HUBER'S FIGHT ON HARDEY

Alderman Makes Vigorous War Against the Street Supervisor.

ISSUES ORDERS WITHOUT AUTHORITY

Mayor Quoted as Having Said Things Which He Is Becoming Very Much Muddled.

Alderman Huber, chairman of the committee on streets and alleys, who is determined to get the official lead...

Mayor Jennings had issued no such order and that Alderman Huber must have labored under some misapprehension when he so stated to Supervisor Hardey.

Street Supervisor Hardey is keeping the sidewalk repair gang at work, but is not doing any work on the streets with the regular street gang, recognizing the authority of the chairman of the streets and alleys committee in this respect.

IOWA GUARD ENCAMPMENT

Busy Preparations Being Made at Red Oak for the Annual Gathering of Soldier Boys.

RED OAK, Ia., July 31.—(Special.)—General James Rush Lincoln, colonel of the Fifty-first regiment, Iowa National Guard, arrived Monday to superintend the establishment of Camp Walter Wagner at Patulous park. Major Hume of the adjutant general's office came Sunday with baggage for the camp. Today will see the camp prepared for the reception of the soldiers. The camp is ideally located on a level tract in the north part of Patulous park, inside the race track. Much of the drilling may be seen from the grandstand.

The first and third days the program will include battalion drills in the morning and regimental drill in the afternoon. The fourth, fifth and sixth days, morning battalion camp guard and drill, battalion outpost duty and battalion advance guard duty.

In the afternoons there will be regimental drills and maneuvers. Saturday morning there will be inspection before drill, followed by inspection of camp and grounds. Governor's day has not yet been set, but it is thought likely it will be Tuesday, August 7. The big day will, of course, be Wednesday, August 8, when the reunion of the Fifty-first Iowa United States Volunteers is expected to take place. One of the features will be a sham battle during the day, followed by a camp fire at night. A large attendance is looked for.

FAREWELL PARTY AT VILLAGE

VILLAGE, Ia., July 31.—(Special.)—T. A. Richey, for eighteen years a resident of this city and partner in the Richey Bros. flouring mill, is to move his family to Boulder, Colo. About 300 friends of the family went with filled baskets and surprised him this afternoon. The boys' trombone band serenaded them in the evening.
