FRANEY LOST HIS BREECHES

Shakespearean Scholar Almost Reduced to Wearing a Barrell. HIS HARD LUCK DOWN AT KANSAS CITY. Saved from Disaster by the Thoughtfulness of a Brother Democrat Who Had Along Two Pairs of Trousers.

"One who doth tread upon another's heels, so fast they follow," quoth that eminent Shakespearean scholar, John Jay Frayne, as he alighted from the train yesterday morning which brought him back from Kansas City, where he had been in attendance at the democratic national convention. His quotation from the immortal bard of Avon did not have reference to the ticket named, as with that Frayne is highly pleased. It referred to a robbery of which he was the victim while in Kansas City. Frayne arrayed himself in a brand new crash suit and thus attired no member of the Pottawattamie County Democratic Marching club cut a more imposing figure or commanded more attention from the admiring throng when the club disembarked from the train at Kansas City and marched through the streets. Some unscrupulous individual saw and admired the suit and resolved to possess himself of it. Where there is a will there is a way. When Mr. Frayne, tired with shouting the livelong day for Bryan and Hill, lay himself down to rest Wednesday night he placed the coat and vest under his head for a pillow, but the nether garment containing his return ticket, his money and well worn copy of Shakespeare's "As You Like It," he hid by his side. When he awoke in the morning his trousers were gone and with their contents are still counted among the missing.

A member of the Pottawattamie delegation, who happened to be provided with two pairs of trousers, generously loaned one to Frayne. They were a trifle long and a trifle tight, but they were better than nothing. He came home in them. Health Officer Wareham was among the crowd that returned late Friday night. He was so hoarse from shouting that when he reached home he was unable to speak above a whisper. Chief of Police Albro and Captain Denny returned last evening, much pleased with their trip and the entertainment provided them by the Kansas City authorities. City Attorney Wadsworth, O. P. Wickham, John Mulqueen, Jr., and several others arrived home yesterday morning. They all express themselves as well pleased with the ticket and insist it is a winner, although not ready to put any money on their assertion.

City Attorney Wadsworth says the people of Kansas City deserve great credit for the manner in which they handled the convention and the attendant throngs. The auditorium, he says, is far superior to the one in Chicago in which the convention adjourned last evening when he was a delegate. Except for the theft of Frayne's pantalons the party met with no mishap.

TORNADO AT MARSHALLTOWN

Iowa Town is Visited by a Twister that Does Much Damage. MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., July 7.—Tornado conditions prevailed throughout the northern part of Hardin county last night and houses were unroofed and overturned, barns demolished and trees uprooted, but no loss of life is yet reported. Two and a quarter inches of rain fell here during the night and the Iowa river is all over the bottom lands and still rising. A new duked church, five miles east of this city, was wrecked by the wind. The weather is still intensely hot, with conditions favoring severe storms again tonight.

SIoux CITY, July 7.—(Special Telegram.)—The Leach-Connelly company, grain brokers, have suspended business as a result of the ups and downs of the wheat market during the last several days. F. G. People coming in from the country say that the corn has been advanced at this time of year. HOLD TO OPPOSITE VIEWS California Judges Render Dimetrically Divergent Decisions on Divorce Law.

Disintegration of Mule Glacier. TACOMA, Wash., July 7.—The steamer Queen, from Alaska, brings further news of the presumed disintegration of the famous Mule glacier. The sea in its vicinity was found full of floating ice, broken from the face of the glacier. It was impossible to get near enough to find out just how badly damaged it was, but it is believed that the melting of the ice toward the sea will soon fill the mouth of the former river completely. This will create a new face on what remains of the glacier.

South Omaha News.

The influenza fever appears to be spreading. Yesterday B. Jetter, president of the South Omaha Brewing company, secured an order from Judge Dickinson of the district court restraining the city authorities from laying a sidewalk on the east side of Thirty-sixth street, from Q street south to the county line. It was at first proposed by the council to lay a six-foot plank walk on this street, but later on the ordinance was changed to read a two-plank walk. Mr. Jetter contends that if a walk of the above character is laid in this section of the city it will soon be torn up and used for kindling wood. Therefore, he holds that the expense is an unnecessary one.

This tearing up of sidewalks is a constant source of expense to the city and the street commissioner is kept busy replacing planks which are carried away in the night time. In some sections of the city, especially during cold weather, whole sections of sidewalk disappear in a single night. This trouble has been abated to some extent by string all planks on new walks, but the old walks, which are not wired, are being torn up and carried away every day. Some time ago all patrolmen were instructed to keep a sharp eye out for despoilers of the city's walks, but not a single arrest has been made.

The mayor and council propose to enforce the ordinances creating permanent sidewalk districts. In some instances property owners are complying with the ordinances and permanent walks are now being laid in some of the districts recently created. This work is to be pushed this summer, especially in the center of the city, and it is expected that before winter sets in most of the down town walks will be of a permanent nature. Every strip of permanent walk laid reduces the expenditure in the street department, as the city is not obliged to pay for repairs under $1. In case repairs are over this amount the sum is taxed up against the property. But placing a plank here and there all over the city means an expenditure of a large sum of money in the course of a year, which the city repairs department is not prepared to meet.

Clerk of the Supreme Court Chris Jones returned from the lakes Saturday and hopes to start a settlement of the controversy over certain fees which he has collected, privately, during the five years of his term. Governor Shaw, to whom the executive council has referred the matter, was not in the city yesterday, but will return Monday. He hopes to be able to go through the whole matter and make a formal statement of the amount, if anything, which he believes to be due from Jones to the state. If a settlement can be effected this will be reported. This will be at a meeting early in the month.

Range Cattle Doing Nicely. W. B. Cheek, local live stock agent for the Black Hills county, said in speaking of reports along the line of his road cattle were all doing nicely, in fact, herds are putting on fat so rapidly that owners are leth to ship just now. With the exception of a dry spot in the Black Hills county there is plenty of moisture all along the line in Wyoming and Montana. Shipments from the Dakotas will most likely commence a little earlier than usual this year on account of the scarcity of rain, but in other sections there may be some delay, caused by the unusually good condition of the herds. Mr. Cheek is of the opinion that a large proportion of the range cattle in Wyoming and certain sections of Montana will come to this market this summer and fall on account of the good prices paid and the treatment accorded shippers.

Mitchell Means Business. When Chief of Police Mitchell issued orders to the keepers of dives to close their places, he meant just what he said and he is now enforcing his orders. There was a disposition on the part of one or two keepers of low resorts to go contrary to the edict of the chief, but by constant hammer at the head of the police department has finally succeeded in closing all wine rooms and resorts of a questionable character. One keeper of a resort, from whom place a woman was taken Friday night, employed an attorney to make a fight in police court yesterday, but gave up when the chief and the police judge asserted emphatically that such places would have to go. Better order secured in the city now than there has been in a number of years past and the police force is under first-class discipline.

Pleased Over Adkins Decision. Officers of the city government are greatly pleased at the outcome of the proceedings against President Adkins of the city council. The ground taken by Attorneys Lambert and Van Dusen was sustained by the court and a question which has caused a great deal of trouble in the past has been settled to the satisfaction of all city officials. While Mr. Adkins has acted in the capacity of president of the council since his election, the decision now places him in a position where he can read his title clear.

New Lodge Organized. Washakie Tribe No. 39, Improved Order of Red Men, was organized at Hibbard hall, Twenty-third and N streets, Friday night, with seventy-six charter members. The officers elected are: John Kennedy, sachem; H. E. Newman, prophet; Peter Powers, senior saganore; George Kennedy, junior saganore; F. W. Hullett, chief of records; Dr. Tische, keeper of the wampum. The balance of the officers will be appointed at a meeting to be held on Friday night of this week.

FIRE BURNING ITSELF OUT Danger of Further Spread of Flames in Oil Plant Believed to Be Over. NEW YORK, July 7.—The fire at the Standard Oil company's works, Bayonne, N. J., which started shortly after midnight on Thursday morning, is rapidly burning itself out. The best evidence that the fire is believed to be about at an end and that the danger of a still further spreading of the flames is not feared, is the fact that a number of the fire companies were allowed to return to their quarters this morning.

Huron Grants Saloon Licenses. HURON, S. D. July 7.—(Special.)—Bonds have been filed and permits granted by the board of city commissioners for four saloons in this city. They are John Breen, the Blume Brewing company, Frank Gans and H. D. Dukes. Each of these pay a state and county license of $400 and a city license of $600. But one wholesaler's license has been granted and that is to the John Gund Brewing company, who pay $600. Thus Huron will have the same number of saloons the ensuing year as in the year just closed.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian association will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. F. A. Cressie, Twenty-fourth and B streets. A program has been arranged for the occasion. The story published in an uptown paper yesterday to the effect that Nels Morris, a Chicagoan, had purchased the Omaha Packing company's plant here, is doubtful. Officers of the company say that there is no truth whatever in the report.

HEAVY WIND AT KALAMAZOO Cyclone, Rain, Hail and Lightning do Damage that Will Amount to $100,000. KALAMAZOO, Mich., July 7.—A cyclone accompanied by a cloudburst and a hail storm swept over Kalamazoo this afternoon and a conservative estimate places the damage resulting at $100,000. The storm lasted half an hour and in that time nearly six inches of water fell, completely inundating the city. Great damage was done in the low lands, where the celery-raising industry is carried on. The celery crop may be completely ruined.

No lives were lost, which is miraculous considering the number of buildings that were wrecked. Among the principal losses were: Speyer's dry goods store, roof blown off and stock flooded, damage, $25,000; Michigan Telephone company, wires and poles leveled, loss $25,000; Sears' Clothing store, struck by lightning, damage $3,000; Schatz's hardware store, $3,000. Many other stores were flooded, entailing lesser losses. Trees in the city parks are uprooted by the storm and like damage was done in the four corners.

The fallen trees made the streets impassable for many hours; street car electric light and telephone service were completely suspended, all the wires in the city having been leveled. Kalamazoo river is out of its banks and washing out the crops along its banks and doing much damage.

At the Michigan insane asylum a panic was narrowly averted among the frightened patients. Tonight reports of additional damages are coming in from all parts of the city and country, some places reporting the damage as high as $150,000. Reports from other cities in southwestern Michigan report the storm general throughout that section of the state and immense damage done to crops and orchards.

Severe Heat in New York. NEW YORK, July 7.—In New York City at noon today the thermometer had registered 90 degrees, which is the highest temperature for any July month on record at the office of the local weather bureau. Today's humidity was 80 at 3 o'clock and it dropped to 68 at night, the same as it registered yesterday. It was considerably less early this morning after the shower had cooled the city, but it was a temporary relief. A dozen cases of heat prostrations were reported.
