will come up again for discussion at the next meeting of the club, when the anti-Broatch members intend to make a showing as to the manner in which they intend to vote.
