

CONTEST OF COLLEGE BRAWN

University of Nebraska Meets University of Kansas at Lincoln.

BASE BALL AND EVENTS ON CINDER PATH

Chancellor MacLean's Boys Overwhelm Their Opponents on the Path, While Jayhawkers Play the Better Ball.

LINCOLN, May 6.—(Special Telegram)—A little of the bitter was mixed with the sweet for both the University of Nebraska and the University of Kansas in the sporting melange which was served on the college campus in this city this afternoon by the sturdy athletes of the two institutions.

While the Nebraskans overwhelmed the Jayhawkers upon the cinder path, the latter slipped sweet revenge in the struggle upon the emerald diamond and it would seem as if the two continents would have to shake dice with each other to determine which had the better of it.

The dual meet between Kansas and Nebraska on the track and the base ball diamond was quite an athletic event for the city and it was duly recognized. Over 1,000 people played the parts of spectators in the event and while the crowd of them were students of the university there was a good representation of the townspeople.

The track games were the first on the card of the day and they proved to be as tame as playing poker for fun. At the present stage of the game, either Nebraska's ultimate is more productive of the men who shine on the cinder path or else the Jayhawkers fall to their knees on hand.

With but two exceptions the Kansans were about as lively as bears afflicted with locomotor ataxia. The consequence was that the Lincoln lads were never put upon their mettle and the records were allowed to rest in peace.

The Nebraska representatives marked with a jump of 20 feet at the practice this also has been beaten. Taken as a whole, the results were not of a record-breaking quality and are expected to be bettered at the university field meet, which takes place in Lincoln next Saturday and at the Nebraska state collegiate meet, which occurs in a couple of weeks.

The two firsts which the Jayhawkers managed to copper were the 220-yard dash and 120-yard hurdle. In the latter the Nebraska representatives failed to finish. The 220-yard dash was secured after one of the prettiest events on the card. In fact, the sprints and the runs were the features of the games, but in these, as in the majority of the other events, the Nebraska boys were not pushed to the point where they were asked to show what they could really do.

The results were as follows: One hundred-yard dash: R. D. Andresen, Nebraska, first, 10:1-5; Moulton, Kansas, second, 10:2-5. Running high jump: Pillsbury, Nebraska, 3 feet 3 inches; Alexander, Kansas, second, 3 feet 3 inches. Half-mile run: Manig, Nebraska, first, 9:45; Cavin, Kansas, second, 9:55. Mile run: Pillsbury, Nebraska, first, 9:45; Sawtelle, Kansas, second, 9 feet 8 1/2 inches.

Two hundred and twenty-yard dash: Moulton, Kansas, first, 4:45; R. D. Andresen, Nebraska, second, 4:55. Shotput: Brew, Nebraska, first, 34 feet 5 1/2 inches; Bowman, Kansas, second, 34 feet 5 inches. Mile run: Cowell, Nebraska, first, 6:37-5; Gavin, Kansas, second, 6:45. Four hundred and forty-yard run: R. D. Andresen, Nebraska, first, 3:45; Moulton, Kansas, second, 3:54; Manig, Nebraska, third, 4:00.

Hammer throw: Brew, Nebraska, 80 feet 10 inches; Bowman, Kansas, 75 feet 10 inches. One hundred and twenty-yard hurdles: Cates, Kansas, first, 28; No record. Running broad jump: W. E. Andresen, Nebraska, 20 feet 4 inches; Cates, Kansas, 19 feet 3 inches; Alexander, Kansas, 19 feet 3 inches; Pillsbury, Nebraska, 19 feet 3 inches. The mile relay race collected a fine lot of five and was won by Nebraska. Each of the Nebraska team won out over their opponents as follows: Brew, 37; Pillsbury, 45-3-5; W. E. Andresen, 32-5; Moulton, 45; Manig, 3-42.

The Ball Game. Outbatted, outfielded and outplayed in pretty nearly every wrinkle of the great national game—that explains why Captain Reeder, he of the aurora borealis suit of blue, yanked the bedraggled colors of the Nebraska university out of the dust of defeat in which they had been stamped by the sacrilegious feet of the victorious Kansans.
